School Board Race Now Set

The final stages of the School Board race to be voted on May 5 are shaping up. There have been some last minute surprises although many of the veterans of the school board race scene feigned no surprise at the re-instatement of George Kunz, who decided his friends should draft him at the last minute.

As the race now stands Marvin Goldberg, Florence Infantino and George Kunz are running for one seat on the board, Ames Anderson and Ames Trimble are running for the other seat, which is now filled by William Bruno r. Mr. Bruno did not file a petition for re-election.

In addition to voting on the School Board candidates the budget which will be up for approval or disapproval. The budget will be $12,462,408.00 up over one million dollars from last year. The school board has declined to give an estimated tax increase to the district although rough figures indicate that it will mean a 10 percent tax increase if passed.

TEACH - Members of Board of Education have covered up the bungling in our schools. From the Blacky tests (sheer smut to the banning of a book). Remember all the surplus paper and books at the warehouse?

TEACH - Members of Board of Education accused me of all the Problems - remember I didn't create them, I exposed them, as any elected official should.

TEACH Members of Board of Education have stooped so low as to take favors at Abt's Motel - it is on tape. Lawrence gave dishes for his stay, Johnson admits he cut Abt's grass. How many other members have accepted "favors" for their public service. I Haven't!

TEACH Members of Board of Education have suppressed vandalism, violence, drinking, don't cooperate with the Police Department and on and on.

TEACH Pledged to give Mr. Abt "all he wants" - you pay for it, work against you. Why was a certain former P.T.A. leader hired? Why do they want a public relations man? Why did they give Mr. Abt a new contract while he has not furthered his education and pay him approximately $25,000 for five years?

TEACH lies to you about what happens if the budget is defeated. You will NOT have an austerity budget.

I offer you this advice - should you choose to elect one or two more TEACH people or an incumbent, you will go broke.

Why does the Board Majority (6) Hornbostel, Jackson, Johnson, Kunz, Lawrence, McCormick offer No Cuts???

Remember Abt's Motel. I urge you to vote "No" on both budgets and vote against those that masquerade "for the children." Think before you vote or look at the new Administration Building on the south side of the High School. Thank you for your past support. William A. Bruno, Jr.

Kunz Plays Hard To Get

On the evening before the final day for filing, I learned a petition had been circulated advocating my candidacy for the Board.

As stated to those interested in my reelection, I am not actively seeking the position, but I do express appreciation to all the friend and neighbors who thought enough of me to propose my name.

When I announced my intention to retire from the Board several weeks ago, I assumed qualified candidates would file for my vacancy. Understandably, a lot of other people had similar hopes that they would be given a choice - not between the two extremes - but a choice to reflect the true needs and desires of our community.

As for my own situation, I will serve if elected but I wish to reiterate that I am not actively seeking reelection nor encouraging further efforts in my behalf.

THINKING IT OVER Do We Hate The Past?

By Robert L. Morgan

RUSSELL KIRK

We feel strongly tempted to make an endorsement this year in the Hicksville School Board elections even though it has not been our custom to do so in the past. However, any endorsement of the candidates now running could not be undivided so we will pass it by for this year with simply one strong negative endorsement.

Three years ago when George Kunz first ran for the school board we looked upon him favorably as being a voice of moderation for the board. After his election we soon realized how wrong we were. The shock of winning the election even by a narrow margin so inflated the ego of this young fellow that we were amazed at the outpourings of arrogance that he injected into the school board meetings.

At one point this writer received a letter from Mr. Kunz saying that he had removed this newspaper from the list to receive paid legal advertising of the school board because we had written an editorial that said the school board shouldn't have held a referendum on the national day of mourning for President Kenedy. But the letter said that the board might take a more favorable position if this writer would come before it and apologetize.

Readers of this newspaper know what happened. Mr. Kunz was told in no uncertain terms to get his nose back into joint and let a little air out of his chest. But as a powerful force in the community Mr. Kunz still is stopping this newspaper from receiving legal announcements that are now inserted in out of town newspapers at more than double the cost to taxpayers.

Now this tricky young man has a new arrogant scheme. Instead of coming before the taxpayers and giving his qualifications or his educational background, he chooses to have you the voter draft him at the last minute. If he wins the voters will have another three years (or maybe less if he runs for the GOP Town Board) of arrogance and increasing school taxes. Because even though Mr. Kunz said he was for less taxes, he has always been for more spending and in the three years he has been on the Board the spiral has gone up again.

