Students Warned 'Stop Praying'

Hicksville High School students were warned to stop praying in school or face suspensions by school officials Tuesday.

The warning came in the wake of a self-inspired prayer session on Friday, in which between 400 and 600 high school students participated.

The praying started during a morning home room exercise at the school which has been designated as a five minute period of silent meditation by the school board. This ruling was made in Aug. of 1962 by the board to replace the Regents Prayer and the later "Star Spangled Banner". Both had been banned from the curriculum on the grounds that they were prescribed or written by the state.

After being warned by school officials that they would face suspension if they continued to pray on Monday, most students gave way to the faculty threats and issued a statement that they would seek higher state authority to have the period re-designated from "silent meditation" to simply "meditation." Students believed this was legal, because the Supreme Court ruling it is thought, only ruled on whether a state written or prescribed prayer or exercise could be held in public schools and did not seek to end the saying of all prayers in schools on a totally volunteer basis. Two girls continued to pray on Monday, but it was not learned what action was taken against them.

Supt. of Schools Donald Abt said that he had received 106 postcards urging him to support the actions of the students. Mr. Abt said "This is impossible, because it would mean I would be condoning insubordination to the Board of Education."

It is believed that the Board will be confronted with the problem at its next meeting, scheduled for May 29.

THE MILLERIDGE INN, Jericho, announces the opening of a genuine old time country store which will be a delight to both children and adults alike. One may browse among nostalgic displays of old fashioned candies, herbs, preserves, a cracker barrel, an old wood stove, and many other interesting early American items. Signs extolling the virtues of old pain killing patent medicines and the brand names of long forgotten foods have been collected from all over the U.S. Milleridge Inn, built in 1672 provides a perfect setting for a country store atmosphere with its early American tradition and authentic colonial decor. It is reputed to be one of the most beautiful restaurants in the east. In exciting contrast to the early American theme is Miss Kiroko Kamijo from Tokyo the new hostess at Milleridge who graciously greets all guests at the entrance. Miss Kamijo wears the traditional Japanese kimono of the geisha.

Veterans Groups Plan Memorial Parade

The Charles Wagner Post #421 of The American Legion of Hicksville is the group leader this year of the Hicksville Veterans' committee who will sponsor Memorial Day services on Saturday, May 30. Post Commander Arthur Rutz announced today. 3rd Vice Commander Louis Cesta has been designated Chairman of this traditional ceremony.

In extending an invitation to the residents of Hicksville to attend the parade and rites, Vice Commander Cesta reports that the parade would begin at 10 AM sharp from the athletic field of the Junior High School on 4th Street and proceed east to Broadway; then north on Broadway to Herzog Place to Newbridge Road and then south on Newbridge Road to Old Country Road; east on Old Country Road to Jerusalem Avenue and then south on Jerusalem Avenue to 4th Street where the parade will go east to the athletic field where the reviewing standing is placed opposite the grandstand seats where all units will pass in review.

For the first time in history the principal speaker at this traditional commemorative ceremony will be the President of the Senior Class of the Hicksville High School, John L. Clarelli. The guest speaker will be Michael N. Pettito, Town of Oyster Bay Supervisor and the honored guests will include Francis J. Anderson, Nassau County Clerk; Margery R. Post and A. Carl Grunewald, Town Councilmen; Francis J. Donovan, Judge District Court and Irene

L. Murphy, Postmaster. Mrs. Lillian Doran of The American Legion Auxiliary will lead the Gold Star Mothers to their place of honor on the reviewing stand. Communication facilities that will coordinate the marching units are under the direction of Henry F. Brodbeck, Civil Defense Director and Steve Didier, Assistant Director. The Grand Marshall of the parade will be Frank Gordon, Commander of the Catholic War Veterans of Hicksville and other members of the veterans' committee are James Surless, Amvets Post #44; William Frohenhelfer, Veterans Foreign Wars, and Norman Corchnoy, Ben Levitt Post, Jewish War Veterans.

Music at the services will be furnished by the Hicksville High School Band and Choral groups.

The first order for the observance of Memorial Day was issued in May, 1868, by General John A. Logan of the Grand Army of the Republic "for the purpose of strewing with flowers or otherwise decorating the graves of comrades who died in the defense of their country." For years after the Civil War, the G.A.R. in the North and the Confederate Veterans in the South took charge of Memorial Day in their respective communities.

