Youth has been an important part of the work of the Rev. Lawrence P. Ballweg, celebrating his twenty-fifth anniversary of ordination, during his 25 years as assistant pastor at St. Ignatius Loyola parish, Hicksville.

"I enjoy watching our youngsters play baseball more than watching the Yankees or the Mets," he said.

The CYO program in the parish embraces some 500 boys in a variety of activities.

In addition to his duties as moderator of the CYO program, Father Ballweg is also moderator of the Legion of Mary and the parish Confraternity of Christian Doctrine program. He is an assistant director of the CCD program in the diocese.

A camera hobby which Father Ballweg developed during a trip created a new means of visual aid for his Confraternity classes.

"We had so many youngsters here at one time," Father Ballweg explained, "I wanted to give them as much instruction as possible."

That's when the film strip idea took form. He took pictures of the administration of the sacraments, incorporating existing pictures into his presentation. He recorded his own narrations to accompany the film strips.

Teachers supplemented the films, which would be presented twice each period for 15 minutes on the Bible and the lesson of the day.

"At one point, I was taking 18 rolls of film a week," he recalled.

PBC Holds Candy Sale

On the week ends of April 3 and April 10, the Hicksville unit of the Police Boys Club held its annual spring candy sale. The weather was beautiful, the candy delicious and the boys eager!!

There were three different types of candy sold. There was imported Irish chocolates, and solid milk chocolate Easter eggs. The novelty this time was an Easter bunny filled with candy, that when emptied, is a vase. The sponsors from the P.B.C. and volunteer parents were kind enough to drive our boys from block to block.

We would like to publicly thank these volunteer adults who gave up their week ends off to come down and give so generously of their free time. We also would like very much to thank all the people who bought candy from our boys. Incidentally, a great big thank you to the boys who gave up their days off too, to work so hard for P.B.C., because without these young salesmen, there would be no candy sale.

All the money from this candy sale goes toward the purchase of sporting goods, band equipment, and hobby necessities. The parents of these boys can be very proud of them. Even if they are little 'imps' sometimes at home, when they put on their uniforms they become little gentlemen, who are conscientious, polite and hard working. It becomes a contest between them to see who can sell the most candy in the least amount of time. The delighted smiles on their faces when they sell a box of candy is worth all the work. The P.B.C. is proud to call these boys their own.

Each return trip to the club - house to refill their supplies, the Boys were served hot dogs and hot chocolate by members of the Hicksville Ladies Auxiliary. Thank you ladies for going from your kitchen to ours on your day out.

Working very hard at the club-house counting candy, money and boys were members of both the Men's Club and the Ladies Auxiliary and Patrolman Director, Frank Darcy. Hot coffee was served during the day by participating adults.

This fund raising project of selling candy requires several weeks of careful planning and mapping out areas of Hicksville. To all adults who took part in this, in and out of P.B.C., a hearty "thank you." Without the help and cooperation of all concerned, this endeavor could not have been the huge success it was.

Senior Citizens Party Success

The Senior Citizen's Club of Bethpage, held a very successful card and game party on Thursday, April 25th, at the American Legion Hall. About 125 persons attended and had a very pleasant time. The buses provided by the Board of Education, brought the members down and back home as usual. Ninety prizes were given out, including 6 door prizes.

The hand-crocheted bed spread and scarfs for which chances had been sold, was won by Mrs. Helen Crosby of Bethpage. The lucky number was drawn by little Miss Meme Weydener. Very many valuable prizes had been donated by merchants and business men of the area. The next meeting, May 6th will be for the nomination of new officers.

On May 7th the Club President and the Treasurer, will represent the Club at the Governor's Luncheon to be held at the Americana Hotel in New York City. It is an all day session, to discuss the plans and possibilities for aid to the Senior Citizens, especially by the State. The afternoon will be a "work shop" to demonstrate various arts and crafts, things senior citizens can do.

BEAUTY SECRETS

By Victor of Villu

BE GREY AND LIKE IT!

