Board Asked To Shelve National Anthem Usage

The Hicksville Board of Education is holding a special policy committee meeting Monday at 8 p.m. to determine whether it should do away with the daily singing of the National Anthem in the schools and substitute some other patriotic songs in its place or continue the present policy which was instituted four years ago.

The issue was brought before the Board at its Friday meeting when a letter from Richard Evers who said he represented local American Legion Post 421 asked that the change be made. It was the third year he had asked for the same change.

In a letter which Mr. Evers read to the School Board he said that it was his belief and that of the majority of the social studies teachers in the secondary schools of the district that the daily use of the Anthem was making it "a mere incident" and that other songs such as "America", "America the Beautiful" and "God Bless America" should be substituted. While the Board did not make any decision on the issue, Board member Irving Lawrence seemed to concur on the suggestion and Herbert Johnson seemed to oppose it. Full text of the letter is as follows:

Board of Education
School District 17
Hicksville, N.Y.

Dear Sirs:

As School District 17 is starting another school year, the Charles Wagner Post of the American Legion wishes to call the Board of Education's attention to an unresolved school problem of the past three years.

We refer to the present policy of requiring our school children to sing or listen to two stanzas of the Star Spangled Banner each morning as a part of each day's opening exercises.

The Post's members continue to feel that daily contact with our National Anthem is far from an uplifting enriching experience contrary, we feel, more of a deadening, meaningless exercise which, as the years pass, is lessening our children's appreciation of the unique, inspirational nature of the Anthem.

The daily use of the National Anthem has never been a common practice in our nation's schools. The Anthem has been traditionally reserved for special school occasions of significance such as weekly assembly programs, graduation ceremonies or important athletic occasions.

BEAUTY SECRETS

By Victor of Vilu

It's back to school for the kids, and back into the social whirl for mother and dad. For mother it means P.T.A.'s, religious, civil and even political activities. Sometime or other, mom, of discrimination was devoid of

No. 14 and Mr. Johnson declined to read it aloud, even when requested to do so. This blatant act of discrimination was devoid of our school children. My letter was presented.

While President Lyndon B. Johnson urges all to join in wiping out discrimination, the Hicksville School Board President clings to this too possessively. One cannot but question the fitness of Mr. Johnson to head a school board if he cannot control his private feelings.

Since the letter was not heard by the audience I am hoping that you will have space and will permit the letter to be heard through this media of the press.

Sincerely,

Mr. Herbert Johnson, President Hicksville School Board

Dear Mr. Johnson and members

I am writing this letter to inform you that you will be receiving a number of petitions which have been signed by the residents of Hicksville. These are a representative amount sufficient to illustrate of logic of appointing

Mr. James Trimboli, active candidate for the Hicksville School Bd., who garnered 1647 votes in the past campaign.

Point 1. It has been stated publicly that you have repudiated the votes garnered in the last election and have labeled them a "reject issue" by the voters. Since you and other members of the school board are active in local politics, I must ask, "When you urge your constituents to support a candidate of your choice, do you ask them to step into the voting booth and pull the lever for the other party's candidate?" The answer is not

You urge them to pull the lever for the candidate that they would like, or hope to see win. When an affirmation of his wishes.

Whether the candidate of his choice, wins or not; the vote remains a positive or a "For." There are just two possible truth values, true or false. A vote for cannot also be a vote against.

Point 2. It has further been stated publicly at the conclusion of the Sept. 17 board meeting a candidate was chosen to fill the vacancy created by Mr. Abramson's resignation. Since I left the school board meeting, I do not know if this is true. There were five school board members present throughout the meeting.

This is considerably less than 1647 and will be considerably less than the number of signatures on the petitions which you will receive if you are determined to ignore the votes cast in the past election.

If you cannot in fairness ignore the petitions, nor the voices of the people who signed them.

Point 3. On June 26, retiring school board president, George Kinsz read a scathing denunciation of the tactics and the literature used by TEACH and THE make-up that was put on her, richly or ornately.

