Come kick up your heels with our caller Ginny Reaske. Enjoy a hot buffet, beer and soda, door prizes and raffles and hours of Square Dance fun. Donation, $10 per person. For tickets and information call: Marcia Gunnigle 796-8788 or Marie Toth 731-5080.

Museum Photos Attract Viewers

The Gregory Museum's Photographic Exhibition at the Hicksville Public Library is attracting many viewers. The exhibit's recreation of the Hicksville of forty years ago has pleased old time and newer residents no end. This may be one of the few remaining opportunities to see Hicksville streets and railroad scenes as they once were. Hours: Monday - Friday, 10 a.m. to 9 p.m.; Saturday, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Sunday 1 to 5 p.m.

Scholarship Deadline May 10

The William M. Gouse, Jr. V.F.W. Post 3211 Albinus A. Hanlon Scholarship Award draws to a close on Friday, May 11. Bill Bennett, chairman of the V.F.W. Post Scholarship Committee, has made available the necessary application forms and guidelines to both the Hicksville High School and Holy Trinity Diocesan High School. Forms are also available at the V.F.W. Post, 320 South Broadway, or may be obtained from William P. Bennett, Chairman of the V.F.W. Scholarship Committee, 5 Petal Lane, Hicksville. The award is a cash scholarship grant totaling $500 - $125 for each year, for a maximum of four years, and will be based on the graduate's scholastic record, character, personal ratings, and good citizenship. To qualify, the applicant must be a member of the graduating class at the time of selection and must be a son, daughter or grandchild of a member of the V.F.W. Post 3211, or the Ladies Auxiliary.

Gardening Program

The Hicksville Public Library will present an important program for gardeners on Monday, April 30 at 8 p.m. in the Community Room of the library. A gardening expert from the Agricultural Division of Cooperative Extension in Nassau County will present an illustrated lecture on how to read and understand the various labels on bags of fertilizer and lime and what they do. Ample time will be allowed for questions. The program is free and everyone is invited.

Parade Comm. Meets May 1

The next meeting of the Memorial Day Parade and Services Committee of the Hicksville Combined Veterans Group will take place on Tuesday, May 1, at the American Legion Hall, East Nicholas Street at 8:30 p.m. All community organizations planning to participate in the Memorial Day Parade and services are urged to have a representative at this next planning meeting. Time is running out and the Committee must know which community groups to include in the Official Program.

150th Anniversary Celebrated By LIRR

By Richard Evers

America's busiest railroad took time out from its hectic morning routine, Tuesday, to celebrate its 150th Birthday in proper style. Capturing a little of the hoopla and pageantry that marked the joining of the Transcontinental lines at Promontory Point, Utah, in 1869, the Long Island Railroad cleared the tracks for a special train from Flatbush loaded with celebrants bound for the Garden City Hotel and a Sesquicentennial Banquet.

The Railroad did not have dignitaries "driving a golden spike", nor was there a bar car to match the Union Pacific's free flowing champagne on that other cross-tie blast, when the U.S. was spanned with steel rails, but there was fun enough to mark the 150th anniversary of the chartering of the Long Island Railroad.

Those lucky folks with invitations gathered at the Flatbush, Brooklyn Terminal for a train decorated and manned for the occasion by a costumed engineer and gents in Jacksonian garb reminiscent of such early Long Island promoters as Valentine Hicks and John Lawrence. A proper session of news and television photographers and reporters put the day's top celebrities, Railroad President Robin Wilson, State Commissioner of Transportation James L. LaRocca and Robert R. Kiley, Chairman of the Metropolitan Transportation Authority and the costumed gentlemen under the camera lights.

The 11:05 sounded its horn on time and departed so punctually that State Senator Carol Berman, arriving half a minute late, ended up waving goodbye to the sleek caboose.

With tracks cleared to Jamaica, the Sesquicentennial Train and its railroad leaders, politicians, newsmen, railroad enthusiasts such as Ron Ziel and historian Vincent F. Seyfried, business leaders, top educators and local historians made one of the all-time fast runs. The shades of the first Long Island tiny locomotives, the Ariel and Ploughboy must have sat on spur tracks in envy as Engineer Daniel S. Boyle let his train horn sound a salute to the most heavily traveled railroad in the world.

Jamaica put more celebrants aboard and it was off to Garden City. At A.T. Stewart's lovely, "cathedral town" there was a fitting welcome to the train and its passengers who were slated for banquet in the Garden City Hotel. The Old Bethpage Brass Band was there with its 19th century march steps and the Garden City High School Choral Group rendered the old favorite, "I've Been Workin' on the Railroad". Ray Heatherton was the Official Greeter and Master of Ceremony for the Garden City welcome and Hotel banquet. The Garden City Historical Society was there in 19th century dress and even had a fine looking costume Abraham and Mary Todd Lincoln. Proudly standing at attention, ready to lead a procession over to the handsome new Garden City Hotel, were the men of a Marine Corp Color Party. Notable among the greeting party was Episcopal Bishop Jonathan Sherman whose invocation during the coming banquet eloquently recalled Long Island's debt to all who envisioned, built, operated, and maintained what is a most significant railroad of splendid historic service.

Music was a fine part of the Sesquicentennial Banquet. Clem De Rosa's Orchestra were there as well as the Old Bethpage Brass Band, the young ladies of the Choral Group. An amusing, tuneful musical celebration of 150 years of American railroading, highlighting the outstanding achievements of the Long Island Railroad's growth was created for the occasion by musicologist Winston Clark and sung by the quintet of Theatre Three in Port Jefferson.

Robin H.H. Wilson, the current railroad President spoke briefly, pledging continued efforts toward progress and ended aptly with Robert Frost's words, "But I have promises to keep and miles to go before I sleep."

Fittingly, Historian Emeritus, Vincent F. Seyfried of the Long Island Railroad closed the cordial, memorable day with a brief summarization of things the public too often does not know about the railroad whose steel rails stretch to the sunrise: the Long Island Railroad was the first line to introduce "Piggy back" carrying of farm produce wagons in the 19th century; the first railroad to electrify its lines in 1905; the first to employ all steel cars in 1905; the first railroad to carry one hundred million passengers in 1925; and the first, or a most early user of Diesel fuel in its locomotives.

Cleanup Campaign Gains Support

Hicksville and Bethpage residents won support for environmental cleanup measures from state and federal officials at a "Toxic Cleanup Accountability Session" on April 19 which was attended by over 135 people.

Representatives for Congressman Norman F. Lent, the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) counsel Walter Mugdan and New York State Department of Environmental Conservation (DEC) Region 1 Director Harold Berger appeared at the event, which was co-sponsored by Hicksville members of the New York Community Action Network (New York CAN) and which took place at the Plainview-Old Bethpage Public Library.

William Steinmetz of Bethpage was moderator of the event. When citizen panelist James Mango of New South Road, Hicksville, asked DEC Director Berger to support the HR-4813 (Florio) federal Superfund reauthorization bill, Mr. Berger stated, "I thoroughly endorse the Florio bill."

Statements of support for the HR-4813 Florio Superfund bill were also made by Thomas Torma, president of the South Shore Audubon Society, and Jacklyn Blesi, president of the Woman's Club of Bethpage. Citizens have been actively seeking support from Congressman Lent for the HR-4813 measure for the past several months.

Congressman Lent's representative was Claire Whitney, associate minority counsel for the House subcommittee which has been discussing the HR-4813 bill. Ms. Whitney stated that Mr. Lent is "flexible" on some elements of the victim's compensation provisions which appear in the Florio bill. Mr. Lent had told New York CAN members visiting his office earlier this month that he felt it was imprudent to seek victim's compensation at this time. At the April 19 event, Ms. Whitney noted that Mr. Lent would be "flexible" on the issue, "as long as it doesn't slow down the reauthorization process."

Citizen panelists raised the issue of Town of Oyster Bay eligibility for matching money from the current federal Superfund program for cleanup costs at the Old Bethpage landfill. The site ranks #40 on the federal National Priority List (NPL), and Town officials recently estimated cleanup costs to be at least $16 million, all of which would currently be advanced by the Town of Oyster Bay.

Mr. Steinmetz produced an April 2 letter written by Daniel Millstone, Environmental Counsel for the New York City Department of Sanitation, which states, "As I understand the policy of the City, if there were an NPL site in New York City, we would request Superfund money to help finance the cleanup. We would then pursue responsible parties for fund reimbursement."