Last week I discussed my experiences with a great-great grandmother who had volunteered to work as my model at a Girl Scout "Good Grooming" meeting. Even though the evening was devoted to Brownies and their big sister Girl Scouts, it was grandma who stole the show. For by restyling her hair, I was able to convert her into an effervescent young matron of 70.

The thought occurred to me that perhaps not enough attention is given to beauty care when the years have suddenly added up on you and your hair has turned grey. It is no secret that these are indeed the "golden years" of a woman's life - a time when age takes on a beauty all its own, and with just a little encouragement from a competent hair dresser, the face, the figure, yes even a woman's entire personality can take on a new and vivacious look.

There are so many fetching hair-do's available to grandma, so many new rinses and color shampoos that make the hair vibrant and colorfully soft and pliable, that it is a pity that not enough "women take advantage of them. It's no exaggeration when I say that some younger women can hardly wait to go grey. And of course from a professional point of view, working with grey hair brings so many compensations, most satisfying of which is the happy reaction of grandma herself who never dreamed she could be so beautiful again.

Grey hair should be the beginning and not the end of beauty care. It's easy to take young hair and flip it, tease it or curl it. But when you work with grey hair your range may be more limited, but your imagination is not. For some you can produce a youthful and gay look without being flip-pant, create bangs for grandma without making her look kittenish, or mold waves and flips without making her look like a teenager.

So if you're a gray lady, you can be a gray lady only if you'll relax and place your problems in the hands of a trained hair specialist. For lo and behold - it will be the Cinderella story all over again!! For questions or consultations call or see Mr. Victor at Villu, OV 1-8760, 534 So. Broadway.

On May 13th the club members and guests will go by chartered bus to New York for a show at the Radio City Music Hall and luncheon afterward. For any information call the President, Mrs. Viola Weydener at WE 8-0185 or Director, Mrs. Eileen McLoughlin at GE 3-6894.

of Cancer Care will take place May 9 thru May 13 - time, Sunday, 1 to 5 p.m.; Monday thru Thursday, 1 a.m. to 5 p.m. at 408 No. Wantagh Ave., Bethpage, behind Holiday Manor.

Anyone wishing to donate any clothing or bric-a-bracs to help with this sale - please contact Mrs. J. Manning, OV 1-1562 or Mrs. E. Wigh, WE 8-4746. Evenings are preferable for phone calls.

Letters

To the Editor:

No doubt your readers were confused by last week's edition and I can readily understand why.

Your editorial stated I have "always been for more spending" and yet on page 8, the TEACH group berated me for voting against the 1964-1965 budget. In actual fact, you are both wrong.

The record will show I voted for the 64-65 budget even though, admittedly, I fought a long, unsuccessful battle to keep expenditures down. What I voted against was this year's (65-66) budget because, very frankly, I felt the expenditures were far too high in certain areas. The most notable of these for increases in salaries, not only for teachers but for the administrators as well.

To cite some examples, one of the teachers on the salary committee had to admit the added take-home - pay mandated by the State together with his normal increment and the new salary increase would mean an additional $1,000 or more to him for the next school year. So, too, our Administrative assistants, who also fall under the 5 per cent take-home bill, stand to take home an additional $875 plus a salary increase of $750 - or a total of $162 more.

If anyone is misleading the public, Sir it is not me. Rather, it is those who continually misrepresent positions taken by public officials to suit their own ends.

On this point, the TEACH organization seems equally guilty by the inferences made in the platform which they "submitted for the candidates." They describe my vote in matters affecting the vocational training of our children as "in the negative." What they failed to say is that most Board members, including those TEACH supported, voted No on the vocational training program. The reason? - because our Superintendent, Mr. Abt, urged against expanding our own programs until the State and County completed formulating their own plans for a centralized facility.

Also, TEACH says they are in complete variance with me on my motion to change the designation of official newspapers. If this is true, they are completely out of step with the majority of the Board (including those they supported), as only Mr. Bruno cast a dissenting vote on my motion.