When these founding organizations became unable to carry on actively these rites, The American Legion pledged to help perpetuate the annual observances of Memorial Day and in Hicksville all veterans' groups have banded together with this view in mind for each Memorial Day. Vice Commander Cesta explained. Although it began as a day to commemorate the dead of all wars, Memorial Day has since become a day to commemorate as the appropriate occasion for the decoration of graves of family and friends.

In urging the widest possible participation by Hicksville residents in the Memorial Day rites, Vice Commander Cesta referred to the following excerpt from General Logan's original order for the observance of Memorial Day: "Let no... avarice or neglect, no ravages of time, testify to the present or coming generations that we have forgotten as a people the cost of a free and undivided republic."

Vice Commander Cesta reminded that the observance of Memorial Day in Hicksville should include the display of a United States flag by every home and business firm.

THINKING IT OVER

By Robert L. Morgan

The Hicksville School System is rocked by a problem -- a problem that might be the envy of other school districts with less enthusiasm... But it is a problem according to school authorities.

Some of the students in the high school want to pray out loud and 400 of them did last Friday.

This affront to the rules of the Board of Education which says that the students may engage in silent meditation has brought the wrath of the school administration which threatens suspension from school to anyone caught praying.

The above sentence reads as though it were written in Pravda or any Communist newspaper, but it is the condition as it exists today in Hicksville, N.Y., U.S.A.

The threatened suspension of school children for saying prayers out loud in Hicksville is in sharp contrast to the attitude of the school administration in Wheatley High School where students refusing to pledge allegiance to the flag were cajoled and talked to and treated as fine students.

And it might be mentioned that only a year ago in N. Y. City, school teachers themselves defied the Conlin Wadlin Act and went on strike in defiance of a duly enacted law. But no teachers were suspended for this action.

In Hicksville, however praying is against the school rules and must be dealt with severely. We admire the students who had the resourcefulness and courage to pray if they wanted to in Hicksville schools. Contrary to what administration and school board members are trying to tell the public, the U. S. Supreme Court did NOT rule on whether students could pray in school on a truly self-inspired voluntary basis. The Court ruled that N. Y. State's composing, supervising and recommending a prayer was an infringement of the separation of church and state. What is more we feel that school board members should know this if they are at all capable of doing their jobs. The Hicksville school board could right at this moment bow to the will of the majority and change its ruling to delete the words "silent" and allow student led prayers for those who want them in schools. But in this case it will take almost as much courage by school board members as that displayed by the students.

Can the present school board meet this challenge? We are not sure. We hope that they will consider their actions in the light of what the majority of the people in the community want and what the students want. If they shirk their duty now the school board members will have lost the respect of a good portion of Hicksville, both as individuals and elected officials.

Keep Ears Dry To Avoid Trouble

By C. A. Dean, M.D.

(Q) "As a child I suffered with running ears. Since I have grown up they have been dry, and I thought I was through with my ear troubles. However, about two years ago my right ear drum ruptured again. I saw an ear specialist and he told me with treatment he could close the ruptured place. Is this possible after so much time has passed?" H.W.

(A) Despite the fact that so much time has elapsed, it is possible to close perforations (holes, ruptures) of the ear drum through plastic surgery. But, before this can be done, any infection that may be present must be cleared. Often, this alone will permit healing of the hole but, if not, plastic repair can be carried out.

MEDITORIAL: The ear canal is a favorite site of infection during the warm weather months. This is partly due to the fact that the ear canal gets wetter during this time, the result of increased sweating and swimming.

This type of infection is called external otitis since it involves only the ear canal. The ear drum or middle ear is not always affected, though it may be. Generally, the infection is caused by bacteria, and not fungi.

The Claims Of Senator Humphrey

By Russell Kirk

THE TWO DEMOCRATIC SENATORS from Minnesota are among the ablest men in their party. Either Senator Hubert Humphrey or Senator Eugene McCarthy -- both, by the way, once professors of political science -- is admirably qualified to fight the 1964 campaign for the Democrats as Vice-Presidential candidate. Both have been mentioned for the nomination; Senator Humphrey seems to have the better chance.

