Final Day For Regis.

Final registration for voting in the $262,500 library expansion referendum, for qualified taxpayers in the Hicksville School District, who have not as yet voted in this fiscal year (from the last annual budget) will take place on Saturday, February 29. Hours of registration are 9 a.m. to 8 p.m., at regular voting districts. The referendum will take place on the following Saturday, March 7.

Square Dance

The Taxpayers' Educational Association for the Children of Hicksville (T.E.A.C.H.) is holding a Square Dance, at Levittown Hall, Friday, March 20, at 9 P.M. The caller is Frank Konopasek. Refreshments will be served and donation is $2.00.

School Tax Climbs Next Year

By Edward J. Van Allen

Hicksville taxpayers face the prospect of a school tax rise in the "area of 50 cents" next year, according to School Board President George A. Jackson. Jackson made the tax-hike prediction when asked for a rough estimate of the impact of teacher raises and other factors on next year's budget.

At last week's Board meeting the Board approved 5 to 0, a "revised salary scale for instructional personnel," effective Jan. 1, 1965. Trustee William A. Bruno, Jr. was on vacation.

Although teacher raises for next year were estimated to be about $100,000, the budgetary figures themselves told a more revealing story. For example, budget code 3-91, K through 6 teacher salaries, was increased by the Board to $2,624,180, as against last year's $2,554,000. Code 3-92, 7 through 12 teacher salaries, on the other hand, was upped to $2,881,000, compared with last year's $2,683,000. Thus, the total budgetary increases for teachers came to about $268,000, and that figure does not include moneys the district pays for teacher retirement, health insurance, and Social Security. Those items are in different budgetary codes.

The Board now has completed action on next year's proposed school budget of $11,421,916, a round-figure jump of $508,000 over last year's $10,913,869 budget.

Dutch Lane PTA Meets

The Dutch Lane P.T.A. Hicksville, cordially invites you to attend its "Leap Year Square Dance" being held, Saturday, February 29 at Levittown Hall.

Donations are $1.50 per person, and the time is 8:30 p.m. Refreshments will be served, and there will be door prizes. For tickets call Estelle Feibus.

HOFSTRA UNIVERSITY will benefit from the John F. Kennedy Memorial Scholarship in Political Science as the result of a spontaneous campaign spearheaded by these Hicksville youngsters. Admiring a photograph of the late President are, left to right, Bruce Glatt, 32 Salem Road; Robert Farrington, 30 Somerset Avenue; and David Rule, 72 New South Road. In the beginning, the scholarship award will amount to $400.

School Testing Bill In Albany

A bill which would prohibit psychological testing of public school children without prior parental consent has again been filed in Albany this year. This time the bill is sponsored by Staten Island State Assemblyman Lucio Russo. During the last two years, similar legislation sponsored by Montauk Assemblyman Perry Duryea was killed in the Assembly Education Committee. Duryea is backing the Russo bill.

East Hampton attorney Clifford C. Edwards, president of Freedom in Education, which has an affiliate in Hickeville, wired Assembly Speaker Joseph F. Carlini this week, urging him to "call this bill (the anti-psychological testing bill) to the floor for debate."

The Edwards-to-Carlini telegram said: "Bill 1701 introduced by Assemblyman Lucio Russo to prohibit unauthorized psychological testing in New York schools is reported killed in Education Committee, without notice and without hearing requested by Assemblyman Russo."

"Millions of dollars could be saved by eliminating unauthorized and unwholesome psychological testing procedures from our schools."

Besides barring unauthorized psychological testing of public school children, the Russo bill would give "parents, guardians, or other persons having custody" of a student the right to see any "tests or examinations" and any evaluations of a student subjected to parent or guardian-approved psychological testing procedures.

Beth L. League Tryout Dates

Views Given On Library Referendum

By Harry H. Goebel

Next Saturday, March 7th, the voting residents of our Hicksville School District are to vote on the matter of a bond issue to expand the present library facilities.

In determining whether a "no" vote or a "yes" vote is to be cast, our fellow residents are asked to remember (1) the circumstances under which the property involved, was acquired; and (2) the manner in which the voting is called.