Mr. Lent's representatives stated that they would assist in seeking federal money "if the Town is eligible." EPA counsel Mugdan agreed to arrange a meeting between local citizens and Jack Labrizzi, EPA Superfund director for this area, to discuss the issue. And DEC Director Berger said he was "aware" the funds are available and he would "talk to the Town of Oyster Bay and to the Attorney General's office" to tell them he "supports the use of federal Superfund dollars."

The citizen panel also asked Mr. Mugdan of the EPA if the EPA would recommend a two-week comment and review period for the Old Bethpage landfill cleanup plan which is now being prepared for final state approval by the Town of Oyster Bay.

"I'll do better than that," Mr. Mugdan said. "I will ask for a 30-day review period." Mr. Mugdan said that 30-day review periods are required in federal Superfund cleanup plans and that he would send letters to State Attorney General Robert Abrams and to the Town of Oyster Bay recommending the 30-day citizen review period.

The EPA official also announced that "equipment would be on the site" of the MEK spill on West John Street in Hicksville, "by the end of May or early June."

The DEC also pledged to conduct quarterly meetings with local residents to provide cleanup updates on several hazardous sites in Hicksville and elsewhere in the area.

New York CAN supporters are continuing to urge local residents to contact Congressman Lent to ask his support of the HR-4813 federal Superfund bill.

The New York Community Action Network is a non-profit and non-partisan citizen action organization with chapters in Bethpage, Hicksville and numerous other communities throughout New York State. For more information about the group's efforts for community cleanup, New York CAN may be reached at 741-1400.

Japanese Art Presentation

Bring your newsprint, rice paper and Japanese brushes to the Independent Art Society meeting on Monday, May 7 at 7:30 p.m. in the Hicksville Library auditorium, 169 Jerusalem Ave. This will be a unique opportunity to paint along with Carolyn Clark, prize winning exponent of Sumi-E.

Everyone is welcome even if you only choose to observe. Refreshments will follow.

Springtime Fun At Woodland Ave.

Lots of Springtime fun has been sprouting up at Woodland Avenue School in Hicksville. Miss Calio's first grade class enjoyed an egg hunt on the school's front lawn. The children searched for colorful eggs and were delighted to find them filled with delicious candy.

Mrs. Mitnick's kindergarten class parties were hopping with fun. Both A.M. and P.M. classes came dressed for Springtime as bunnies, eggs, bees and butterflies.

Stan Kellner Speaks At Alumni Dinner

Stan Kellner, television sports commentator and nationally known author on the dynamics of basketball coaching, will address Hicksville High's 1984 court champions at a dinner, Tuesday, May 1.

He will be introduced by Alumni Director, Milton Levitt, at the 7 p.m. Community-Alumni dinner in the Garden Room, Milleridge Inn, Jericho.

Mr. Kellner is a graduate of Hicksville High School. He was a member of the 1950 Hicksville Title Club.

A long list of distinguished credits belong to Kellner. His basketball book is in a fifth printing, with the forward by Coach Dean Smith of North Carolina — he had successful coaching assignments at Brentwood High and Post College. Early in his career he coached the Hicksville Junior Varsity. His best record was 14-2. That club later won the Eastern North Shore Championship in its Varsity Campaign.

As is Mr. Levitt, Mr. Kellner is a member of one of Hicksville's old line families with highly respected imprint on the civics and sporting life of the community.

Mr. Levitt was the New York State Broad Jump champion in his senior year at Hicksville. The win was recorded at West Point.

Tickets for the basketball dinner are $19 each. Richard Hogan at the High School 733-2085 and Howard Finnegan at 733-4497 still have reservations remaining.

THE WEALTH OF EXPERIENCE YOU GET IN THE ARMY PAYS OFF IN COLLEGE.

A lot of what it takes to be a good soldier is what it takes to be a good college student. So it shouldn't surprise you that more and more young people are going to college by way of the Army. They're getting the benefits of Army skill training. The opportunity to live and work with different kinds of people. And the chance to travel. They're also getting the financial benefits of the Army College Fund. If you qualify, the Army College Fund can mean as much as $10,000 for college for serving two years or $20,000 for serving just three years. See your Army Recruiter and ask for the Army College Fund Book. It'll tell you how to go to college a much wealthier person. In more ways than one.

Our Children

Should baby stay home?

By Willard Abraham
Ph.D.

Q. I don't feel it's so terrible to take our baby out at night, to a drive-in movie or visiting friends. My wife thinks it's awful.

A. Frankly I, too, would like to leave the baby at home, but baby sitters are just too darned expensive — both in what we have to pay them and in the food they eat. (I've tried to set rules about raiding the refrigerator, but they haven't worked so far.)

Your opinion about the baby-out-at-night idea, please.

A. It doesn't have to be at all bad if the baby's eating and sleeping routines are maintained.

A compromise might be possible, based on sometimes taking the baby with you and on other occasions trying to use a competent baby sitter. That may be important especially when the routine is interrupted or it's inconvenient or uncomfortable for others with whom you are spending the evening.

Experienced adult and teenagers sitters are available in most communities. Maybe your luck will change if you try a few more who have performed well for friends of yours.

Q. My wife and I are both quite tall, and our little boy is the shortest one in his preschool. (He's 3 years old.)

I really don't know whether he or we have a problem yet, but if there is anything we can do about his height we would certainly like to.

Your recommendations, please.
A. A visit to your pediatrician can help determine whether you son is within the normal range and whether anything can or should be done.

"Time will take care of it" is advice you obviously don't want or need so appropriate professional help seems to be the way to go.

Q. I read in your column of the mother who was concerned about a neighborhood boy who keeps snakes.

I think her first comment indicates where some education is needed. Apparently she is afraid of them. The most valuable thing would be for her to overcome this fear and not pass it on to her children.

I speak from experience. I grew up on a farm but was deathly afraid of snakes, as was my mother. I could dig up grubs and such for my dad's fishing, but snakes? Forget it!

Over the years I learned to overcome my fear. My husband and children were my teachers.

The suggestion I have for this mother is to have the neighbor boy educate both her and her children about snakes, even to the point of how to handle them. In this way, if they did get out, there would not be the fear of finding them.

A. Most of us can develop new attitudes, some obviously easier to adopt than others. Apparently there is nothing genetic in the "fear of snakes" — or is there?

Are you the parent of a preschool child, 2 to 5 years old? Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope plus your request for information about a monthly service that may help you — to Dr. Abraham, P.O. Box 572, Scottsdale, AZ 85252.

Letters may be sent to Our Children, questions of general interest will be answered in the column as space permits.

Quality Or Quantity?

When you advertise in a subscription newspaper you get quality readership. You know that EVERY copy of the newspaper has been invited into the home and three to four people will most likely read it.

When you buy quantity the only thing you might be sure of is that it has been hung on door knobs or thrown on lawns all over the neighborhood.

With our newspapers YOU ONLY PAY FOR COPIES that will be read. It is this quality that produces results. Do not waste money on wasted copies. Advertise here and get results.

Our (not so secret) ingredient
Readers = Results is the reason we are preferred over the largest metropolitan newspapers and the many throwaways.

Hospital, H.S. Career Day

PAGE SEVEN Friday, April 27, 1984 MID ISLAND TIMES

Former L.I. Railroad President Robert Patterson and Richard Evers, Hicksville Historian, aboard the 150th Anniversary special train from Flatbush to the Garden City celebration.

Long Island Railroad President Robin H.H. Wilson and Daniel S. Boyle, costumed as a 19th century engineer, stand in front of the special train the latter drove Tuesday, marking the 150th Anniversary of the railroad's chartering.

Robert J. Bornstein, Administrator of Central General Hospital and Selma Notov, Guidance Consultant to the Hicksville School District have jointly announced a Medical and Health Related Career Day, to take place 8:30 a.m. Wednesday, May 2, at Hicksville High School.

The event, which is expected to bring a turnout of nearly 1,500 Hicksville High School students will explore major opportunities related to future careers in the medical and health related fields.

"All career clusters delineated by the U.S. Department of Health Education and Welfare were used to query the students determining the medical departments most desired for the career day event," Ms. Notov said.

The following eight departments of Central General Hospital which will be represented by professional staff, were selected for the half day program: Nursing X-Ray, Respiratory Services, Laboratory, Hospital Administration, Medicine, Medical Records and Pharmacy.

The Old Bethpage Village Restoration Brass Band welcomed the L.I. Railroad's Sesquicentennial Celebration train from Flatbush in authentic 19th century fashion. Among the accomplished musicians playing was Hicksville High School Band Director David Abt in the foreground.