But even Senator Humphrey's prospects are not really bright at present: for the Kennedy clan desires preferment. Both Attorney-General Robert Kennedy and Mr. Sargent Shriver, his in-law, aspire to the second place on the Democratic national ticket. These twain were raised to eminence chiefly through having the good fortune to be brother-in-law, respectively, to John Fitzgerald Kennedy. Mr. Robert Kennedy is very able as a political infighter, and Mr. Shriver is accomplished in public relations. On the strength of these talents, they stand ready to have greatness thrust upon them.

Perhaps President Johnson will prefer Mr. Humphrey, and will take the trouble to make his choice clear to the Democratic leaders. Otherwise, the influence of the Kennedy name at present -- or even of a Kennedy in-law -- is such that Senator Humphrey would stand little chance in a contest against either of these two rivals. Mr. Kennedy already has demonstrated his popularity by receiving nearly as many write-in votes in New Hampshire as did President Johnson; and Mr. Kennedy's backers in Massachusetts propose to do the same for him by "spontaneous" write-ins there. True, Mr. Kennedy probably would be an Old Man of the Sea round President Johnson's neck, for a great many Southerners dread and detest the Attorney-General who intervened forcibly in Mississippi and Alabama. But what Bobby wants, Bobby gets -- most of the time.

Though known as a liberal, Mr. Humphrey probably would be less disliked south of Mason's and Dixon's line, these days, than Mr. Kennedy. Also his claims upon the Democratic party are greater than those of either Kennedy or Shriver. He has been a remarkably able assistant majority leader in the Senate; he has been a good party man, accepting gracefully and generously his defeat for the 1960 nomination by J.F. Kennedy, despite that fact that West Virginia was virtually bought out from under him. He is a forceful speaker, a man of basic good sense, and a hard worker. How can he be passed over in favor of two sprightly young political sprigs? There's no justice in it.

Well, for one thing, Senator Humphrey doesn't have the money or connections of his competitors; for another, my journalistic colleagues keep repeating that a Kennedy, or a Kennedy in-law, will insure success to the Democratic ticket. I confess that for my part, I am no more convinced by this argument that I was convinced that Ambassador Lodge would become the Republican nominee because he won in New Hampshire. The Lodges are well known in New England; the Kennedys are well known in New England; but that fact doesn't necessarily mean that Lodges and Kennedys will carry Chicago, New Orleans, Omaha, or Los Angeles.

I suspect that Mr. Robert Kennedy will obtain the Vice-Presidential nomination -- and that Democratic leaders will be sorry later. For Senator Humphrey is the more experienced man of politics -- and, in the long run, the better campaigner.

Win First Place Awards

The Distributive Education classes of the Hicksville Senior High School, represented by DECA (Distributive Education Club of America) won first place in the National North Atlantic Regional Research Contest. This contest is held each year; and the first prize has never been won by any New York State School before.

We are indeed proud that under Mr. Dennis Murphy's capable direction Hicksville received the honor, not only of winning first place, but of representing New York State. We are the first to win the honor for the state as well as for our own school.

The Research Project made by DECA included questionnaires distributed to former Retailing graduates, and personal interviews. The material gathered was tabulated, analyzed and interpreted. A detailed report was then made, and this was presented at the National

High School Band At WF

Hicksville was represented at the World's Fair on Sunday, when the Hicksville High School Band played a one-hour "Concert-in-the-Park", complete with uniformed bandmen, a cornet soloist, and the all-time favorite overture "Poet and Peasant."

Since this Concert was presented in an outdoor bandshell, the Sophomore Band merged with the Jr.-Senior Band, under the direction of R. G. Pellerin. This was one of the largest bands ever assembled at Hicksville High School.

J. David Abt, Director of the Sophomores, assisted with the preparations and also conducted several numbers.

Jerry Maler, cornetist, and the eight-member first clarinet section, were featured artists on the program, which included a variety of well known marches, Broadway show tunes and Latin numbers...truly a "Pops Concert."

Dear Sir:
 Congratulations to Gov. Rockefeller for vetoing

the bill authorizing the creation of an all powerful Nassau County Water Authority. In my opinion this bill, known as S-5170 and having assembly print

No. 5698" was loaded. It contained condemnation proceedings that could be brought against private water districts in the County if they didn't want to get under the wing of the authority. Nassau County Attorney Jack B. Weinstein wrote the bill and "was irked because Gov. Rockefeller vetoed it".

