MISS JOAN KRVY, right, teacher at Central Park Road School in Plainview, and 4th grade pupil James Hillaby, 9, examine the complex projector in the new planetarium of Roosevelt Junior-Senior High School, Roosevelt, as James H. Gaddy, chairman of the science department and also Planetarium Director, explains how it operates.

They were part of a group who last week attended a class specially planned for 4th graders at the planetarium, which has already conducted sessions for schools from more than 25 districts and other youth groups on Long Island since it officially began operations last September.

Kunz Loses Help In Penalizing Press

An attempt by School Board member George W. Kunz to gain more support from colleagues on the School Board in his action to change editorial policies of the Mid Island Times, met with small success at the meeting of the Hicksville Board of Education Friday evening.

Attempting to justify his recent actions in denying freedom of the press to the Mid Island Times under pain of losing advertising from the school district, Kunz began in a loud voice to read a prepared article on the subject. But having heard enough to know what was coming, Ed Van Allen, reporter for the newspaper, stood up and walked out of the meeting.

Somewhat shaken by the exit of the news reporter, Mr. Kunz was further antagonized when one school board member made a resolution to reinstate legal advertising in all Hicksville newspapers and the motion was seconded by another member. The motion failed to carry the needed votes for approval, but the action showed a declining spirit to back Mr. Kunz in his newspaper reprisal actions. Up until this meeting no motion had ever gained a second to restore the advertising. The move was academic anyway because owners of the Mid Island Times have stated publicly that they do not intend to accept any business from the Hicksville Board of Education until a new Board is seated next year.

Madden Named To Petito Group

Joseph F. Madden of Hicksville, director of recreation for the Hicksville School District and a trained professional on recreation programs, has been named to supervisor Petito's Citizens Cabinet. Mr. Madden, who lives at 8 Edgewood Dr., Hicksville, will be Chairman of the Recreation Committee in the Petito Cabinet. He is a graduate of Manhattan College and also holds a Masters Degree in Physical Education from Columbia University. His experience covers twelve years of planning recreation programs in several Long Island districts. In 1962 Mr. Madden established overseas recreation facilities in Sarawak and Borneo while working on special assignments for the U.S. State Department.

To Probe Warehouse- Public Uninvited

By Edward J. Van Allen

The Hicksville School Board decided last Saturday to conduct an on-the-spot inspection of the district warehouse on Duffy Avenue, tomorrow night. But the public is not invited.

The move was viewed as a stunning victory for the Board's lone minority trustee, William A. Bruno, Jr., who had focused public attention on the "mountains of supplies" at the warehouse in a series of articles in the Mid-Island Times almost a year ago.

The Board which a few short weeks ago tried to suppress local freedom of the press by voting not to place taxpayer-paid-for legal advertising in the Mid-Island Times because the Board objected to a recent Times editorial was clearly on the defensive last Friday night. But by 1:05 A.M. Saturday it had not reached agreement on when to conduct what Bruno has called a "waste-probe" of the warehouse. "Human error" was assigned as the reason for the presence of huge supplies of unused paper, bought under the 1958-1959 school budget, in the reuse warehouse on Duffy Avenue. Business Manager Anthony Gorozynski offered that explanation to the Board when he and Superintendent of Schools Donald F. Abt were queried on the subject.

Some Board members appeared visibly shaken by the group of pictures in last week's Mid-Island Times graphically showing new, but defective textbooks never returned for refund; tremendous quantities of unused paper now five years old; a dental chair estimated to be worth about $8,000; and piles upon piles of desks and chairs gathering dust at the warehouse. Despite the usable furniture on hand, Code 5 of the budget proposes spending $2,760 to buy more desks and chairs similar to those pictured.

When Bruno questioned the spending of $21,000 more for paper supplies in spite of the huge quantities of paper on hand, Mr. Abt said that $21,000 was for a full year's supply of paper. Gorozynski said because of paper shortages in prior years, it was Board policy to keep at least a three-month supply on hand at all times.

Bruno got some unexpected support from majority Trustee Neil McCormack, who said at one point: "I agree with Mr. Bruno. I don't think we should buy any more paper until this is clarified."

Last week's story noted that Superintendent Abt had objected to Bruno's appearance at the warehouse with a photographer who Abt claimed was "formerly of the Certified Detective Bureau, Inc."

In the past, Abt has tried to curb Bruno's habit of revealing public information about the school district to the press. Abt has frequently stamped district correspondence and memoranda "Privileged and Confidential" in an obvious bid to keep the contents secret.

Recently, an attorney told this reporter that such documents are district property, not Abt's private property, and that Abt cannot lawfully use the stamping device to conceal public records.

Board President George Jackson used the "Privileged and Confidential" stamping device some weeks ago in announcing an executive session of the Board to discuss the possible appointment of a replacement for resigned Trustee D. F. Sabatella.

Sat. Night

Club Formed

The Saturday Night Club of Long Island is a newly organized group for the discussion of current events and the promotion of public speaking.

The first meeting held Saturday night, January 25, in the Levittown Library got off to an excellent start. The schedule consisted of a brief "get acquainted" period followed by introductory remarks outlining the purposes of the organization, discussion of topics of current general interest, plus the acquisition of grace, skill and ease in public speaking. These objectives will be attained by actual practice on the floor. Inexperienced members may speak from their seats until they acquire sufficient confidence to address the audience from the platform. At each meeting of the club, a different member will be selected to serve as chairman, thus affording all members excellent training in parliamentary procedures and leadership.

