Trinity Lutheran Fair International

On Saturday, November 10, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Trinity Lutheran Church, 40 West Nicholai Street in Hicksville will hold their annual Church Fair sponsored by the Lutheran Women's Missionary League.

Each booth, representing a different country, will sell such items as cheese, homemade baked goods, handcrafted items, homemade candy, woodcraft, greeting cards, Christmas items, fresh vegetables, and white elephants.

A full course hot luncheon will be served, and snack bar items will be available.

Join us for this festive occasion. The church is located north of Old Country Road between Jerusalem Avenue and Broadway in Hicksville. Call 931-2211 for more information.

Favorable Rate For Tobay Bonds

Oyster Bay Town Supervisor Joseph Colby has announced the sale of $17,650,000 of long-term serial bonds at a net interest rate of 8.77% to a syndicate represented by Barclays Bank of New York.

Colby said that the favorable interest rate was attributable to the Town's high credit standing and the Town's excellent financial position.

"Since the Town qualified for M.B.I.A. insurance coverage, the Bonds will be rated AAA by both Moody's Investors Service and Standard & Poor's Corporation", Colby said.

The Bond Sale comprises consolidation of twenty previously authorized bond issues for various Capital Improvement Projects, with a total value of $17,650,000. Details of the sale were handled by Fiscal Advisors, Inc., of Hicksville.

H.S. Alumni Dinner Near

President James Fyfe has announced a reshuffling of ticket allotments for the Hicksville Alumni Homecoming Dance honoring basketball coach Wayne "Buddy" Bryan.

He indicates that those not willing to risk getting shutout in a last minute scramble should get their bid in promptly.

November 10 is the date at the Bethpage Country Club. Price is $30 per person. Included is a Roast Beef dinner, unlimited bar and dance music.

The hours are 8 p.m. to 12 p.m. Former players may contact Howard Finnegan, 323-4 Hicksville Road, Bethpage, tel. 938-1695 or 747-8282.

Tickets may be had from Mrs. Carol Fyfe at the Long Island Trust, 111 Broadway, Hicksville. Hicksville District Athletic Director Bob Kenny has them available at his office in Hicksville High administration building.

Alumni reservations may also be obtained from Dolores Crawford, Harold Holden, Milton Levitt, Gwen Schaaf, Tom Manaskie and Karin Weyer.

Masons Support 'Statue' Restoration

New York Freemasons are spearheading a two-year national Masonic drive to raise $3,000,000 toward the restoration of the Statue of Liberty, reports Worshipful Robert Nash, Master of Manetto Lodge #1025, 18 W. Nicholai St., Hicksville.

The local group is one of more than 800 New York lodges taking part in this patriotic project. There are 150,000 Masons in the State and over 3 million in the U.S.

The campaign was launched in August at Liberty Island, where several thousand Masons, along with U.S. and foreign dignitaries, celebrated the 100th anniversary of the Masonic laying of the cornerstone of the Statue's pedestal.

A highlight was the unveiling of a commemorative plaque at the Statue's base, following speeches by Lt. Governor Alfred B. DelBello, French consul-General Bernard Morbier, and Calvin G. Bond, State Grand Master of Masons.

For more information about the Statue of Liberty fund drive, area residents are invited to contact Frank Capelli 516-581-0759.

Town Moves To Increase Taxes, Politics Cited

In a pre-Election move the Town Board issued a press release and held a press conference last week to announce that the Town General Tax rate will triple. The release singled out Democrat Assemblyman Lewis Yevoli, who is running in a tight race against Republican Ann Gold, and blamed him for the increase.

The increase, which was enacted Tuesday by the Republican Town Board is said to be needed to pay for a $20 million garbage shipping cost to Scranton, Pa.

The announcement came after a State Department of Environmental denial of a request by the Town to extend the height of the Town Landfill by 20 ft.

Town Supervisor Joseph Colby said that he had directed the Town Attorney to immediately initiate action in the State Supreme Court to overturn the Regional Office's decision. "The Regional Office has also refused to provide a copy of the September 7 State DEC positive recommendation to permit the height increase, and I have told the Town Attorney to seek a Court order compelling the DEC to release it."

Colby indicated that the Court's decision is likely to be made too late to allow the Town to avoid implementing a new tax, since the Town is scheduled to establish a 1985 budget prior to Election Day. "If we are successful in Court," Colby stated, "the funds that are collected will be placed in a separate account and will be refunded to taxpayers through the following year's budget as a direct tax decrease."

The increase represents an additional $2.152 (per $100 assessed valuation) levy on Class I properties; $2.344 for Class II properties; $2.35 for Class III properties; and $2.363 for Class IV properties.

Yevoli supporters have hit at the timing of the move and say that it is motivated by a desire to replace Yevoli with Mrs. Gold who would agree with the plans of the Town to locate a resource recovery center at Old Bethpage. A move which many local residents oppose.

Oyster Bay Town Councilmen Thomas L. Clark, third from right, and Kenneth S. Diamond, fourth from left, join members of the Hicksville Fire Department for the "wetdown" of Station No. 3's new 938. On hand for the ceremony were, left to right, Fire Commissioner Michael Palmer, 1st Lt. Tony Wigdorski, Capt. James Flore, Chief Owen Magee and 2nd Lt. Harry Single, Jr.

Needlework Guild Annual Event

The Needlework Guild of America, Hicksville Branch, will hold its Annual Ingathering on November 7 at the American Legion Hall, Hicksville. Hours 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The Needlework Guild of America, a charitable organization which distributes new clothing to orphanages, Home for the Blind, and people in need, was founded by a group of ladies in Hicksville over 64 years ago.

Anyone wishing to become a member may do so by donating 2 new garments a year, which will be displayed with the other garments at the Ingathering. If you wish to donate, please call Mrs. Charles (Doris Martens, President 666-9061 or Mrs. Joseph (Mary) Bean, Secretary, 796-8413.

Letters

To the Editor:

The environmental chickens are coming home to roost in Oyster Bay and Town Supervisor Colby has nobody to blame but himself.

It should have come as no surprise to Mr. Colby that the State Department of Environmental Conservation won't let him pile any more garbage on top of the Old Bethpage dump; the DEC, the Federal Government's Environmental Protection Agency and virtually every leading environmental scientist in the northeast has been warning Mr. Colby for nearly a decade that continued dumping at the old Bethpage site posed an intolerable threat to Long Island drinking water. It seems that Old Bethpage sits directly atop the major recharge aquifer for Long Island's underground water supply, and is a totally inappropriate spot for a garbage dump or, for that matter, for an incinerator/resource recovery facility. Unfortunately, Mr. Colby didn't want to listen.

So when the State DEC ruled last week that the Town couldn't pile garbage at Old Bethpage any higher than the present 120 foot mountain, our Town Fathers reacted with nothing more than typical fluster and bluster. Mr. Colby could do no better than to characterize the DEC's action as "arbitrary and capricious", and to threaten to triple Town taxes to pay for hauling local garbage to Pennsylvania unless local citizens could prevail on the State to allow the Town to dump more garbage in Old Bethpage after all.

Our Town Supervisor lashed out at DEC, at local Assemblyman Lewis Yevoli (who has led the fight to halt dumping at Old Bethpage) and everyone else in sight. He sought to place the blame everywhere but where it really belongs--on his own shoulders! If Mr. Colby had listened over the years, if he had looked for an alternate, less dangerous site for garbage disposal and resource recovery, he (and the residents of Oyster Bay) wouldn't be facing the present unfortunate situation.

Fortunately, however, there's still time. By judicious management, and after you ignore all the posturing from Town Hall, the present capacity of the Old Bethpage landfill is sufficient to take us through 1987--even without extending "garbage mountain" to 140 feet. If our Town Fathers use the ensuing three years wisely, if they seek out alternate sites for landfilling and, ultimately, a resource recovery plant that do not threaten our precious water supply, sites that are environmentally safe and sound, we can still avert the pending garbage crisis. This is exactly what Assemblyman Yevoli, concerned civic groups, responsible scientists and the State and Federal Governments have been saying for years--and it's high time that Mr. Colby started to listen, and to act before it's really too late!

Very truly yours,
Michael Polansky

H.H.S. Swim Team Results

The dual meet season ended for the High School Swim Team with a winning season.