At a meeting at Adelphi College about two months ago, a speaker, who claimed to be one of four members of the Nassau Council on Water Resources, indicated that the water study had been completed, mentioned that 127 million gallons of water were being lost underground into the Atlantic Ocean and referred to recommendations in a recently completed water study report made by Greely and Hansen, Consulting Engineers. (I have to rely on memory because he wouldn't permit a tape recorder in the room).

This same speaker said that a Water Authority could control the use of water better than private and public companies and, in anticipation of a future water shortage in twenty years, could obtain water by the following means:

- 1.) Buy water from Suffolk County.
- 2.) Buy water from New York City.
- 3.) Manufacture water by means of atomic reactors.
4. Obtain water through the natural cycle of more recharge basins.

This speaker also stated that a Public Health Official had been hired for a sum of $12,500 per year in anticipation of the creation of a Nassau County Water Authority.

Now that the bill has been vetoed this year by Gov. Rockefeller, are we taxpayers stuck for paying a $12,500 salary, does the Nassau Council on Water Resources foot the bill, or will the promoters of fluoridation equipment pay the salary?

Yours truly,
 /s/ Harry Wagner

The "One-Bank" Lombardis get a four-appliance kitchen

Shown above: The modern "One-Bank" Lombardis in their modern four-appliance kitchen. Spanking-new. Beautiful. A real work saver for Mom. And they got the cash they needed for it in the time it takes to make a pot roast — with a modernization loan from their one and only bank, First National City.

The Lombardis' new kitchen is a good example of why they rely on First National City for everything. At First National City, they got their modernization loan before work started by financing in advance.

Low-cost terms were arranged to fit their budget exactly. Their loan was approved in a matter of hours. And their monthly payments are deducted automatically from their First National City checking account.

Why don't you discover the many advantages of being a one-bank family at First National City? Start with a checking account. A Christmas Club. A new-boat loan. A mortgage. See for yourself why we say one service usually leads to another at First National City, the only bank your family ever needs.

Plainview Park Ready To Open

The Plainview - Old Bethpage Community Park has been put in top operating condition to serve summertime recreational needs of its 3,000 families, Councilman Edmund A. Ocker reported today.

The pool facilities will open for the season on Saturday, May 23. Applications are now being received in increasing numbers for family and individual permits at the Oyster Bay Town Hall Annex, 65 Broadway, Hicksville. Fees are $50 for families and $20 for individuals who qualify by residing in the district.

Plans are being laid for free swimming and life saving instructions at the Olympic sized pool. Age group classes will be set up after the pool opens for the season. In a separate diving pool two boards will be maintained for high and low diving. The popular kiddies pool will again be a feature this year. Red Cross trained lifeguards will be in attendance at all pools.

Other park attendants will be uniformed.

Play facilities this season will include six tennis courts, two handball courts, a basketball court and a horseshoe court. The kiddie play area will be a continuing feature this year.

Little League Baseball is already being played on daily schedule at the special laid out playing field and softball fields are in use for the adult softball leagues.

Scholar Fund Square Dance

A Square Dance will be held at the Bethpage Fire Hall on Saturday, May 23, for the benefit of the Bethpage Parents and Teachers Associations Scholarship Fund. Country style atmosphere will prevail and casual dress is in order. Tickets are $4.00 per couple and include free refreshments and loads of Door Prizes. They may be obtained from any PTA President or Scholarship Committee member, or Mrs. Sheena Klenert, Chairman, at WE 5-4084.

The Bethpage Parents and Teachers Associations Scholarship Fund was the first Scholarship Fund set up in the Community. Each year, since its inception in 1956, a $1000 Scholarship has been awarded to a June Graduate; and a number of $500 Awards have been made in addition in the years when funds permitted.

In 1963, Richard Gold was the recipient of the $1000 Scholarship and James Perreca and Cheryl Ann Paolucci each received $500 Awards. The PTA Scholarship Committee hopes to duplicate those Awards this year also, with the support of the Community for this second and last fund raising event.

Arrangements for the Square Dance have been made under the direction of Sheena Klenert, Scholarship Committee Chairman, with the assistance of Gloria Kuster, Marge Meyer, Alba Noti, Martha Zangara and Lorraine Carter, each of whom represent their PTA Unit on the Scholarship Committee.

