Named Head Of Heart Drive

Mr. A. E. D'Ambrose, 120 West John St., Hicksville, has been named Assistant Heart Sunday County Chairman for the Mid-County Area for next month's 1964 Nassau County Heart Sunday appeal.

He will share the responsibility for planning and organizing a corps of volunteers who will participate in the "Heart Sunday" house-to-house visits that have become the traditional climax to the month-long February Heart Fund campaign.

The Nassau Heart Association is the only voluntary health organization in the county dedicated to combat heart and blood vessel diseases which account for more than 54 per cent of all deaths in the United States.

OLGA HOEBEL, chairman for the Studio Art Group, is exhibiting water colors and oil paintings until January 25 with the Studio Art Group at Hicksville Public Library. The exhibit is open to the public every afternoon from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. Thirty five guests attended the opening reception on January 9th in the auditorium of the library. While most of the paintings feature realism in art, modern art is also represented. They were painted by Hicksville residents and artists from surrounding communities. Olga Hoebel has paintings on exhibit at leading Long Island Art Galleries such as the Sirina Art Gallery, the center of Creative Art, Baldwin; the Whitman Art Center, Huntington Station and at the Hempstead Bank Art Gallery, Syosset. She conducts her own studio in Hicksville where she teaches painting. She is known for her paintings of the Adirondack Mountains and Long Island scenes as well as for her portraits. She has been in many group shows and has had three one-man shows.

Plainview Chamber Meets Jan. 22

Charles Voorhies, Secretary Manager of the Plainview Chamber of Commerce, has announced that a regular Membership Meeting of the Chamber will take place on Wednesday evening, January 22, at 6:00 PM at the Astro Lounge on South Oyster Bay Rd. Following the business meeting of the Chamber, the New York Telephone Co. will present a program of Long Island.

Meet Jan. 27

The monthly meeting of the East Nassau Chapter of the Catholic Nurses Association will be held Monday, January 27, at 8:30 PM at Central General Hospital in Plainview in the Medical Lecture Room (in the basement).

Discussion will be by a Doctor of Medicine from the Nassau County Board of Health on the problem "The Increase of Venereal Diseases in Teenagers."

All registered nurses are invited.

Citizen's Group Prepares Park Plans

Councilman Edmund A. Ocker today announced that the Citizens Advisory Committee working with him in the planning and development of an 8-acre parcel of land to be integrated with the Plainview-Old Bethpage Community's park and recreation system, will meet January 25 at the Park Dept. office on South Oyster Bay Road at 10 a.m.

The park tract is located off Haypath Road between Fairway Drive and East Park Drive and was acquired by the Town Board in 1962, on the recommendation of Mr. Ocker after he held a series of meetings with the residents of the community of Old Bethpage.

The Town Purchasing Dept. has called for sealed bids in February for fencing the perimeter of the proposed park.

Councilman Ocker said that the Committee can now begin to carry on intensive planning for the future use of this park area as an important adjunct to the existing park facilities in the community. "We have an outstanding group of interested citizens, and with the help of our park and recreation specialist, Mr. Peter Hussey, I am sure we can devise a development program that will best serve the needs of all of our homeowners in the immediate area," Councilman Ocker said.

Committee members are: Ted Knighton, Chairman; (Mrs.) Claire Salant, Norman Miller, Edward Baumgartner, Robert Henry and Henry Ovrut.

MR. & MRS. CARMINE PALACINO, of 7 Roy Avenue, Hicksville are photographed on board the Grace Line's Santa Rosa which sailed from New York on a 13-day cruise to Curacao, N.W.I.; La Guaira (Caracas); Venezuela; Aruba, N.W.I.; Kingston, Jamaica and Port Everglades (Fort Lauderdale-Miami), Florida, Nassau, San Juan and St. Thomas.

RUSSELL J. COLLINS, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell J. Collins of 15 Walnut Lane, Hicksville, has been appointed to the U.S. Coast Guard Academy, New London, Conn.

As a member of the Class of 1967, he will receive a Bachelor of Science degree and will be commissioned as an officer in the Coast Guard on completion of the four-year college curriculum.