The final two meets were victories. With a score against Hewlett of 61-89, first places were won by the relays of Lorna Mund, Stephanie Pitta, Kristen Mund and Karen Karrmann, and Gina Cusumano, Beth Walsh, Camille Calame and Deanna Pitta. Placing first in their individual events were Camille Calame in both diving and the 50 free, Gina Cusumano in the 200 free, Kristin Mund in the 200IM and the 100 free, Karen Karrmann in the 500 free and Lorna Mund in the 100 fly and 100 breast. Lorna broke her own record in the breast. Second place scorers were Linda Cusumano in the back, Deanna Pitta in the 200IM and Karen Kratochvil in the 200 free.

The score in the win over Wantagh was an impressive 100-62. It was highlighted by excellent swims by Laureanne Hoffmann and by Karen Kratochvil who won the 500 free with her best time.

In addition to the dual meets, the girls also competed in the Long Island Invitational on October 20. The team placed sixth with 161 points. Kristin Mund, a seventh grader, distinguished herself by winning third place awards in both the 200 IM and the 100 fly. Her sister, Lorna Mund, a sophomore, won the 200 free and her winning time in the 100 back broke both her own team record and the meet record.

Lecture On Taxes Set For Thurs.

The Hicksville Public Library will present a lecture by Harry Farber, Esq., from the Bar Association of Nassau County Inc., on Thursday, November 8 at 8 p.m. His topic will cover Tax Laws. This program will be held in the Community Room of the library. There is no admission charged and everyone is invited.

I take Gregg (Frisky) Furst, Small, but the star of the show is Gregg (The Giant) Gruoso. No one plays so tough and hard, than Jacobs, call him Jet Foot Jared. So you can bank on number seven. You can hope on going to heaven. You can bank on bonds and stocks, I Bank on the Shamrocks.

Best in sports,

By Eddie Cooper [A Devoted Fan]
PS: The Hicksville Shamrocks 1974 soccer team tied the Bethpage Rangers 1-1 at Grumman Field Saturday. Hicksville's goal was scored by Jared Jacobs on a Gregg Furst pass. The Shamrocks send sincere thanks to Mr. Cooper for the lovely poem he presented to us!

Library Open Election Day

The Hicksville Public Library will be open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Election Day, Tuesday, November 6. There will be no evening hours that day. These hours apply to the Adult Library services and the Children's Room.

Residents' Complaints Heard By Bd. Of Ed.

Special to Mid Island Times

By Valerie Pakaluk

Several residents voiced complaints to the Hicksville Board of Education last week regarding distribution of anti-abortion literature near the grounds of the senior high school. Norma Goerke said she resents the tactics used by the group and feared retaliation by planned parenthood groups. Jean Tobin noted that the safety of students had been put in jeopardy since many were stopped on the street and forced to accept the pamphlets. School Board President William Bennett listened to the objections but advised the audience that the pro life group's actions did not infringe on school property and, therefore, the district has no authority to ban them from the area.

During the public session of the agenda, many items are brought to the attention of the seven member Board of Trustees. A young spokesperson for the Drama Club at the senior high expressed concern over the atmosphere and direction of the Club. She then went on to complain about a staff member and at that point was advised that personnel matters are never discussed in public and must be taken up through the proper channels. The Board meets in Executive Session to discuss problems of this nature for the protection of the district's employees.

Committee Reports were given by the appropriate chairpeople. Committees meet on Wednesdays at 8:15 in the Administration Building according to the schedule listed in the School Calendar. Invitations were again extended for residents to join in one or all of the meetings. People to contact are: Arlene Rudin or Thomas Nagle (Curriculum); Daniel MacBride (District Facilities and Community Affairs); Lawrence Wolfson (Legislation); Arlene Rudin or Jay Schwartz (Policy); Lawrence Moor or Lawrence Wolfson (Long Range Planning).

The Board accepted the resignations of Albina Alekna, a social studies teacher for 28 years at the Junior High and Andrew Rosen, a Psychologist at the Senior High School. Wendy Rosenberg was appointed as a first grade teacher at Old Country Road School. Lydia Ricker was appointed to Dutch Lane School, 4th grade and Gary Mandell will take over as a Psychologist at the senior high.

A brief report was given by Mr. Bennett regarding the Board's participation at the New York State School Board's Convention held at the Concord Hotel recently. Bennett felt that much was learned by the many workshops held on topics that concern a school district. Alyne Shoefeld was congratulated for winning first place for her work in compiling the District School Calendar.

The next meeting is scheduled for November 28 at 8:15 in the Conference Room at the Administration Building.

Other Items Are On Nov. 6 Ballot

In addition to the candidates to be voted on Nov. 6 there are some amendments to the state Constitution and a county ballot proposal for voters to decide. The two amendments to the State Constitution are these: 1. One term of sheriffs and county clerks, new wording in the State Constitution is proposed. It would allow the Legislature to set the term of office for the sheriff and county clerk at three or four years instead of the three year term now in the Constitution.

The second amendment is to change the monetary limits for prizes awarded in games of chance conducted by charities. Presently prize limits are set at $250 for a single prize and an aggregate total of $1000 on any one occasion. If the amendment is passed, the Legislature can set new limits.

The county ballot proposal would allow the establishment of a Nassau County Utility agency to purchase power from New York State which gets lower cost power from Canada and distribute it to residential customers in Nassau County. The rates for the power would be established by the Public Service Commission. But it is presumed that they would be lower than present rates.

The wording of the Amendments and proposals are as follows:

Terms of Sheriffs and County Clerks

Shall Article XIII, section 13, subdivision a of the Constitution, which provides that Sheriffs and County Clerks shall be elected once in every three years and whenever the occurring of vacancies shall require, be amended (1) to omit those provisions and (2) to allow the Legislature to set the terms of office of Sheriffs and County Clerks in each county at either three or four years? Vote yes to approve the amendment. Vote no to reject it.

Prizes Awarded at Certain Games of Chance

Shall Article I, Section 9, subdivision 2 of the Constitution, which sets monetary limits for prizes awarded in games of chance, be amended to allow the Legislature to change those limits? Vote yes to approve the amendment. Vote no to reject it.

Proposed:

Shall the Local Law adopted by the Board of Supervisors of Nassau County of Feb. 27, 1984 which authorizes the establishment of a Nassau County Public Utility Agency pursuant to Section 360 of the General Municipal Law for the purpose of purchasing electrical power from the Power Authority of the State of New York and/or other New York State Agencies for use by residential electric consumers of the Long Island Lighting Company in Nassau County be approved?

Youth Arrested For Narcotic Sale

After an investigation by 8th Precinct Juvenile Aid Bureau detectives, a 14 year old Hicksville Jr. High School was taken into custody for Criminal Sale of a Controlled Substance 5th Degree.

At 9:30 a.m. October 25, several teachers observed the alleged sale of a small amount of mescaline in a hallway at the Hicksville Jr. High School, Jerusalem Avenue, Hicksville. The juvenile was taken into custody at 12 p.m. and will appear in Family Court at a later date.

Detective John Kowall of the Eighth Squad is continuing the investigation.

Hicksville Teacher To Speak At Conv.

Susan E. Wolf, Language Arts Chairperson, Hicksville Junior High School, will be making a presentation at the 1984 New York State Reading Association Conference during the week of November 6-11 at the Concord Resort Hotel, Kiamesha Lake, New York.

The presentation is entitled "The Newspaper as Common Denominator: An Integrated Approach to Language Arts, Social Studies and Math".

This is a major educational conference with an attendance of over 3000. The presenters are selected on a competitive basis and go through a rigorous screening by a discriminating committee.

Nassau County Comptroller Peter T. King, left, gives best wishes to Catherine Fowler of Hicksville upon her retirement from the Comptroller's Office. King commended Ms. Fowler for her years of dedicated service. Ms. Fowler worked in the keypunch section of the Comptroller's Office.

Our Children

Teacher resents bright child

By Willard Abraham
Ph.D.

Q. Our 11-year-old son is quite bright, and until this year got along well in school. His teachers have liked him, he hasn't had any trouble making friends and school has generally been an enjoyable experience for him.

This year is different, however. He has a teacher who seems to resent his brightness. We have had several parent-teacher conferences, during which she has told me how "smart alecky" he is, a trait that neither I nor his other teachers have discerned.

It has reached the point that he dislikes school, and has even faked illness on a few occasions so he won't have to go.

What do you suggest we do about all this?

A. A conversation with his school counselor, a visit to the principal, consideration of transferring him to another classroom — these are among your options.

A study of gifted child education conducted by the U.S. Office of Education in the early 1970s included among its findings concerns about the "apathy and hostility" of some teachers.