Regarding my vote against the Board's resolution endorsing State aid to schools, I am justly proud of my action. It has long been a fallacy that our problems can be solved by looking to the State or Federal governments. The fruits of this type of warped thinking are just now beginning to ripen. A two-percent (2 percent) sales tax is our answer - and in the process we have lost a great deal of local control over our own finances and problems. No - state aid is not the answer; it is merely a subterfuge whereby a local board can avoid its commitments to the people.

It is obvious from the foregoing that the extremist type philosophy so often condemned has an opposite member. This, basically, is why our community deserved to have a third choice in the election.

Yours truly,

George W. Kunz

Editor's Note: The problem with Mr. Kunz' answer is that the of-

In Service

Electrician's Mate Fireman Apprentice PETER H. GREGORITSCH, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent H. Gregoritsch of 73 Gardner Ave. and Quartermaster Third Class MARTIN A. KRICALO, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Krikalo of 24 Brooks St., both of Hicksville, are serving aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Independence, which will deploy to the Western Pacific with the U.S. Seventh Fleet on May 10th.

The carrier will steam around the Cape of Good Hope, into the Indian Ocean, and then join the Seventh Fleet. While in the Orient, the Independence will visit ports in Japan, the Republic of the Philippines, Singapore and Hong Kong.

Minutes show numerous places where he could have voted down higher appropriations but did not. This includes his stumping for the building of the big new administration building and his vote against a full scale probe of the wasteful warehouse inventory last year. He only wishes to recall in this letter the few ineffective places where he was not completely for increased spending. He also misses the main point of the editorial that public officials who set themselves above criticism should be put out of office. Mr. Kunz believed that he had been given the power to control the editorial content of this newspaper through his school board post. He has not to this day admitted he was wrong.

Priest Tells Of Red Term

A near capacity audience of St. Ignatius Loyola parishioners listened in rapt attention as the Rev. Walter J. Ciszek, S.J. told of his 23 years as a prisoner in Russia. The occasion was an open meeting sponsored by the St. Ignatius Auxiliary of Christian Mothers.

Father Ciszek was rightfully introduced by his friend and fellow Jesuit, the Rev. Edwin O'Brien who saw him off in 1934 to train as a volunteer for the Russian missions. Father Ciszek completed his studies in Rome and was ordained in 1937 in the Byzantine Rite. He was assigned to a mission in Poland near the Russian border in 1938. His parishioners were White Russian people. He enjoyed their simple, natural character and felt he was doing the work that God had planned for him. In 1939 when Germany overran Poland, the Russians took over the mission. Father Ciszek refused an opportunity, given him by the American Embassy, to return to the United States, because he felt he had not yet done the work that God had chosen him to do. He volunteered to go incognito as a worker with Polish laborers to the Ural N. region of Russia. He was arrested in 1941 as socially dangerous and eventually sentenced to prison. During the ensuing years he suffered every form of hardship but never lost his simple faith in the providence of God. He used his own experiences to draw the parallel that each of us, whatever our walk of life must recognize the Hand of God in shaping our eternal destiny.

Since his return to the United States in 1963, Rev. Walter J. Ciszek has written of his experiences in a book "With God in Russia."

The business meeting of the Auxiliary was necessarily brief. Noteworthy is the coming Silver Jubilee of the Rev. Lawrence Ballweg, to be celebrated with a Solemn High Mass on May 15. The Mother's Auxiliary will meet again on Monday, May 24, at 8:15 p.m. in the parochial school auditorium. Featured for the evening will be Miss Carol Lane, Women's Travel Director of the Shell Oil Co. She will discuss unusual automobile vacations and ways of making travel easier and more enjoyable for women and their families.

Airman Charles R. Walsh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Walsh of 24 Helen Ave., Plainview, has completed Air Force basic military training at Lackland AFB, Texas.

Airman Walsh has been selected for technical training as a communications - electronics specialist at the Air Training Command (ATC) school at Keester AFB, Miss. His new unit is part of the vast ATC system which trains airmen and officers in the diverse skills required by the Nation's aerospace force.

The airman, a graduate of Plainview High School, attended the State University Agricultural and Technical College at Farmingdale.