Golden Wedding Couple Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. William Aufenanger, 30 Bridal Lane, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Carmody, 5 Fairview Ct., Mr. and Mrs. John Haughey, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kalleita, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Krywak, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Rettberg, Mr. and Mrs. John Stempfen of Hicksville, and Mr. and Mrs. Attilio Spinetta of Bethpage, were among the Catholic couples from Nassau and Suffolk Counties who were invited to take part in a special ceremony at St. Agnes Cathedral, Rockville Centre, Jan. 12, honoring them on having been married 50 or more years.

The Most Rev. Walter

P. Kellenberg, Bishop of the Diocese of Rockville Centre, presided at the ceremony which was sponsored by the Diocesan Christian Family Movement and marked the Feast of the Holy Family. This is the third consecutive year that Bishop Kellenberg has honored golden anniversary couples.

The Bishop gave each couple his special blessing and presented each with a commemorative scroll. The Rev. John J. Fee, pastor of St. Boniface Martyr Church, Sea Cliff, preached the sermon. He also is diocesan director of the Legion of Mary.

"Some of those honored have been married as long as 60 or more years," said the Very Msgr. Joseph F. Lawlor, diocesan director of the Christian Family Movement. "Each is permitted to be honored but once."

During the ceremony, the couples renewed their marriage vows in a body.

With Eastern

Mr. Frank K. Lackert of Bethpage, has accepted a position as Counter Sales Agent with Eastern Air Lines at Idlewild in New York City, according to word received from the Graduate Service Department of Northwest Schools, Portland, Oregon.

He is a student of Northwest in the Airline Division and recently completed his resident instruction in their Chicago School.

Lackert is the son of Mr. & Mrs. Lackert, Sr., 18 Ellen Street, Bethpage and graduated from Bethpage High School.

Hicksville School Board Attempts To "Assassinate" Local Freedom of the Press

When John F. Kennedy was assassinated, a nation grieved.

Some persons never stirred from their homes for days, even to shop for the ordinary necessities of life. They stayed glued to their television sets watching the pictorial history of the sad events that followed unfold before their eyes.

A whole nation had suddenly come to a halt for several days.

But not so Hicksville; not so the Hicksville School Board.

The Board had $2,276,000 in building and other propositions slated for a referendum the day after the assassination. Did the Board call off this referendum while a whole nation mourned, even including most of the citizens of Hicksville?

Oh, no. The Board went on. It saw VICTORY --

Victory for the $1-million-plus proposition for classrooms which the McCormick Report, had advised the Board not to build for five years, and victory for the $823,000 proposition for an administration building, despite the McCormick Report call for converting the Nicholas St. School into an administration building, a saving to the district of about $700,000.

But the Hicksville School Board achieved its twin victories.

Not only was a President beloved to a nation assassinated, here in the environs of Hicksville a concept has been put to death. And the two events are related.

No bomb has blown apart that concept. No assassin's bullet laid it low. Still, it has been killed off just as effectively.

For the Hicksville School Board, the duly elected representatives (or is it "misrepresentatives"?) of the people of Hicksville, because it objected to a MID-ISLAND TIMES editorial spanking the Board for holding a referendum the day after the assassination, decided by a 5-0 vote (Trustee Bruno was unable to be present) not to place any further legal advertising in the MID-ISLAND TIMES, the newspaper that carried the "offending" editorial.

The implication is unmistakable. It's clear as day.

The Hicksville School Board has said, in effect, to the Litmor chain of news papers; owners of the TIMES: "Unless you print editorials which please us, this Board will not place any legal advertising in your newspaper."

As editor Robert Morgan has intimated, were a newspaper to accept legal advertising on that basis, it would be tantamount to accepting bribes. In fact, it would be far worse than accepting bribes; it would be equivalent to selling out the best interests of the community. For, under such a state of affairs, a school board would not actually be buying legal advertising space; it would be buying a favorable editorial policy. And the truth be damned, as damned it often is.

What this all boils down to is that an honest newspaper can't even tell the people the truth about school board activities without being penalized by having school district legal advertising withdrawn.

(Parenthetically, when a school board wants to spend your money for buildings, etc., it must advertise for bids, advertise upcoming referendums, etc. This is known as "legal advertising.")

What do I, an American citizen who has for so many years rubbed elbows with the administrators of justice, think about this overt attempt, openly admitted by Trustee George Kunz, the author of the motion seeking to kill off freedom of the press in Hicksville, to assassinate the right of the press to speak its mind freely, unfettered and uncensored by any agency of government?