A confident woman is a woman who is vitally interested in the people and in the community in which she lives, when she is called upon to speak, she will hold her audience without being an oration. She is filled with enthusiasm. She likes the world she lives in and shows it. She looks and sounds alive and ready with a laugh or a smile.

On the occasion will fill us with that ringing in the nervous system, that sinking feeling, way down deep, and all the other symptoms, but we do have a word or two to say about putting your best foot forward. And the two best words we can think of to make your friends proud of you are "poise" and "confidence."

Some women are born with both. But if you weren't so endowed by nature don't fret, both of them can be acquired with only a fair amount of thought and good sense.

What makes a woman confident? For one thing, pride. A confident woman has taken stock of herself and finds that she has a lot to remove or reduce all these things, clean inside and out. She's never caught flat-footed in a soiled dress, nails that need a filing, hair that isn't combed or an affirmation of his wishes.

Whether the candidate of his choice, wins or not; the vote remains a positive or a "For." There are just two possible truth values, true or false. A vote for cannot also be a vote against.

You are now being offered an opportunity to make amends to a fine man who bore with dignity the vilification heaped upon him and who never stopped to smear the words o' flar, Kozz were completely lacking in truth.

In closing, I wish to state that I am familiar with the New York State Education Law which grants the school board authority to fill the vacancy on the present board

The law provides no directive stressing moral obligation. The lawmakers assume that only those citizens with a sense of moral responsibility will be elected to implement the laws.

The members of the Hicksville School Board have such a responsibility. Can it abide by the rules of fair play which are so much a part of our American way of life? Respectfully, Florence Infantino

Letters

To the Editor:

On May 28, 1965, the Hicksville School Board voted to implement a police week program the first week in October. During this week, it was proposed that speakers be invited from the precincts as well.

as the county and exhibits be in each and every school to help acquaint the children with the wonderful work done by the law enforcement officers.

On August 9, 1965, a special meeting was called at which time the board voted to rescind the policy already approved and listed on the school calendar which had been sent to every resident of Hicksville. I might add that this meeting was not advertised and as a result many of us interested citizens who attend the meetings actually were not present. In all fairness, I must mention that Mr. Johnson, the Board President voted against removal of this wonderful program which could only have had beneficial results.

If the logical question is asked, Why a protest is made now after such a time lapse?" the answer is simply that the matter did not become public knowledge until the meeting of Friday, September 17.

A matter of genuine public interest came up at the meeting on September 24, 1965. A Mr. Evers read a letter in which he advocated dispensing with the singing of the Star Spangled Banner everyday in our schools, as was writing as a past commander of the Charles Wagner Post, American Legion of Hicksville.

In my wildest imagination I cannot envision the American Legion or any veterans condoning such an action. These are men who put their lives on the line every day for the flag. Certainly they would not find objection to school children singing a few words of praise everyday.

Can a child be taught to respect a policeman too much or love his country too much? Maybe I'm old fashioned but I don't think so. Sincerely yours, Theresa Tisdell

"The Cards Say It's Rosenthal" according to Mrs. Joanna Lanner of Old Bethpage shown here with Democratic candidate for State Assembly 8th A.D. Murray F. Rosenthal. To her right are Mrs. Fray-

da Sinnreich and Mrs. Grace Bass both of Plainview. Mr. Rosenthal who spoke at a luncheon Friday in the home of Mrs. Frances Hourigan, Plainview, deplored the fact that women in their weekly shopping had to pay a "Rockefeller Sales Tax" for so much of their household staples. Mr. Rosenthal said, "I believe, along with State Controller Arthur Levitt, that the Sales Tax was unnecessary and when elected to the State Assembly I will work to implement Controller Levitt's alternatives to this tax as a first step in alleviating this most regressive tax burden." The forty women at the luncheon decided not to depend upon the cards, but to work on getting out a large vote to insure Rosenthal's election.

THINKING IT OVER

By Robert L. Morgan

Congressman Lester Wolff is both right and wrong. He is right that a great many people find trading stamps to be a nuisance. But he is wrong that it is government's business to interfere in the distribution of the stamps.