Instead of recognizing the challenge involved in educating gifted children, some of their teachers fail to understand that in most of their classes there may be one or more children brighter than they are. Maturity and knowledge of subject matter are frequently on their side, but lack of self-confidence or some other personality factor might get in the way. All of these comments are based on the assumption that your son really is brighter and his teacher actually does resent his presence in her classroom. Your comments indicate those facts do exist.

Q. Is it true what they say about 4-year-olds — that they are hard to get along with, hyperactive and uncontrollable?

The reason I'm asking is because our little boy is exactly the opposite. He has never been difficult, toilet trained early, adjusted easily to a good preschool, already is starting to read and gets along well with the other kids.

I don't really think there's anything wrong with him, but I'm just curious about that negative image that I've heard so often about 4-year-old children.

A. All generalizations about children (or any other group of individuals) have to be questioned. This assumption of some people about 4-year-olds is no exception.

Some of them undoubtedly are extremely active, a few even hyperactive, but many perform as your son does.

You're fortunate and so is he.

Q. Is Playboy a good magazine for a young child to be exposed to? You may think I'm kidding, but honestly, I'm not putting you on with that question.

My husband insists that the pictures and even parts of some articles are worth sharing with our 5-year-old son to "enlighten" him about anatomy and the so-called facts of life.

I think it's too early, too much and all wrong. What do you think?

A. I'm with you. I'm certainly not going to get involved with the overall values of Playboy, but for a young child there are plenty of other publications that are probably more appropriate for sharing purposes.

If your little boy is in kindergarten, his teacher can no doubt recommend some of them.

School Dist. Signs Teacher Aide Contract

Hicksville School Board President and Unit President Linda Hild

The Hicksville Teacher Aides Unit of the Civil Service Employees Association came into being at a special meeting of the Board of Education Tuesday evening as Board President William P. Bennett and Unit President Linda Hild signed the first contract between the district and the teacher aides.

During the negotiation process with the group, now the newest union in the district, job descriptions were redrafted and substantial changes were made in their duties and responsibilities. The district has also moved from one set salary rate to a salary scale based on the length of experience in the job. Teacher aides serve in special education classes providing additional adult supervision.

Mr. Bennett addressed unit members after the signing, expressing the pleasure of the Board and the district at the successful conclusion of the negotiations.

"On behalf of the members of the Board of Education, we wish to congratulate the association of the Teacher Aides in recognition of the first contract that was consummated on their behalf," Bennett stated. "This was accomplished in large measure by Unit President, Linda Hild, who has worked tirelessly in achieving this first contract. Her dedication and hard work on behalf of her membership is laudable."

East St. Craft Fair

Come to a craft fair and cake sale at East Street School. This year on Election Day, November 6 from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m., East Street School will be having a craft fair in addition to its annual cake sale.

There will be delightful handmade items for the home or suitable for gift giving. There will also be delicious homemade baked goods and special items to be raffled. Senior citizens will be entitled to a 10% discount.

We look forward to seeing you. Come vote and come buy!

BirthrightBoutique Planned In Nov.

Mrs. Mary Ellen Emerick, President of Families for Life has announced that preparations are under way for the annual Boutique that the organization sponsors for Birthright.

The Boutique is to be held on Sunday, November 11 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Galileo Galilei Lodge, 200 Levittown Parkway, one block south of Old Country Road in Hicksville. Coordinator, Mrs. Dorothy Blair has indicated that the sale will offer a wide variety of new and handcrafted merchandise. The proceeds from the affair will benefit several Birthright offices on Long Island.

Birthright is a non-profit, non-sectarian volunteer organization which provides aid and counseling to girls and women distressed by an untimely pregnancy. The Birthright aim is to offer a positive alternative to abortion.

The members of Families for Life have long been dedicated to assisting and supporting the Birthright goals as evidenced by this, the twelfth annual Boutique. The public is invited to attend.

Special Film: The Secret of NIMH at the Bethpage Public Library

On Saturday, November 10 the Bethpage Public Library will show "The Secret of NIMH" (color-82 min.), an unforgettable animated classic in the tradition of "Snow White" and "Bambi". Adapted from the Newbery Award-winning novel, Mrs. Frisby and the Rats of NIMH, this is the riveting story of a timid, widowed field mouse, who must defy man, beast, and nature to save her threatened family. When the mysterious rats of NIMH get into the act, there's high adventure, suspense, thrills and gasps galore.

Showtime is 2 p.m. All school-age youngsters residing in District #21 are invited to attend. Tickets are available now in the Bethpage Children's Room. For further information, please call 931-3907.

Story Theater Celebration of National Children's Book Week at the Bethpage Public Library.

Have you ever had peanut butter and jelly hopelessly stuck to the roof of your mouth? Or tried to make a man-eating giant dance instead of devouring you?

On Saturday, November 17, the Bethpage Public Library will salute National Children's Book Week with a dazzling special presentation of "The One-Man Story Theater Band" by John Porcino, actor, musician, storyteller, humorist, and naturalist.

At this time, John Porcino, performer extraordinary, will present his fabulous grab bag of outlandish theater pieces, stories, and songs from here there and everywhere brought to life with music played on the guitar, violin, cello, African drums, recorder, lute, flute, and penny whistle. There will be lots of unusual special effects, hand-clapping, foot-stomping fun and surprises for all.

Mr. Porcino has performed his unique version of story theater in numerous Metropolitan Area schools and libraries, and at major dramatic and storytelling festivals. Showtime is 2 p.m. and tickets are now available in the Bethpage Children's Room for all school-age youngsters residing in District #21.

On Tuesday afternoon, October 30, the Bethpage Public Library will hold its annual gala Halloween Party for youngsters. Festivities will start promptly at 4 p.m.

Boys and girls in grades 2 to 6 are invited to join the Magic Circle Costume Contest dressed as their favorite storybook characters. Following the contest, there will be prizes galore, an exciting Halloween Magic Show, and delicious refreshments.

Serving as judges for the costume contest will be Janice Box, Editor, the Bethpage Tribune; Leo E. Schottland, representing the Friends of the Bethpage Public Library; Glen Fuhrman, Manager, Norstar Bank, Bethpage Office; Laurence W. Bevan, Instructor for the Bethpage Public Library Fifty-five Alive Driving Course; Maureen Breidenbach, Coordinator 4-H Public Information.

Tickets are available now at the library for all youngsters residing in District #21.

Bethpage Library Bus Trip to the Cradle of Aviation Museum

Did you know that Long Island is the cradle of American aviation? Would you like to find out what it's like to fly a plane?

On Saturday, November 3, the Bethpage Public Library has planned an exciting bus trip for youngsters to the Cradle of Aviation Museum at Mitchel Field, Garden City.

In this new major air and space museum, youngsters will learn about famous air ace Doolittle, Earhart, Lindbergh and more, and their record-breaking flights from Long Island. Young people will also have a unique opportunity to see an extensive collection of famous aircraft from a 1903 Wright Flyer, to a sister ship of the "Spirit of St. Louis," to the Lunar Module itself.

The bus will leave promptly at 1 p.m. from in front of the library and will return approximately at 3:45 p.m. All young people in grades 2-6 in District #21 are invited to attend. Admission is $2.50 per child which includes all fees and bus fare and registration is now being taken at the Bethpage Public Library for the limited number of places available on the bus. If they care to, young people can bring along some money for the souvenir shop in a replica of the Wright Brothers Bicycle Store. For information, please call 931-3907.

Board Approves Bethpage Gas Station

The Oyster Bay Town Board has approved an application for a change of zone and special use permit for a gasoline service station in Bethpage, and has denied the application to erect and operate a car wash on the same premises, according to Town Councilman Howard T. Hogan, Jr.

"The petitioners, Gairach Realty Corp. and Texaco, Inc., have been granted the change of zone from 'F' neighborhood business to 'G' general business district and a special use permit to demolish an existing gas station and rebuild and operate a gas station and convenience store at the southeast corner of the intersection of Bethpage Turnpike and Seitz Drive," Hogan stated. The application for permission to erect and operate a carwash on the premises has been denied.

In granting the application for the gas station and convenience store, the Board took into consideration concerns expressed by area residents at a public hearing held on the matter in July, Hogan said. "The Board has stipulated that no beer may be sold on the premises, and that no auto repairs will be permitted, and in addition, a groundwater monitoring well must be installed for the purpose of detecting any seepage of gas or other materials into the groundwater."

The Board has also required that a site plan must be submitted to and approved by the Department of Planning and Development before any building permit is issued.