I think this whole odious affair, because of the implications that the local press can or should allow itself to be bought, is fodder for the grand jury.

Do not you, the residents of Hicksville, think that the grand jury of this county should investigate many facets of Hicksville School District operations: (1) The continuing purchase of paper in the face of Trustee Bruno's claim that the district still has paper on hand bought under the 1959-60 school budget; (2) whether any district moneys have in the past been unlawfully disbursed for advertising or anything else; and (3) the illegal pledging of school district funds (taxpayers' money), without the consent of the taxpayers, in the purchase by the Library Board of a house and lot which a Supreme Court judge later called "illegal"?

Always remember that the Hicksville School Board either knew or should have known that the purchase of that house and lot was illegal BEFORE it authorized a referendum to put the voters'

"blessing" on an illegal act, because the School Board employs counsel at district expense.

Should not the grand jury of this county investigate the Hicksville School Board's actions? This is a matter for you, the taxpayers of Hicksville, to determine.

Thinking It Over

by Robert L. Morgan

I was quite angry with the Hicksville School Board the other night. A page devoted to this question will be found elsewhere in this edition.

The anger seemed to increase in listening to one of the school board members, Mr. George Kunz reiterate and try to justify his attempt to control the press through the purchase of legal advertising with tax money. It seemed a little pathetic also that the other members of the school board didn't quite comprehend the importance of this issue. The few dollars involved will not be fatal to this newspaper in fact more will be spent to fight the control than the revenue that might be derived. And the issue certainly is not whether you agree or disagree with the thoughts in this column.

But the issue is most certainly whether the school board member who gave his reasons in no uncertain terms can be allowed to use his office to stifle criticism of himself or his colleagues on the board. If he has this power then no one will be able to publish anything that does not agree with the official body and the taxpayer will once again be the loser.

As an added thought aside from the above problem in applying the penalty to the Mid Island Times Mr. Kunz is making the school district taxpayers pay higher rates (nearly double) for a legal advertising notice that in many ways is just a legal formality. The concept of the lowest bidder seems to be flexible when someone disagrees with the Board.

While Mr. Kunz presently appears to have the upperhand in wielding his small powers, we doubt very much that democracy has slipped so badly that this wrong can be perpetuated.

No Productivity Causes Overweight

By C. A. Dean, M.D.

(Q) "I started to have a weight problem about 3 years ago after I was put on tranquilizers for a nervous condition. I have always lived with my parents and have never worked. I am 34 years old. My mother talks about the food situation at every meal so I am quite annoyed. Diet sheets don't help. Can you advise me?" Mrs. MC.

(A) Staying at home at your age and not working is your whole problem. It is probably the cause of your nervousness as well as your overweight. Find a job as soon as you can. Seek help from your religious adviser if needed. If you find happiness in your work and new acquaintances, your need for tranquilizers will cease.

MEDITORIAL: As cancer research continues, slow but sure progress is being made. Laboratory rat studies with leukemia, a very common cause of death in young children, recently revealed good success with a new treatment. It is a combination of drugs given internally and radiation to the spinal cord. Investigation revealed that the drugs given into the blood stream could not reach the spinal cord where the cancer cells had spread. Thus the disease always came back after treatment. Whether this new treatment will be successful in humans has yet to be discovered.

There is a certain type of rare cancer of the stomach, known as a leiomyosarcoma, that is fatal after a very few months of discovery in most of its victims. Ten patients, all females, with this disease were treated with a new drug, vincristine. In all ten cases there have been no signs of cancer for a year or more, which is remarkable indeed. No permanent cure has been promised for these patients but all fingers are crossed.

Punishing The Smut Peddlers

By Russell Kirk

Even though Federal and State Courts, in the past several years, have made it much easier to publish and distribute anything with a claim to be "literature" -- regardless of the coarseness of expression in such a book or periodical -- our courts are not ready to sanction the merchants of obscenity. A hardening of courts' attitudes toward pornographers is suggested in two recent convictions.

In western Michigan, a band of California distributors of printed nastiness have been found guilty of breaking federal law, because their wares violate the local standards of decency. In vain have these pornographers tried to get their case transferred to California. Probably their sentences will not be light.