The type of programs for future meetings include prepared and impromptu addresses, debates, round table discussions, and short papers by members specially qualified in some particular field. Presentation, about 20 to 30 minutes to be followed by general discussion.

These matters, which evoked numerous suggestions were followed by discussion of current events. Among the subjects considered were suspension of uprising in Tanganyika, Uganda and Kenya by a contingent of 400 British troops. The speaker was Robert G. Swartz.

The next topic was invitation to a New Nazi rabble rouse, (who shall be nameless) to address students on the Campus of Hofstra University. This was led off by Dr. Nathaniel Steinberg. The debate took on all the aspects of a vigorous round table discussion, during which questions of freedom of speech and press, censorship, educational policy, and trustee responsibility were tossed back and forth.

The final current event was presented by Dr. Louis H. Schwartz. His subject was the Attorney General's report on tobacco which created reverberations heard round the world. The speaker berated the tobacco industry for treating the public like morons by conveying the impression that cigarette smoking was actually conducive to health and happiness, and for misleading young stars via TV with scenes of gorgeous bathing beauties hugging and embracing robust Apollos in an ecstasy of bliss-on-earth all because of the pleasures derived from smoking cigarettes.

The enthusiasm displayed by all who participated in the program of the evening was highly contagious. Practically everybody took the floor and said they enjoyed it immensely.

Among those present at this meeting were: Mr. Robert S. Arthur, Mr. & Mrs. Donald Kramer, Mrs. Jeanne D'Ambrose, Mr. & Mrs. Robert G. Swartz, Mr. & Mrs. Donald Krassow, Rabbi & Mrs. Nathaniel Steinberg, Dr. Louis H. Schwartz, Miss Doris Aaronson and Mrs. J. Baron.

The public is cordially invited. Adults only. Next meeting - Saturday, Feb. 15 at 8:30 PM, Room B, Levittown Public Library 1 Blue Grass Lane, Levittown. The program will be posted in the lobby of the Levittown Library, or call Mrs. Donald Krassow, Secretary - PY 6-6910.

Chamber Recital

At High School

On the evening of Feb. 17, the Music Department at Hicksville High School will present the advanced solo and ensemble pieces of J. David Abt, Charles L. Arnold, Thomas A. Buttice and R. G. Pellerin in a Chamber Recital of historical importance. The program will span 400 years of music.

An unusual feature of this year's program will be some 16th century Tower Music, which originally served to herald coming events, time of day, etc., will again be heard from a specially constructed medieval tower. Medieval and Elizabethan music will open and close the recital.

Program highlights: a set of Baroque pieces by the Advanced Chorus, a modern quintet for Saxophones by Henry Mancini, a 14-piece clarinet ensemble, double brass choirs, and a percussion number calling for 28 instruments. Soloists will be Fred Korman, oboe; Cynthia Avenius and Linda Haas, clarinets; Allen Kanter, violin; Katherine Sumrow, flute; and Melville Bienenfeld, horn.

From the time of its inception 5 years ago, it was the desire of Leon Galloway, principal, to make this series of recitals the most important musical contribution of the school to the community. There is no admission charge. The date: February 17, at the Hicksville High School Auditorium.

Want Public To See School Warehouses

William A. Bruno Jr. today called upon the president of the Hicksville School Board, George A. Jackson to hold an open public meeting and inspection of the school warehouse on Duffy Avenue, Hicksville. After an investigation of the warehouse spurred by Mr. Bruno and this newspaper, photos of what appeared to be over-supplies of books, paper, chairs and other equipment were printed. But the Mid-Island Times learned today that the School Board had decided not to make the warehouse meeting public.

Text of the letter by Mr. Bruno to Mr. Jackson follows:

Mr. George Jackson,
President

Dear Mr. Jackson:

As the lone minority member of the Hicksville School Board, I urge you to arrange for a public meeting of the Board at the Duffy Avenue warehouse rented by this district.

The purpose of the meeting would be to let the taxpayers of Hicksville bear witness in person to the mountains of unused equipment and materials on hand at the warehouse, including tons of paper, some of it bought under the 1958-59 school budget, and damaged text books never returned for refund, not to mention perfectly good textbooks cast aside because of the apparently frenzied drive to waste taxpayers' money in this district.

This proposed meeting at the warehouse would give the taxpayers a first-hand opportunity to investigate waste in this district for themselves.

I note that Superintendent of Schools, Donald F. Abt, objected to my appearance at the warehouse last week with a photographer who Abt claims was formerly employed by the Certified Detective Bureau.

What's the complaint, do you know? Is there anything wrong with taking a look at a place in which public stores are stored? Or is Mr. Abt trying to hide something as he does when he marks school communications - "privileged and confidential" to keep the public from knowing their contents?

These are matters you and the other five majority members of the Board should seriously consider. At any rate, you and your five Board partners can best show your good faith in this matter by holding an on-the-scene public meeting at the warehouse within the next two weeks.

Let's find out who's hiding what from whom in the Hicksville School District.

Sincerely,
/s/ William A. Bruno, Jr.
Member

Lenten Regulation For Local Catholic Parishioners

Thousands of local Catholics will flock to all 119 Catholic Churches in the Diocese of Rockville Centre, which includes Hicksville, Plainview, Bethpage, Syosset and all communities in Nassau and Suffolk counties, on Feb. 12 to take part in the traditional Ash Wednesday rite of receiving ashes placed on their foreheads.