A BARTENDER at one of our race tracks recently took $3,000 out of the bank to help his nephew through an eastern college. When asked how he could afford the gesture, he smiled sheepishly. "Day in and day out," he explained, "I watch thousands of men and women bet on horses and lose and lose for broke. The way I figure it, a fellow might stand a chance to make a killing if he bets on a human being."....Ad in another L.I. weekly "FOUND: Lady's purse, left in my car while parked on Main street. Owner can have same by describing contents and paying for this ad. If owner can explain satisfactorily to my wife how purse got into my car, I'll pay for this ad myself." (poor thing)....At Gildo's we overheard a Sands Pointer's remarks: "We were considered by a maid last week." & : "An old-timer is one who can recall when a bureau was a piece of furniture." And: "People who throw kisses are hopelessly lazy."....A Syosset mother kindly allows me to quote the last line in a letter from her son. He's overseas: "Oceans of love with a kiss on every wave."....Here's the way Bethpage's Bill Hose tells it: A big wolf in a dark forest met a little girl carrying a basket of food. "Are you taking that basket to your grandmother?" asked the wolf. She said yes. She also told him where her grandmother lived. He disappeared into the woods. Upon arriving at her grandmother's house she saw somebody in bed with a nightcap and a gown on. Immediately she realized it was not her grandmother, but the wolf. As she approached the bed she pulled from her basket a .22 automatic and shot the wolf dead. (Gr-Gr-Gr) Moral: It is not so easy to fool little girls nowadays...Swank Woodbury Country Club's Prexy Jacques "Jack" Mann gleefully reports that his "We Have Everything" club's membership list has only a few openings left....A well known Island columnist remarked recently to his barber, "I think we'll have a good potato crop this year." The barber took issue with him, replying firmly: "I think this year's spud crop will be poor." In the writer's next column: "An excellent potato crop is expected this fall." The next time he saw his barber the clip artist said apologetically, "I was wrong about this year's potato crop. I read in the paper that it will be 'excellent.'...Pianist Bob Eschmann says: "He's the kind of bore who's here today and here tomorrow." Bob's playing in East Northport, these dreamy nights...The Swan Club's been sold to a pal of the Mooring's Buggy Stegel.. A Nice Policeman's Lot: On Old Country Road a large can of milk fell from a passing truck, spilling milk all over the road. A patrolman halted traffic while the driver retrieved the can. The officer was about to blow his whistle when a small white cat crept up and started lapping the milk. Traffic stood still as the light changed to green 3 times. Only after the kitty had drunk its fill and returned to the sidewalk did the policeman give the "Go ahead signal." Of course horns were blowing but who cares!....If You Please

Teen Dems Seek Election

President Joseph Rohan of the Hicksville Teen Democratic Club, announced at a Block Party given by his campaign committee, that he will seek re-election as president of the Teen Dem's. Rohan speaking before 150 supporters said "I had intended not to seek re-election for a second term, however I feel that Hicksville's votes in the next election on the county level are very important. That is why the Teen Dems must run a efficient and effective campaign this year. I doubt very much if a person who has never worked with the Teen Dems in a campaign can organize the type of campaign we need to win this year."

President Rohan has been a member of the Teen Dems since it was established in 1960 as Teens for Kennedy. Over the last 4 years he has worked with the Democratic candidates for total of 78 different offices. He is a former Secretary and Vice - President of the Hicksville Teen Dems. Currently he serves as an area captain for the John F. Kennedy Memorial Scholarship Fund and a Volunteer for the Nassau Heart Fund.

Rohan called for the election of David Jungman as Vice-President, David Rule as Secretary, Rust Rule as Treasurer, Sandy Wadler and Marsha Zipser as delegate to the Nassau County Junior Democratic Council. Chairman of the campaign committee Richard Fitzgerald said "We are confident of victory and the turn out here adds to our optimism. We will win this election because we deserve to win." Featured at the party were the Wells Brothers from England.

The one on top is a world famous legend.

The one below it is the same legend redesigned into an all new station wagon.

It has the deluxe interior appointments and comfortable ride of a fine passenger car . . . carries six big adults plus more luggage and equipment than you can imagine. It's powered by America's only automotive overhead cam engine, the high torque Tornado OHC . . . offers optional extras such as automatic transmission, independent front suspension, power steering and power brakes. But the all new Wagoneer is really a 'Jeep' vehicle at heart.