In Philadelphia, the notorious Ralph Ginzburg, who has published Eros, called "pornography for snobs," has now been sentenced, after conviction in June. Ginzburg could have received a total of 140 years in prison and fines of $500,000, on the twenty-eight counts of mailing obscene literature of which he was found guilty. Actually, a federal judge sentenced him to five years, fined him $28,000, and fined two affiliated corporations a total of $14,000.

As a United States attorney stated, "Ginzburg is not the ordinary back-room peddler of smut. He is worse." No society ever totally eliminates dirty books and pictures. But attempts to make obscenity "smart" and generally acceptable can do much harm, unless the law is invoked.

Discussion about censorship and obscenity often is badly confused. At Whitehall, Michigan, for instance, the school board recently ordered Kantor's novel Andersonville removed from the required-reading list in classes. This book, with many four-letter words in certain passages, is a realistic novel by a reputable middle-brow writer. But students had been extracting, and snarling about, the dirty words. It seems to me that the school board was right in removing the book from required reading, and in reproving the teacher who prescribed it; but also the board was right in retaining a copy of the book in the school library. Books which do little harm to the taste of adults may not be suitable for juveniles; and while a book may have its place for special reading, and ought to be available, nevertheless it may be inadvisable to use it for classroom discussion. No teacher has a rigid right to impose his "liberal" notions of decency upon students, school boards, and parents: that would be an abuse of academic freedom at that level.

As this columnist has written earlier, on the other hand over-zealous champions of decency have done many silly things in the last two or three years -- trying to ban (and sometimes succeeding) such fine books as The Scarlet Letter, Huckleberry Finn, and even Little Black Sambo. What we require is imaginative discrimination, in this realm. There really is a difference between D. H. Lawrence and Ralph Ginzburg.

'Skip' Orr To Be Feted By Youth Council Assn.

Of all the athletes who have come out of the Wantagh-Levittown area of Nassau County the most famous is Ed (Skip) Orr, the tremendous pass-catching halfback on Navy's fine football team. Orr will be the guest of honor at the fourth annual Levittown-Island Trees Youth Council Sports Night to be held Saturday, Feb. 1st at MacArthur High School in Levittown.

Orr, 20, not only was Navy's best pass catcher during a 9-1 season and a trip to the Cotton Bowl in Dallas to face Texas on New Year's Day but he was also one of the best receivers in the country. Skip caught 25 passes, 12 more than Navy's next best pass receivers, fullback Pat Donnelly and end Jim Campbell, during the regular season of 10 games. Orr gained 321 of Navy's 1690 aerial yards and had a big hand in the successful passing of Heisman winner Roger Staubach. Roger completed 107 passes and Ed Orr pulled in 25 of them. In the Cotton Bowl, Orr set a record with nine receptions for nine first downs. Orr spent the Christmas holidays with his parents,

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. A. Orr at 7 Downhill Lane, Wantagh. His next visit here will be on Feb. 1 through the courtesy of the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis. Academy officials are happy to learn Orr is being honored in his home area.

Orr's athletic efforts at Navy have been followed closely by Levittown teachers for it was in the district that Skip Orr had his elementary schooling. He then went to Chamade High School in Mineola where he was the Flyers' star quarterback in 1959 and 1960. He was rated second in the county as a football player his final year. The top athlete was Rollie Stichweh, then at Mineola High. Stichweh is Army's star quarterback and comes from Williston Park.

Although Orr and Stichweh scrimmaged together several times their first actual football game as rivals was in the last Army-Navy clash in Philadelphia. Orr played well in the 21-16 Navy victory.

In Orr's first varsity game for Navy last fall he had a big hand in the Middle's 51-7 triumph over West Virginia. He caught a 26-yard Staubach pass for Navy's first touchdown, the only one he was to score on a forward pass all season. He caught six other passes in that game for a total of 89 yards. His second and last TD of the campaign also came against West Virginia. He intercepted a pass and ran 52 yards for a third-period score.

Orr, a junior at a compact 183 pounds, has another football season remaining at Navy. However, before he becomes an Ensign on graduation day in June of 1965 he will have played two more baseball seasons as an outfielder.