Trading stamps are a nuisance to many people and they do constitute an invasion on their use of their own money. Through trading stamps the grocer withholds a little of the customer's money and then gives it back to him in the form of stamps that can only be used to buy items that have been pre-selected for him at higher than normal prices. This is the bad aspect of trading stamps.

But is not government's business to interfere in this or any other private activity where the customer still has the right to deal or no deal with the store?

Some stores do give stamps and some do not. It is a dangerous situation when the government interferes in private business. And this is clearly intervention. Congressman Wolff has done a service in bringing the bad points of trading stamps out into the open. Beyond this he should abandon the issue to the housewife who can decide what course to follow next. And you can be sure that what course she takes will be watched closely by the executives of stores now giving stamps. The law to be followed here will not be a government law but the law of diminishing returns.

Insulin Intake Varies According To Daily Needs

By C. A. Dean, M. D.

(Q) "I am a diabetic taking 25 units of insulin a day. I vary this, however, with my needs. If I know I'm going to eat more, I take more insulin that day. Do you think this is all right?" A.L.J.

(A) Yes. All diabetics should learn to be flexible in the control of their disease. It isn't good to be too rigid since our needs and demands vary from day to day.

(Q) "When the color of stools change from light to dark, does this indicate cancer? If so, where would the cancer be located?"

(A) This change doesn't necessarily indicate a cancer. It may mean that bleeding is present somewhere in the upper portion of the gastro-intestinal tract. Cancer could be a cause of this bleeding and must be ruled out by X-rays and other tests. Whenever this type of complaint arises, a thorough investigation is called for without delay.

(Q) "Could you tell me the weight of an adult's liver?"

(A) The liver weighs about 3 pounds in men and two-and-one-half pounds in women.

(Q) I have a skin disease which causes several small warts to appear on my body. I have tried many things without benefit. The doctors want to try X-ray treatment. I go to a good skin specialist but I wonder if you think this type of treatment is safe and effective. My mother also has this skin condition so I presume it is hereditary." Miss V.D.

(A) The type of X-ray treatment used for this skin problem can be done safely and is usually effective. This treatment should be performed by an experienced and properly trained doctor, such as a skin specialist. You should abide by your doctor's recommendation.

Do you have a medical question? Write Dr. C.A. Dean in care of this newspaper.

Long Faces In Asia

By RUSSELL KIRK

DESPITE THE STRONG and growing American forces in Viet Nam, Asian leaders are uncertain whether the United States may be trusted as a firm ally. Such is the report of Dr. Walter Judd, just back from the annual meeting of the Asian People's Anti-Communist League, in Manila.

This League is composed of representatives of private groups in some 24 Asiatic countries (and one African state, Liberia). They are no sponsored by their government. All the members confront the grim reality of growing influence of the Communist Chinese.

Dr. Judd with much experience in Asiatic affairs, knows how to assess their mood. When Dr. Judd quit gerrymandered out of his Congressional District in Minnesota, Congress suffered a major loss. Combining a shrewd understanding of practical politics with high principles, Dr. Judd was one of the three or four Congressmen with the best knowledge of the Communist menace.

Intelligent Asiatic opponents of the Communist ideology, Dr. Judd reports, fear that Washington, while encouraging them to take an inflexible stand against Red China and Soviet Russia, may practice the doctrine of flexibility, where American interests are concerned. In the forefront of Asian minds is the alarming instance of Laos. American policy-makers first persuaded the leaders of Laos to fight the invasions of the Communists with all their power and then, during the first year of the Kennedy Administration, abruptly substituted a feeble policy of "neutralization," which the Laotian royalists were then booted into accepting—with disastrous results for their country.