Nearly 200 members of the Plainview-Old Bethpage Road Runners Club and their guests were on hand for the annual pre-New York City Marathon Pasta Party at the VFW Hall in Plainview on Friday evening, October 26. The big party was hosted by Bryan Mutnick and the gang at Super Star Sneakers and Sports of Woodbury once again this year.

Using the opportunity to discuss marathon day tactics were, left to right, Rich Cazakoff, Donna Cazakoff, Norm Lison and Larry Green.

Vets Should File Income Questionnaire

Recipients of veterans' pensions will receive annual income questionnaires in a special mailing on or about November 1, according to Town Councilman John Venditto.

Pension is subject to income limitations and the annual income questionnaire is designed to secure the required information.

Venditto noted, "Filing of the annual income questionnaire is absolutely mandatory and failure to do so will cause the pensioner's monthly benefits to be withheld until the questionnaire is received."

and processed. All questionnaires should be filed prior to December 3. Professional assistance in computing income and completing the questionnaire is a free and confidential service provided by the State Division of Veterans' Affairs."

Venditto added, "Pensioners in need of guidance and help should contact the local office of the New York State Division of Veterans' Affairs located at Town Hall South, 977 Hicksville Road, Massapequa, N.Y. 11758. They are open Monday through Thursday. Call 795-1000."

THE OFFICE CAT

By Gabby Tabby

THERE ARE more smiling faces on the political scene for the GOP candidates this week. Most happiness is attributable to the Presidential debates and the so-called coattail effect. But a funny thing is happening with Democratic candidates locally. They are having a hard time remembering who is at the top of the ticket....IT HAS been a little disappointing this election period locally. Not so much in the campaigning, but the Town usually sends out crews to clean up the streets to keep voters happy. This year nothing. The elections can't be very close....AN EIGHT year old boy who slipped away from his foster home in Brooklyn got on the L.I.R.R. and came to Hicksville Monday. He made the change at Jamaica and was found wandering on Broadway. He was returned home but two days later he took a train to Pt. Lookout and was returned home again. He paid no fare just hid under the seats....WE LIKE local news of events locally. Write them out in legible form, type if you can. But please don't send us commercial items, political ads in disguise or out of town stories. And Oh yes, all material submitted is subject to editing....THE CRIME REPORT is printed each week as a public service to help local residents know where crime is occurring in the area and as an aid in the Neighborhood Watch....BURGLARS kicked in a side window of the Shapiro residence 1 Norwood Ct., Woodbury on Oct. 17. They entered the house and stole cash, a TV, a VCR, necklace and a mink....THE REAR door of the Banner home 6 Ulster Drive, Jericho was pried open by burglars on Oct. 17. They entered and stole jewelry....BURGLARS broke into the Marion residence 21 Montgomery Place, Jericho on Oct. 17. They entered by breaking glass in a rear window. Cash was stolen....ON OCT. 18 burglars entered the garage at the Ramer residence 18 Berkeley Lane, Syosset. They stole an auto radio, tapes, a tennis racket, TV and tools....BURGLARS pried the rear door of the Martillo home 52 Gary Rd., Syosset on Oct. 19. They entered and stole a stereo and TV....ON OCT. 20 burglars pried a rear window and broke into the Rosenthal residence 123 Roxton Rd., Plainview. They stole a TV, cash and jewelry....SILVERWARE and coins were stolen from the Mann residence 17 West St., Hicksville on Oct. 20. The means of entry is unknown....GLASS was broken in the rear door of the Canarda residence 140 Ira Rd., Plainview on Oct. 21. Burglars entered and stole cash and jewelry....BURGLARS broke into Claude's Hair shop 20 Haskett Drive, Syosset between Oct. 16 and 17. They entered through a side window and stole beauty supplies, a VCR, TV, cash, fur and an answering machine....ON OCT. 18 burglars broke glass in the rear door of the Smoketast 240 North Broadway, Hicksville. They entered and stole cash....THE GLASS in the front window of Spence Distributors 1000 Brush Hollow Rd., Jericho was broken between Oct. 20 and 21. Burglars entered and stole cash. Local Residents In Aspirin Study

An important study on the effects of aspirin on blood flow to the heart has been conducted at Nassau Hospital in Mineola by Dr. Steven M. Zeldis of Roslyn Heights, Dr. Perry Mandel of Glen Cove, Dr. Stanley Katz of Sands Point, Sandra Kane of Syosset, research associate; and Julie Mingalone, R.N., of Hicksville.

Funded by the Nassau Chapter of the American Heart Association, the aspirin study has been accepted for presentation in October to the American Federation of Clinical Research, Eastern Section, and in November to the American Medical Association.

In the study, 19 patients with coronary artery disease were tested over a three week period. In random order they were each given four aspirin tablets daily for one week, one aspirin tablet daily for one week, and a placebo for one week. At the end of each week, blood flow to the heart was measured while the patient exercised.

In theory, aspirin has a potent vascular effect. Low dosages may help the body to dilate small blood vessels, while larger doses may encourage the constriction of vessels. In this study, the theoretical basis appears to have a practical application.

Results of the study showed that when patients received low dose aspirin, they had significantly improved blood flow to the heart muscle during exercise as compared to the tests when they received high doses of aspirin or placebos.

Many heart patients have been advised to take low doses of aspirin daily. Although more research is needed, this study indicates that it may be a healthy thing to do.

Hicksville Student At Space Camp

Yuri Melich

Yuri Melich of Hicksville, spent part of his summer attending the United States Space Camp at the Alabama Space and Rocket Center in Huntsville, Alabama. Yuri is a student of Hicksville Junior High School.

*REDUCED INFLATION AND INTEREST RATES -

During the Carter-Mondale Administration, America suffered double-digit inflation. As a result of the policies of the Reagan-Bush-Lent team, inflation has been reduced 75% — to 4%. Interest rates have been cut in half — from a prime rate of 23 1/4% to 12 1/2%.

*LOWER TAXES -

Congressman Lent has been a staunch supporter of the Reagan tax cut program. The American people have enjoyed a 25% cut in federal income tax rates.

*JOBS -

America is working again!!! Unemployment is at an all time low of 5.1% on Long Island. More Americans are working today than ever before — 106 million.

*A MORE SECURE AMERICA -

Congressman Lent believes that "Only a strong America can insure true and lasting world peace." Congressman Lent has consistently supported President Reagan's efforts to modernize our national defenses.

*THE FIGHT AGAINST DRUNK DRIVING -

Congressman Lent authored the new federal law to establish a 21-year-old drinking age limit to combat the "brutal carnage" of drunk driving. He has been cited by such groups as Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD) and Students Against Drunk Driving (SADD) for his legislative efforts.

Residents Oppose White Castle

By Gertrude Paul

Many residents of North Hicksville, in the area of Willet Avenue and Bethpage Road are deeply concerned over the notice they have received pertaining to construction of a White Castle Restaurant and Drive-In on the corner of the above mentioned streets. Within minutes of the news, it is reported that telephones started ringing and neighbors gathered to discuss what they believed to be a threat to their welfare and safety. Willet Avenue has an elementary school nearby on the street. School buses traverse this street, and many hours of the day it is clogged with traffic. The backup on Bethpage Road into Broadway is so heavy at times that travelers take alternate routes by way of Woodbury Road to get to the parkway at South Oyster Bay Road rather than try to "buck the traffic".

Food odors and refuse with the possibility of attracting vermin or roaches may threaten the health and well being of those who live adjacent to this proposed site.

Since White Castle is a 24 hour operation, youngsters have been known to use it as a late-night hangout, bringing cars and blasting radios to the discomfort and annoyance of the residents in the neighborhood.

Oyster Bay is now facing a "garbage crisis". A White Castle will add a great deal of extra refuse at a time when homeowners may be limited to one garbage can full twice a week.

The construction on the west side of Bethpage Road has already generated overcrowded and hazardous traffic conditions.

Residents are urged to sign petitions and attend a public hearing on November 13 at 10 a.m. at Audrey Avenue, Oyster Bay. All those who wish to join our army of crusaders are urged to contact: Gertrude Paul, 931-1740; Terry Lochery, 433-6857; Eleonore Draycott, 935-5793, and Virginia Germer, 938-0064.

The plan to destroy a peaceful neighborhood must be defeated! Act now! God Bless you all for helping.

IN THE LAST 2 YEARS ALONE SENATOR JOHN DUNNE DELIVERED TO THE TAXPAYERS OF PLAINVIEW & OLD BETHPAGE

- Over $3 million more in state school aid than the Governor proposed.
- $70,000 in special state grants to enhance educational programs;
- $45,000 to support the activities of the Plainview-Old Bethpage Youth Council;
- And responsible programs to lessen the burdens on senior citizens; to provide property tax reductions to veterans; to help children from middle class families and their parents afford the cost of a college education, and to aid victims of violent crimes.