The property known as the "Christ property" was purchased by the Library Trustees by deed dated February 28, 1962, under an arrangement which called for the payment of $7,000.00 cash and the execution of a purchase money mortgage together with a bond of $17,000.00 pledging the credit of such Public Library, and, in effect, the District.

Interest was to be paid at 6%, even though the State's Local Finance Law limits interest payable by public agencies to no more than 3 1/2%. The claim was made by the Trustees that the $7,000.00 cash came from fines and fees which could be used for the purchase; and not from public tax monies, the use of which would have required prior public approval by referendum.

During the course of certain litigation in connection with which an appeal is now pending, the Library Trustees acknowledged the following significant facts: -

1. That the 1961 - 62 Library budget estimated the receipt of fines and fees totalling $10,000.00.
2. That as of the date of purchase - February 28, 1962 - the Library had collected in fines and fees a total of $10,680.02.
3. That by paying out $7,000.00 in cash, as of the time of purchase, the Library Trustees necessarily had to take, and use, tax monies to the extent of almost $7,000.00 to make the purchase, without prior public referendum and approval.

4. That even though the Trustees knew, or should have known, as of May 1, 1962 that they had received in fines and fees not quite $13,000.00, they saw fit to estimate the receipt of fines and fees for 1962-63, not the $10,000, previously estimated, but a REDUCED figure of $8,000.00.

5. That even though they had actually received $16,083.61 in fines and fees for 1961-62, and as of May 1, 1962, over $12,500.00, they persisted in estimating fines and fees for 1962-63, of $8,000.00.

By their acts, the Library Trustees have failed, refused, omitted and neglected to give to the taxpayers the full benefit of a fair estimate of the receipt of prospective fines and fees. The conclusion may be properly drawn that they thereby proposed to play the role of benevolent bureaucrats with these very funds which the taxpayers have a right to consider in approving or declining to approve the whole library budget with these funds an essential part thereof and to permit the residents of the District to have their tax rate for the Library fixed in accordance with a full disclosure of the facts.

When the Biblical Exodus from Egypt took place, it started as an escape from human bondage and from slavery.

Here, in our School District, the District taxpayers saw fit to repudiate the purchase of the "Christ property" in December, 1962, presumably because the majority of the then voters strenuously objected to the procedure hereinbefore described of acquiring property without prior public referendum.

The issue still remains. An approval of the current referendum is an attempt to secure that approval retroactively. The Fleishpots of Egypt and those of Hicksville must be repudiated. The referendum must be defeated as a matter of principle.

The District voters, in addition to the foregoing, have it in their power to put a stop to the unwarranted abuse of the use of public monies. The annual meeting of the School District will take place on May 6th.

The submission of the Library proposition could have been deferred the two short months when that annual District Meeting takes place. The expenditure of approximately $4,000, for the Special Meeting need not have been made. This applies both to the Library Trustees who requested the Special Meeting, and the School Board which authorized it.

It is time that the authorities having the responsibility for the expenditure of District taxpayer monies should be told in no uncertain terms that the fleishpots are not wanted in our democratic society.

Town Beach Fee Unchanged

Town Supervisor Michael N. Petito said today (Feb. 24) the annual fee for beach stickers will not be raised if the Republican-dominated town board stands by assurances made last week. At last Tuesday's (Feb. 18) meeting, the GOP majority introduced a proposal to hike the cost of the beach stickers from their present three dollar figure to five dollars

However, Supervisor Petito objected, terming the increase an "undue hardship on the residents of the Town" and called instead for a closer look at the Town's beach budget, which currently has an annual payroll of over a half million dollars.

While the Board is expected to bow to Petito's demand that the price remain the same for beach stickers, some increases are expected on beach fees for those living outside the town's limits and also for owners of larger boats using Town mooring facilities.

Mr. Petito also called on the Board to study the immediate installation of so-called "trippers".... automatic devices used to record the exact number of cars arriving at Town beach areas during the swimming season. The Supervisor added that a number of complaints received through recent years concerning the condition of several North Shore beaches would be investigated further. Residents have expressed belief that some beaches along the Sound waterfront have been turned into "honkeytonks" and have lost much of their earlier rustic appeal.