A year ago, Dr. Judd tells this commentator, he conversed on this subject with President Ayub Khan of Pakistan. Perhaps no one in Asia is more staunchly opposed to Communist doctrine and influence than is Ayub Khan. But the president of Pakistan explained how he must come to some tolerable understanding with Red China, Russia, and Afghanistan. The Americans, said Ayub Khan, urge him to set his face severely against his Communist neighbors; but meanwhile the American President and State Department work for American "accommodation" with the Soviets. How can Pakistan risk the consequences of inflexibility, when the United States begs the Communists for compromise and good neighborliness?

Meanwhile, too, the United States was doubling India's armament, as a bulwark against the Chinese menace. How can Pakistan see her Indian frontier steadily endangered by Indian armament, and at the same time treat China, Russia and Afghanistan as enemies? Ayub Khan's vacillations have been confirmed by the events of the past two months.

The Asian representatives at Manila doubtless have been alarmed subsequently by American policy in the Dominican Republic. The opponents of Communism have been left in the lurch by the American-imposed settlement, while the Communists and their fellow travellers go scot-free in that country, and a feeble provisional government cannot stand except through the presence of American forces and a few Latin American soldiers. Would the Johnson Administration treat Asiatic leaders similarly, in similar circumstances? If so, the Asiatic states, following the example of Cambodia, may seek to come to terms with Peking now.

AN OLD STORY: During intermission of the wonderful "Sound of Music" at Syosset Theatre, I overheard two ladies chatting: "How does your daughter like married life, after one year of it?" asked her friend. "Wonderful!" was the enthusiastic reply. Adding: "She married a very nice boy—he helps her with the housework, the dishes and even stays with the baby when she wants to go out—he does everything for her." And how's your son doing?" inquired the friends. "Oh, the poor boy, it's terrible she moaned. "He married a different type of girlie has to help her with the house work, wash the dishes and even has to stay with the baby when his wife goes out. It's absolutely ridiculous, he has to do everything for her." (meow)...Bruce Barton's line: Nothing splendid has ever been achieved except by those who dared believe that something inside them was superior to circumstance."...The Jack (Rhein-gold) O'Grady's expect another bottler from Heaven next month. "Must be doing, etc...Last Saturday during a beautifully catered reception at Veron Valley Inn, East Northport, when told to sleep on a piece of the wedding cake a kid said, "Oh, I'll eat it and sleep on my stomach." ...Manhasset's Tex McCrary quipped: "We don't get ulcers from what we eat, but from what's eating us."...After 12 years as head-mixologist at Syosset's Villa Victor, Eddy Carty has switched to David Huschle's elegant Maine Maid, Jericho. Letter from our Bethpage reader: "Our collie, Fan, had seen her first litter of puppies given away. When the second litter came, she led us out to the garage and let us have a peek, but that night all the puppies disappeared. Fan showed up each mealtime, then she would run as fast as possible away from our home. We often tried to trail her, but she always eluded us. A month later we heard a faint cry of a pup. Investigating, we found Fan and her puppies inside a cozy well-padded bed, that she had made for them, under our house. She had been leading us away from the house and then circled back and sneaked under the house and joined her babies. This time we are to help her keep her secret. Thanks Mrs. C. H. F., you can help yourself to this column anytime with a nice story like that... Sudden thought: The thing which in subways and buses is called congestion is highly esteemed in night clubs as intimacy. Let's not equal... Chic Farmer back hosting at Westbury Manor after two weeks vacationing at Bill's Inn, Montauk. He reports that he attended a contest there where they chose a girl "whose lines had the best bait." The minute you learn to spell cat, you're trapped. From then on the words can be packed into three cases: The few who make things happen; the many who watch things happen; and the overwhelming majority who have no idea what has happened. Also, many people are continually faced with a difficult decision: Whether to live within their incomes, or have a little fun now and then... If you Please...

It's 1966. Rise up with Dodge. Get with the swinging cars of the year!

JOIN THE DODGE REBELLION

Why wait, when your year is here? The year to snap tired old ties, to break old buying habits. The year to really express yourself . . . with the '66 swingers from Dodge. Different, exciting cars for people with different, exciting tastes. Rally 'round Dodge for '66. Dart, Coronet, Polara, Monaco . . . cars made to help you kick the dull driving habit. There are lots of Dodges for you to hang your personal rebellion on.