'Bye Bye Birdie' Curtain Raiser

The curtain will soon be going up at Hicksville High School on the smash musical comedy, "Bye Bye Birdie." The Thespian Troupe is presenting the show on May 5, 6, 7 and 8 at 8:15 p.m. Tickets will be available at the Hicksville High School box office for the following prices: $1.00 for Wed. evening, $.75 for Thursday night, $1.00 for Friday night, and $1.25 for the Saturday night show.

"Bye-Bye Birdie" is the story of what happens when that famed Rock and Roll idol, Conrad Birdie, is drafted into the Army. His manager, Albert Peterson, who is played by Bruce Ulmer, must find a way to give Conrad, played by Bob Hendrickson, a send-off that will long be remembered by his fans. At this crucial time, Albert's secretary Rose Alvarez, portrayed by Lynn Stephens, resigns after eight years of trying to get Albert to stop thinking of music and start thinking of her.

The Wednesday performance is being presented as a benefit for the Hicksville High P.T.A.

THINKING IT OVER

By Robert L. Morgan

Now that the school Board elections are over it might be a good time to ponder some of the things that come up with this annual hassle.

For many years the public has been sold on the idea that it is a favorable intellectual stand to be in favor of more spending for schools. The idea was fostered that the patriotic and only course to insure good citizenship was to dig in ever deeper for tax money.

But there was something basic that has always been overlooked in this reasoning. It is simply that there is a selfish trend that permeates the thinking of many who are forever pushing the crusade for more school spending.

This selfishness generally centers around the fact that those calling for the school spending will be the direct beneficiaries of the money spent either through children in the school or because they work for the school district. Now selfishness is a vice probably only when carried to an extreme. There are people who are rightly concerned that their children get good educations and there are employees of school districts who are rightly asking for fair wages.

But where the problem has long come in is why under the name of necessities of education have such things as the school lunch program by which children of well fed middle class families given a state subsidized lunch as a reward for accepting the costly education been made the responsibility of all taxpayers. The selfishness of those groups forever shouting for more money for some unworthy educational projects is shown in their utter disregard for the taxpayer who is now receiving the benefits they are bestowing on themselves as parents of students. And this disregard is even greater when you consider that many of the small but vocal groups pushing for special educational projects come from the higher income brackets of the community. They are determining what everyone should pay by what they can afford.

While selfishness may not necessarily be condemned "en toto" the calling of it as some lofty idealism is hypocrisy. In addition it may well be wondered by those who continually shell out for more school taxes why just once in a while there is not something done to promote among public school education recipients a fair gratitude for the amount of money and taxes spent for the education of each student. It seems that the taxpayer - particularly the one not receiving any direct benefit in his family from the taxes - never hears a note of appreciation from education groups, but only the complaints.

Answers To Important Medical Questions

MEDITORIAL: I have received many letters concerning pregnancy after menopause (the change of life). Many of the women who inquire are in their fifties and haven't had a menstrual period for a few years.

Pregnancy in any woman over 47 is rare, even in those who continue to menstruate beyond this age. In one hospital, Johns Hopkins, there was only one doubtful case of pregnancy in a woman over 47 in 65,000 deliveries. Being feeble-minded, this patient may not have known her real age. In another large hospital in Boston, Mass., the oldest maternity patient was 49 and in over 50,000 deliveries in a Chicago hospital there were two women of 46 and two of 48 who gave birth.

In view of this data, women who stop menstruating after 47 years of age may be told that the chances of a pregnancy are remote.

(Q) "Please explain what Marie-

Strumpell disease is. How does it effect your back?" M.M. T.R. (A) Marie-Strumpell disease is a form of arthritis which affects the spine. It occurs much more often in men than in women. The first part of the spine that usually is involved is the sacroiliac joint. In fact, because of the initial symptoms in this area, many cases of Marie-Strumpell disease are erroneously thought to be sciatica. The onset is gradual, beginning with mild back pain which slowly gets worse. As the disease progresses, the back muscles tend to tighten up.

Treatment is fairly successful and in most cases will prevent crippling. X-radiation, cortisone, braces, exercises and aspirin are accepted forms of treatment. The earlier the treatment is started the better the results. Surgery is used in severe cases to correct curvature of the spine.