Thinking It Over

By Robert L. Morgan

PROFILES IN COURAGE:

The John F. Kennedy masterpiece "Profiles in Courage" continues on the best seller list week after week. The subject of the book could be used as a local one in this writer's memory span. In 1961 we wrote a hot editorial on the eve of an election campaign. It was the campaign for the re-election of John Burns as Supervisor of the Town of Oyster Bay. The incumbent was running against John Nance.

In our editorial we said that we were not impressed with either contender greatly, but that we would "take the lesser of two evils and vote for Burns."

It was only a day later that one of the smaller GOP elected officials called our office to tell us that we would regret this lack of endorsement of Mr. Burns. We would regret it because legal advertising from the Zoning Board of Appeals would no longer be placed with our newspapers. In a matter of days it was apparent that another newspaper was getting this revenue in place of us.

So what did we do. We sat down and wrote a letter to Mr. Burns asking him if he thought this was his idea of the correct way to deal with freedom of the press. The following evening the office phone rang. It was John Burns. He had not even been consulted about penalizing the press. He was sorry that we had not supported him, but under no circumstances did he think he or any one else in the Town government should use legal advertising to buy favorable editorial opinions. The legal advertising has been running with us ever since.

About a year ago this writer received a phone call from the new County Executive Eugene Nickerson's office. The County Executive wanted to have lunch. It was a bit flattering, so we accepted. Before the lunch was served at a local restaurant we told Mr. Nickerson that we had to say something important. That was that we had had the dubious distinction of being one of the few newspapers that endorsed his opponent Robert Dill. Mr. Nickerson laughed and said, "And in fact you said that I was not fit to hold the office."

This was a little embarrassing and we worried what would be said next. "But if you wish to check the record, that is the reason I decided to subscribe to your newspapers -- just so that I could follow your opinions, even when they are wrong."

It sometimes takes courage to allow your critics to express opinions. Both of these men may be running for the same office soon. They have already written one profile with us, that can be contrasted with the pettiness of a local school board member and former GOP Committeeman, George Kunz, who uses his office to penalize this newspaper because it dared to criticize him and the other school board members.

Mineral Oil Dependency Must Be Cut Gradually

By C. A. Dean, M.D.

(C) "I was operated on for hemorrhoids; I have been taking mineral oil for two years and find it difficult to break the habit. Since mineral oil removes valuable vitamins, I would like to know what vitamin supplement I should take." Mrs. A.

(A) Mineral oil can remove vitamins A and D from the intestinal tract. A supplement can be purchased from the drug store. I suggest, of course, that you break the habit gradually. Try going one day of the week without any, then two days. Or try cutting down gradually on the amount of each dose. Be sure and take your oil at night until you are weaned.

Are Secretary McNamara's Budget Cuts Dangerous?

By Russell Kirk

IT IS SURPRISING AND PLEASING to find anyone in Washington actually trying to reduce governmental expenditures. So the attempt by the Secretary of Defense to prune the military budget is most commendable, at least in part. Every camp commander tries to build an empire for himself, and under the title of "military research and development" immense sums are wasted.

It's a pity that Secretary McNamara's plan for closing superfluous and uneconomic naval yards, for instance, has been frustrated by the fear of the Johnson administration to alienate some voters in the ports that would be affected by such economy.

But other cuts in military expenditure can be perilous. This columnist already has discussed, more than once, the danger that Mr. McNamara's opposition to the "bomber and missile mix," and other "Missile gap" measures, may endanger national security.

Now I venture to raise another economy which seems ill-judged, according to military experts with whom I happen to be in touch. I refer to Mr. McNamara's decision not to build nuclear-powered aircraft carriers.

The carriers which the Secretary intends to build will have obsolete power-plants. As one gentleman in the know writes to me, "I assume that anybody but the creator of the Edsel knows that hydrocarbon power will not be the latest thing in 1985." And yet the carriers which Mr. McNamara has ordered built will still be in use, or usable, by 1985.