Skip bats left-handed and because Navy faced a number of southpaw pitchers last spring, Orr saw little action in baseball. He appeared mainly in pinch-hitting roles or as a late-inning defensive replacement. He got in seven games and made one hit in eight times at bat. He had one run batted in and one stolen base. In the outfield he made four putouts without an error.

He probably will bat third ahead of center fielder (and quarterback) Roger Staubach next spring. But for Staubach's tremendous football ability, Orr might have been the Navy quarterback. Staubach, 21, had an extra year of football at New Mexico Military Institute before going to Navy.

FORD WINS "CAR OF THE YEAR" AWARD

For building total performance into every one of their cars—the Ford Division was honored by Motor Trend Magazine's 1964 Car of the Year Award. This is a remarkable testimonial to the big change that's taken place in Fords. For more proof that Fords have changed, come in and test-drive a total performance car from Ford today.

Fairlane Custom Ranch Wagon

Ford Galaxie 500/XL 2-Door Hardtop

Foreground—total performance cars from Ford. Background—George Washington Bridge.

For "engineering advancement in the concept of total performance as proved in open competition." That's how Motor Trend magazine's citation to Ford reads. If total performance is what you want in a new car, drive an all-new Falcon, Fairlane, or Super Torque Ford—the big change cars for '64.

CHANGE? Look at Ford's new look! There's no warmed-over styling here. There's a choice of four Super Torque Ford hardtops alone—with distinctive rooflines for 2- and 4-door models. There are restyled Falcon and Fairlane hardtops, too.

CHANGE? Look at Ford's performance record! Ford's all-out "260" V-8 helped Falcon to impressive wins in international rallies! Fairlane's engine supplied the basic design that made Cobra the sports car winner of the year. And rugged, durable Super Torque Fords won every 500-mile stock car race last year. That's total performance! Competition cars are modified for a particular event. But the lessons learned helped build a new kind of stamina and agility into the '64s from Ford!

CHANGE? Take a look at Ford's new features! There's a remarkable choice of luxury, convenience and power options. Engines range right up to the High Performance 425-hp V-8! There's a 3-speed automatic. Exclusive Swing-Away steering wheel. Convenience lights even on the doors. Many of these features are standard on Super Torque Ford XL's.

CHANGE? There's only one way to really appreciate how much Fords have changed. Test-drive a '64 from Ford soon—you'll see a brand of total performance that's totally new!

Who buys more Savings Bonds?

As statistical-minded as we are today, the Treasury Department can't answer that question.

The Treasury does know that U. S. Savings Bonds are owned by tens of millions of families. So it might be safe to assume that people in every walk of life belong to this "savings club."

This is a happy fact for the United States, and for the free peoples of the earth. For Savings Bond dollars are playing an important role today in the making of history.

This $46 billion reserve in the government's hands is the result of a day to help our country in the major struggle to defend freedom.

At the same time, Savings Bonds help build your personal purchasing power by paying good interest and providing a method of saving that's unconditionally safe and readily cashable. And the higher your purchasing power, the better it speaks for our system.

It all adds up to one of the best ways you can save money and at the same time help your country. Start buying Bonds next payday—through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work, or from any bank—and see if you don't feel pretty good about it.

Quick facts about U. S. Savings Bonds

- You get $4 for every $3 at maturity
- Your Bonds are replaced free if lost, stolen or destroyed
- You can get your money anytime
- You can save automatically on Payroll Savings

AN ATTEMPT BY A SCHOOL BOARD MEMBER TO CONTROL THE PRESS!

THIS EDITORIAL BROUGHT REPRISALS

THINKING IT OVER

by ROBERT L. MORGAN

Many people in Hicksville were surprised to find that the School Board held a referendum on Saturday morning after the assassination of the President. Practically everything else was cancelled out of respect for the President. We suspect that the people backing the building expansion did not want to forsake the possibility that in postponing the election that it might be defeated by a large turnout.

If the District did intend to go ahead with the referendum it might have sent out a sound truck and had it announced on the various radio stations. Most people were listening to radio or TV anyway and they would have heard that the vote would go on as scheduled. That is if the Board really wanted a big vote on the issue.

The groups for bigger, and they say better schools show some inconsistency to the children when they will use a day of national mourning to achieve their goals.