Do you have a medical question? Write Dr. C.A. Dean in care of this newspaper.

Thoughts After Three Years Of Writing

By RUSSELL KIRK

This is approximately the 800th column your servant has written. A comparative newcomer, I have been at the business for three years. Editors and the public have been kind to me, and thousands of readers have been sufficiently interested, annually, to send me letters of assent, dissent, or general comment.

Some of my columnar colleagues I have been reading since I was in the seventh grade: Mr. David Lawrence, for instance; Mr. Walter Lippmann; Mr. Raymond Moley. Yet some colleagues, in point of service, are junior to myself: Mrs. James J. Kilpatrick, Mr. Robert Hutchins, Mr. John Chamberlain. In point of age, though, I remain a neophyte, only Mr. Wm. Buckley and one or two others being younger than myself.

How, people ask me, does a man become a syndicated columnist? By chance, in part. Some well-known columnists began as, or remain, editors of newspapers or magazines. Others were originally feature-writers, foreign correspondents, and reporters. A number, like Dr. Max Rafferty, Dr. Max Lerner and your servant, first achieved reputation as authors of books and public speakers. Mr. Barry Goldwater is almost unique as a major political leader with a hand in syndicated journalism.

Ours being a highly competitive trade, generally the weak go to the wall in their first year. Many of us die in the saddle, like the late George Sokolsky, writing almost to the last day. Perhaps we grow intoxicated by the music of our own typewriters.

Although the financial rewards are considerable for those columnists who have been entrenched in many newspapers for a whole generation, in general the emoluments are not remarkable. A few such writers - Mr. Henry J. Taylor and Mr. Holmes Alexander come to mind - enjoy substantial private means. But the real attraction is our possibility of helping to form a responsible public opinion - in politics, in taste, in literature, even in morals.

Some of my colleagues I do not much esteem - particularly those given to occasional vituperation or to skirting the laws of libel. But most of us mean well enough, and I think our level of discourse has improved somewhat over the past thirty years. Gentlemen like Mr.

Arthur Krock (for dependable political comment) and Mr. Morris Ryskind (for wit, among other qualities) are as good journalists as any country has a right to expect.

Here are some rules which this columnist tries to observe:

(1) Do not usurp the functions of the able editorial writers of the Dailies. Concentrate on subjects of which the columnist has particular knowledge.

(2) Do not condescendingly write "down" to the newspaper public. It is better and sounder to assume that one's readers are talented than to assume that they are bores.

(3) Do not be eternally sober-sided and pontifical. The public rightfully likes anecdotes, an occasional smile and "human interest."

(4) Be civil to one's colleagues, tolerating - nay, cherishing - differences of opinion.

(5) Don't be afraid to challenge the fads and foibles of the moment. One may lose some readers and a few papers by forthrightness, but such is the duty and the risk of honest commentators.

(6) And finally, bear always in mind one's own fallibility.

Hicksville Girl Scout News

Fourteen girls of the Mid-Island Council Girl Scouts, Inc. and their leader, Mrs. June Catalano, spent four wonderful and exciting days during Easter Week at Rocking Horse Ranch, located in Highland, N. Y.

The girls are from Senior Girl Scout Mounted Troop No. 411. They earned the money for the trip by holding a Card Party, selling fruit cakes for the holidays, selling Girl Scout cookies and calendars. This trip was the highlight of their program and will never be forgotten by any of them.

They made the trip by bus and arrived about noon on Tuesday, then immediately changed into their riding clothes and proceeded to renew acquaintances with the staff from last year. Each girl had her choice of English or Western saddles and chose her favorite horse. They spent four to six hours a day on horseback on scenic trails cantering over rocky slopes, muddy patches and fallen logs. The appetites that were developed on these rides were amply satisfied with the delicious and abundant meals.

After dinner the first night there was square dancing with "Cuzin Norman." The next night the girls took the "Rocking Horse Express" to a bowling alley, and with the compliments of the Ranch bowled two or three games. The last night they were taken to a nearby roller skating rink, where skates were supplied free of charge.