So think and vote on May 5.

Surgery Is Delayed Till Need Is Certain

By C.A. Dean, M.D.

MEDICAL: Today I saw a patient in my office who recently had his appendix removed. In response to my queries about what had taken place just before the operation, he explained that he had four examinations before doctors gave the go-ahead sign. After the decision was made he was moved to the operating table without hesitation and an acutely swollen, inflamed appendix was removed.

This is a good example of modern-day surgery and of the superior training our young surgeons are getting. It is always better to be as sure as one can be that an operation is needed before proceeding. Fewer normal appendices are taken out now than ever before. The temptation is always present on a questionable case to perform an operation just to be sure.

In recent years our better hospitals have established tissue committees to check parts of the body (appendix, gall bladder, etc.) removed during operations and determine, by careful examination, whether they were actually diseased. This serves to prevent unqualified surgeons from practicing and also keeps the good surgeons on their toes.

(Q) "If possible I would like to know what could cause a bloody show in a woman after 14 years have passed since a complete hysterectomy. I had a G.I. series and nothing was found wrong." M.N.

(A) Was this bleeding from the vagina or rectum? If it was from the former, a pelvic examination is necessary to check on the operation. If it was from the latter, then a sigmoidoscopy (examination of the lower colon with a light is necessary. The cause could be hemorrhoids, a tear of a membrane or a polyp (growth).

Do you have a medical question? Write Dr. C.A. Dean in care of this newspaper.

To judge by the callousness with which many Americans efface their architectural charm and historic sites, one might think that we moderns detested the past.

Yet Dr. Carl Friedrich, of Harvard, says that Americans are the most conservative people of this age. We ought to preserve beauty and the memory of those who have preceded us in time, as well as institutions and private property.

On a recent expedition to Colby College, this writer found that the old town of Waterville, Maine, has demolished almost every building of any venerability or interest downtown. What will supplant the charm of the past, in historic Waterville's "urban renewal"? Why, as one citizen told me, "Cinderblock Shoppingcenter astroscities, on the outskirts." Downtown Waterville possibly may never recover from this "renewal," economically or in terms of attractiveness and community.

Augusta, Maine, also is experiencing the "progress" of the bulldozer and commercialized "improvement" blight though many fine old houses remain for the moment. Soon no town of any size will be safe from the designs of thick-skinned promoters or misguided city fathers who call such devastation "creating jobs."

Here and there, we find a surviving island of tradition and serene beauty in our sea of innovating ugliness. I spent a day, a little while ago, revisiting old Williamsburg, the colonial capital of Virginia. With Rockefeller money, the officers of Colonial Williamsburg, Inc., have made that venerable town the handsomest and most interesting of America's dozen-odd, largescale undertakings in historic preservation and restoration. The latest restorations at Williamsburg are a curious cabinetmaker's shop and the eighteenth-century tavern of Mr. Wetherburn. Every American ought to spend one vacation in a leisurely inspection of Williamsburg.

Mr. Sargent Shriver's people plan to renovate one decayed block of Harlem, at considerable expense, to demonstrate how a neighborhood can be restored to decency and handsomeness, without demolition. "President Johnson is arranging a White House conference on the nation's beauty. May their designs thrive! The wrecker's ball and the "ribbon development" sprawl make it hard for us to love our country.

Whenever your community, gentle reader, begins to contemplate applying for a federal "urban renewal" largess, ask the civic fathers to think before they switch on the bulldozer's ignition. Too often, these schemes are designed by professional "renewal" promoters, eager for fees but little concerned for the future state of a town - where they won't have to dwell. A community ought first to draw up its own general plan of renewal, with particular attention to preserving all that deserves to endure. Don't leave your town's past to the indifferent and alien professional.

He may claim that "Washington wants it done this way" - that Big Brother knows best. Overrule him or discharge him. Above all else, retain the peculiar character of your town, the memorials of its past which will give meaning to its future.

Two Teams For Connie Mack

The Bethpage Baseball Association announced that it will enter a "B" team in the Long Island Connie Mack League in 1965 in addition to its Eastern Division "A" League defending championship team. The "B" team will also play in the Eastern Division which includes teams from Baldwin, Massapequa, Plainview, Farmingdale and Merrick. The team will be managed by John Kyle, a recent addition to the BBA staff of managers, who played baseball as a catcher and centerfielder for many years with the very strong New Hyde Park teams.