Blood Drive For Bethpage

A Long Island Blood Services bloodmobile will visit Bethpage on Sunday, May 6 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. The Bethpage Jewish Center located at 600 Broadway will be the site of the blood drive. Blood donors are urged to take advantage of the convenient location.

Blood donations decreased during the past year putting a stress on area hospital blood supplies. Nearly 3,000 blood donors are needed a week to continue surgery and treatments for thousands of Long Island patients. The demand for blood remains constant throughout the year.

Anyone in good health, weighing a minimum of 110 pounds, and between the ages of 17 and 65 inclusive can help by donating a pint of blood at the May 6 drive. Each blood donor will receive a mini-physical that checks pulse, temperature, iron count, and blood pressure. All first time donors will be sent a card with their blood type.

Within hours of the blood drive, LIBS laboratory technicians will process and test the blood so that it can reach waiting hospitals. Red blood cells, white blood cells, plasma, platelets, and cytoprecipitate, the clotting factor hemophiliacs lack, are utilized daily in the 41 Long Island hospitals.

The only source of blood is a healthy blood donor. If you belong to a group that would like to host a blood drive call LIBS at 752-7300.

Third Annual Yard, Bake Sale

People, the counseling agency at 936 Stewart Avenue, Bethpage will be having its 3rd Annual Yard & Bake Sale on Friday, May 18 and Saturday, May 19. This will be a major fund raising effort which will help the agency to pay the rent, the phone bills, etc. Yes, like many other social service agencies People is really feeling the pinch.

At this point, you may be asking yourself...how can I help? Well, this is Spring Cleaning Time, so by going through your home, garage and basement and setting aside items for us to sell at the Yard Sale, you'd be helping. Items such as: china, glassware, small pieces of furniture, toys, tools, appliances, knick-knacks, etc. are suggested. Should you have any clothing to donate to the sale, please give only useable, clean items. This year we are requesting no books. Also, baked goods would be appreciated.

If you have goods to donate, call 433-5344 between the hours of 11 a.m. and 9 p.m. to arrange for a pickup if necessary. We urge all Bethpage residents to support us in our fund raising efforts.

Free Hearing Tests At Library

Free Hearing Tests for children and adults will be administered by a professional audiologist at the Bethpage Public Library on Friday, May 4, from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. The testing will be provided on the new Telecommunications Van of the Mill Neck Foundation. No appointment is necessary (there may be a short wait), the test taking about ten minutes for an adult, about fifteen minutes for a child. If requested a copy of the Hearing Test Report will be mailed within a few days.

The van is custom designed to offer professional screening for hearing loss among children and adults of all ages, as well as to demonstrate the latest electronic devices for the hearing impaired. You may first notice the sound-proof testing booth with "state of the art" audiometric equipment providing a comprehensive hearing evaluation to test for hearing loss. On one side of the middle aisle is the training unit designed to acquaint people with the "breakthrough capability" of tele-typewriters - machines that enable a deaf person to use the telephone. They're called Porta Phones, and have both paper and LED readouts. On the other side of the aisle is a display of TDD (telephone Technical Devices for the Deaf) units - chosen from five different companies - so that you can see the differences between them and discover for yourself the advantages of each. See also the alarms and signaling devices which allow a hearing impaired person to "hear" a baby's cry, a telephone conversation or a door bell ring. It's all here...the van will be parked at the library entrance. you're invited to visit...be tested...and learn!

Reptile Exhibit At Beth Library

On Saturday, May 12, herpetologist (snake specialist) Mark Scheur will present a program entitled, "All About Reptiles and Amphibians" for young people in Grades K-6 at the Bethpage Public Library.

Mr. Scheur, a biologist and snake specialist of note who has lectured in many schools and libraries in the Metropolitan Area, will bring many live snakes of different kinds along with fascinating iguanas, box turtles, and other amphibians. Young people can enjoy an interesting slide show and they will be able to pet the animals and learn all about how they live and what they do.

The program will begin at 2 p.m. and all youngsters who reside in District #21 are invited to attend. Tickets are available now in the Bethpage Children's Room.

Funeral Home
Supports Ruling

The recent Federal Trade Commission ruling requiring funeral homes to disclose itemized price information will help foster improved consumer awareness, according to Bill Wagner, manager of the Vernon C.
Wagner Funeral Home, Inc.
Beginning April 30, funeral homes will be required to list itemized prices for their services and merchandise in order to comply with the FTC ruling.
"Vernon C. Wagner Funeral Home, Inc. has long encouraged people to familiarize themselves with funeral service and merchandise so that they may make informed selections, both before and at the time of a funeral. In fact, most of the practices outlined in the FTC rule have been standard procedures at our firm for years," said Wagner.
"In today's society, the consumer has assumed an increasingly important role, and we feel that an informed consumer is better prepared to make the right choices."

Hicksville Woman Installs Telephones

Greasy hands and long hours working under trucks didn't discourage Jeanne Boccarossa of Hicksville. And climbing poles and ladders outside in any kind of weather was another satisfying challenge.

"Those types of jobs are great" said Boccarossa, an installation technician with the New York Telephone Company. "I've always held jobs that were traditionally held by men. It hasn't created problems because I have the training and experience to perform as well as anybody else."

Boccarossa is among a growing number of women who hold non-traditional jobs at New York Telephone. As a result of the company's commitment to provide equal employment opportunities, there are now more than 200 women in non-traditional telephone jobs in Nassau and Suffolk counties. There are two other women in her district who also work as installers.

In the early 1970's, auto repair was just becoming a career option for women. Boccarossa pursued it and started her first job as a Sears auto mechanic.

Her repair experience helped her earn a job as a New York Telephone garage mechanic. Boccarossa said that she sought employment with the phone company in 1978 because of its reputation as an equal opportunity employer.

"I wanted to get ahead in business", she said, "and I know that New York Telephone was committed to giving everyone a fair chance for advancement."

As a mechanic in Woodbury, she and fellow employee Bridget Murphy ran the company garage for nine months. Boccarossa worked in several other Long Island garages until 1982, when she became an installer through the New York Telephone's Upgrade and Transfer Plan. The program was introduced in 1973

Police Investigate Locker Robbery

The Second Squad is investigating a robbery that occurred in Hicksville at the Interstate Cigar Store, 35 Eagle Street at 10:10 p.m., April 20.

The victim, James McMahon, 31 employed by the store, went to pick up his pay envelope in a locker and when he entered the locker room, two unknown male blacks, one armed with a small hand gun and the other with a crow bar took his wallet containing $420, a wrist watch and a gold chain from around his neck. They searched other lockers in the room and the loss is undetermined at this time. The two suspects fled the locker room on foot and no injuries were reported.

Boy Injured In Accident

A 10 year old Hicksville boy is in critical condition in the Nassau County Medical Center after his bike and a car were in collision in Hicksville around 2:10 p.m., April 18.

Patrick Baltizar, of 16 Laurel Street was riding his bike at the intersection of Burns Avenue and West John Street and a 1980 Pontiac, traveling westbound on West John Street, operated by Neil Wessel, 53, of 36 Balsam Drive, Hicksville, were in collision.

Patrick was transported to the hospital in a Nassau County Police Helicopter, where he was treated and admitted with serious head injuries. No charges were filed by police and the Second Squad is investigating.

Most Callers Only Mildly Satisfied With Cable

Most callers to Input are mildly satisfied with cable TV in answer to this question: "Do you feel that Cable TV is worth the price you are paying for it? Is there any way cable could be improved?"

SATISFIED

I am somewhat satisfied with cable TV. It is not yet a big investment and I do get some special things such as sports and movies out of it. The reception is far better than we had before cable. So it really is not a bad investment for us. What we spend on cable we would spend many times over in a month in the movies and at sports events. K.R.

A FARCE

No cable TV is a farce. They originally were going to give us the service so that would not be annoyed by commercials. Then we find that in addition to the regular commercials on the few programs that the cable has on its own it has sponsors. We would have been better off if cable had stayed out and the networks had the programs. But now that they've got their hand on it we have to pay and watch commercials. F.T.

KEEP RATES DOWN

I am satisfied with cable and think it is a good buy just so long as they do not go on and charge more and more. At this time it is a good bargain. We watch it regularly and hope that the rates can be kept down. M.R.

TAKE IT OUT

No. I am going to have cable taken out. Much of it is worthless and unless you are an avid sports fan there is no real reason for it. Any of the programs that are original with cable are not worth watching. They have politicians and other programs that are just a waste of time. J.E.