The British, prudently, are doing something quite different about their aircraft carriers. They make tremendous use of their "commando ships," which are aircraft carriers modified to transport, on a single vessel, a battalion of Royal Marines, with their aircraft, tanks, equipment, and the whole kit and kaboodle. Thus the Royal Navy can deal, speedily, with troubles in Malaysia, Tanganyika and Kenya, Cyprus, and other explosive corners widely separated.

Nowadays American military and naval operations are at least as far-flung as the British. We need fast, big ships capable of transporting troops, in a real hurry, to Southeast Asia, Latin America, and the Mediterranean. We need, in fine, nuclear carriers designed for just such "commando" tasks.

An American Enterprise-class nuclear carrier can carry a regiment of United States marines, complete with aircraft, helicopters, tanks, guns, and all that; it makes a cruising speed of thirty knots, all round the world. It is really fast, and it doesn't have to refuel at coaling stations.

But Secretary McNamara has stopped building these most important ships. It seems ironical that the nation which developed the atomic-powered submarine -- probably our chief deterrent, these past several years, against Soviet Russian power -- now decides to build, in the name of economy, obsolete (but still immensely expensive) carriers that can't possibly be relied upon for the tasks of the next two decades.

A government really can be penny wise and pound foolish. A largess of new "welfare" benefits from the Johnson administration, for domestic political advantage, would be a sorry substitute for naval security.

Seventh Month At Syosset Theatre

"How The West Was Won" which opened last August 6, 1963 at the Syosset Theatre is still going strong...an indication of the great public appeal this picture has.

"How The West Was Won" in Cinerama has more than 12,000 players and three of Hollywood's outstanding directors which create this masterpiece of family entertainment. Five inter-related episodes tell the story of a half-century of America's westward expansion as seen through the eyes of four generations of a pioneer family.

Frank J. Frola, Manager of the Syosset Theatre, says, "If you haven't seen this picture yet you are missing the best in family entertainment."

The cast of this Cinerama saga has such prominent stars as Carroll Baker, Lee J. Cobb, Henry Fonda, Carolyn Jones, Karl Malden, Gregory Peck, George Peppard, Robert Preston, Debbie Reynolds, James Stewart, Eli Wallach, John Wayne, Richard Widmark and many others.

Raceway Ads Bring Results

Roosevelt Raceway, the pioneer track of night harness racing in Westbury, registered the most successful season's opening in state harness racing history last Thurs. (Feb. 20). The opening was advertised in this newspaper and other newspapers in the area.

An impressive crowd of 36,191 poured through the turnstile and then went on to bet a sensational $2,350,342.

The meeting continues nightly Monday through Saturday through May 13 (72 racing nights). The twin double returned to Long Island and it immediately proved popular again with a $9,666.40 payoff on opening night. There were 750 horses on the grounds with more checking in each day. Such outstanding drivers as Vernon Dancer, Alan Myer, Bob Chertix, Eddie Cobb, Buddy Gilmour, Del Insko, Morris MacDonald, Carmine Abbatiello and Walter Welch have their stables at Roosevelt along with some talented newcomers. They are competing in the earliest meeting in the history of New York state racing.

All the popular Roosevelt facilities are available for the patrons comfort. Post time is 8:30 every night.

Red Cross Ready For Drive

March is traditionally American Red Cross month and it is at this time the public is asked to contribute to the support of its many and varied services. Although the Red Cross holds a charter from the United States Government it is not subsidized by it.

The many services of the Red Cross include Home Service for men and women in the armed services, and veterans, disaster, flood, first aid, swimming, boating, water safety and nursing instruction in classes for aides in the home, and mother and baby care. There are also the office of Educational Relations (Junior and Senior High School Red Cross), Motor Service, driving units, canteen and Community Services. In the hospitals are Volunteers and Grey Ladies who are also in some of the schools. The production Unit makes garments, layettes and does knitting. Another service is the lending of sick room equipment. Then there are the Entertainment Unit, Arts and Skills, and Geriatrics which is a service of visiting and keeping in touch with older people who are home-bound. There is the Office of Volunteers, Fund Department and Public Information which loans films, projectors and screens on request.