Every one backed by a 5-year or 50,000-mile warranty.* Every one with these features that used to cost extra but now come standard: Outside mirror. Padded dash. Variable-speed electric windshield wipers and washers. Backup lights. Turn signals. Seat belts, two front and two rear. And lots more with Dodge . . . the beautiful Rebellion on wheels. Stir up your spirit and march to headquarters.

'66 Dodge Dart Still talking about squeezed-up compacts, when you'd rather do something about them? Put your money where Dart is! Unexpectedly big inside, long outside. Six or V8 power. Rise up with Dart! Be expansive without being expensive.

Stamp out cramped compacts;
get with man-sized Dart.

'66 Dodge Coronet Here comes Coronet . . . sharp, smart, sassy, the greatest thing from Dodge since Year One. Loaded with luxury the higher-priced cars haven't caught onto yet. With a choice of five engines, designed to make the walls of Dullsville come tumbling down. Get away from look-alike, first-cousin cars with Coronet.

Dullsville falls,
Coronet rises in '66.

'66 Dodge Polara Snap, crackle, pop, go the ties that bind. You're up and out of the rut with Polara. More "big." More "hot." A lot of standard extras (like a 383 cubic inch V8) at no extra cost. See it now. And if you're carrying a big torch for a car that'll really move you, bring the torch along.

Demand more "big" in your big car;
insist on Dodge-sized Polara.

DODGE DIVISION CHRYSLER
MOTORS CORPORATION

*HERE'S HOW DODGE'S 5-YEAR, 50,000-MILE ENGINE AND DRIVE TRAIN WARRANTY PROTECTS YOU: Chrysler Corporation confidently warrants all of the following vital parts of its 1966 cars for 5 years or 50,000 miles, whichever comes first, during which time any such parts that prove defective in material and workmanship will be replaced or repaired at a Chrysler Motors Corporation Authorized Dealer's place of business without charge for such parts or labor: engine block, head and internal parts, intake manifold, water pump, transmission case and internal parts (excepting manual clutch), torque converter, drive shaft, universal joints, rear axle and differential, and rear wheel bearings.

REQUIRED MAINTENANCE: The following maintenance services are required under the warranty—change engine oil every 3 months or 4,000 miles, whichever comes first; replace oil filter every second oil change; clean carburetor air filter every 6 months and replace it every 2 years; and every 6 months furnish evidence of this required service to a Chrysler Motors Corporation Authorized Dealer and request him to certify receipt of such evidence and your car's mileage. Simple enough for such important protection.

'Job Bank' Continues Upward

Owing to consistent growth of business since its opening last year, Controlled-Manpower of L.I. Inc. has doubled its office space at 81 North Broadway in Hicksville. Continued expansion is anticipated to serve the growing needs of Long Island, according to Eugene L. Bakewell, president of the organization.

The Long Island Agency is a major unit of Controlled Manpower U.S.A. Inc., a nationwide employment and personnel recruiting network with offices from coast to coast in the main population and industrial centers of the country. Through centralized data processing, a "JOB BANK" and a "MAN BANK" are maintained to continuously register, identify and help match job applicants with employer requirements.

One of the major advantages of such a system is that it frees each Personnel Counselor of routine details so that he can give each applicant a more thorough, personalized service. In addition, both applicants and employers have immediate access to opportunities and talent locally and nationally. C.M. is the first modern employment service to apply EDP techniques on a local, regional, and national scale.

Football Jottings

By Mike Pryor

As all who attended know, we had a fine time Saturday morning at the Twin Theatres. We wish to thank Mr. Kaplan, Manager of the Twin Theatre, for all his help in making our Young Folks Show a tremendous financial success. The many door prizes were awarded to the lucky winners. Among them Miss Stacy Powers who won the transistor radio (donated by Courtesy Drugs) and Master Jared Eisenstadt who won the Admiral table radio (given to us by Jamaica Refrigeration.) Other donors of door prizes were Greenman Bros., Agway, M. Hohner, Inc., Thrift City and Williams Discount Stores, all of Hicksville. All in all more than 30 door prizes were given out.