RIP OFF

I have not gotten cable because I think it is a rip off. These people are stringing wires all over the place to provide us with something that is as outmoded as the horse and buggy. The FCC should develop many more TV channels which are technically possible and then there would be all of the channels needed without this outmoded way of stringing wires from house to house. N.T.

WORTH IT

There are many good things about cable. We do not watch it as much as we would like to but we have a VCR and are able to record the things we miss and see them later. It is well worth the price of the service and we would not do without it. It is the best way to keep totally informed. F.E.

NEGLECT CHILDREN

Our cable has only been installed a short time because it was not available until now. I am very much disappointed with it so far as presenting anything worthwhile for children to watch. Cable seems geared to sports and adult movies. I think they neglect the children and education in their programming. W.E.

FED UP

I'm fed up with Cable TV. Our rates are so high and they offer nothing better than sports specials and ridiculous movies. And, to make matters worse, many of the Cable channels are loaded with commercials too. Don't they make enough money from the regular subscribers? Seems to me that a VCR would be a better solution for uninterrupted viewing. Another gripe I have is that two or three channels have Swap and Shop programs on continuously. Hey, I can look in the newspaper for those. I don't need to pay high Cable charges for that!

CABLE LOSING OUT

Cable TV is losing out because they show movies too late. Most people today have VCRs and can rent the films for a nominal rate. By the time Cable runs them they are old news.

LOT OF JUNK

Regarding Cable TV, I think HBO is putting on a lot of junk and I don't really think it's worthwhile. Some improvements could be that once a week they show a film in German, Italian and French, etc. This could be for the oldtimers who speak the language and for students in high schools. Please, no subtitles. R.S.

The Great People Hauler

By Margaret Hartman

Question: What has 322 miles of track - 700 trains running per day - 230,000 daily commuters and from time to time has frustrated every one of them?

Answer: The Long Island Railroad - called the greatest people hauler in the nation. Though its beginning goes back to 1834 and it is the third oldest line in the country, very little has been written about it.

The War of 1812 over - victorious - America had proven to the world that she had the right to her place on the high seas. Now she was ready to get on with building a nation.

With the invention of a successful and practical locomotive, running on iron rails, entrepreneurs were in a great hurry to link big cities. Philadelphia to New York was accomplished, New York with Boston was proving more difficult. The topography - bays, rivers and rolling hills were presenting seemingly impossible problems.

It was proposed to link New York to Boston by way of Greenport.
1: Brooklyn to Greenport by rail - four hour trip -
2: Sailboat from Greenport to Stoningham, Conn. - 2 hours
3: Stoningham, Conn. by rail to Boston - four hour trip.

The proposed plan was submitted to the New York State legislature. The Long Island Railroad was granted a charter on April 24, 1834.

The dirt began to fly. Man with his shovel and his sweat got the road underway. In 1837 the line reached Hicksville. Then came the Panic of 1837. The flow of money dried up. Construction stopped. Recovery was slow. It was 1841 before the tracks reached Farmingdale six miles away. It was not until 1844 that the tracks reached Greenport. Ten years from the first shovel 'til the last! (Shades of Shoreham.)

During construction the railroad has more problems than the topography to overcome. Construction workers, when not working, hung around the towns drinking and fighting. The irate farmers retaliated by tearing up the newly laid tracks.

The train ride to Greenport was quite an adventure. Cars were painted bright yellow and were pulled by wood burning locomotives with huge smoke stacks belching smoke and hot sparks. The ride was noisy and jerky. Passengers alighted at Greenport soot covered and tired...but it was the only way to go.

The railroad's troubles were not over. (Nor have they ever been.) Prosperity was short lived. Competition set in. Massachusetts built its own line from Boston to Fall River. Then direct steamship to New York.

Twenty years later a crushing blow. An all rail line was built from Manhattan directly to Boston.

Faced with all this competition the Long Island Railroad decided to become a local carrier. Brooklyn to the ends of Long Island.

Woes and more woes! Receiverships, bankruptcies, poor planning - lines laid down in isolated sections that were hard to get cargo to. Split building - tracks offering duplicate service. The Long Island Railroad had become a fracture identity.

The century was drawing to a close. In 1877 another receivership. This one did some good for the line. The new equipment purchased and installed enabled the trains to attain and maintain a speed of thirty miles an hour.

Austin Corbin, a man of great vision, and a great booster of Long Island, became interested in the railroad - termed the railroad that Jack built.

He took over management of the road in January of 1881. During his sixteen year term he modernized the road and substantially increased business.

Corbin was thought by many to be a visionary. The original proposal - Boston by way of Greenport was bold. Corbin's dream was London by way of Montauk.

The line was completed to Montauk in 1895. The work on the piers had begun. Fate struck again. Corbin was killed in an accident. His dream died with him.

Some of Corbin's plans for the Long Island Railroad were taken over by Pennsylvania Railroad. For a price the Pennsy acquired the Long Island in 1900. It was a mutual need. Fifty thousand passengers, and freight, disembarked at the Long Island's western terminal at Hunter's Point, then transferred to ferries to continue the trip to Thirty-Fourth Street.

The Pennsylvania, with its great wealth, was able to construct four tunnels through the rock under the East River. The tunnels went from the Long Island's western terminal at Hunter's Point to the Pennsy's waiting terminal at Thirty-Fourth Street. What a boon for the daily rider.

Under the Pennsylvania's ownership the Long Island was the first railroad to use all steel cars for passenger service.

In the first thirty years of the twentieth century, Long Island's population tripled and the railroad's ridership increased ten-fold.

The end of World War II and the end of the depression did not put the Long Island Rail Road in the profit column. Fares were regulated by the state and could not be increased. However, their taxes went higher and higher. Roads and parkways were being built. More and more people drove to work to Manhattan and Brooklyn.

By 1949 the Pennsylvania Rail Road had it! They tried. They failed to make the road a profitable investment.

February 1949 they put the railroad into bankruptcy court.

This action, plus two tragic accidents, prompted Governor Rockefeller to ask the legislature to form the Metropolitan Commuter Transportation Authority and empower it to buy the Long Island Rail Road. In other words the line would no longer be a private enterprise but would be under public ownership. Meaning, you, dear taxpayer, would absorb the road's losses.

The price paid to the Pennsylvania was $65 million. This was thought to be a very generous price for a railroad that had little potential for producing profit.

On January 2, 1966 - 131 years - 8 months - and 28 days from its inception the Long Island Rail Road was no more.

Now as part of the MTA she is ours! For thousands of Dashing Dams and Anns she is still the only way to go.

GREAT SURPRISE
 Last week we visited a restaurant we have never visited before. It is called the Flanona in New Hyde Park. There are presently so many Italian Restaurants in the area that we were truly surprised by this one. It is not large, but appears to be very popular with many people because we had to wait for a table.
 The food is exceptional. We had the finest veal you can find anywhere and it was cooked with such flavor that it is difficult to find something to compare it to. We topped the meal off with some good Italian pastry.
 This is the kind of restaurant I think that most of your readers would like to visit. H.R.

MIKE MCGRADY - NEWSDAY - DEC. 25, 1983
 "One thing I'm sure of, you're going to like the way DEVINS looks, the owners' goal was to achieve the feel of Edwardian England, but it is sufficiently eclectic to include echoes of New Orleans and Paris....The fish here is properly fresh and the meat is properly aged, and great care is taken in their presentations. Here, I must pause to compliment the service."

This newspaper, and the seven other weekly newspapers associated with it, publishes the last word in restaurant guides - a paid listing of many prominent selected restaurants in this area. While many of them have been rated by the great and near great food connoisseurs, our readers will have the last word through "Reader Ratings."

Through a special 24 hour phone system, readers will be asked to call in their assessment of each restaurant they visit. Consensus ratings (good or bad) will be published as a continuing part of the guide.

In addition they can make suggestions, compliments or criticisms through the open phone line and messages will be sent through to the restaurant management.

We want to score one hearty vote for Rampart Street - a restaurant that features wonderful jazz music in the old style it used to be played. They have the best real music of any place we have ever been.
As a restaurant we found that the service was excellent and that when it comes to putting out a tender juicy steak this restaurant is the best. Rampart Street is along Shore Road in Port Washington where there are several other good restaurants. But we want to call this one to your readers' attention because it has that something different in music that adds to a night out. So tell them about Rampart Street in Port Washington. H.K.