In 1963 the Nassau County chapter of the American Red Cross gave direct service to 97,843 Nassau residents. Due to the population explosion there is still a big job to be done to keep ahead of the many demands for help which will be received in the coming year.

We need funds to expand these services. Please respond to this appeal and send a contribution to the American Red Cross, 264 Old Country Road, Mineola.

Girl Scout News Notes

The annual Girl Scout Cookie Sale is now in progress in our community. This is the girl's opportunity to share in the support of their camp and program activities, so they are eager to receive your orders.

Cookie profits make possible the maintenance and improvement of our Girl Scout Camp Edey and Day Camp Program. In addition Cookie Profits help provide leadership training, troop organization, and Council headquarters services.

Troops use their cookie profits to finance week-to-week activities and camping trips. So parents and friends of Scouting—your support is vital; please help your local girls, by ordering your cookies now!

Activities in the Bethpage - Plainville area are now concentrated on plans for the Girl Scout Sunday which will be observed on March 8; and continuing through Girl Scout Week. The South-Central Area will hold its Birthday Celebration on Thursday, March 12 at the John F. Kennedy Jr. High School with Senior Troop #411 the hostess for the younger troops; all of whom will be participating in the program. There will also be window displays in the various business establishments in Bethpage, of the Girl Scout handicrafts and interests, in honor of Girl Scout Week.

Cadette Troop #49 has been and will continue to be busy throughout the rest of the scout year. They report having had a very successful small social to which members of the Elks Club who are their sponsors, were invited and presented with Girl Scout Calendars. They are completing the Aviation Badge which they have been working on with Mr. James Day assistance; and are eagerly looking forward to their trip to the Airport.

Their January 23 meeting was attended by Mrs. Kenneth Lindeman who presented some of the Scouts with past badges they had earned. They are busily working on other Cadette badges and Challenges, and camping places, as well as holiday favors for the hospitals.

Celebrating their birthdays along with Washington and Lincoln in this month of February are:

Kathryn Billicki, Jean McKeever, Barbara Firestone, Brenda Curlew, Susanne Hanson, Patricia Infantino, Kathleen Donlon, Karen Geroce, Dena Cluman, Stephanie Fuohs, Raylene Sosnowski, Crystal Goddard, Patricia Edwards, Judi Rothstein, Carole Mellon, Ann Marie Buckley, Janice Joan Witt, Judith Zambo and Linda Williams.

Happy Birthday to all and also to the Boy Scouts who celebrated their birthday on February 8.

RED CROSS MONTH STARTS NEXT WEEK

MR. PETER ORTON, MR. MARK FELMAN, MR. MARTIN LO MONACO, members of the Key Club, Hickerville High School and Miss Kathleen Murphy, Westbury School, helping with the mailing of 55,000 solicitation letters for the March Campaign for the American Red Cross.

MRS. W. ASHLEY BURROWS, MRS. THEODORE G. ROSEBERY and Miss Louise Augustine, the committee in charge of mailing over 55,000 letters for the March Campaign of The American Red Cross.

Letters

Hon. James E. Allen, Jr.
Commissioner of Education
State Education Dept.
Albany, New York
Dear Commissioner Allen:
Last September 25th I petitioned you to order the Hicksville School Board and Superintendent Donald F. Abt to "forthrightly and promptly" supply me with records and information concerning Hicksville School District affairs whenever I request such information. Specifically, I had sent Mr. Abt four letters at different times asking for certain information, and he had tacitly refused to answer those letters.