The day begins the penitential season of Lent and the priest's words as he places the ashes on each person's forehead in the form of a cross are: "Remember man, that dust thou art and to dust thou shalt return."

The Very Rev. Msgr. Richard J. J. Hanley, Director of the diocesan Bureau of Public Information, said that these words recall the primacy of man's soul over his body.

"They set the spirit of penance and of reparation for sin," Bishop Kellenberg asked Long Island

Christians prepare for the commemoration of Christ's passion and death during Holy Week, and His Resurrection on Easter Sunday.

The Most Rev. Walter P. Kellenberg, Bishop of the Diocese of Rockville Centre, has asked Nassau and Suffolk County Catholics to do more than merely observe the Church laws governing fasting and abstaining from eating meat during Lent.

"To foster the spirit of penance and of reparation for sin," Bishop Kellenberg asked Long Island

Catholics to voluntarily attend daily Mass and to receive Communion frequently.

He also asked them, "to take part more frequently in exercises of piety, to give generously to works of religion and charity, to perform acts of kindness toward the sick, the aged and the poor, to practice voluntary self-denial, especially regarding alcoholic drink and worldly amusement, and to pray more frequently, particularly for the intentions of the Holy Father."

Bishop Kellenberg also said that Catholics in the Diocese of Rockville Centre will be dispensed from the Lenten regulations on February 22 (Washington's Birthday); on March 17, Feast of St. Patrick; and on March 19 (Feast of St. Joseph).

He also has dispensed them from abstaining from meat on Holy Saturday, March 28, but not from fasting on that day. On Abstinence

1. Everyone over 7 years of age is bound to observe the law of abstinence.

2. Complete abstinence is to be observed on Fridays and Ash Wednesday. On days of complete abstinence, meat and soup or gravy made from meat may not be used at all.

3. Partial abstinence is to be observed on Ember Wednesday, February 19. On days of partial abstinence, meat and soup or gravy made from meat may be taken only once a day, at the principal meal.

On Fast

1. Everyone over 21 and under 59 years of age is also bound to observe the law of fast.

2. The days of fast are the weekdays of Lent, including Holy Saturday until midnight.

3. On days of fast, only one full meal is allowed. Two other light, meatless meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to each one's needs, but together they should not equal another full meal. Meat may be taken at the principal meal on a day of fast, except on Fridays and Ash Wednesday.

4. Eating between meals is not permitted; but liquids, including milk and fruit juices, are allowed.

5. When health or ability to work would be seriously affected, the law does not oblige. In doubt concerning fast or abstinence a parish priest or confessor should be consulted.

Mrs. Oliansky is taking a half year sabbatical to make a study of the school system at the secondary level in several countries in Europe. They are going to Switzerland, Italy, France, England, Scotland and Holland visiting several cities in each country.

Questions arising out of the investigation of Hicksville Schools storage warehouses are: Why does Hicksville spend $35,000 more on text books than East Meadow with 5,000 more children than Hicksville? And why did the Hicksville School Board not have an inventory of the books in this picture?

Thinking It Over

by Robert L. Morgan

It looks as though the Hicksville taxpayer will never know first hand what went wrong at the Hicksville School District's rented warehouse. Last week this newspaper ran a series of photos showing stacks of paper, books, furniture and other items stored in the Hicksville School warehouse while new supplies are being reordered regularly by the School Board.

The photos brought swift action at the Hicksville School Board meeting. The Board has decided to inspect the warehouse this Friday evening -- but the taxpaying public is not invited. We wonder why?

Many questions come to mind with this belated inspection. How could some of the same school board members go around making speeches at PTAs and other places favoring a new $450,000. warehouse administration building project a few months ago if they had never been inside of the warehouse in the first place? And if they had been inside of it how come they didn't see all of the things our photographer caught? And how can they approve bills for new supplies if they don't even know what is on hand now?

The answers to these questions and many more like them are needed to regain the loss in confidence that the public is experiencing in Hicksville.

With the type of work that is apparently being done by the present School Board, there will be little wonder if the tax paying public turns down the school budget in May, now being prepared by this same School Board.

Help Needed By Red Cross

Over 97,800 Nassau residents received direct service through the Nassau County Chapter of the American Red Cross in 1963. Because of the population explosion there is much to be done during the coming year to maintain this service.

There is an urgent need for volunteers who can enclose letters and folders for mailing to residents and businesses of Hicksville. Come to the Seaman & Eismann, Inc., building in the basement from 12:00 noon until 4:00 PM on the following dates: Thursday Feb. 13, Friday the 14, Monday Feb. 17, Tuesday the 18, Wednesday the 19, Thursday the 20 and Friday Feb. 21.

The following people have already volunteered: Mrs. Jane Schuster, Mrs. Helen Cornish, Mrs. Helen Swanson, Mrs. Thomas F. Is It Wrong To Be Passionate?

By Russell Kirk

For most people today, probably the word "passion" means either lust or violence. But really a passion may be ennobling -- or even the highest achievement possible to human flesh: the Passion of Christ, most notably.

Perhaps a people who have lost their capacity for passion have also lost greatness, high hope, and even the capacity for self-defense. If no man has a passion for justice, or order, or beauty, then fraud, anarchy, and ugliness will prevail.