The amazing Ward the Wizard started the show with his fantastic feats of magi wizardry. The many children who assisted Ward the Wizard can attest to his skills. All in all he had the entire audience enthralled. After the movie which was "The Wackiest Ship in the Army," our Rock & Roll group the Mid Island Five minus 3 appeared. The band members are - Tom Groody, Guitar; Bob Thallman, Drums and Jim Cummings, Guitar. Their songs and R & R numbers were really professional and in not too long a time we predict that these fine artists will be right up there. All in all it was a really good show. The boys have promised to come out at one of our home games at Cantiague Park and entertain the crowd at half time.

Last Saturday, our Intermural Division games began. The crowd who attended these games saw some fine football played on the 60 by 80 yard field. Coach Art

The Town of Oyster Bay, represented by Councilman Edmund A. Ocker of Plainview, as Chairman of the Town Board Standing Committee on Beaches and Waterfront, accepts the Certificate of Appreciation of the U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary for its support of National Safe Boating. Making the presentation at the Town's exhibit in the Long Island Fair at Roosevelt Raceway are District Staff Officer

Torrelas, who winged to Europe after the game, Asst. Coach, Tom Walsh and Warren Doolittle's squad, the Hicksville Lions out-played the Hicksville Mustangs 19 to 10. The Lion's quarterback, Tim Donahue, led his team with fine passing and excellent signal calling. Micky Menna scored 1 touchdown on an interception and a second touchdown on a 40 yard end run, with key blocks given by Peter Walsh and Richard Murphy.

Jeff Parker scored the third touchdown on a 20 yard pass. Scott Parker kept the Mustangs deep in their own territory with his long punts and sensational defensive end play.

In the Eagle vs. Wildcats game, the Hicksville Eagles coached by Dick DuBru, Ed Grams and Peter Kendall romped away to a 25 to 0 victory over the Hicksville Wildcats. Coaches for the Wildcats are John Maher, and Pete Morrissey.

Ken Hartman, the Eagle quarterback, called a masterful game setting up many plays that allowed the Eagles to move to victory. Ed Grams scored 4 touchdowns, in fact scored all his points in the entire game. Both the Wildcats and the Eagles played in defensive football. The Wildcats defensive unit led by Stew Bistany and Larry Haas hit hard and quarterbacked by Larry Clock an excellent passer penetrated deep in Eagle territory on to be stopped by the Eagle's Big Judge, Ken Hartman, Wayne Kendall and their stalwart teammates "The Chinese Bandits," "The Hot Terrors" and the "Mighty Mites" the three Eagle squads. The outstanding play of Eddie Grams scoring on 2 30 yard end runs plus an 80 yard interception return and a 60 yard second half kickoff return provided the margin of victory for the Eagles.

On the other front, our Mid Island chargers did it again. Bill Roth, our Charger coach was not able to attend this game as his baby's Christening occurred at the same time as the game. Chris Gagnaire took over the team for Chargers came from behind for the day. After a slow start, our their second win of this young season, and thus remained undefeated. Steve Malone received the kickoff and ran it back to the 50 yard line. Six plays later, Hicksville scored their first touchdown on a 20 yard pass from Brian McAuley to tight end Ed Moeller. The extra point was disallowed, because of a Hicksville penalty on the play. From this point until the end of the third quarter North Babylon dominated the game and forged ahead 12 to 6. Our boys just couldn't seem to get started. In the third quarter, Hicksville recovered a North Babylon fumble, and from that point on played inspired ball as well as taking complete control of the game. Hicksville tied the score on the last play of the third quarter on a cool out around right end by our ace quarterback Brian McAuley. Hicksville then edged ahead when McAuley went through the middle of the line to score the extra point. The score then was Hicksville 13 - North Babylon 12. McAuley scored the last touchdown of the game in the 4th quarter when Brian picked up no less than 5 blockers or a 30 yard touch down run. Key blocks were made by Chris Bistany and Steve Powers. The extra point gave Hicksville an eight point edge with 5 minutes remaining on the clock. The extra point was scored by Bob Gagnaire of Hicksville. Final score Hicksville 20 - North Babylon 12.