Lately, Mr. Abt had been answering most of my letters by sending me replies which do not contain the information I ask for. I don't question Mr. Abt's cleverness in this respect, but I do question his ethics. And I think you should too.
Since you have taken no action to date on my September, 1963, petition,

I am curious to know the reason for the inordinate delay. I am especially curious as you were very prompt indeed in refusing to allow the recitation of the fourth stanza of the "Star-Spangled Banner" in the Hicksville School District which the Board had erroneously called a "prayer".
Ruling prayer out of the public schools is one thing. But my suit has to do with a question of ethics or, if you will, morality. Is it ethical -- or moral -- for a superintendent of schools and the majority faction of a school board to withhold from a duly elected board member (or from the public, for that matter) information having to do with the operation of a public school district? That, in essence, is the question I called upon you to rule on in my petition last September. For your information, some months ago there was formed in this school district a 'Hicksville Committee for Honesty in Public Education'. That a group of citizens should consider it incumbent upon them to form a committee to promote honesty in public education itself speaks volumes. It suggests that not only prayer has been barred from the schools; morality has been "expelled" also.

Might I have a prompt reply on why you have apparently been loath to take speedy action on my petition. I think in fairness and in justice I am entitled to a speedy ruling.
Sincerely yours,
William A. Bruno, Jr.
Member, Hicksville Board of Education.

No Tanks!

(No clutter. No mess. No unsightly fuel tank to make your basement an eyesore. With clean Gas heat there are no fuel storage problems.)

Finished basements start with clean Gas heat. So does happier, healthier living.

Gas gives you more than your money's worth. It's clean because it burns completely...doesn't throw off tiny particles of soot to coat walls, ceilings, furniture with an oily film. It's dependable. Fewer moving parts mean fewer breakdowns, fewer costly repair bills. And when you heat with Gas you get LILCO's free service policy, plus a money-back guarantee on first-year heating costs. Get the facts of home heating. Just mail the coupon or call PI 7-1041 in Nassau, MO 6-6300 or HA 3-3600 in Suffolk. You can call at any hour, day or night, including weekends.

YOUR LOCAL LIBRARY BOARD NEGLECTS TO TELL YOU

1. The needless expansion program will cost $262,500. plus interest or almost $500,000.
2. Last year's library budget $223,274.81 will naturally be increased substantially
  - A. Due to increase in employees' custodial and clerical
  - B. The purchase of additional books for the new "empty" shelves—a vicious cycle
  - C. The future will certainly finish the basement (unfinished)
  - D. Why do they want this future auditorium when they are just across the street from the Junior High School?
  - E. If the need is so great for "Books" why do they continue to build bigger buildings—to complain in the future they are empty?

The money used to buy the property—estimated $25,000. could have been used to "reduce taxes," from your fines and fees—just another form of taxation.

Now we are already paying for the following library services in our 11 Hicksville Schools

A. Librarian salaries (11 librarians and 2 clerks)	$117,240.00
B. Proposed New library books to be purchased	35,870.00
C. Repair, replacement, books and periodicals	4,000.00
D. Additional library expenses	2,874.00
Total for School Libraries	$159,984.00

The new School budget is now $11,421,915.00.

An increase over last year of $508,046.00.

THAT MEANS A NEW TAX INCREASE

REMEMBER THIS —

$2,300,000.00—Principal and interest increase for our School Building Program
 11,421,915.00—New school budget—2-21-64
 223,274.81—Last year's Library Budget
 500,000.00—Possible new Library Building Program

$14,445,189.81

Plus increase in library staff and budget 1964

All this means more taxes. When Broadway is widened we will lose a considerable amount of assessed evaluation.

Why do we need this extension?

The McCormick report shows that our Junior and Senior High School students will remain at present amount, then reduce.

Since the December, 1962 Library Referendum nothing has changed to warrant a new building program.

Now fellow overtaxed citizens

Keep your mind on the road, not on your troubles. Don't worry about business, the family, or what may happen tomorrow. Keep alert to what's happening now. Good driving's a full-time job requiring an alert mind and body. If you must worry, do it in your leisure time.

WHEN YOU DRIVE...

Think now, complain later. "Mad" at someone or something? Turn it off when you turn your ignition on. Anger, no matter who or what it's directed at, can color your whole driving attitude, making you a menace to other motorists on the road.

THINK

Think wise... think cagey... think careful, cautious, cheerful, courteous driving. Good driving is the responsibility of every motorist. A cheerful attitude toward others on the road will get you to your destination more relaxed than if you find fault with every driver along the way. Think careful driving when you're behind the wheel. And, when you think of protection against the hazards of other not-so-careful drivers, think of State Farm, the careful driver's insurance company.