READER RATINGS

GOOD NIGHT
 Last Wednesday we decided to follow one of the suggestions in your Reader Ratings. We were mainly satisfied with what we got although the service was a little slow. We went to the Platt-deutsche Park Restaurant in Franklin Square. The place was no stranger to us because we have been there many times before at catered affairs. But this time we went to the smaller restaurant and had sauerbraten. Considering that the check was reduced because we had four in the party eating sauerbraten and they gave us all of the salad we could ever eat it was a very good night both in food and cost. J.H.

Q. Why in some restaurants do I have to sit there so long before the waitress gives me the check?

A. Well the answer to your question is hard to define. It might be simply because the restaurant is so busy that the waitress hasn't time to add up the check. But at some of the better restaurants you will never get a check unless you ask for it. In these establishments they feel that the guests should decide how long they wish to talk or occupy the space after eating and only on rare occasions will they bring a check that has not been solicited and then with apologies.

Q. Some restaurants make a big thing over a lobster tank, but I think it is disgusting to have to kill these animals in order to get a meal. Why do they have these tanks?

A. The reason is simply that lobster has to be freshly killed to be eaten. The lobster tank lets the diner see that what he is getting is really fresh lobster. Possibly some squeamish people believe that the lobster tank should be somewhere else but most diners want to see the live ones and if you do not, you should be suspicious. They are killed instantly in boiling water. H.J.

Q. Are restaurants allowed to serve you something else if you ask for "Coke" or "Coca Cola" and they do not serve it?

A. The answer is technically they are not. But many will say they only carry "Pepsi" or another beverage. But you should be able to know in advance and refuse something you did not order. At least the "Coca Cola" company probably would want it that way, and "Pepsi" will also if it is the other way around.

SPECIALTIES

The LaMarmite in Williston Park is one of the top restaurants on Long Island according to the ad you have. We will go along with that. We have been going to this restaurant on and off for some time. It is something special and spoils you for the many other "run of the mill" places.

One thing nice about LaMarmite is that it has several specialties of the house each day and they are genuine specialties. We have been disappointed elsewhere with the specials because they often turn out to be items that were made of leftovers. At LaMarmite we have to say that the specials are really "special".

Another fine point about LaMarmite is that you are given attentive service from the beginning with the valet car parking to the end of the meal. This is really a first rate restaurant. G.E.

TOP QUALITY

For a long time I have wondered how Pappas Restaurant of Sheephead Bay was. Many of my friends went there and said it was a fine Seafood Restaurant. So, one night we went there. It has reasonable prices and beautiful surroundings. It is clean and has excellent top quality seafood.

The service was excellent. All in all I was pleased with Pappas and had a wonderful time. Pappas is easy to get to, it is located at 700 Willy Avenue, Williston Park. It's like no other seafood restaurant around. F.M.

To Owners of Good Restaurants:

This Is Your Chance To Join "Reader Ratings"
 The Last Word In Restaurant Guides
 Where Our Readers Have The Last Word

This newspaper and the seven other weekly newspapers associated with it, publishes the last word in restaurant guides. A paid listing of many prominent selected restaurants in this area. While many of them have been rated by the great, and near great, food connoisseurs, our readers will have the last word through "Reader Ratings"

Through a special 24 hour phone system, readers will be asked to call in their assessment of each restaurant they visit. Consensus ratings (good or bad) will be published as a continuing part of the guide.

In addition they can make suggestions, compliments or criticisms through the open phone line and messages will be sent through to the restaurant management.

Restaurant Guide

If you have Questions about etiquette or dining our you may call them in to WE 1-0027 and we will find the answer.

Q. Is it allowed for a restaurant to include a tip, automatically, on the bill for food ordered? A friend and I had that happen recently and resented it because the service was very poor and we felt a tip was not in order. Please answer.

A. No. In this country the custom is not to add any tip to the bill and unless the menu stating the prices clearly says that this will be done it is not correct. Most people would not be happy with that system in the U.S. because diners have always had a flexible tip system in which they could give a better tip for better service and if this is not kept then the tip is just a fee.

Q. When I am on a diet I find it difficult to find things at restaurants. What do you suggest? C.B.

A. The suggestion is that you check the ads and call restaurants. Many of them have special diet plates that will be just what you are looking for. Some restaurants will allow substitutions and you can make your own plate but you cannot be sure of this unless you check the restaurant policy in advance.

Soup's on!

In springtime some folks' thoughts turn to love. Others turn to baseball or babbling streams. A food editor's thoughts, however, are more likely to turn to the dazzling kaleidoscope of fresh fruits and vegetables in the marketplace.

And what better way to showcase and enjoy this glorious bounty than with homemade soup?

Soup is a perfect beginning for a multi-course meal or a dramatic and satisfying main event.

Even on a balmy spring day, soup is heartwarming. Simmering on the back burner its perfume is irresistible. And teamed up with crusty hot bread, sweet butter and a glass of wine, it affords a wonderful celebration of spring.

SALMON SOUP

- 1 carrot
- 2 shallots
- Butter
- 1 qt. fish stock
- 1 cup cream
- 2 large potatoes
- 6 ozs. fresh salmon filet
- Salt and pepper to taste
- 1 bunch dill

Peel carrot, cut into narrow strips. Peel and chop shallots; saute with carrot in butter, in soup pot. Add fish stock, let reduce to half. Add cream, reduce. Peel potatoes. Cook until soft in soup. Remove potatoes; slice and keep warm. Cut salmon filet into thin strips, put into soup and let poach for brief time. Add salt and pepper to taste. Put potato slices in warm soup bowl. Pour soup and salmon over potatoes. Garnish with dill.

CORN CHOWDER SOUP

- ½ bunch green onions
- 2 sticks butter
- 1¼ lbs. canned corn kernels
- 5-6 cups water
- ½ oz. chicken base
- 2½ ozs. pimientos
- 5-6 cups milk
- ½ cup flour

Dice onions and brown lightly in ½ stick of butter. Add corn and water. Simmer 4 hours; add chicken base and pimientos. Steam milk in double boiler. In saucepan, melt remaining butter; whisk in flour. Add flour-and-butter roux to steamed milk, stirring constantly. Add thickened milk to corn stock and stir well.

Serves 10.

CLAM CHOWDER

- ½ lb. onions, diced
- ½ stalk celery, diced
- 2 sticks butter
- ½ lb. ham, diced
- ¾ lb. potatoes, diced
- 1 qt. canned clams
- 2 cups clam juice
- ¾ cup milk
- 7½ tbsps. flour
- Salt and pepper to taste

Dice onions and celery; brown lightly in ½ stick butter. Add diced ham and potatoes, followed immediately by canned clams and clam juice. Simmer until potatoes are cooked thoroughly. Meanwhile, in double boiler, steam milk. In saucepan, melt rest of butter; whisk in flour. Add butter-and-flour roux to steamed milk, stirring constantly. Add thickened milk to clam stock and stir. Add salt and pepper to taste and white wine to clam chowder. Additional wine can be added to taste.

Serves 8.

CARROT SOUP

- 6 tbsps. butter
- ½ lb. carrots, sliced
- 1 medium-size onion, chopped
- ½ cup rice
- 4 cups chicken stock
- 1 thyme sprig
- Salt and pepper to taste
- Bread croutons, fried in butter

Melt 4 tablespoons butter in saucepan. Add carrots and onion; cover pan and simmer 5 minutes. Add rice, stock, thyme sprig and salt and pepper to taste and cook, covered, 30 minutes, or until carrots are soft. Remove and discard thyme sprig. Puree soup in blender or food mill, adding more stock if consistency is too thick. Return soup to clean pan and reheat. Stir in remaining butter just before serving. Serve croutons in separate bowl.

Serves 4.

VEGETARIAN VIEW

CHEWY FIG GRANOLA BARS

- ½ cup each firmly packed brown sugar, salad oil and honey
- 3 cups rolled oats
- 1 cup crisp cereal
- ½ cup each wheat germ, flaked coconut and finely chopped almonds
- ¼ cup each sesame seeds and sunflower seeds
- 1 cup finely chopped dried figs

In small saucepan, combine brown sugar, oil and honey. Bring to boil over medium heat; simmer about 2 minutes. Preheat oven to 325 F. In large mixing bowl, combine all remaining ingredients, except figs, stirring with spoon or with mixer dough hook. Stir in sugar mixture until well blended. Add figs. Press mixture firmly into ungreased 9x13-inch baking pan. Bake 20 to 25 minutes until toasty brown. Cool. Cut into narrow bars.

Makes about 24 bars.

Aunt Tilly's Corner

This past weekend I went with my family to the Pocono Mountains in Pennsylvania. We left quite late on Friday night, hoping to avoid the rush hour traffic. By the time we got to Pennsylvania it was close to midnight.