The "A" team will again be managed by Mike Verderosa, assisted by Al Zucker, who is replacing Charlie Leek who has resigned as a coach to devote more time to the business end of managing both teams and in the capacity of Eastern Division Vice President of the Long Island Connie Mack League.

The "A" team, which lost only two players from the squad which won the Eastern Division "A" League playoffs last year will face teams from Baldwin, Hicksville, Bellmore, Plainview, Levittown, Massapequa, Central Nassau, Merrick and Farmingdale.

Both teams will open their schedule on June 6th versus Baldwin. The "A" team will host the Baldwin "A" team in a doubleheader at Bethpage High School and the "B" team will play a single game at Baldwin.

Who buys more Savings Bonds?

As statistical-minded as we are today, the Treasury Department can't answer that question.

The Treasury does know that U.S. Savings Bonds are owned by tens of millions of families. So it might be safe to assume that people in every walk of life belong to this "savings club."

This is a happy fact for the United States, and for the free peoples of the earth. For Savings Bond dollars are playing an important role today in the making of history.

This $46 billion reserve in the government's hands is working vigorously today to help our country in the major struggle to defend freedom.

At the same time, Savings Bonds help build your personal purchasing power by paying good interest and providing a method of saving that's unconditionally safe and readily cashable. And the higher your purchasing power, the better it speaks for our system.

The P.T.A. Manual, Article III section 2 on Basic Policies states: The Association shall be non-commercial, nonsectarian, and nonpartisan. In its nonpartisan policy the P.T.A. does not endorse any candidate for office. Any group activity in support of a specific candidate, on the part of a local unit, district or state branch, is a violation of the nonpartisan policy of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers."

Consider the above Basic Policies, while learning that a P.T.A. executive chairman, on the Public Relations Committee to the school board, personally interviewed United Group candidate Anderson. This is grand scale hypocrisy perpetuated on the local citizenry.

Yet, the P.T.A. Manual on Basic Policies states: "Leadership on local Boards of Education is of vital interest to all Parent-Teacher members. Only citizens deeply concerned with educational standards and school needs should be elected or appointed to these boards."

It is not hard to understand the prevailing atmosphere of hostility, when the P.T.A. takes it upon itself to suddenly issue an "Extremist Pamphlet." At the same time, proclaiming the belief in the right of others to hold and express views, even extreme ones, that differ from their own. And, that free access to information, diverse opinions and "Loyal Opposition" are essential in a democracy."

Further dissension has been created by the Woodland Ave. P. T.A. unit, usurping the council's power, in having T.V. Cameras brought into the school, thereby violating the ruling of the School Board on the issue. What goes on here? Why, one wonders, is Hicksville to become part of a documentary on the L. I. school system? Why does this community and its school affairs occupy so much newspaper space of late? - While the P.T.A. is busy politicking our children's needs are unattended. In the past, the P.T.A. presented "Live Theatre" for children, selling season tickets at a moderate price, a success fi-nanacially as well as culturally. What has been done recently in this area? -

New York State has a repertory drama, along with the "Paperbox Playhouse," comprising professionals only too willing to perform in communities culturally attuned. Airlines offer many fine films to qualified organizations free of charge. Has our P.T.A. availed themselves of these fine services to provide enrichment for our children?

True, cakesales and carnivals have provided needed funds, but how must many dedicated women feel, to learn that 1 cent of each P.T.A. membership dues went towards the cost of an "Extremist Pamphlet" which the legal Dept. of the State Dept. of Education has cited, as being too controversial, stating it would only create additional dissension. The council and P.T.A. executive leadership has brought shame and embarrassment to truly fine women of Hicksville, whose aims and dedicated works are in the interest of the children.

It requires no special astuteness to realize a sorry state of affairs exists in the P.T.A. since they have allowed T.E.A.C.H. (this movement betrays the hypocrisy of its name) infiltrators to exercise their grandiose ideas. Is it not time the P.T.A. disassociate itself from this extremist group and respect the integrity and maintain the aims set forth by P.T.A. founders and its true supporters?

Quo Vadis, Hicksville?

TEACH Group Gives Platform

(Submitted for the Candidates)

Now that all candidates running for School Board Trustee have announced their intention, the UNITED T.E.A.C.H. candidates Marvin Goldberg and James E. Anderson, are able to evaluate the situation and analyze the alternatives facing the voters on May 5. At one of the recent house meetings held by a member of the UNITED T.E.A.C.H. Campaign Committee, the candidates expressed their view.