SERIOUS THREATS

Remarks of School Board member George W. Kunz asking for a School Board motion to penalize the Mid Island Times

"Mr. Chairman, I think as policy we designated two official (advertising) newspapers, one being the Mid Island Herald and the other the Mid Island Times, and up until two weeks ago, in my opinion there was no objection on my part. But having been shocked by something I read as an editorial by the Mid Island Times the week after our referendum which practically implied that the Board held the referendum on the Saturday following the president's assassination, practically implied that we arranged for it just so that we could get our referendum passed. I would like to see the policy changed with respect to the Mid Island Times being designated as an official (advertising) newspaper of this district. I don't mind saying before the public that I thought the editorial was one of the worst pieces of journalism I have seen and I think it impugned the motives of the Board members. I think it was a disgrace to the people of Hicksville and for that reason I don't see any reason why we should have to continue to have to keep this newspaper as an official (advertising) newspaper of this district."

"As an alternate I would suggest, in line with Mr. Lawrence's suggestion right now that we designate the Long Island Press as an alternate for the remainder of this fiscal year until our next annual meeting."

and CONFIRMING LETTERS

Litmor Publications, Inc.
Hicksville, New York

Dear Sir:

It is obvious that you have been misinformed as to the real reason for my motion. It was not motivated by the bill submitted.

In the interest of fairness, I will propose that the Board give you time to render a personal explanation of your position on the real issue involved—if you indicate that you will attend our next meeting on January 10.

Please let me know no later than January 3rd.

George W. Kunz

Litmor Publications
Hicksville, New York

Dear Mr. Morgan:

The motion I made to the Board—which passed unanimously—actually turned on the word "fair." It dealt with the editorial you wrote the week after our referendum which I hardly thought was "fair."

It is certainly not my intention to try to censor your editorials. You can write what you wish. But when, in my judgement, you unfairly impugn the motives of the Board in the manner you did then I hardly think you can expect the Board to take it kindly.

If you have some explanation or apology, I will certainly consider it in the light of fairness. I realize the President's assassination affected us all very deeply, but I think an Editor has more responsibility than was shown by your editorial.

Yours sincerely,

George W. Kunz

... and OUR ANSWER

I have not come before this Board tonight to apologize for any opinions that I have written. I am here to demand the resignation of Mr. George W. Kunz from this School Board. Mr. Kunz has misused his office and committed an act which is in the nature of bribery. It is an act that cannot be condoned by anyone and will bring disgrace upon the Board of Education.

It was with shock and amazement that I read a letter from Board member Kunz suggesting that I might come to this Board meeting and apologize for editorial opinions I had written in the Mid Island Times. These opinions questioned the propriety of holding balloting on the school referendum on the Saturday after Pres. Kennedy was assassinated.

The shock was that I never suspected Mr. Kunz who has been elected to the Board of Education in Hicksville would take it upon himself to influence a newspaper and actually distort the contents of a newspaper editorial.

The shock was intensified when in listening to the recorded minutes of the meeting of December 13, that Mr. Kunz would dare to openly state that this was a reason for withdrawing legal advertising from the newspaper.

I want Mr. Kunz to know without reservation that it is not his place to direct the editorial policy of any newspaper and that if the position he was elected to on the School Board by a narrow margin, has so inflated his ego that he believes he has this power, he has much to learn. It is a breach of office for any member of a School Board to suggest that in addition to purchasing something—in this case advertising—that he is entitled to something extra. This is a misuse of public office. The School Board and Mr. Kunz have no reason to expect any special treatment by newspapers that they by law place advertising in. If this were the case there would be no criticism of any public office and no newspapers worth printing.

In the case of a Board of Education trying to establish this practice it is even worse. They are supposed to represent the highest goals of education which must of necessity be in accord with the Constitution of the United States. To blatantly attempt to control newspapers with tax money is incongruous.

The facts are clearcut in this case and beyond debate. Mr. Kunz even confirmed in letters to the newspaper that he was penalizing it for its editorial and that it would get what he calls "fair treatment"—that is the Board would buy the usual advertising space—if the editorials were friendly. There is no way that the Commissioner of Education can approve of this. It is wrong, disgraceful and a misuse of public office. If Mr. Kunz does not voluntarily resign, we are sure he will be ousted.