Some very perceptive suggestions on this subject may be found in a new book by Dr. Ernest van den Haag, "Passion and Social Constraint." The versatile Mr. van den Haag is psychoanalyst, economist, sociologist, literary critic, and doctor of canon law, all rolled into one; and he writes well. Among other things, he points out that as modern democratic people have lost respect and desire for true status in society, and as we have ceased to seek definite roles for ourselves in life, both our sense of honor and our understanding of human dignity have diminished.

Instead of recognizing status-and role in society as essential for man, Dr. van den Haag says, we reduce nearly everything to a very low common denominator. To modern mass-man, even the Second Coming of Christ would seem "another barren thrill to be watched on television until the next newscast comes on."

Without passion, the heart goes out of a nation. "There are no chasms, no tragic passions. Instead we have maladjustments, anxieties, traffic accidents -- and soap operas to celebrate them. Beyond that, we find the grandeur of opera and of tragedy hard to take. It is too uncommon. Man elevated to the height of passion appears unreal and indigorous. We are accustomed to consider 'realistic' only an image of man reduced to squalor, or comfortable triviality. Prose, we believe, is somehow truer than poetry. This notion rests on a confusion of the familiar with the true; nonetheless, it may well drain the mind of its vision and make itself come true. Already aspiration, 'idealism,' largely aims at more comfort for more people." So Mr. Van den Haag puts it.

Once upon a time, I may add, there was much passion in these United States. But nowadays, dispassionately, we increase our creature-comforts, both through increased production and through government hand-outs. And meanwhile -- Americans being too much afraid of passion to do anything about it -- a Communist tyranny seventy miles from their shores -- a basely passionate ideologue like Castro is able to threaten our Panama Canal and to train thugs for massacres and revolutions in East Africa.

When noble passions are forgotten, evil passions thrive. When men no longer recognize the tragic passion, the gods of the copybook headings return with fire and sword to teach a decadent population that, after all, passion of one sort or another will endure to the world's end.

4-H Club Views Training

On Friday, January 17, the Helens 4-H, under the leadership of Mrs. Virginia Stone, went to Officers Training School, held at the Fern Place school in Plainview. The girls received individual instructions for their jobs and also pins according to the office which they held. Attending were: Gail Louis, president; Ginny Stone, vice president; Ruth Stone, secretary;

Kathy Finn, treasurer; Pam Roth, recreation; Dolores Gorssman, news reporter; and Kathy Musgrave, song leader.

The girls found this training course enjoyable as well as helpful.

Mothers Club Captures Interest

The fourth Monday of each month is fast becoming the highlights in the calendar of the members of the St. Ignatius Loyola Auxiliary of Christian Mothers. Appearances are put aside and mothers find reawakened interest in the affairs of the school and the education of their children.

Sister Venard explained the three drives that have been inaugurated this year for the benefit of the children of St. Ignatius. In order to familiarize them with good music, each classroom has its own record player and along with this the children have textbooks on the subject and are learning to read notes. On the First Saturday the "Little Choir" sang an entire Mass in Latin. The Remedial Reading Clinic is showing tremendous success, having about 225 pupils. There are some openings in the 6th, 7th and 8th year groups, but there is still quite a waiting list. Along with this clinic, there is a regular reading plan to encourage more rapid reading. Mrs. J. Frawley, one of the Hicksville Public Librarians, is to be commended for the time she gives each day in order to give the children a story-telling hour. The books she reads from are especially selected for each group from grades 1 through 8.

Father Goggin thanked Sister Venard anew for the wonderful job she and the teachers are doing. He also explained how, through active participation in the Mothers Auxiliary, we help the teachers to help "our children". The Skating Party of January 23rd was a complete sellout and most of those who were able to go (about 700) are hoping for a repeat sometime in February.

Of course the big event of the season is already upon us - the Winter Ball. On Feb. 7th, the school auditorium will be ablaze with lights while the strains of Art Swanson's orchestra set everyone's feet to dancing. This is not limited to members - all are welcome and a supper will be served later in the evening.

After the business meeting Mrs. Patrick McGee introduced the Very Rev. Monsgr. Michael J. McLaughlin. Monsignor is the Diocesan Director of Vocations and the Spiritual Director of the Immaculate Conception Seminary at Huntington. He spent over seventeen years as parish priest in St. Peter Claver's, Brooklyn, which more or less makes him an expert on his topic of the evening which was "Integration".

Monsgr. regretted that such a big subject could not adequately be covered at one meeting but he tried to hit a few of the highlights. He explained that the vast majority of the Negroes are not looking for any outstanding treatment different from their white neighbors. They just want the Civil Rights guaranteed to all by law. They want to attend an ordinary school, an ordinary restaurant, an ordinary department store, an ordinary hotel and live in an ordinary dwelling. Whereas all methods are not approved, and not all of their leaders can be defended in their actions, it must be remembered that over 100 years have passed since the Emancipation and in many places the Negro is still treated as a second class citizen.

Monsignor further explained how God gives certain potentials to all in the human race and said that reason and justice allows their develop-

A question and answer period followed wherein many other aspects of the subject were explored. The Princeton plan, Monsignor said, is not a true solution to the school integration problem because of the compulsory nature of it. Transporting children from one school district to another for proper schooling should only be done on a voluntary basis as complete cooperation is needed for such a program to work. In answer to the social mingling question, Monsignor said that a cultural level is the best at which both groups can admire and respect each other's mind and culture and through this a better understanding will develop.