Starting with next week's column, team & league standings will be printed to inform our readers of Hicksville's position in the Nassau - Suffolk Football League.

Next week, Sunday, October 3, at 1 p.m. at Cantiague Park football arena, our team will meet undefeated Central Islip. This should be an exciting game and our boys would really welcome a big turnout to help cheer them on to victory.

Next Saturday at 11 a.m., the boys and their guests will be going to Shea Stadium to see the Phils and Mets play. All, who have not turned in their parental permission slips, please do so at once. The list of donations is growing with each passing week, next week we will endeavor to list all of our major contributors. See you at the Game!

He Remembers 'Battle Of Bulge' First Hand

The Battle of the Bulge involved many square miles. As with any battle, the individual drama tends to be obscured by the dimension of the fighting.

Some idea of what the Battle of the Bulge was like for the individual comes from talking to Robert D. Lewis, assistant cashier at Bert D. Lewis, assistant cashier at Meadow Brook's Hicksville office, who lives at 61 Westwood Rd., North Massapequa. Mr. Lewis was 19 years old, a member of an infantry company, during the Battle of the Bulge.

"Our division, the 99th, was in a holding position," he recalled. "We went out on patrols at night, usually to get prisoners. We heard reports from counter-intelligence that the Germans were planning a big push, but we didn't know when. So, we dug in, went on patrol, and waited. Bad weather set in early, then came snow, plenty of it, which turned to slush when the sun came out. At dawn one morning, without warning, the German artillery opened up and the shells came in without letup and by noon all hell had broken loose. A lieutenant herded what was left of the company and took us to an old farm house.

"We spent the night in the farm house, shells crashing through the dark. The next morning the Lieutenant told us we were going to try to make it to battalion headquarters about four miles away.

"It was bad from the beginning. We had to stay off the roads because German tanks were around. We stayed in the woods. There was snow on the ground. At night we tried to get our shoes off to change our socks, which were soaked, but our feet were too swollen. That was the beginning of frozen feet.

"The next day it was hard to walk. The lieutenant tried to keep us together; we tramped through the snow and slush in our low-cut boots—we hadn't been issued winter clothing yet. Our feet were numb and as heavy as lead. Most of us had frozen feet, including myself. Walking just a short distance was an ordeal.

"We ran into remnants of other units. There was sporadic firing. The men hunched over in the snow and ate their rations, dreading the moment they would have to walk again. Our lieutenant walked among us, bandoliers of ammunition over his shoulder. He was a former football star and he gave us pep talks. One of the sergeants had frozen feet, too; he let the lieutenant talk, said nothing. The men came to their feet and slowly, like sleep walkers, we kept going."

When they finally reached headquarters, Mr. Lewis was taken to a field hospital, and from there he was sent to England. For a number of years he felt the effects of frozen feet.

"The thing that bothered us the most was the helplessness we felt. We knew things were going badly, but there wasn't much the individual soldier could do about it."

Legion Oratorical Contest

The members of the Charles Wagner Post of the American Legion at their most recent meeting voted to extend the post's support to Congressman James Delaney of Astoria for his efforts to pass Federal legislation which will provide severe prison sentences and fines for persons who harass the families of servicemen by mail or telephone.

The post announces that its annual oratorical contest will offer a scholarship and prizes totalling $250 to Hicksville High School students preparing qualified addresses on the topic of the "United States Constitution."

In past American Legion oratorical contests, Hicksville has had the distinction of sending Gene Nye, a very fine speaker, all the way to the New York State final competition.

Jet Engine Coatings Made Here

The SYLCOR Division of Sylvania Electric Products, Inc., in Hicksville has introduced a new oxidation protective coating for jet engine components which will help to improve engine performance. Sylvania is a subsidiary of General Telephone and Electronics Corporation.