Senior Citizens Mark Birthdays

The regular meeting of the Senior Citizen's Club of Bethpage, was held in the American Legion Hall on Washington St., Thursday, February 20 at one o'clock. With the refreshment, a little birthday party was given for the Director, Mrs. Eileen McLoughlin. Several other birthdays had been celebrated also for members born in this month. Two of them for eighty years.

Work was resumed on the files; and many lovely pieces are shaping up which will be displayed at the spring hobbyshow, at Roosevelt Field. After that, a new project will be started for Easter.

A surprise visit was made by Mr. Frank Leahy, head of the Adult Education Department of the Board of Education, under whose office the Senior Citizens Club operates. He expressed pleasure at the spirit and activities of the club.

Meetings are held every Thursday at the hall, unless some outside trip is planned. Visitors or new members are always welcome.

Oil Institute Points To Safety

A leader of the oil heat industry has asked police and firemen in Nassau and Suffolk Counties to "thoroughly investigate fires before announcing the cause."

William G. Kane, president of the Oil Heat Institute of Long Island, in a letter to police and fire officials recently stressed that whenever fuel oil was reported to have "burned" in a Long Island fire, in recent years, it was ultimately discovered to have been a false report.

Mr. Kane stated: "The heating oil that keeps most Americans warm and comfortable in wintertime is an amazingly safe fuel. There are no noxious fumes should leaks occur in the heating system. Heating oil is non-explosive. As a matter of fact, it will not even burn in the state in which it is delivered and stored in the home."

NOTICE TO BIDDERS

MR. AND MRS. HARLAN NELSON HAAG and their son Gary (11) of 110 Blueberry Lane, Hicksville, were photographed on board the Grace Line's Santa Rosa which sailed from New York on a 13-day cruise to Curacao, N.W.I.; La Guaira (Caracas), Venezuela; Aruba, N.W.I.; Kingston, Jamaica; and Port Everglades (Fort Lauderdale, Miami) and Nassau in the Bahamas. Mr. Haag is president of Harlo Expeditors, Inc. Custom House Brokers.

Princeton, New Jersey. After being ordained in 1930 he spent three years traveling in the United States for the China Missions.

During the World War II, Father Gehring was a Chaplain in the United States Navy. He was sent to Guadalcanal, and after six months won the title of Padre of Guadalcanal. While stationed on the island he met Patsy Li and from this experience Father wrote the book, "A Child of Miracles". This Vincentian priest, was the first naval chaplain to receive the Legion of Merit Medal from the President of the United States.

Father Gehring until recently was a Student Counselor at St. John's University. He is now stationed at St. Vincent de Paul Church in Germantown, Pa.

Appointed Manager At Borden's

Frederick Wlokemeyer, 9 Robinson Drive, Bethpage has been appointed a product manager for the Borden Foods Company, it was announced by Hubert M. Tibbetts, vice president and director of marketing.

Mr. Wlokemeyer joins Borden's after three years with the Best Foods Division of Corn Products Company, where he directed marketing operations for Knorr Soups, Hot Dyes, Shinola, and Shippy products. He previously had been an assistant product manager for Swanson Co.

Born in Barmen, Germany, Mr. Wlokemeyer

ROBERT MC GEARY, 19-month-old-son of Thomas and Margaret McGeary of 53 Brenner Ave., Bethpage, was top winner in the drawing celebrating the opening of the Bethpage branch of Reliance Federal Savings and Loan Association. Young Mr. McGeary, whose name was drawn by Councilman Louis A. Sisis, was awarded a giant screen color television set.

Nine additional prizes went to the following local residents: Martha Schmidt, 50 Frederick Drive; Vito Manno, 160 Sycamore Avenue; G. A. Winters, 36 Lee Avenue; Mrs. Sylvia Willgoss, 115 Second Street; Patricia Brown, 91 Cherry Avenue; Greg Alexander, 239 Tenth Street; Nick Sarra, 89 Meade Avenue; R. Prato, 2 Simone Court; Mrs. Anne Weir, 199 Maple Avenue.