As we passed through the mountains we saw many deer eating grass by the side of the road. We were afraid one of them might decide to cross in front of us, but luckily they all kept grazing, paying no attention whatever to the cars and trucks speeding by.

Then on Saturday evening I saw an even stranger animal: a beaver. He or she was sitting in the warm sun on top of a rock. It was as if the beaver, too, was tired of the long cold winter and was glad to welcome the warm days of spring!

Your friend,
Aunt Tilly

P.S. This week's coloring contest winners are: Carrie, Nieman and Kristin Deger. Congratulations, both of you, and, Carrie, thank you for the nice note you enclosed. I certainly enjoyed reading it.

Here's How

By Gene Gary

Q. Our house, about 25 years old, has stucco exterior walls. Over the years, the stucco has cracked at the corners of the windows and in various other places near ground level, it is beginning to break away.

We were wondering what would be necessary to remove the stucco in order to recover the walls with some other material such as wood siding? We also would like to install some insulation at the same time.

Can you indicate which type of backing would be best for the insulation? — Ephram J.

A. Yes, wood siding can be installed over a stucco surface, but it is not practical.

A builder friend tells me that it is difficult because the stucco surface varies in thickness, even though it may look smooth. He tells me it would be much easier to cover stucco with aluminum siding, which does not take nearly as much nailing.

I suggest foil or insulating paper might be suitable to use with aluminum siding, but check first with the aluminum dealer to find what kind of insulation he may recommend.

Another suggestion is to use mineral fiber shingles under-coursed with insulating backer boards in re-siding your house.

Q. How can I remedy small spots or checks that sometimes appear in old or weathered plywood panels? — Chris M.

A. You can give these panels a new surface by rubbing floor filler into the cracks with burlap or other coarse material, working across the grain. Then, when dry and sanded, you will have a smooth, solid base for a new coat of paint.

Q. My son has purchased a lovely large, but neglected, 20-year-old house and one room is suffering from too many dogs who evidently were unattended. The carpets have been discarded, but the floor must be treated to remove the stains and odor. Would you be kind enough to help with suggestions? — Mrs. B.M.C.

A. Here are some suggestions from the National Oak Flooring Manufacturers Association for removing dark stains in floors. The brochure says the same method is also recommended for animal stains.

Clean the stains or spots and surrounding area with No. 1 steel wool and a good floor cleaner or mineral spirits. If the spot remains, then sand with fine sandpaper, feathering out 3 or 4 inches into the surrounding area.

If the spot is still present, apply an oxalic acid solution, made by mixing 1 ounce of oxalic acid in 1 quart of water. But caution. This is poison. Use rubber gloves and handle with care.

Let the solution stand 1 hour, then rinse with clear water. A second treatment may be helpful if the spot still refuses to yield.

If the second application of oxalic acid fails, sand the area with No. 00 sandpaper and apply a matching finish, feathering out into surrounding floor area. Let dry. Buff lightly with No. 00 steel wool, and apply a second coat of finish. Let dry and wax.

If the stubborn spot is still visible, the only remaining remedy is to replace the affected flooring.

Oxalic acid is a bleaching agent. Whenever it is used, the treated floor area will probably have to be stained and refinished to match the original color.

The thousands of letters I get over a short period of time make it impossible to do anything with these pleas.

Incidentally, the new leaflet now contains the information on vinegar. I have asked for personal experiences on it and one follows.

Dear John: I had had many sleepless nights from arthritis pain in my shoulder and back. The X rays showed that I had many spurs from my spine and a calcified bursitis in my shoulder joint, which had to be removed. I was making arrangements for surgery and, fortunately, the surgeon was called out of town and my appointment was scheduled several weeks later. I started taking two teaspoons of vinegar and a like amount of honey with each meal.

In the several weeks before I was scheduled for surgery, all pain disappeared and my shoulder returned to normal motion. — Earl M.

Dear John: I read your column about Certo for arthritis. Would like to know a little bit more about it. Evidently I have missed a previous article. Does it have any bearing on any other medication a person takes?

Where do you buy it? How much to take? Would appreciate any information as my arthritis is kicking up. — Mrs. M.K.

Dear Mrs. M.K.: So far as I know it has no bearing on any other medication. Certo is just a fruit pectin used in making jam and jelly. You eat it in a less concentrated form every time you put some jam on your toast — or some other pectin. And some readers have told about using other pectins with just as good results.

For more details, send for our arthritis leaflet. You are apparently a new reader so I must repeat: a stamped, self-addressed envelope is necessary. Some people write in on a postcard, which we cannot do anything with. Also many readers are enclosing a donation to help with the handling of the mail to this column, which is getting to be quite a burden.

By Robert Wallace, Ed.D.

TWEEN 12 & 20

Dr. Wallace: I'm 17 and a bit overweight. I have a bit too much fat around my waist and on the backs of my thighs. Yes, I know that I eat too much and yes, I'm working out and eating properly now and I hope to be back in shape in two months.

Everything in the human body has a function and a purpose but I don't understand the reason the body has fat. Can you please explain? — Rose.

Rose: Simply stated, each human being requires a certain amount of energy units (calories) per day to maintain an ideal weight. The number of energy units (each food has a certain calorie count) needed is based on an individual's age, sex, height, body structure and the amount of physical activity.

Let's say your ideal weight is 125 pounds. For every pound of body weight you should consume about 18 calories a day. To maintain the 125-pound weight, you should absorb 2,250 (18 times 125) daily calories. If you consume more than 2,250, the body stores the excess as fat to be used as energy at a time when you eat less than 2,250 calories.

A calorie diet simply means the dieter eats fewer calories than the body requires which results in the stored fat being burned.

If you consume 1,500 calories per day, 750 "fat calories" will be burned.

Dr. Wallace: I trust your advice and I need it desperately. I am a "loner" and spend most of my time alone. Now some people are starting to "kid" me about it. Is it so abnormal to want to be myself?

Do you think I should make an honest effort to make friends? — Lance.

Lance: It is not abnormal to enjoy being alone. It is abnormal if being alone causes one to be depressed.

Yes, I would make an effort to make friends. One can enjoy the company of good friends and still be happy when alone. It's the best of both worlds.

Dr. Wallace: I'm a 16-year-old guy and I don't smoke nor do any of my friends. Teens are blamed for many things, including smoking, but I think blaming teens for smoking is a bum rap.

Do you have any statistics on the number or percentage of teens who smoke? I honestly don't think that many teens smoke. — Don.

Don: A 1983 study by the National Institute of Drugs reported that one in every seven teens between 12 and 17 smokes cigarettes and that one in every five high school seniors is a regular smoker.

The study concluded that the overall number of teens is decreasing, but the total number of teenage girls who smoke has been on the increase.

Dr. Wallace: I have been dating a girl for over six months and I love her very much but, at present, we are not seeing each other.

When I met Jan she was a heavy smoker. When we started dating, I told her that I detested smoking and asked her to quit. She didn't, but she did cut down her intake quite a bit.

Recently, we had a big fight regarding her smoking. I warned her that if she continued to smoke, I would break up with her. The other night she "lit up" and I asked her to return my ring and she did.

Both of us said a lot of things we didn't mean, but she did say she will not give up smoking for me and I know she means it.

I love this girl very much and I know she loves me and we are both miserable apart. Please give me a little guidance, and fast. — Nick.

Nick: You were aware that Jan was a smoker when you first started dating her. It's noble that you encouraged her to discontinue her "nasty habit," and it would have been wonderful if she had, but she didn't.

Either take her as she is and, tactfully, continue to encourage her to give up smoking — remember, I said tactfully — or find a new non-smoking girlfriend.

Dr. Wallace: I'm 20 and my boyfriend is 18 and we're planning to get married in the near future. His parents really like me. The problem is that my parents dislike this guy. Several years ago he did something to a little girl and my parents won't forget it.

They are always telling me to find another guy and I keep telling them that I love this guy.

I love him very much and don't plan to lose him. Please give me your thoughts. — Lisa.

Lisa: You are 20 and free to marry anyone you choose but I can understand why your parents don't want their daughter to marry this guy.

Mainly For Seniors

By John T. Watts

Dear John: I am one of the avid readers of the column for senior citizens.

I am 60 years old and suffering from some diabetes ailments and the last few years I find it not quite "normal and desirable" to maintain sexual intimacy.

I have written to P.O. Box 9, Minneapolis, MN 55440, to send me a sample of their general information brochure on the subject.