In order to help bring this about more quickly we will reprint the editorial which was attacked—Mr. Kunz letters to the newspaper, our answer and a coupon to the Commissioner of Education asking that he act on this with due speed. This material will run each week where space is available until the school budget vote at the end of the year or until Mr. Kunz resigns.

In order to divorce this issue from a monetary one, the Mid Island Times has decided not to accept any more legal advertising from the Hicksville School District for the remainder of this fiscal year, regardless of whether the action of the Board is reversed or not.

To: Commissioner of Education
James E. Allen, Jr.
Albany 1, N. Y.

THE ATTEMPT TO INTIMIDATE AND SUBJUGATE THE MID ISLAND TIMES IS SHOCKING. Please advise the Hicksville School Board that it is a misuse of Public Office Funds.

The combination of violent tempers and mutual attraction which ruined their marriage is still working away in this scene from "Mary, Mary", where Barry Nelson and Debbie Reynolds, portraying a New York executive and his divorced wife, meet on a weekend. Nelson and Miss Reynolds co-star with Michael Rennie, Hiram Sherman and Diane McBain in the hilarious new Warner Bros. Technicolor comedy which opens Wednesday, January 15, at the Hicksville, Meadowbrook and Mid Island Theatres. Mervyn LeRoy produced and directed "Mary, Mary" for the screen.

Keep your mind on the road, not on your troubles. Don't worry about business, the family, or what may happen tomorrow. Keep alert to what's happening now. Good driving's a full-time job requiring an alert mind and body. If you must worry, do it in your leisure time.

WHEN YOU DRIVE...

Think now, complain later. "Mad" at someone or something? Turn it off when you turn your ignition on. Anger, no matter who or what it's directed at, can color your whole driving attitude, making you a menace to other motorists on the road.

THINK

Think wise... think cagey... think careful, cautious, cheerful, courteous driving. Good driving is the responsibility of every motorist. A cheerful attitude toward others on the road will get you to your destination more relaxed than if you find fault with every driver along the way. Think careful driving when you're behind the wheel. And, when you think of protection against the hazards of other not-so-careful drivers, think of State Farm, the careful driver's insurance company.

OOPS..

We did it again!

We're the first to admit that we build 2-wheel drive trucks differently from anyone else. You may call it building them backwards... or upside down... or even sideways. Whatever you choose to call it, it's a fact that we do build them differently. But we do it for a very good reason.

We do it because we think 2-wheel drive trucks should be just as rugged as 4-wheel drive trucks. So we start out by actually building a 4-wheel drive 'Jeep' Gladiator truck, but without the transfer case and front end power train. And there you have it... a 2-wheel drive 'Jeep' Gladiator truck with all the heavy duty components and ruggedness of a 4-wheel drive truck.

Sure, it's doing things differently. But it results in a big bonus for the Gladiator owner... especially since prices* are competitive, too.

Why not see your 'Jeep' dealer today and get all the facts.

'Floating Geezle' By School Students

The Hicksville Public Schools will give the premier performance of the children's operetta, "The Floating Geezle," by Douglas Townsend and Oscar Brand, on January 17th. The production will be staged in the Senior High School Auditorium at 8:30 PM by William Goleeks, Supervisor of Vocal Music.

Elementary school children from eight schools in Hicksville were auditioned for the five lead parts and for the chorus of thirty young voices. Those chosen have been rehearsing for several weeks.

The Art and Drama Departments have been lending their support and technical assistance by helping with costumes, make-up, scenery and stage construction.

The lead parts are to be done by Allison Giordano, John Neidecker, Michael Szczesniak, Eve Buckner and Stephen Bereson.

Sonya Burakoff, friend of the composer, will be the piano accompanist.

This system-wide project has the full support of the Administration of the Hicksville Public Schools headed by Donald F. Abt, Superintendent of Schools.

Inasmuch as this production lasts just a little over twenty minutes, the Advanced Chorus and Instrumental Ensembles from the Hicksville Senior High School will assist.

from HICKSVILLE, to be guests at their next meeting. The program for the evening of Monday, January 20, at the John F. Kennedy Junior High School will be "A Preview Tour of the 1964-1965 New York World's Fair." The film will be shown by a representative of the New York Telephone Company Program Bureau to whom the girls wish to extend their "Thanks" for making such a program possible.