Urge Burns For Executive

The Bethpage Republican Committee men's Council and the local Theodore Roosevelt Republican Club have unanimously endorsed John J. Burns as their preferred candidate for County Executive this fall, it was announced by Cliff Daley, Bethpage, G.O.P. executive committeeman.

The endorsement was significant because Assemblyman Edwin J. Fehrenbach is a leader in party affairs in the community and is a strong supporter of Burns.

Mr. Burns, a former supervisor of the Town, was vice chairman of the County Board of Supervisors when he resigned to accept appointment by Governor Rockefeller as Commissioner of the N.Y. State Office for Local Government. Mr. Burns was instrumental in discussions which led to the dedication by Grumman Corporation of the 18-acre site of the Bethpage Community Park and Pool now under construction on Stewart Avenue.

Joseph A. Ehman of Futura of Long Island, Inc., Hicksville, was host distributor at a two-day sales seminar held January 30 and 31 at Roslyn Heights by the International Swimming Pool Corporation.

Dealers and distributors from ten states attended the seminar which stressed sales points of the Futura prefabricated on-the-ground Redwood swimming pool. Seminar included a visit to 400 Duffy Avenue where Mr. Ehman's main office is located.

One of the leading on-the-ground pool distributors in the country, Mr. Ehman is considered an expert in local marketing techniques. One of his Futura pools is currently on exhibit at the Greater Long Island Boat Show at Roosevelt Raceway where it is being used to demonstrate the land-sea craft, Amphicar.

AN ATTEMPT BY A SCHOOL BOARD MEMBER TO CONTROL THE PRESS!

THIS EDITORIAL BROUGHT REPRISALS

THINKING IT OVER

by Robert L. Morgan

Many people in Hicksville were surprised to find that the School Board held a referendum on Saturday morning after the assassination of the President. Practically everything else was cancelled out of respect for the President. We suspect that the people backing the building expansion did not want to forsake the possibility that in postponing the election that it might be defeated by a large turnout.

If the District did intend to go ahead with the referendum it might have sent out a sound track and had it announced on the various radio stations. Most people were listening to radio or TV anyway and they would have heard that the vote would go on as scheduled. That is if the Board really wanted a big vote on the issue.

The groups for bigger, and they say better schools show some inconsistency to the children when they will use a day of national mourning to achieve their goals.

SERIOUS THREATS

Remarks of School Board member George W. Kunz asking for a School Board motion to penalize the Mid Island Times.

"Mr. Chairman, I think as policy we designated two official (advertising) newspapers, one being the Mid Island Herald and the other the Mid Island Times, and up until two weeks ago, in my opinion there was no objection on my part. But having been shocked by something I read as an editorial by the Mid Island Times the week after our referendum which practically implied that the Board held the referendum on the Saturday following the president's assassination, practically implied that we arranged for it just so that we could get our referendum passed. I would like to see the policy changed with respect to the Mid Island Times being designated as an official (advertising) newspaper of this district. I don't mind saying before the public that I thought the editorial was one of the worst pieces of journalism I have seen and I think it impugned the motives of the Board members. I think it was a disgrace to the people of Hicksville and for that reason I don't see any reason why we should have to continue to have to keep this newspaper as an official (advertising) newspaper of this district."

"As an alternate I would suggest, in line with Mr. Lawrence's suggestion right now that we designate the Long Island Press as an alternate for the remainder of this fiscal year until our next annual meeting."

and CONFIRMING LETTERS

Litmor Publications, Inc.
Hicksville, New York

Dear Sir:

It is obvious that you have been misinformed as to the real reason for my motion. It was not motivated by the bill submitted.

In the interest of fairness, I will propose that the Board give you time to render a personal explanation of your position on the real issue involved—if you indicate that you will attend our next meeting on January 10.

Please let me know no later than January 3rd.

George W. Kunz

Litmor Publications
Hicksville, New York

Dear Mr. Morgan:

The motion I made to the Board—which passed unanimously—actually turned on the word "fair." It dealt with the editorial you wrote the week after our referendum which I hardly thought was "fair."

It is certainly not my intention to try to censor your editorials. You can write what you wish. But when, in my judgement, you unfairly impugn the motives of the Board in the manner you did then I hardly think you can expect the Board to take it kindly.

If you have some explanation or apology, I will certainly consider it in the light of fairness. I realize the President's assassination affected us all very deeply, but I think an Editor has more responsibility than was shown by your editorial.

Yours sincerely,
George W. Kunz

... and OUR ANSWER

I have not come before this Board tonight to apologize for any opinions that I have written. I am here to demand the resignation of Mr. George W. Kunz from this School Board. Mr. Kunz has misused his office and committed an act which is in the nature of bribery. It is an act that cannot be condoned by anyone and will bring disgrace upon the Board of Education.

It was with shock and amazement that I read a letter from Board member Kunz suggesting that I might come to this Board meeting and apologize for editorial opinions I had written in the Mid Island Times. These opinions questioned the propriety of holding balloting on the school referendum on the Saturday after Pres. Kennedy was assassinated.

The shock was that I never suspected Mr. Kunz who has been elected to the Board of Education in Hicksville would take it upon himself to influence a newspaper and actually distort the contents of a newspaper editorial.