AND THAT'S NOT ALL!

With his colleagues in the Republican Senate majority, John Dunne helped to draw up and pass a comprehensive, five year, $1.5 billion tax-cut program designed to lower personal income, business and consumer taxes in New York. Unfortunately, the Assembly and the Governor refused to join with the Senate to grant overdue relief to New York's hard working over-burdened taxpayers. Tax relief for you will be John Dunne's first priority when the Legislature reconvenes!

The resolution published herewith has been adopted on the 23rd day of October, 1984, and the validity of the obligations authorized by such resolution may be hereafter contested only if such obligations were authorized for an object or purpose for which the Town of Oyster Bay, New York, is not authorized to expend money or if the provisions of law which should have been complied with as of the date of publication of this notice were not substantially complied with, and an action, suit or proceeding contesting such validity is commenced within twenty days after the publication of this notice, or such obligations were authorized in violation of the provisions of the constitution.

Ann R. Ocker,
Town Clerk

EXTRACT OF MINUTES

Meeting of the Town Board of the Town of Oyster Bay, in the County of Nassau, New York, October 23, 1984.

A regular meeting of the Town Board of the Town of Oyster Bay, in the County of Nassau, New York was held at the Town Hall, Oyster Bay, in said Town, on October 23, 1984, at 10:00 A.M. (D.S.T.)

There were present Honorable Joseph Colby, Supervisor and Salvatore R. Mosca, Howard T. Hogan, Jr., Kenneth S. Diamond, Thomas L. Clark, Douglas J. Hynes, John Venditto, Councilmen. There were absent: No one. Also present: Ann R. Ocker, Town Clerk

Councilman Mosca offered the following resolution and moved its adoption:

Resolution No. 895-1984
BOND RESOLUTION NO. 895-1984 OF THE TOWN OF OYSTER BAY, NEW YORK, ADOPTED OCTOBER 23, 1984, APPROPRIATING $546,000 TO PAY THE TOWN'S SHARE OF THE COST OF THE IMPROVEMENT OF THE FACILITIES OF THE OYSTER BAY HEMPSTEAD JOINT COMMUNITY HALL AND SWIMMING POOL DISTRICT IN THE TOWNS OF HEMPSTEAD AND OYSTER BAY, CONSISTING OF THE RECONSTRUCTION OF ALL OF THE SWIMMING POOLS IN SAID DISTRICT, AND AUTHORIZING THE ISSUANCE OF $546,000 SERIAL BONDS OF THE TOWN TO FINANCE SAID APPROPRIATION.

Recitals

WHEREAS, following submission of a petition of the Board of Commissioners of the Oyster Bay-Hempstead Joint Community Hall and Swimming Pool District (hereinafter in this resolution called the "District"), in the Towns of Oyster Bay and Hempstead, Nassau County, New York, and after a public hearing at a joint meeting duly called and held, the Town Board of said Town of Oyster Bay and the Town Board of said Town of Hempstead, by joint vote on August 7, 1984, adopted a joint resolution and order (Resolution No. 766-1984) of the Town of Oyster Bay,

LEGAL NOTICE

Resolution No. 979-1984 (Town of Hempstead); determining that it is in the public interest to improve and authorizing the reconstruction of the facilities of the District by the reconstruction of all the swimming pools in the District, at an estimated maximum cost of $4,200,000, and to finance such cost by the issuance of bonds of each Town, the amounts thereof to be divided between the Towns so that the ratio between the allotted share of each Town and the total cost of the reconstruction shall be the same as the ratio between the assessed valuation of its portion of the District and the assessed valuation of the whole District, all as set forth in the Notice of Joint Public Hearing prescribed by resolutions adopted by the Town Board of said Town of Oyster Bay and by the Town Board of said Town of Hempstead, respectively, on June 26, 1984, and a certified copy of such Joint Resolution and Order was duly recorded in the office of the Clerk of the County of Nassau; and

WHEREAS, the Town Board of the Towns of Oyster Bay and Hempstead, respectively, have heretofore on October 23, 1984, adopted resolutions determining that the requirements of the New York State Environmental Quality Review Act (hereinafter in this Resolution called "SEORA") and 6 NYCRR Part 617, have been met, such reconstruction of swimming pool hereinabove referred to is classified as a Type II action pursuant to 6 NYCRR 617.13(d)(1) which Type II actions have been determined not to have a significant effect on the environment pursuant to law and that the SEORA process has been satisfied and completed; and

WHEREAS, it is now necessary and desirable to provide for financing the proportionate share of said Town of Oyster Bay of such cost by the issuance of serial bonds in the principal amount of $546,000; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED BY THE TOWN BOARD OF THE TOWN OF OYSTER BAY, IN THE COUNTY OF NASSAU, NEW YORK (by the favorable vote of not less than two-thirds of all the members of said Board) AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. The Town of Oyster Bay ("Town"), in the County of Nassau, New York, hereby appropriates the amount of $546,000 to pay its share of the cost of the improvement of the facilities of the District, consisting of the reconstruction of all of the existing swimming pools in the District, all as hereinabove referred to in the Recitals of this resolution, and in accordance with the study plan, specifications and estimates of cost prepared by the Department of Park and Recreation of the Town of Hempstead, on file in the office of the Town Clerk and hereby approved. The estimated maximum cost of said class of objects or purposes, including preliminary costs and costs incidental thereto and the financing thereof, is $4,200,000 and the plan of financing includes the issuance of serial bonds of (i) the Town of Hempstead in the principal amount of $3,654,000 and (ii) the Town of Oyster Bay in the principal amount of $546,000, to finance their respective shares of such costs and the assessment, levy and collection of such respective shares by each of such Towns from the several lots and parcels of land within both such District and such Town in the same manner and at the same time as other ad valorem taxes.

Section 2. Serials bonds of the Town are hereby authorized to be issued in the principal amount of $546,000 pursuant to the provisions of the Local Finance Law, constituting Chapter 33-a of the Consolidated Laws of the State of New York (herein called "Law"), to finance said appropriation.

Section 3. The following additional matters are hereby determined and stated:

(a) The period of probable usefulness of the class of objects or purposes for which said $546,000 serial bonds herein authorized are to be issued, within the limitations of § 110-a(1) of the Law, is fifteen (15) years.

(b) Current funds are not required by the Law to be provided prior to the issuance of the bonds authorized by this resolution or any bond anticipation notes in anticipation of the sale of said bonds, pursuant to Section 107.00d. (3)(i) of the Law.

(c) The proposed maturity of the bonds authorized by this resolution will exceed five (5) years.

Section 4. Each of the serial bonds authorized pursuant to this resolution, and each bond anticipation note issued in anticipation of the sale of said bonds, shall contain the recital of validity prescribed by § 52(2) of the Law and said bonds and any bond anticipation notes issued in anticipation of the sale of said bonds, shall be general obligations of the Town, payable as to both principal and interest by a general tax upon all the taxable real property within the Town, without limitation of rate or amount. The faith and credit of the Town are hereby irrevocably pledged to the punctual payment of the principal of and interest on said bonds and notes and provisions shall be made annually in the budget of the Town by appropriation for (a) the amortization and redemption of the bonds to mature in such year; and (b) the payment of interest to be due and payable in such year.

Section 5. Subject to the provisions of this resolution and of the Law, and pursuant to the provisions of § 30.00 relative to the authorization of the issuance of bond anticipation notes and of § 50.00 and § 55.00 to 60.00 of the Law, the powers and duties of the Town Board relative to authorizing bond anticipation notes and prescribing the terms, form and contents and as to the sale and issuance of the bonds and of any notes issued in anticipation of the sale of said bonds, or the renewals thereof, are hereby delegated to the Supervisor, the chief fiscal officer of the Town.

Section 6. The validity of the bonds authorized pursuant to this resolution, and of any notes issued in anticipation of the sale of said bonds, may be contested only:

(a) such obligations are authorized for an object or purpose for which the Town is not authorized to expend money, or

(b) the provisions of law which should be complied with at the date of publication of such resolution, are not substantially complied with, and an action, suit or proceeding contesting such validity, is commenced within twenty days after the date of publication, or

(c) such obligations are authorized in violation of the provisions of the constitution.