The warm, friendly atmosphere was a delight to the girls, and some "horseplay" was indulged in, to the point where the girls dump ed Vicki Roben, Linda Smith and Pat Wayne into the trough, much to their amusement.

Besides Mrs. Catalano there were: Jane Caldwell, Joanne Casey, Caroline Denny, Mary Beth Hartman, Jane Hellig, Sheila Kwatit, Carol Lindeman, Ellen O'Rourke, Vicki Roben, Judi Rothstein, Linda Smith, Gladys Swanson, Gail Viamonte, Pat Wayne. There are enough anecdotes to keep the girls well supplied with subject matter until next year's trip.

Several of these horsewomen are members of the Mid-Island Council Girl Scout Equestrienne Drill Team and will be appearing at the Long Island Fair and various other events throughout the year.

evening. Shown are Convention Chairman Arthur Rutz and Nassau County Sgt. at Arms Arthur Hirsch, both of the Charles Wagner Post, looking over a partial display of the conventional trophies. ....

Local Group Makes Dreams Come True

A local Bethpage organization which devotes itself to anonymously helping underprivileged children here and all over the world is looking for funds.

The organization is Friends Anonymous for Underprivileged Children, Inc. Its headquarters is in Hilltop House, 6 Woolsey Ave., Bethpage, which is the home of Mrs. Edith Farrell who is also the president of the organization.

Chartered as a non-profit organization, Friends Anonymous operates without overhead through existing charitable institutions.

One of Friends Anonymous first endeavors was the granting of Christmas wishes to the 74 boys of the Mary of the Angels Home in Syosset last Christmas.

At that time the 74 boys in the home were told to list what they wanted Santa Claus to bring them for Christmas. The results were letters asking for anything from "A shoe shine kit" to make some money with to a walkie talkie.

The Friends Anonymous granted every wish. Another project of the Friends Anonymous is the adoption of Korean orphans. The group has adopted five Korean youngsters and contributes to their monthly support and will do so for many years.

The President of the organization Mrs. Farrell is looking for other projects and for contributions to expand the activities of Friends Anonymous. Local people interested in joining or helping the projects can communicate with Mrs. Farrell at 6 Woolsey Ave., Bethpage or by phoning WE 5-2083.

Friends Anon. Cookie Drive

Friends Anonymous for Underprivileged Children, Inc. will sponsor a fund raising drive during the month of May. This non-profit organization works strictly on a volunteer basis, has no rental fees or paid salaries and does not engage in commissions or paid advertising. You can help underprivileged children both within and outside the continental limits of the United States by purchasing one or more boxes of cookies from members or local merchants who have offered to lend space for this drive. Cash contributions will go directly to the needs of underprivileged children and can be mailed to Hilltop House, 6 Woolsey Ave., Bethpage, New York 11714. Your help in furthering the efforts of Friends Anonymous is both needed and appreciated.

J. War Vets Rummage Sale

In Service

Seaman Apprentice WARREN R. SCHUSTER, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Schuster of 43 Meeting Lane, Hicksville, is serving aboard the attack cargo ship USS

Union, which landed Marines in the Republic of Viet Nam for the third time in less than two months.

The landings are intended to strengthen the Ninth Marine Expeditionary Brigade guarding Da Nang air base and to strengthen the security in Hue-Phu Bai, 40 miles north of Da Nang.

The landings differed from usual amphibious landings. Landing craft had to transit the 12-mile restricted passage of the Song Hue river to reach unloading ramps at Hue.

Airman First Class STEPHEN R. TRIBE, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Tribe of 28 Power St., Hicksville, has arrived for duty at Wheeler AFB, Hawaii.

'Airman Tribe, a personnel specialist, previously served at Carswell AFB, Texas. His new unit is part of the Air Force Communications Service which maintains communications for control of global Air Force operations.

Where do you need a phone?

In any teen-ager's room.

Privacy is very important to a teen-age girl or boy. A bedroom extension phone lets your teen-ager talk to friends without an audience—and without disturbing other members of the family.