The shock was intensified when in listening to the recorded minutes of the meeting of December 13, that Mr. Kunz would dare to openly state that this was a reason for withdrawing legal advertising from the newspaper.

I want Mr. Kunz to know without reservation that it is not his place to direct the editorial policy of any newspaper and that if the position he was elected to on the School Board by a narrow margin, has so inflated his ego that he believes he has this power, he has much to learn. It is a breach of office for any member of a School Board to suggest that in addition to purchasing something—in this case advertising—that he is entitled to something extra. This is a misuse of public office. The School Board and Mr. Kunz have no reason to expect any special treatment by newspapers that they by law place advertising in. If this were the case there would be no criticism of any public office and no newspapers worth printing.

In the case of a Board of Education trying to establish this practice it is even worse. They are supposed to represent the highest goals of education which must of necessity be in accord with the Constitution of the United States. To blatantly attempt to control newspapers with tax money is incongruous.

The facts are clearcut in this case and beyond debate. Mr. Kunz even confirmed in letters to the newspaper that he was penalizing it for its editorial and that it would get what he calls "fair treatment"—that is the Board would buy the usual advertising space—if the editorials were friendly. There is no way that the Commissioner of Education can approve of this. It is wrong, disgraceful and a misuse of public office. If Mr. Kunz does not voluntarily resign, we are sure he will be ousted.

In order to help bring this about more quickly we will reprint the editorial which was attacked—Mr. Kunz letters to the newspaper, our answer and a coupon to the Commissioner of Education asking that he act on this with due speed. This material will run each week where space is available until the school budget vote at the end of the year or until Mr. Kunz resigns.

In order to divorce this issue from a monetary one, the Mid Island Times has decided not to accept any more legal advertising from the Hicksville School District for the remainder of this fiscal year, regardless of whether the action of the Board is reversed or not.

To: Commissioner of Education
James E. Allen, Jr.
Albany 1, N. Y.

THE ATTEMPT TO INTIMIDATE AND SUBJUGATE THE MID ISLAND TIMES IS SHOCKING. Please advise the Hicksville School Board that it is a misuse of Public Office Funds.

WSCS Unites For Prayer Day

February 14 as the children exchange Valentine's in tokens of sincere friendship, the women in the Hicksville vicinity will unite with the hundreds of thousands throughout the world in prayerful kinship in observance of the 78th World Day of Prayer.

All persons interested in joining this worldwide prayer fellowship are invited to assemble at the Hicksville Methodist Church on Old Country Road at 8:30 p.m.

The theme for the 1964 service is "Let Us Pray" and the service is prepared by Dr. Madeleine Barot, executive secretary of the Department on the Cooperation of Men and Women in Church.

Family and Society of the World Council of Churches, Geneva, Switzerland.

In continuation of past efforts in the mission of the Church, the gifts collected as an essential part of the observance will go toward sustaining 12 Christian colleges for women in Asia and Africa.

The blessings, spiritual and physical, brought through the unity of prayerful hearts, have been evident since the first small group of Christian women met 78 years ago, offering their prayers and gifts for missions. The faith and love of God expressed then has reached out to the present time when groups in 150 areas on six continents will be gathered throughout twenty-four hours bound together in prayer.

At the Hicksville Methodist Church, those who

(OHILL) is offering free of charge, copies of a complete directory of publications and radio stations in Queens, Nassau and Suffolk Counties.

William G. Kane, president of OHILL, said that the offer is part of his organization's public service program. The directories are available, upon written request on organization stationery, from OHILL, 29 W. Marie Street, Hicksville, L.I., N.Y.

The listings for 5 daily and 106 weekly and bi-weekly newspapers includes the publication's name and address, circulation area, editor, publisher, page and size, production process and day of publication. Also listed are 15 local radio stations, 3 in Queens, 4 in Nassau and 8 in Suffolk, and 18 local and national magazines with headquarters on Long Island.

Mr. Kane explained that "The oil heat industry, which plays a role in the homes of about 90% of Long Island's residents, feels that an informed community is a harmonious community." He added that "promoting a better understanding and appreciation of information media is a definite contribution toward the growth, prosperity and proper administration of the community in which we live."

Workshop Groups At Art Forms

Groups of clubs interested in a special study class or a short series of workshops or lectures in art, drama or dance have the perfect opportunity at Art Forms Unlimited, the gallery on the green, located at 111 Levittown Parkway, Hicksville.

Experienced and qualified instructors are now offering comprehensive courses designed exclusively for 10 or more persons at a reduced rate. Courses include "Drawing from the model", with Louis Clayman or Emily Bienenfeld; "Basic composition and design", "Exploring media" and "Creative Crafts" with Shirley Schumacher; Sculpture, with Bronka Stern; Adult Acting with George Ann Feldt; and Modern dance, with Josephine Dodson. Other workshops can be arranged for interested parties with ideas.

For further information contact Emily Bienenfeld or Shirley Schumacher at GE 3-6230.

Star-spangled savings plan

Most of us think about the future in terms of our families—paying off the mortgage, educating the children, providing a retirement income.

But with the world the way it is today, it's almost impossible to make plans for your own future without considering the future of your country, too.

When you buy U. S. Savings Bonds, your money takes on both jobs. It begins to grow, surely and steadily, to help you reach your savings goals and build your financial strength.

At the same time, Uncle Sam uses these dollars to help reach our national goals of peace and security.