Section 7. This resolution shall take effect immediately and the Town Clerk is hereby authorized and directed to cause said resolution to be published, in full, in Mid Island Times and Mid Island Herald newspapers published in Hicksville, New York, having a general circulation within the Town and hereby designated as the official newspaper of the Town for such publication, together with a notice in substantially the form as prescribed by § 801.00 of the Law.

The adoption of the foregoing resolution was seconded by Councilman Venditto and duly put to a vote on roll call, which resulted as follows: AYES: 7; NOES: 0.

The resolution was declared unanimously adopted.

CERTIFICATE

I, ANN R. OCKER, Town Clerk of the TOWN OF OYSTER BAY, in the County of Nassau, State of New York, HEREBY CERTIFY that the foregoing annexed Extract of Minutes of a meeting of the Town Board of said Town, duly called and held on October 23, 1984, containing Resolution No. 895-1984, has been compared by me with the original minutes as officially recorded in my office in the Minute book of said Town Board and is a true, complete and correct copy thereof and of the whole of said original minutes so far as the same relate to the subject matters referred to in said extract.

In WITNESS WHEREOF, I, have hereunto set my hand and affixed the corporate seal of said Town this 23rd day of October, 1984.

Elks Club Sponsors Scholarship

Exalted Ruler Steve Lerner of Hicksville Lodge No. 1931 announced a joint Elks National Foundation, and New York State Elks Association scholarship competition for 1985-1986.

The Elks National Foundation "Most Valuable Student" Scholarship/Leadership Awards, open to all New York State High School Seniors, total 70 scholarships ranging in amounts from $1,200 to $24,000. These awards to New York students will be part of the Elks National program providing 1,573 scholarships, in the amount of $2,363,000. Applications must be filed by December 15, 1984.

New York State Elk's Association Scholarship Awards total 38, and are for $750 each. State Association Scholarships are open to high school seniors or college students up to the Junior year, whose father is, or was at the time of his death, a member of the Order of Elks. Applications for both awards will be available at the student's school or at the local Elks Lodge, on or after November 15.

Exalted Ruler Steve Lerner has named Ed Allen of Hicksville Lodge No. 1931 as Scholarship Chairman to administer this program for local students who wish to compete. Additional information about this program can be obtained by calling him at 516-681-3654 (6-9 p.m.).

Auxiliary Police Commended

By Eileen L. Heym

The Chief of Hicksville's Auxiliary Police Unit 312 was honored to receive the County's most prestigious award during Auxiliary Police Awards Night on October 16. Deputy Inspector Thomas Schneider received the Commissioner of Police Certificate, the highest award presented to Auxiliary Police for excellence of performance in the line of duty, in recognition of his success in disarming a man who was threatening bodily injury to another man in an incident that occurred last October 31 at the Mid Island Plaza. In addition to receiving praise for both on and off duty activities, the ceremony also provided the opportunity to present awards to local politicians whose efforts have supported the Auxiliary Police volunteer program in Nassau County.

Hicksville's Auxiliary Police were also recipients of an award of merit from the U.S. Postal Service presented at ceremonies held during the Safety Fair at the Hicksville Post Office on October 7. This award acknowledges Unit 312's continued participation in anti-crime activities in the Hicksville community. Just recently, Auxiliary Patrol Officer Ken Molloy was credited with preservation of private property when he detained a youth who attempted to deface the walls of the American Legion Hall on E. Nicholai Street with graffiti. The youth was subsequently arrested by Nassau County Police Officers.

Hearing Set On Pool Revamps

Oyster Bay Town Councilman Thomas L. Clark announced that the Town Board has scheduled a November 13 public hearing to consider improvements of the facilities at the Plainview-Old Bethpage Park District.

Clark said, "The hearing is in relation to the proposed repairs and refurbishing of the twenty-year-old pools located in Plainview-Old Bethpage Community Park, off Washington Avenue, Plainview." The proposed repair project includes reconstruction of the three pools which are in need of extensive repairs, and construction of pump/filter building including the installation of new filters and pumps. Also planned in the project is the reconstruction of concrete decks, a new addition to an existing building, restoration of the landscape and improvements to all adjacent areas in and around the pool complex. The estimated maximum cost for the entire project will total $1,750,000.

Clark added that it is anticipated that construction will be completed in time for the opening of the 1985 summer pool season.

The hearing has been scheduled for Tuesday, Nov. 13, beginning at 10 a.m., in the hearing room of Town Hall East, Audrey Avenue, Oyster Bay.

Triathlete Talks To Road Runners

The Tuesday, November 20 meeting of the Plainview-Old Bethpage Road Runners Club will be highlighted by a talk by local triathlete Stan Wunderlich: "Triathlons from Tin Man to Iron Man."

The meeting will be held at the Plainview-Old Bethpage Public Library, 999 Old Country Road in Plainview, starting promptly at 8 p.m.

You don't have to compete in triathlons to be fascinated by hearing the experiences of one of the area's top triathletes. Stan Wunderlich has done them all—from the famous "Ironman" in Hawaii to Long Island's own Mighty Hamptons Triathlon, and has a lot to tell us (and to show us via videotape) about his experiences. Stan is also noted for running many of Long Island's biggest races backwards. All in all, Stan is quite an interesting guy, and a great speaker.

The general public is most welcome to attend what promises to be an informative and entertaining meeting. For more information call POBRRRC President Mike Polansky at 433-0919.

NOVENA TO ST. JUDE
Oh Holy St. Jude, Apostle & Martyr, great in virtue and rich in miracles, near kinsman of Jesus Christ, faithful and intercessor of all who invoke your special patronage in time of need, to you I have recourse from the depths of my heart and humbly beg to whom God has given such great power to come to my assistance. Help me in my present and urgent petition, in return I promise to make your name known and cause to be invoked St. Jude, pray for us all who invoke your aid. Amen. Say 3 Our Fathers, 3 Hail Mary's, 3 Gloria's, Say for 9 consecutive days. Publication must be promised. This novena has never been known to fail. Thank you for answering my prayers. L.J. gen1

HOLY SPIRIT YOU WHO SOLVE
all problems, who light all roads so that I can obtain my goals. You who give me the divine gift to forgive and forget all evils against me and that in all instances of my life you are with me. I want in this short prayer to thank you for all things and to confirm once again that I never want to be separated from you even and in spite of all material illusions, I wish to be with you in eternal glory. Thank you for your mercy towards me and mine. Say for 3 consecutive days after which the favor requested will be granted even if it appears difficult. This prayer must be published immediately without mentioning the favor, only your initials. Thank you Holy Spirit. F.C. gen1

Hicksville F.D. Dedicates A Truck

New apparatus of Flood Light/Heavy Rescue Co. #8

Presentation of keys to new truck. Pictured left to right: Lt. A. Wigdzinski, F.L./Heavy Rescue Co. 8; Capt. J. Fiore; Chief Owen Magee and Lt. H. Single.

Hicksville Fire Department Flood Light-Heavy Rescue Co. #8 located at fire headquarters, on East Marie St., (What ever happened to the Gebhardt Plaza Street sign?), held dedication ceremonies at Fire Station #3 on Sunday, October 28. In attendance were town officials, Hicksville fire officials, local area fire chiefs and the manufacturers who flew in from Denver, Col. to be on hand for the gala event.

The new rig, a combination floodlight/rescue truck is equipped with the latest rescue equipment including a cable winch, air bag system and many other pieces of heavy rescue equipment. The old floodlight unit is for sale. The old rescue truck which also served as the departments hazardous material unit is now serving that sole purpose (duty). The truck is the only one of its kind east of the Mississippi and one of three in the country.

The traditional wet down was carried out during the afternoon events. The wife of Co. 8 Captain James Fiore, broke the champagne over the front bumper. The unit was blessed by Department Chaplins Deacon Bill Mahoney and Pastor Ted Grant.

Hicksville F.D. Safety Warning

The fall season is upon us in all its glory. Along with fall comes the hazards of fire.

We wish to remind residents it is against the County and State Air Pollution ordinance to burn leaves. By now you should have received instructions from T. O. B.on how to dispose of leaves.

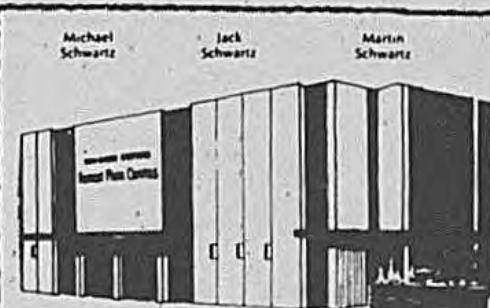

A special fire hazard involving leaves is the danger of parking automobiles over leaves. The new vehicles equipped with catalytic converters can ignite leaves easily. The converters reach a temperature of 1500 (deg).