Phone Out

Local residents and business firms experienced some difficulty in contacting the Post Office last Thursday, Feb. 20. Callers heard nothing but a "ring" and received no answer during a part of the afternoon. One of the main trunk lines had been accidentally severed by a Telephone Co. employee working outside the building. The line was promptly fixed, but the Post Office regrets any inconvenience caused patrons.

Father Gehring Guest Speaker

The Rev. Frederic P. Gehring, C.M., will be the guest speaker at the Rosary Altar Society of Our Lady of Mercy Church, South Oyster Bay Road, Hicksville on Monday, March 2.

Father Gehring, a Vincentian priest, is a native of Brooklyn where he attended St. John's Prep and was later enrolled in St. Joseph's College, attended Butler University in Indianapolis, Ind., and Indiana University, Bloomington, Ind. He is a member of the American Marketing Association & the Marketing Club of N. Y. He makes his home in Bethpage with his wife, Jacqueline, and their four sons.

Recital

Geoffrey D. Gibbs, a student at the University of Rochester's Eastman School of Music, recently gave a recital in Kilmour Hall. Gibbs resides at 15 Helena Ave., Bethpage.

If You Please

By Peter Pettibone

North Shore Scollatte Lee Jordan, is already a novelty in the restaurant field: Tonight (Friday) the 2000 Club, at 2000 Jericho Turnpike, New Hyde Park opens with over $75,000 invested in rustic decorations and refrigeration. The Jordan novelty, believe it or not, is that it is one of the very few restaurants on Long Island ever to open with everything in the place paid for....The passing of Bruce Wallis' father brought many tears to the sporting world....The Mgr. of a midtown (NYC) hotel quit his job the other day. He now works as a waiter there. He has fewer headaches and more take-home money....A stationery store in Hicksville now offers its entire stock of "Apartments to Let" sign at half price....A neighbor's wife to a vacuum cleaner salesman: "You might try the Pettibone's next door. We use theirs, and it's terrible"....An Oyster Bay bachelor bequeathed his fortune to three girls who turned him down in his offer of marriage, because: "I owe these three ladies the happiness I have enjoyed".... Psychiatrist: A mental Peeping Tom... A reader: "What do you think of the Beatles?" Politics is an odd game. As soon as the United States threatens to withdraw from donating aid funds to Britain they retaliate by sending us those four crum bums. The only thing good about those bugs is their press agents. We could hit back at them by sending over Elvis Presley, but this wouldn't be fair four-to-one play, unless we placed all five of them in a cage...Chuckie's Mommy Jane speaks: "Manners are like the cipher in arithmetic: They may not be much in themselves, but they are capable of adding a great deal of value of everything else."...Comic Phil Silvers: "Hollywood is the place where people spend more than they earn to please and impress people they don't like"....WOR's Long John received this missive: "I know that you will be interested to know that after listening to your program for over a year I now have a baby." I've been listening to Long John's show for about seven years. So far nothings happened, to me, that is...Anonymous: "A college education seldom hurts a man if he's willing to learn a little something after he graduates"....And: "One of the pleasures of age is looking back at the people one didn't marry.".... I now know my eight-year-old un-married son is growin up. He's started asking questions that have answers...At Villa Victor, Syosset, "My wife uses the adjective 'pretty' to describe all women unless they're really pretty"....Opening tonight at the 2000 Club, Dick Eschmann-Wally Rhodes Combo and Vin Roddie. With Vin at the piano you can bet that Lee Jordan will chirp some delicious ballads. O.K. Mgr. Chic Farmer we think you have a winner...If You Please, you-all...

lations Department presented the program after which a question and answer period took place. This program is one of many community services made available by LILCO to interested organizations on Long Island.

devoted largely to discussions of new life and health insurance policies introduced by MONY this year.

Premium rates for individual life policies were reduced an average of 3%, and 4% overall in the new line. The company also announced that it expects to pay a record $58 million in dividends to policyholders in 1964.