Designated NC101, the aluminide base coating protects nickel and cobalt base superalloys. It was designed to protect jet engine, gas turbine and furnace components and other parts which operate in high temperature oxidizing environments.

Receive Paragon Oil Award

Peter McMenamin of 219 Bay Avenue, a senior at Hicksville H.S., Judith L. Andersen of 66 Floral Ave., Bethpage, a senior at Bethpage H.S. and Paul Mitnick, 149 Sutton Drive, Plainview, of Plainview H.S., have been designated by their principal and faculty to receive a 1965 Paragon Oil Incentive Award.

A total of 113 Nassau and Suffolk County, public, parochial and private senior high schools have each chosen a student to receive one of the Eight Annual Paragon Oil Awards, to be presented at a luncheon ceremony on November 27 at the State University, Farmingdale.

Sponsored by the Paragon Oil Company, Division of Texaco, Inc. as a community service, the awards include Certificate of Merit and $50 U.S. Savings Bond. The recipients are chosen on their excellence in English, Science, Social Studies and qualities of good citizenship.

According to the Committee of high school principals which set the standards of the coveted Paragon Oil Awards, the purpose of the awards is three fold: 1) to give recognition or scholastic achievement; to encourage a better understanding and appreciation of the American free enterprise system; and to promote participation in the U.S. Savings Bond program.

School Contest

Hicksville public, parochial and private school children in grades 10 through 13 are being urged by the William M. Gause Jr. Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, to participate in the 19th Annual Voice of Democracy Scriptwriting Contest in which winners will compete for $13,500 in scholarships as well as read their scripts on Radio Station WHLI.

"The contest, co-sponsored by Station WHLI as a public service is designed to give high school students the opportunity to voice their opinion on patriotic themes," the Post Commander said. This year's theme is "Democracy: what it Means to Me."

Students are advised to contact their school principals or details.

The deadline is December 10, 1965.

(Continued from page 1) motivation for the present policy - indeed we publicly praised the Board for its efforts to find some legal method of voicing group acknowledgment and dependence upon the Diet - But Commissioner Allen's prompt decision to recommend that school boards consider a Moment of Silent Prayer or Meditation for morning exercises served largely to eliminate the need for any unconventional efforts to permit public prayer by school children.

Since the late Fall of 1962, our Post has asked each year, that the School Board eliminate this increasingly degenerative policy. We believe we have the support of the Superintendent of Schools and his chief administrators in this request. (in 1963 the motion to eliminate the Anthem from daily exercises came within one vote of being passed by the Board of Education).

that the vast majority of Social

The Legion has been informed Studies teachers in the secondary schools and their supervisors believe that daily contact with the Star-Spangled Banner tends to affect detrimentally children's respect for, and appreciation of, this great inspirational air.

In addition to this support of our position, we have learned that the Executive Board of Officers of the Hicksville Classroom Teacher's Association late this past spring, voted unanimously to ask the Board of Education, this fall, to change its morning exercise policy so as to restore the Anthem to significant usage.

We understand the concern of some Board members that elimination of the Anthem might seem to the public to indicate that our

School Board and Administrative policies were un-American or not concerned with the inculcation of patriotic attitudes.

This point of view may well be expressed by some uninformed or malicious citizens, but we feel it is reasonable to assume that Hicksville's people and its multitude of harmonious community groups have long since taken the true measure of School District 17's Board, Administrative and teacher attitudes concerning patriotism and not found them wanting.

The Charles Wagner Post of the American Legion, through its Americanism Officer assures the Board that we shall support and defend publicly a change in the morning school exercise program which will restore the National Anthem to proper, meaningful usage.

In conclusion, the members of the Charles Wagner Post strongly urge the Board of Education at the earliest opportunity, to discontinue the daily rendition of the National Anthem as a mere incident in school morning exercises, in order to foster among our children a real reverence and respect for this most sacred of our national airs.

Very truly yours,
Richard E. Evers,
Americanism Officer