Please exercise caution by not parking over leaves no matter what type vehicle.

Woodland PTA, SEPTA Cake Sale

Everyone is invited to stop by Woodland Ave. School, Ketcham Rd. Hicksville on Election Day, November 6. A special event will be going on for some very special people. SEPTA, which stands for Special Education Parents Teachers Association, will be having a cake sale.

The Woodland Ave. PTA is asking you to support this unit. If you can find time to bake and donate a cake to them, it would be great! If not, try to find some time to stop by and buy one! Remember this is for special education and they can use our support. Show them we care! Thank You!

Six Reasons To Vote For

ANN GOLD

1. Lew Yevoli voted not once, but 10 times to prevent tax cut legislation from being considered in the State Assembly this year -- a year in which the State budget surplus is estimated at $600 million.
2. But what's more, Lew Yevoli voted in 1983 to raise our taxes by over $1 billion.
3. Lew Yevoli is blocking private financing of resource recovery and his obstinate action can cost taxpayers $20 million.
4. Lew Yevoli voted against raising the drinking age to 21.
5. He voted to defeat proposals for funding prescribing drug assistance for senior citizens.
6. Lew Yevoli has not publicly condemned anti-semetic remarks by Black Muslim leader Louis Farrakhan.

Callers Divided On Benefit Of Presidential Debates

There was a division of opinion by callers to Input this week on this question: "Having come through three major debates do you think that continuing them in future Presidential races would be of benefit to the country?" Here are some of the answers:

DISAPPOINTED

I was totally disappointed in the debates. They in no way gave a full rundown of what the candidates stood for. In one corner we had Walter Mondale trying to appear as a hawk and in the other Ronald Reagan trying to look like a dove. The positions were completely out of tune with what we can read in other places. So then the American people are supposed to take their choice and they probably formed opinions on which candidate looked more self assured. The debates could be scrapped and the people would be no less enlightened. K.T.

SOME GOOD

The debates did some good. They showed us that Walter Mondale was not the "wimp" that he had been portrayed in many news stories. They showed that he could speak well and he did this. For that reason many people who saw the first debate were encouraged and liked Mondale. Unfortunately the second debate did not really have any theme to it and it was of little value. So far as the future goes debates can be held but there should be some profiting from the mistakes of this year. Y.E.

CHANGES NEEDED

The difficulty is that debates are misnamed. These are not sessions in which each candidate goes at the other and sticks to a subject. They are forums in which the news media people try to star in asking questions and the contenders answer the questions as they please and even digress greatly from the question to a sphere in which they feel they are expert. We could have done without the debates this election but if they are held again the purpose should be more clearly defined. J.W.

TRICK ANSWERS

Perhaps the question implies the answer. Debates may be outmoded. They perhaps were good for Lincoln and Douglas but TV acting is now a prime part of the debate. Frankly I am not that interested in finding out which candidate will make a slip in the debate. I am more interested in the basic ideas the candidates stand for. Is one candidate for more government control of things or not and if he is then why not debate that point? Do we or do we not want more social programs? These things are much more important than trick answers and anecdotes. L.E.

DO AWAY

No I do not see where the three debates did very much. They were interesting to be sure. But they sort of made the Presidency into a big sports match. The emphasis was constantly on who would win the debate. Not on what was said at all. This big sports contest was then put to the public to judge and the answer almost always depended on which side you liked to begin with. Of course, the makeup department had a lot to do with the choices and that is even more foolish. If they do away with debates it will be just as well. N.D.

EVERYONE CAN SEE

I believe in the debates simply because the issue always arises that the candidate with the smaller war chest will always say that he never got a chance to give his message directly to the voting public. In this respect the number of people watching the debates would prove that most of the public did have a chance to see both candidates and make a choice on Election Day. C.F.

BAD QUESTIONS

I think that the Presidential debates are only beneficial to the media because we are having a very boring election. They've been running these debates into the ground. Mondale won the first debate, he made a few good points but he certainly didn't have any knockout points. In the Bush/Ferraro debate there was no winner, in my opinion. Reagan had a slight edge in the third debate. I thought that some of the questions were very bad, especially about religion and church attendance. That was a terrible question. When Reagan was asked about his age I thought that it was fuel for the media and their habit of drumming up news.

SHOULD CONTINUE

Debates should be continued because it benefits the country to be able to weigh each candidate and help in choosing a President. PUBLIC INTEREST.

Over two months ago in Input I advocated a maximum of two debates, each with the incumbent and the challenger on the Presidential and Vice Presidential levels. Looking back, I guess this was more a reaction to the fact that a debate or debates were inevitable rather than representing an opinion as to whether we should or should not have debates at all and in any number. Frankly, I think that the only ones who profit are the news media in print and on the airwaves and their interpretations and conclusions are those which really influence or enlighten voters if these are the right words. In the present case, Mondale chose to take the offensive on every element of current national policy deriding the President on his inept handling of critical decisions. Reagan had little choice to return the favor as he had only Mondale's word that he would have made far better decisions under the circumstances described. The fact is that no one knows what Mondale would do under fire with the grave responsibility of the office. Ane, the same holds true for the Vice Presidency. I still feel that the debates are a waste of time and money but it would take a new and controversial law to bring about their discontinuance and that would be impossible and actually undesirable as too big a percentage of the public are interested in witnessing the clash between the political gladiators perhaps as a spectacle more than anything else. P.G.S.

Inside Stories About Lottery Fever

By Albert V. Jessen, M.D.

The following news items, gathered from various sources, have been modified for the sake of brevity.

Jean Lieblang of Wappingers Falls was a winner in June of a six figure amount in the New York Lottery. She was born on the 4th of July and married on Thanksgiving Day. Since she won exactly three and a half weeks before her birthday she said, "I couldn't have asked for a better present. I guess holidays are my lucky days."

- Wappinger Courant

Benjamin Kutz of Coram won almost a million dollars in a recent lottery. He was born near Coram 64 years ago and has farmed all of his life on the Island. He said he had promised his "Mrs." a trip into New York for a celebration. They were in the city once before, however, having made the trip to go to the top of the Empire State Building. "It made the Mrs. fainty but it didn't bother me none," he said.

- The Coram Caller

J.R. Whelan, known as "J.R." among his friends here in Bayshore, was a big, big winner last month in the New York Lottery, "reeling" in almost 2 mil. He had a lot of fun with the city reporters who printed the line that J.R. gave them. He told them that he was going to use the money to pay up the mortgage on his house, set aside college tuition money for his 5 children and find a nice nursing home for his mother. J.R. is a great kidder. He ran away to sea when he was 12, has never married, and he says, jokingly, "As far as I know I haven't any children." J.R. is well known and respected here as a charter fisherman. He did buy a new boat, which he now says was a mistake as it does not handle the way his old boat did. We all wish you the best of luck, J.R.

- The Chummers Log

Dr. Bennett J. Hess, a physics professor here at SUNY and current president of Sigma Xi, the national honorary scientific society, won an as yet undisclosed amount of money in the New York Lottery last week. He says that when the final figure comes in he is going to call it "Hess's number." He added, "It may never be as well known as Feigenbaum's number but it will give me a lot more personal gratification." We asked the Doc what Feigenbaum's number was and he replied, "4.669201009 and so on." He's way over our head. Anyway, Doc, good luck!

- The Oswego Owl

Robert "Bob" Stefano of College Point was a last month two and a half million dollar lottery winner. He said to this reporter, "It's funny, but none of the numbers was one of my lucky numbers." When it was pointed out to him that they must have been lucky numbers since he won, he replied, "I never looked at it that way." Bob is known over at Belmont as a great handicapper.

- The Long Island Sounder

One of the best kept secrets of our town is that Mrs. James Goldsmith, III, wife of the well-known financier, was a recent winner in the New York lottery. "I feel so silly," she said when this reporter asked her about the rumor. "I had been visiting the opening at MOMA and just as a crazy thing to do I bought this ticket at the station. Jim was terribly angry with me when he found out. And I feel terribly guilty about taking the money here to Connecticut when New York is getting so run down." Joan will set up a special fund for the Patrician Hospital here. Immediate plans include re-landscaping the hospital grounds. The hospital is one of her favorite charities and each year she plants a petunia bed there in memory of her mother, Petunia Tormey Collins, II, of East Texas.