Teen-agers use the phone for school activities, part-time jobs, club work and, of course, small talk. Today, the telephone is an important part of a teen-ager's life.

A teen-ager's phone may be an extension on your present line or a second telephone line with its own number. With a second line, calls can be made and received without tying up the family phone.

To order, call your Telephone Business Office or ask your telephone man.

Fabacords Go On To Success

The Fabacords, on Sunday, May

2, fresh from their triumph at Port Washington on April 25 where they won the first place title as Virtuoso Champion Accordion Band of the Accordion Association of Long Island, the second year in a row), presented their Third Annual Spring Concert, under the skillful direction of F. Arden Burt, Jr. at the Hicksville Junior High School auditorium.

To go over the program piece by piece would be repetitious, by their applause the audience indicated very favorable reception of the program presented. One of the pleasant surprises of the afternoon occurred when Mr. Burt drafted Mr. Jimmy Downs, from the audience to conduct the Fabacords in the rendition of Mr. Downs' composition, "Accordion Band Boogie!"

Solo and duet selections by members of the band augmented the orchestral program. Soloists and their selections were: Miss Anne Gambino, Dance No. 5 by Mosowski; George Hicks, The Brave Matador by Frosini; Robert Sauer, Beautiful Days by Pietro Diero; Sandy Koepfel, Olive Blossoms by

"One girl at the office is getting married, another one is having a baby, two men are retiring this month..."

Bethpage Girl Scout News

Thirteen girls from Bethpage - Plainfield, Neighborhood VI of Mid Island Council Girl Scouts, Inc. and their advisor, Mrs. L. M. Catalano spent four wonderful and exciting days during Easter Week at Rocking Horse Ranch located in Highland, N. Y.

The girls are from Senior Girl Scout Mounted Troop No. 411, Bethpage. They earned the money to finance the trip by holding a card party, selling fruit cakes over the holidays, and baby sitting. Girl Scout Cookie and calendar profits also helped to acquire the necessary funds.

This trip was the highlight of the program for the year and will never be forgotten by any of them. To some, it was a return to pleasures of last years trip to "Rocking Horse."

The girls left Bethpage by a chartered Semko Bus and arrived about noon on Tuesday, April 20. Riding clothes were immediately changed into, and the girls then proceeded to renew acquaintances with the staff and horses from last year. Each girl had her choice of English or Western saddles and choose her favorite horse. They spent most of the days on horseback on scenic trails, cantering over rocky slopes, muddy patches, and fallen logs. The appetities that were developed on these rides were adequately satisfied by the delicious and abundant meals which were served.

The first night there was square dancing with "Cusin Norman." The next night, the girls took the 'Rocking Horse Express' to a bowling alley, and with compliments of the Ranch played two or three games. The last night was spent at a nearby roller skating rink, where skates were supplied free of charge.

The warm, friendly atmosphere was a delight to the girls, and some "horseplay" was indulged in, to the point where Vicki Rebon, Linda Smith and Pay Wayne were dumped in the trough, much to their amusement.

Participating in the Ranch trip along with Mrs. Catalano were: Jane Caldwell, Joanne Casey, Mary Beth Hartmann, Jane Heilig, Carol Lindeman, Ellen O'Rourke, Judi Rothstein, Vicki Rebon, Linda Smith, Gladys Swanson, Gail Viomonte, Pat Wayne, Caroline Dendy and invited guest Sheila Kwiat. There are enough anecdotes to keep the girls well supplied with subject matter until next year's trip.

Several of these horsewomen are members of the Mid Island Council Girl Scout Equestrienne Drill Team and will be appearing at the Long Island Fair, and various other events throughout the year.

Donor Luncheon For B'nai B'rith

Mrs. Fran Davis, donor chairman announced that 34 members of Four Freedoms Chapter of B'nai B'rith attended the gala B'nai B'rith Womens Donor luncheon held at the El Patio Beach Club in Atlantic Beach on Sunday, April 25, and Tuesday April 27. The luncheons which climax the year's fund raising effort, featured commedienne Larry Best. B'nai B'rith is the worlds oldest and largest Jewish organization for support and services.