Why not give your savings dollars this double assignment? You'll be joining millions of American families who are investing in their country's future—and you'll probably find that you feel pretty good about the whole thing.

It's easy to buy Savings Bonds on the Payroll Plan where you work. A $50 Bond costs $37.50, a $25 Bond $22.50, and you can buy them in installments for only a few dollars a pay day. Or buy them outright at any bank. No charge for the service.

Buy Series E Bonds for growth.
Series H for current income.

Some nice things about Series E Bonds

- You get 33 1/3% more money when they mature
- Your Bonds are replaced free if lost, destroyed, or stolen
- You can get your money when you need it
- You can defer the tax on accumulated interest until the Bonds are cashed

Keep freedom in your future with
U.S. SAVINGS BONDS

Keep your mind on the road, not on your troubles. Don't worry about business, the family, or what may happen tomorrow. Keep alert to what's happening now. Good driving's a full-time job requiring an alert mind and body. If you must worry, do it in your leisure time.

WHEN YOU DRIVE...

Think now, complain later. "Mad" at someone or something? Turn it off when you turn your ignition on. Anger, no matter who or what it's directed at, can color your whole driving attitude, making you a menace to other motorists on the road.

THINK

Think wise . . . think cagey . . . think careful, cautious, cheerful, courteous driving. Good driving is the responsibility of every motorist. A cheerful attitude toward others on the road will get you to your destination more relaxed than if you find fault with every driver along the way. Think careful driving when you're behind the wheel. Fertig Replaces Morris As Dem Zone Leader

Harold Fertig, Syosset-Jericho south zone Dem leader since 1959, was unanimously elected Town Party Leader by the Oyster Bay Democratic Executive Committee at Democratic headquarters, Mineola, Sunday night.

Fertig will replace the ailing leader, Edward J. Morris, of Hicksville, the present Nassau director of franchise and transportation. Morris declined to seek reelection.

County Chairman John F. English said he was "happy" with the choice made by the executive committee.

"I think he'll make an excellent leader," said English. "He has the experience. He worked his way up from committeeman. He knows the works and he performs well."

Said Nassau County Executive Eugene Nickerson of Fertig: "Fertig is an experienced man with a long history of service to the Democratic organization."

Mrs. Lorelle Fallon, Syosset north Dem zone leader, added her pledge of support to the new town leader: "I feel he has the background, experience and training for this most difficult job. I wish him great success in his new position."

Ambrosia Pie Food Of The Gods

The luscious flavors of canned crushed pineapple and orange melt-in-your-mouth pie filling. It's piled into a tender coconut crust that's easy to make, then chilled to set. So delectable and elegant, it's rightly named ambrosia—food of the gods.

Pineapple Ambrosia Pie

|------------------------------------|-------------------------------|
| 1 (10 ounce) can crushed pineapple | 1/2 cup sugar |
| Orange juice | 1 teaspoon grated orange peel |
| 1 envelope unflavored gelatin | 1/2 teaspoon salt |
| 3 eggs, separated | Coconut Crust |

Drain pineapple thoroughly. Measure syrup and add enough orange juice to measure $\frac{1}{4}$ cup liquid. Soften gelatin in $\frac{1}{4}$ cup fruit juice. Beat egg yolks; stir in remaining juice and $\frac{1}{4}$ cup sugar. Cook over hot water, stirring constantly, until thickened. Add orange peel, salt and gelatin; stir until gelatin is dissolved. Cool until syrupy. Beat egg whites stiff; beat in remaining $\frac{1}{4}$ cup sugar. Fold egg whites and pineapple into gelatin mixture. Pile into coconut crust. Chill to set.

COCONUT CRUST: Thoroughly mix together $1\frac{1}{2}$ cups flaked coconut and 2 tablespoons soft butter or margarine. Pat evenly into 9-inch pie plate. Bake in slow oven (300 degrees F.) 15 to 20 minutes or until golden. Cool.

a complete slate of Democrats on the Town Board. We expect to show the people in the Town of Oyster Bay what a vigorous Democratic party can do for them."

The 42-year old Fertig is a law secretary to Supreme Court Justice Joseph Liff. In Syosset he has been influential in the County-Village Civic Association; served as legal counsel to the Syosset Youth Council and acted as lay advisor in the Syosset High School Adult Education program. He presently heads the "March of Dimes" drive in the entire Syosset area.

Fertig was one of the original founders of the Syosset Democratic Club in 1953. He was also candidate for public office in 1955 and 1958.

He has also served as area chairman for the United Jewish Appeal, trustee of the Sagamore Lodge of B'nai B'rith and chairman of the Anti-Defamation League.

The new town leader was educated in the city public schools, DeWitt Clinton High School, City College and Fordham Law School. He received his law degree in 1947 from Fordham and passed his bar exam the same year. Fertig also holds a C.P.A. license in accountancy.

The Fertigs — wife, Harriet, daughters, Joyce 13 and Roberta 11, and son, Steven 6, reside at 28 Lincrest St. Fertig's dad also lives with them.

PHILIP SCHIAVONE, 41 Cambridge Drive, Hicksville, is a member of the 1963-64 Wrestling team at State University's Agricultural and Technical Institute at Farmingdale. Philip wrestles in the 123-pound class.

The son of Aida and Domenick Schiavone, Philip graduated from Hicksville High School and is now a Senior in Construction Technology at the Farmingdale college.