Last week, George Kunz abandoned his prior intention not to seek reelection and permitted his name to be fielded as a candidate for School Board Trustee. We do not question Mr. Kunz' right to seek reelection. We do, however, question the advisability of his running as a "reluctant" candidate and his past voting record on educational issues which seriously affect the quality of education in Hicksville - a record upon which he intends to rest his case.

Mr. Kunz has voted against the Board's resolution endorsing State aid to the schools. If the State does not give the schools aid in supporting our schools, an individual homeowner would be taxed well over what he is now paying in school taxes. We, the UNITED T.E.A.C.H. Coalition candidates, pledge in our platform to "continually pursue methods for obtaining revenues from outside the district to add to our local financial resources for educational advancement." As industries throughout the state benefit by the quality of education which our children receive, it seems only equitable that the taxes which they pay to the state should assist in maintaining the school system. It is for this reason that we believe Mr. Kunz has been shortsighted in his position on State Aid to education.

His vote is again in the negative column in matters affecting the vocational training of some of our children. We cannot afford to be inactive in an area which represents 45 per cent of our students. Every effort should be made to teach skills which will equip our non-college students to earn a good living. This segment of our school community must receive the guidance and attention it deserves. Each child who does not get the opportunity to learn a craft which will equip him to earn a decent livelihood represents a potential name on relief rolls which will cost the individual taxpayer far more in the long run than it would have cost to adequately prepare him for his future.

Mr. Kunz voted against the Proposed 1964-65 School Budget. Since most of the increase was represented by State mandated and fixed items, the only possible objection he could have had was in the areas affecting teachers' salaries, other than the increases mandated by the State. The increases given were an attempt to make the Hicksville pay scale comparable to the salaries paid to teachers in other communities in Nassau County. At the present time, our scale ranks 45th in a field of 56. In order for us to hold onto the experienced teacher, we must be able to offer a salary range which is commensurate with that offered by other communities. By being 45th, we are encouraging our experienced teacher to look to the competition thereby creating vacancies which must be filled by neophytes who, after three or four years of experience, might, too look for greener pastures. This vicious cycle can only prove detrimental to our school community. Mr. Kunz does not demonstrate the awareness necessary to deal amicably with the teaching community.

We are in complete variance with Mr. Kunz on his resolution to withhold School Board advertising from a local newspaper which had criticized the Board's judgment on several issues. To even attempt to stifle the freedom of the press is an action we cannot condone.

Besides Mrs. Kunz's candidacy last week it was also announced that Florence Infantino and James Trimble planned to seek a seat on the School Board. Their election can only mean a continuation of the pattern of behaviour established by William Bruno. We cannot believe otherwise since both candidates have accepted the full support of certain groups in Hicksville, who had previously endorsed the extremist philosophy espoused by Mr. Bruno. We cannot emphasize enough the evils of extremism that have infiltrated our community during the past three years and the destructive effect perpetuation of such evils will have on the quality of our children's education.

We are confident that the citizens of Hicksville will study the programs offered by the various candidates and discern among them which will offer the best possible educational opportunities to our children. We feel that a vote for Anderson and Goldberg on May 5th will insure a program dedicated to quality education for every child in Hicksville.

Why should two men who have shown no active interest in school affairs suddenly decide they qualify to run for Board Trustees? Surely there are qualified people who have consistently participated in school affairs and are willing to become candidates for Board Trustees.

Letters

I was confused to see the names of James E. Anderson and Marvin Goldberg as candidates for Board of Education Trustees. At Board meetings I've yet to hear these names mentioned, either during the time devoted to correspondence or to the public. People I know who attend the meetings regularly and know these men tell me they have only attended one meeting (April 9th).

The back issues of the Mid-Island Times and Mid-Island Herald show no letters from these men expressing their views on school issues.

In all fairness, I felt I should avail myself of an opportunity to meet these men. I was appalled to find they could not answer questions pertaining to the budget. Mrs. Parker, of T.E.A.C.H.

To all Hicksville Residents:

For quite some time a vicious campaign has been waged against T.E.A.C.H. (Taxpayers Educational Association for the Children of Hicksville). I resent these attacks on our organization by individuals and groups who employ Communist, Birch, and anti-American tactics to create confusion and dissension for ulterior purposes. TEACI is a non sectarian organization of responsible citizens dedicated to the proposition that Education is essential, not only to the fulfillment of the individual child, but to the preservation of our Democracy.