Also I feel very grateful for your kind attention should you furnish me a list of physicians that may be contacted for the treatment. As far as Constance P. is concerned, your interest in the subject to have it expressed in your column is very timely and commendable.

My warm personal regards and I thank you. — Antonio G.

Dear Antonio: I am sure you will receive the brochure soon. It says that no one knows for sure what causes impotence in diabetic men, but some physicians suggest that the flow of blood has been permanently damaged.

I do not have a list of physicians specializing in this subject, but suggest you contact your local medical association.

Dear John: Will you please offer me additional information in the hope that a discussion of advances in the diagnosis and treatment of impotence could change my life?

I am 83½ years old and so far in good condition. — Ernest I.

Dear Ernest: Congratulations. You might send for the booklet Antonio was talking about.

Dear John: I saw an article in the paper that you write about Certo formula for arthritis. I would like to see you reprint it in the paper, how much Certo and juice to take at a time.

I have trouble with arthritis and would love to try this formula. — Helen Q.

Dear Helen: I have reprinted the Certo story so often I am reluctant to do it again. Everybody is not interested in arthritis, although it certainly is the one major problem with older people.

That is the reason I have compiled a leaflet with all of the pertinent information I have on arthritis. This is available by sending in a self-addressed, stamped envelope, large or small.

As I have said many times, requests on a postcard, cannot be honored for anything. Apparently there are many new readers because I am getting requests on a postcard, or in an envelope to please send the Certo formula — no enclosed envelope, stamp or donation.

Vase is one-of-a-kind

By James G. McCollam
Member, Antique
Appraisers Association of America

Q. I have a blue vase with a crab design. It is 9 inches tall and has the enclosed mark on the bottom; it is also signed "S.E.W."

I would appreciate anything you can tell be about it.

A. This was made by the Newcomb College pottery around the turn of the century. It was decorated by a student named Sabrina Wells and would sell for at least $800.

The products of the Newcomb College pottery in New Orleans are quite valuable due to the relative scarcity of these one-of-a-kind vases.

Q. This inlaid mahogany table has a marble top. It has been in our family for over 100 years.

I would appreciate anything you can tell me about it.

A. This is a Sheraton console table and was made in the first quarter of the 19th century.

It is a beautiful and choice antique that would probably sell for at least $2,000.

Q: You use so many words in your column that I don't understand. Would you please explain what "moriage" means?

A: Moriage is a method of decorating china with a series of small raised dots. The results are similar to decorating a cake. Most moriage was made in Japan.

BOOK REVIEW: "300 Years of Kitchen Collectibles," by Linda Campbell Franklin; Wallace-Homestead Book Co.; 1912 Grand

Ave.; Des Moines, IA 50305; $10.95, plus $1.25 postage or at your local bookstore.

This is the standard guide to kitchen antiques. It is fully illustrated and the prices reflect the current market values.

THE OFFICE CAT

By Gabby Tabby

THERE will be a two floor 140,000 sq. ft. building where the former Woolco store in Birchwood, Jericho, off Broadway, was located. The old building had been used for a number of discount stores but never made it. The new office building will be called the Jericho Atrium. It will be white porcelain with gray windows....THAT IDEA to upzone 400 acres of land to five acres in Jericho is about dead. The Town was relying on the State Water Resource Comm. to back up its contention that the land had to be held to five acres to protect water supply but the commission backed out....COUNTY workers are afraid that pay hikes will be held up because women employees are taking the county to court for equal pay for women workers. The county says it won't have the money for settling the suit and increasing wages....A ONE PERCENT tax on hotel rooms in Nassau County is proposed to get money to promote tourism in the county. Some think the added cost might have the opposite affect....THE CRIME REPORT is printed each week as a public service to alert residents of where crime is taking place in the area and as an aid in the Neighborhood Watch program. Anyone seeing suspicious activity should phone 911....BURGLARS... broke into the Hally residence, 6 Tioga Drive, Jericho on April 19. They broke glass in the front door and stole jewelry and cash....ON APRIL 20 burglars broke into the Trassey home, 45 Ridge Dr., Jericho. They came through a rear window. The loss is unknown....BURGLARS broke into the Eicher residence, 10 Niagara Dr., Jericho on April 22. The loss is unknown....A SIDE window was removed by burglars at the Frische residence, 19 Herkimer Ave., Jericho on April 22. The loss is unknown....THREE typewriters were stolen from the law offices of Gerald Lisholtz, 333 Jericho Turnpike, Jericho, on April 13. Burglars pried the front door to gain entry....THE GLASS in the front door of the Glass Oven, 7981 Jericho Turnpike, Woodbury, was broken on April 17. Burglars entered and stole cash....BURGLARS broke into St. Ignatius Church, Broadway Hicksville on April 21 and stole cash....GLASS in a rear window of the Trimetal Co. 26 Werman Ct., Plainview was broken on April 19 by burglars. They entered and stole cash....$500 in cash and a gold bracelet were stolen from the Lyan home, 54 Parkview Circle, Bethpage on April 19. Entry was through a side door which was broken by the burglars....THE REAR door of the Siu Chinese Kitchen was pried open between April 19 and 20. $300 in cash, 40 lbs. of shrimp and 24 eggs were reported stolen. That's all the news for now...G.T.

Your Social Security

Even president must pay SS tax

Q. Is it true that the president and members of Congress now have to pay Social Security taxes? — S.E.

A. Yes, it's true. Legislation signed into law last year covers all members of Congress, the president and vice president as of Jan. 1, 1984.

Q. My wife and I will both be 65 soon. I'm going to continue working but I will file for Medicare. Will my wife have to wait until I stop working before she can get Medicare? — K.P.

A. No. Your wife can have Medicare coverage at 65. To ensure coverage beginning with the month you are 65 you should file within the three-month period prior to the month you are 65.

Q. Is it really as difficult to get disability benefits as I've read in some newspaper stories? — F.T.

A. If you've worked long enough and recently enough under Social Security and you have a disability so severe that you can't do any kind of gainful work for at least a year, you may be eligible to receive disability benefits. This has always been the basis on which disability benefits are considered.

Q. My father needs three more quarters of coverage to be eligible for Social Security retirement benefits. Can he just pay the necessary taxes for those quarters so he can get retirement checks? — B.P.

A. No. The only way to get credit is through earnings from employment or self-employment. You cannot get additional quarters of coverage by just paying into the trust funds.

Q. I recently began working as a bartender. My boss says I have to pay Social Security taxes on my tips.

I don't think he knows what he's talking about. — L.A.

A. Your boss is right. If your cash tips amount to $20 or more in a month, you must report them to your boss before the 10th of the following month and pay the Social Security taxes on them.

Q. All my working life has been with my state government which never elected Social Security coverage.

Does that mean I can never have Medicare? — H.P.

A. You will be able to purchase both hospital and medical insurance at age 65 or you may purchase medical insurance only.

The premium for hospital insurance is $155 per month and for Medical coverage it is $14.60 per month.

Q. My father died three months ago and we notified the Social Security office to stop his checks. However, the checks have been received since then. What should I do with the checks and what do I do to have them stopped? — G.L.

A. It's against the law to keep or cash the checks of a deceased beneficiary. You should return the two checks in question.

Sometimes it takes a little time to record the death of a beneficiary and stop payments.

Q. I'm still in high school and I plan on working this summer. I'm told I will have to get a Social Security card.

Does that mean they will be deducting Social Security taxes from my checks? It's only a temporary summer job. — C.R.

A. If you work in a job covered by Social Security you and your employer must pay Social Security taxes. It doesn't matter how long or short a time you will be working.

News From VFW Hicksville Post

By P.P.C. Carmine A. Somma
The Annual Memorial Day Parade sponsored by the combined Veteran's organizations of Hicksville will be held on Monday May 28. This year the parade is being chaired by the American Legion Post #421. It will commence at 9 a.m. at their hall on 24 East Nicholas Street. Assembly time will be 8:30 a.m. This year the parade reviewing stand will be at the parking lot next to the American Legion Hall. If it rains, it will be inside.

Any organization interested in participating or supporting the Annual Memorial Day parade should contact P.P.C. Connie Steers at 822-5983 or call the American Legion Post Comdr. Louis Braum at 931-9867.

Most of our committees have been filled with the exception of Membership, M.I.A. & P.O.W. and Nominating. July 20 has been designated as National P.O.W.-M.I.A. Day. Posters will be available upon request from the National Human Rights Committee for P.O.W.-M.I.A., 86 Hill Street, P.O. Box 2, Walden, N.Y. 12586 or call 914 778-3096.