The 'Jeep' Wagoneer goes up steep hills, over rough rugged terrain and through snow and mud that leave other cars helpless. And around slippery turns that cause fishtailing and skidding, it hugs the road with traditional 'Jeep' traction.

The big reason is 4-wheel "Drivepower." All four wheels are power wheels instead of just two. Take a demonstration drive soon. You've never driven a car that can do the things this one can.

Letters

Asst. Com. Warren W. Knox
State Education Department
Albany, New York
Re: Math 10- District 17
- Junior High School

Dear Sir:

I am writing this letter to inform you of information brought to my attention during this past year that has aroused rather serious questions in my mind and the minds of others in this district regarding the Math 10 Regents examinations of June 1963.

The information includes the following data:

(A) We are aware of the fact that the Math 10 Regents examination papers from the Junior High School of this district are still in the district and subject to your call.

(B) We are also aware that at least three students involved fit the following description:

1. Advanced Math students (track one)
2. Scored well on California tests.
3. Were informed last day of school had failed

Regents examination - did not see papers.

4. Passed with good grades for class term mark.
5. Were not informed or notified could attend summer session and take August 1963 Regents examination.
6. In Sept. of 1963-64 term were withdrawn from Fusion classes and sent to 'repeat' Math 10.

I'm sure you can envision the sort of questions these circumstances provoke in people's minds, yet I hesitate to ask those questions publicly at our local level because of the adverse attitude it could generate, perhaps unfairly, toward administration, teachers or our State's Educational System.

After much careful thought as to the best way to handle this matter for all concerned, I decided to request respectfully that your office call for these papers to survey and resolve the questions and/or take remedial action at the Albany level. I believe in this way cooler and wiser heads can and should prevail.

We are aware that time is short as it affects this matter in that the one year such papers are subject to call will soon expire. I apologize for not writing to you sooner, but it was most difficult to find a constructive rather than a disruptive path. It involved much discussion and research to determine our State's present Departmental and Regents Machinery.

I would much appreciate being advised of what action you take on this and at the same time assure you I shall react with the degree of restraint I hope this letter conveys to you.

Yours truly,
Maxine D. Carson

On Monday, June 1, at 8:30 p.m. the Our Lady of Mercy Rosary Altar Society, Hicksville will hold its final meeting of the year. As a result of the recent election, Mrs. Irene Rheame, Plainview and Mrs. Rita Long, Hicksville will assume the offices of corresponding secretary and treasurer, respectively, for the coming year.

Guest speaker will be Mr. Louis Orsini, a representative of the Catholic Federation of Latin America. Comparable in some ways to the Peace Corps, the C.F.L.A. was formed in response to Pope John's plea for lay volunteers to work among the poor in Latin America -- not to preach but to give people the means to help themselves. Those in the organization work without salary and depend on contributions to finance their work.

WSCS Meets

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the Hicksville Methodist Church, on Old Country Road, will hold its business meeting on June 3, at 8:15 p.m.

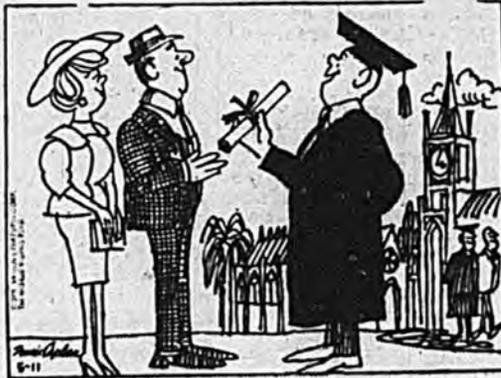

The theme of the program will be "Let's Get Acquainted". Rev. Nicholas Nappi will introduce the new Sunday School worker, Miss Mary Lou Blackwood, formerly of the Warren Street Methodist Church in Brooklyn. Reverend Nappi and Miss Blackwood will explain the new Sunday School program to begin in Sept. 1964.

We would also like each member of the W.S.C.S. to bring a friend with her. This meeting should be of interest to every woman in the church who has children.

Come to the meeting, and get acquainted with Miss Blackwood, with our guests, and with the new Sunday School program.