The recital begins at 8:30 p.m. There is no admission charge and the public is cordially invited.

Award Winner In Recital

Fred Korman, an outstanding Music Senior at Hicksville High School, will be the oboe soloist at a student recital Fri. evening, Feb. 7. Fred was the recent winner of the 16th Annual South Shore Symphony Scholarship Award. In addition to a large cash award, the winner earned a solo performance with the South Shore Symphony under the direction of Howard Lee Koch. Fred will play the Oboe Concerto in C Major by Haydn.

The recital on Friday will be presented in the Hicksville High School Auditorium. Ensembles and soloists from all the Music Department areas will perform. A unique feature of the program will be Renaissance "Tower Music" played by brass instruments from a replica of the medieval tower.

How To Outwit Those TV Commercials

By Edward J. Van Allen

Are TV commercials threatening to drive you stark, raving mad?

Fret not. Relief is in sight. Just adopt my simple formula and you'll beat the peace-of-mind destroyers at their own game.

Here's how I do it:

If a soap-commercial appears on the screen and an announcer starts having a fit over the unspeakably fine qualities of the sponsor's product, I bounce up out of the living room chair in which I'm ensconced and defiantly declare: "I'm going to take a shower." Then I make it a point not to use that sponsor's soap if we happen to have any in the house.

Those unending detergent commercials agitate me just as unendingly. If I sit by the watching machine, as a television comic called it recently, and an announcer spews forth a veritable Niagara of words about the suds-leas attributes of a particular detergent which keeps washing machines from being blitzed by oceans of suds, I immediately look for a book I haven't read yet. Then I retreat to my TV-less bedroom muttering: "From all the detergent commercials on television, this nation is either the dirtiest on the face of the globe or the cleanest. And one's about as bad as the other."

The exaggerated-claim type of TV commercial is doubly irksome. Recently a huckster gleefully telecast the claim that clothes washed with Cheer even "smelled whiter."

Now, I have a reasonably good proboscis that has given me excellent sniffing service over the years. But it has never smelled a color yet.

The "auxiliary" claims of the Secret deodorant TV ads go to the would-be Cheer leader in hyperbole one better. That anti-perspirant, the announcer broadcasts blandly, will keep its users "cool, calm, dry." Thus, if the armpits are indeed the seat of the emotions as this type ad subtly proclaims, psychiatrists have been barking up the wrong anatomical trunk for many moons.

Still, TV commercials, I confess, have a certain value. A toothpaste ad sends me scurrying to the bathroom to brush my teeth from gum to Crest until they fairyl gleam.

Foodstuff commercials, including those high-toned "ubiquitous comestibles" type ads, hone my appetite to "refrigerator-raid" sharpness. The ads that speak unfavorably of the "70-cent spread," on the other hand, make me wonder whether those obmetibles are ubiquitous enough to give me a 70-pound spread in the you-know-where.

But it remains for Harry and Bert, who proved the commercial value of advertising with a light touch, to quench my thirst until it just naturally has to be quenched. With Brand X, of course.

Perhaps the only really foolproof way to outfox TV commercials short of tossing the set itself out the window is through the medium of one of those remote-control gadgets which turn a set on or off at the flick of a switch or the nudge of a button.

However that may be, for the sake of preventing mass nervous prostration, I'm for lumping all those detergent ads together and making one grand, all-encompassing pitch to the public.

If the networks adopt my proposal, Mr. Clean will appear bold as life and bright as a button on TV screens, greeting viewers with this Salvo:

"Duz washday worry get you down? Then, like Handy Andy, Ad a Dash of Cheer to your washing machine. You'll see the Tide rise about each Fab-Pic as a White Tornado Wisks away your laundry woes in its frontal attack on dirt backwash."

Children's Opera Packs House

On Friday evening, Jan. 17, the first performance of the children's operetta "The Floating Geese," was given at the Hicksville High School. This work was composed by Douglas Townsend, written by Oscar Brand and staged and conducted by William Goleeke, Supervisor of Vocal Music.

A capacity audience of children and adults heard the overture, played by Sonya Burakoff. Then the curtain opened to a storm scene where Captain Ebenezer, played by John Neidicker, and the Rat, played by Almon Gordano, were abandoning the good ship Geesle.

The storm abates with no further damage to the ship. As the sun shines forth, the Captain's pets, Belshazzar, the parrot, Tinker, the monkey and Myra the cat, played by Michel Szczesniak, Stephen Berenson and Eve Buckner, in that order, come out from their hiding places. They decide to take the ship and sail to freedom; but Captain Ebenezer returns to reclaim the Geesle. The animals frighten him away and sail on to their uninhabited island.

The audience gave the cast many curtain calls and applauded the composer, who was there for the performance.

The first half of the program consisted of three groups from the Senior High School, the Advanced Brass Choir, the Advanced Chorus and the Advanced Clarinet Quartet. Their performances set a fine tone for the rest of the evening.

BATHING YOUR DOG
DURING WINTER

To avoid your dog's catching a cold, don't bathe him in cold weather unless it's absolutely necessary. You can keep him quite clean by periodic brushing with a good dog brush.

If a bath is necessary, do it in a warm room, dry dog with a towel immediately and keep him in the room an hour or so after drying.

If you want to bath him and can't get off his feet to avoid tracking it in a house, keep a foot-mat draped to avoid excess water etc.