The Nominating Committee selections are P.P.C. Frank Lotti, P.P.C. Mike Znack, P.P.C. Connie Steers, For Comdr., T. Chepak, Sr. Vice Comdr. Max Bergsohn, Jr. Vice Comdr. Bill Schuck, Chaplain Bill Izzo, Quartermaster P.P.C. (Spike) Frohnofer, Post Advocate P.P.C. George Walden, Post Surgeon Joe Adessio. Our Comdr. Mike Cialdell will get a new job as trustee for three years. On May 19, we will have our Installation Dinner and Dance at the Post Hall. The ceremony will begin at 8 p.m. with dinner and dancing from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. For tickets call chairman P.P.C. Connie Steers at 822-5938.

At our last meeting held on April 9, Post Quartermaster P.P.C.W. Spike Frohnofer assisted by Games of Chance Chairman P.P.C. Augie Barone presented a check to the Long Island National Cemetery Memorial Organization to modify and relocate the Carillon. Representatives of the Long Island National Cemetery were there to accept the check for $1,125.

Our Comdr. Dept. of N.Y. Ralph Demarco, Nassau County Comdr. Tony Capone met with representatives of the Town of Oyster Bay. Our Comdr. Ralph Demarco said a few words about veterans benefits. He would like to see at least one bill passed before this year is up for more nursing homes for the aged veterans from World War II. It seems our lawmakers pass more for prisons, etc. than for veterans benefits. He also said a few words about political leaders in Albany, who do not recite the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag; they claim it takes too long.

Does the public know that all the Veterans groups and Fraternal organizations in Hicksville put out the flag on Broadway on all the traditional holidays? Our Monument Chairman Edward Kleniewski reported to the membership about our monument at the Hicksville Jr. High School on Jerusalem Avenue and Fourth Street. There is too much vandalism. They write on the monument, leave soda cans and beer bottles around the area, bushes and shrubbery are too high and grass is not growing. We as a Veterans group are very concerned about the War Monument. We would like to see all the bushes and shrubbery trimmed and grass growing and lights to shine on the monument.

Speedy recovery to the Comrades and Sisters and their families who have been hospitalized or ill during the month. P.P.C. Joe Normandy is home recovering. Congratulations to P.P.C. Carmine Somma and his wife Rose, on their 28th Wedding Anniversary, also P.P.C. Connie Steers and his wife, Cherie on their 13th Wedding Anniversary and Gail & Cliff on their 9th Anniversary.

Taste you can count on.

To the Editor:
In the passing of Henry Brengel, Sr. and Christine Cahalen, these last two weeks, Hicksville has lost two community leaders whose service to the education and development of our children has had good and long lasting effects.
Christine will be remembered fondly for the effervescence of her manner, her dauntless character and tireless energy. She exemplified the PTA volunteer, with years of service to children and teachers on various PTA levels as her children proceeded through our schools.

I knew her, first, from my years of teaching at the Junior High. Later, it was a stimulating experience to work with her in the four years of Hicksville's outstanding and ongoing Bicentennial commemorations. Experienced in organizational work, the result of years as a PTA leader, devoted to our children and community, Christine brought vigor and constructive ideas to our planning with a constant merry ebullience.

Aside from her many contributions to Hicksville PTA units and its Council, Christine gave years of her free time to that significant sports achievement of Hicksville, the fostering and development of our young peoples' strong participation in soccer playing. Her devotion to the ongoing success of the Hicksville American Soccer Club was marvelous to see. All who knew Christine, closely or as with this writer, through mutual community service, knew, or sensed, her indefatigable, dauntless nature. God rest and keep her cheery, honest spirit.

Mr. Brengel's chief legacy to Hicksville was the four or five elementary and two secondary schools the School Board under his Presidency built, renovated and enlarged, or planned, in an amazing educational tour de force to meet the emergency of the population influx of the early fifties. Employing the demographic projections of Columbia University authority Dr. Felix McCormick and associates, Henry Brengel and his school board wisely located the new schools and led this conservative farming community through the floating of school bonds and the construction of the schools. Hicksville is among those few rapidly expanded post-war communities which have retained its school system intact, thanks to the sage choice of school sites, thirty years ago.

But Mr. Brengel's interest in the village's children was not limited to the notable achievements in the Fifties. He was a School Board member for 23 years (1932-1955). As a two time Commander of the American Legion's Charles Wagner Post, he gave continued support to his post's Child Welfare and Youth Programs for the last 25 years, supporting the Legion's School Awards, Boys State participation, Oratorical Competitions and Citizenship Awards for new Eagle Scouts. Henry enjoyed the commemorative anniversary programs at our schools these last years. He particularly savored last year's visit to Woodland Avenue School where he fielded the questions of fourth grade children asked him about old-time Hicksville, "when you were a boy."

Henry Brengel's death, along with that of Frank Chlumsky, two years ago, is part of the ending of an era of transformation - of incredible growth and physical change in the community - accompanied by an alteration, to uncertain extent, of the village's basic social character. Our village benefited greatly during these last three decades of change by the presence of long-lived community leaders such as Henry and "Uncle Frank", two life-long friends and laborers in the vineyard which is Hicksville.

Richard Evers

The following letter is printed at the request of the writer.

Dear Councilman Clark:
It has been brought to the attention of the Hicksville Council of PTAs that you made a statement at the public session of the February 8, Hicksville Board of Education meeting before a large group of Hicksville citizens. Your statement made reference to the New York State PTA's former position in support of legalized abortion.

We are offended by your attempt to discredit the validity of an entire organization by using outdated, irrelevant information. Since the matter being discussed that evening was prayer in the public schools, it was especially inappropriate and irresponsible for a public official to confuse the issue with misinformation in order to discredit a valuable organization.

The Parent Teacher Association works hard to "secure adequate laws for the care and protection of children and youth." From its inception in 1897, the New York State Congress of Parents and Teachers has been instrumental in securing legislation pertinent to child labor juvenile protection, health and safety, state support of education and many other areas. Among the issues which PTA is currently involved are substance abuse, amblyopia, school lunches, equal educational opportunities, violence in the communications media and revision of the state aid to education formula.

We currently have over two thousand, eight hundred sixty (2860) members in good standing in the eleven (11) PTA units of Hicksville, as well as a Council of PTAs with sixty-eight (68) active representatives, including parents, teachers, principals, and the Superintendent of Schools.

We feel that your remark was made in a derogatory manner and has unnecessarily hurt the image of the Hicksville Council of PTAs. For this reason, we find it essential to set the record straight on this issue and would appreciate public clarification and an apology of your February 8 statement.

Sincerely,
Carol Marks, President
Eileen Millis, Corr. Secretary
Hicksville PTA Council

It's up to us.

New York State is a great state in which to live, work and raise a family. We can be proud of our place in world commerce, industry and in the quality of our lives. But one of our greatest sources of pride is often overlooked, that being our huge forest preserves, wetland and marsh areas, and abundant fish and wildlife.

Now New Yorkers have an opportunity to help protect this unique heritage of wildlife so vital to the quality of life we all enjoy. "Return a Gift to Wildlife" is a program into which you may voluntarily contribute when you complete your state tax form. By checking off Line 18 on the long form or Line 12 on the short form, you can make a contribution to the New York State Conservation Fund. Monies collected have been dedicated by the State Finance Law to the protection, management and extension of wildlife in our great state.

The Need Has Never Been Greater

Hard economic times dictate hard financial decisions. This year, the federal government has already eliminated endangered species aid, jeopardizing the restoration of a number of birds and animals native to New York. In addition, thousands of acres of grassland, wetland, marshland and forest that are critical to the survival or extension of New York's wildlife are eliminated or disrupted each year. The New York State "Return a Gift to Wildlife" program is an important step towards a lasting solution to these problems, and an investment in the future of our wildlife.

An Effective Program

Like the environment which only thrives when the whole ecosystem is addressed, the areas of work to be addressed through tax contributions are broad and comprehensive. The largest single element is earmarked for habitat protection so critical to wildlife perpetuation. A species management program will be strengthened to help maintain all species of fish and wildlife at desirable population levels for human enjoyment. A third element is the public use program which will provide increased opportunities for enjoying fish and wildlife. Lastly, the plan calls for greater awareness:

- development of fish and wildlife values through the creation of better educational resources and information services.

Return a Gift to Wildlife

Consider the added dimension wildlife brings to your life. Won't you return a gift through a contribution on Line 18 of the long form or Line 12 of the short form of your State tax return. Your gift is tax deductible on your 1983 tax return.