We are not a secret organization!! Our general meetings are always open to the public and announcements of these meetings are published in all local newspapers. We pride ourselves on the fact that our meetings are geared to explore those facets of our educational system which we feel will be of the greatest interest to Hicksville residents. We also publish a Newsletter throughout the year alerting people to valuable educational information. We are proud that our methods of communication with the School Board have never degenerated into unruly mob scenes and Khrushchev-type table banging at school Board meetings.

Controversy and debate are always healthy in a community when it is conducted in a spirit of mutual respect. We can disagree without being disagreeable. Rowdiness, threats, personal vilification do not serve any useful purpose. As the late President of the United States, Herbert Hoover, once said, "Calling names is not debate. It is a confession of defeat by logic and fact. It is more - it is the infallible sign of intellectual dishonesty." We in T.E.A.C.H. strive at all times for enlightened, constructive criticism.

our members, our School Board Election campaigns have culminated in the elections of Dom Sabatella, George Jackson (for two terms), Irving Lawrence and Caleb Hornbostel. These elections were won "fair and square" with proof of that statement can be borne out by the formation this year of a coalition with the United group. In other years United has supported our opposition. This year, because of the urgent need to rid our community in general, and our School Board in particular, of the extremist element so evident at School Board meetings, we have joined hands to sponsor the candidacies of Marvin Goldberg and James Anderson. This would not have been possible if either group, had in the past resorted to the gutter-type of propaganda that is so prevalent in organizations such as HELP (Hicksville Education League of Parents).

It might be remembered that a few months back our letter box literature came in such abundance were stuffed with literature from this same organization. This time, one could only speculate as to its financial backing. These bulletins had the unmitigated gall to portray four of our local Board Trustees as "being soft on Communism." The reason for this charge was their vote against accepting the book, "None Dare Call It Treason." The fact that School Board policy at the time precluded its acceptance was not weighed in this condemnation of four highly respected men of our community.

Our children must not be made to suffer through another three years.

T.E.A.C.H. is proud of the community in which we live, and we will fight all elements who seek to degrade that community. Sincerely, David Edward Trabich President - T.E.A.C.H.

Letters

To the Editor:

On Friday, April 24, I was invited along with all other School Board candidates to speak before the Pine Brook Civic Association with regard to my candidacy.

My understanding was that the Association had not endorsed any candidates and there was no mention at that time that there might be any action in this regard. When I arrived, I chatted with Mrs. Watson, President of Pine Brook. She indicated to me that as far as the candidates were concerned, she had a "closed mind." I frankly wondered whether there was any point in speaking before the group, but decided to proceed.

There were about fifteen members present, aside from the officers. As far as I know, from conversations with them, most of the officers, including of course,

Mrs. Watson, are strong supporters of the team of candidates opposing me and those with whom I am running.

I understand that after the "forum" the Pine Brook voted to endorse, or at least those present voted to endorse, all candidates opposing those running with me.

While the Pine Brook is certainly entitled to take any action allowable under its by-laws, I am convinced that the sham of inviting Mr. Camp, Mr. Sullivan, Dr. Bauman and myself to the "forum" was carefully contrived. Pine Brook is now able to assert that they "listened to all the candidates" before making an endorsement.

I believe that there were many "closed minds" like Mrs. Watson's and that the Friday evening "forum" was nothing more nor less than a kangaroo court with the outcome never at all in doubt. Very truly yours,
Mark Levine

Get ready - guest insurance: Long Island and Brooklyn residents who find themselves with unexpected, uninvited, self-invited-guests this spring and summer will be interested in what one neighborhood is doing to protect themselves from certain acquaintances who they haven't heard from since last summer. They have ingeniously solved their spring and summer "Drop-in-for-a-week-or-two" problem by banding together with their neighbors and worked out a plan for mutual defense. Whenever the uninvited appear, the host regretfully explains that it will be impossible to accommodate them, as some friends are arriving for a stay of several weeks. Then, at the first opportunity, he telephones a nearby family. They soon appear loaded with baggage, and stay until the unexpected have cleared out. This neighborly group are not unfriendly people. They are wonderful. AND, they were nice all winter, too, when a certain type of acquaintances didn't even send a Christmas card...Elliott (Sky Club) Murphy tells about a merchant seaman who was being investigated under the McCarran Act.