- N.R. Darien Clarion

That money does not bring happiness has been well demonstrated this past month here at Practical Plastics. It seems that for well over a year five of our women employees have been splitting the cost of a weekly lottery ticket, using the birthdays of each of them plus the number "1". But one of the women has been out on maternity leave for the last two months and there is bitter disagreement over whether or not she should share in the winnings this past week from the group's having the right combo. "I fully expected to put in my share towards the tickets when I returned," the employee said. The women wrote to President Reagan, asking him to make the decision for them, but received no reply and they cannot agree on a new arbitrator. Come on ladies, get together and settle this thing. The atmosphere is unpleasant for the rest of us.

- The 3 P Bulletin

A check with Albany showed that six winners of the State lottery have won to date on the basis of using family birthdates. The latest winner was Mrs. Ann Trenkle of Clarks, Nebraska. The mother of William Trenkle of our community, she was a visitor this month in his home. She had gone to the corner store for aspirin, noticed the line for lottery tickets and, on a hunch, she bought one. Her daughter-in-law said, "I guess you could say that it was a memorable visit. Mother is always welcome in our home."

- The Northport News

The State Lottery was the cause for a free-for-all this past week. The trouble started when two of our local boys had a disagreement over a lottery ticket. Andrew McGowan claimed he owned half of the ticket because he had told his life long friend, Robert Daly, what numbers to put down. The action took place in The Emerald Bar and soon there were several exchanging blows. Howard Bursch, the barkeep, got things under control just before the police arrived and no arrests were made. "This thing has been blown way out of proportion," he said. Most readers will remember McGowan and Daly from their years as semi-pro fighters. As Bursch added, "These boys know that their hands are registered as lethal weapons. No, the Shamrock Kids, as we call them, wouldn't cause any real trouble." The men are back on their usual good terms. Unfortunately, there was a mistake, as the computer was not functioning properly, and what was thought to be a winning ticket, proved out to be worthless.

FINE STEAKS

The other night we went to McKeon's restaurant on New South Rd., Hicksville. It was the first time we had been in this restaurant although we had heard some good things about it from friends. We are happy to report that we had the finest shell steaks we have tasted in a long time.

The service is friendly and helpful and the price is in line with what we have paid for food that was not of this quality elsewhere. McKeon's is decorated in a style that is comfortable and appealing. We believe that we will become regular customers of this new restaurant and want to recommend it to your readers.

"One thing I'm sure of, you're going to like the way DEVINS looks, the owners' goal was to achieve the feel of Edwardian England, but it is sufficiently eclectic to include echoes of New Orleans and Paris....The fish here is properly fresh and the meat is properly aged, and great care is taken in their presentations. Here, I must pause to compliment the service. No matter how good the main dishes.....the desserts are better."

RARE PLEASURE

We have been to Arlindo's twice. This Portuguese restaurant is a rare pleasure. Last Thursday we had Paella marinera and it was a delicious combination of shrimps, clams, mussels and other fresh seafood over rice. The flavorful sauce on the rice gave it an unforgettable taste.

A large mural of a Portuguese sea landmark decorates the main dining room of Arlindo's.

The service was good and considering there has been a large increase in business at the restaurant since the first time we visited it a month ago, it was amazing that service was so perfect.

We recommend Arlindo G.L.

Good Restaurant

I'd like to tell you about our experience at the Pompei Restaurant last Saturday night. Our reservations were honored on the dot. We were treated as if we were really special. It was a relaxed atmosphere and the food (Northern Italian) was delicious. This is the first time we have gone to a restaurant and everything went perfectly from beginning to end. I recommend this restaurant to anyone for any occasion. S.B.

ALWAYS GOOD

Lauraine Murphy's is a restaurant that we have gone to for many years and it never lets us down.

Last Saturday we had a short wait for a table but found that it was once again worth it. The fine friendly service was still there. The popover was warm when served and the food, a prime rib entree and an entree of scallops, was deliciously cooked and was fresh. The atmosphere in Lauraine Murphy's is enhanced by the strolling singers who serenade tables on various nights. Your readers should like this one as we do. Thank you for giving us the chance to be a "critic." J.T.

Q. What do you do with the wrapper on a lump of sugar when you are dining out in a restaurant? Do you put it on the tablecloth, in the saucer of your cup, or in the ash tray? A.M.

A. This is one of those things for which there is no real rule. You just use common sense. I would say put it on the tablecloth, for if you put it in the ash tray it may start a fire, and if you put it in the saucer, it may cause the cup to tip over when you put it back in the saucer.

Q. In figuring the tip for a meal do you figure it on the tax or do you figure it on the net check before taxes. R.G.

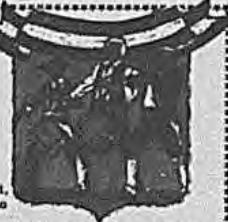

A. The tax is not used as a basis for figuring the tip. But there is some flexibility on the part of the person paying the check to give 15% or more depending on what type of service has been given. Tips are still supposed to be given according to how good the service has been.

WORTH A VISIT

Last week we went to Remsen's in the Wheatley Plaza in Greenvale. This great restaurant in the old tradition but with sparkling clean appearance was well worth a visit.

The menu is a large one and ranged from a small snack to a sumptuous meal. We both had prime ribs on our visit and found the food to be wonderful and delicious. The service was cordial and efficient.

Remsen's is a great new addition to the North Shore dining scene and we think that it will rate with one of the best. M.F.

YOU CAN BE A RESTAURANT CRITIC
If you visit any of the restaurants selected for inclusion in this section, call 931-0027 at any hour and tell your ideas. We want you, the reader, to be our critic. Your message then can be printed in this space.

If you have questions about etiquette or dining out you may call them to WE 1-0027 and we will find the answer.

Q. Recently, when four of us were dining out, two married couples, one of the husbands left the table for a few minutes. The remaining husband, left with his wife and the wife of the other, lit the cigarette first of his friend's wife, then of his own. His wife felt that as her escort should have lit her cigarette first. Which is correct? R.T.

A. As one woman was left alone, the husband and wife remaining are, in effect, her host and hostess for the moment. Therefore, it was correct for the remaining husband to light the guest's cigarette first, then his wife's.

Q. Recently I was a guest at a club luncheon in a restaurant. Accidentally, I overturned my tomato juice. What was the right thing to do? The waiter didn't see the accident immediately. T.L.

A. A waiter seeing such an accident would immediately change the cloth, or if that was impossible at a long table, would spread a clean napkin over the spilled food. As the waiter did not do this because he was busy elsewhere, at a large luncheon you could have spread a napkin over the spot yourself without undue discussion of the incident. Everyone occasionally has things like this happen.

Q. If you're at a very posh restaurant and you're confronted with a maître d'hôtel, captain, wine steward, and waiter, what do you give in tips? R.C.

A. A "posh restaurant" requires no less than 20 percent, but it usually ends up being more. If you're in a less expensive restaurant, 15 or 18 percent is the usual tip.

In a very fine restaurant, add 20 percent on to the bill or the credit-card slip, but then divide the 20 percent into a major share for the waiter, and a lesser share for the captain.

For example, a dinner for two might cost $100 in a luxury spot. Twenty percent of $100 is $20, so you would give $15 to the waiter and $5 to the captain. If a wine steward served you (a sommelier), you would give him $3 for your bottle of wine. On your way out, you would give the head-waiter anywhere from one to five dollars, depending on how much attention he gave you.

Your Place or Mine is the name of a new restaurant we visited last night. It has a somewhat funny name for a restaurant but we found the food and service to be nothing to make fun of. We had the best steaks we have had in some time at Your Place or Mine. The food is prepared in a continental style and they are just very delicious eating specials.

The vegetables were prepared well and the baked potato was right as though it had been popped in the oven when we came to the restaurant.

The price is fair and we think the decor is nice. We recommend this restaurant located on Hillside Avenue, Williston Park to anyone who likes good food. H.R.

Thanksgiving is a distinctly American holiday, a remembrance of the many good things this country has given us over the centuries. The foods of Thanksgiving are distinctly American, as well — turkey with dressing, mashed potatoes with gravy, sweet potatoes, cranberry relish and pumpkin pie.

The traditional Thanksgiving dinner is a complicated and diverse combination of flavors, from subtle and tart to sweet and rich.

But it is the turkey that reigns. Truly Thanksgiving is the turkey's day. North Americans appear to regard the bird as their contribution to international cuisine. It is popularly believed that the native Indians, taking pity on the meager diet of the early Pilgrims, introduced them to its tasty and nourishing qualities and the Pilgrims adopted it wholeheartedly, built a tradition around it and substituted it for the unavailable Christmas goose.

Here are some suggestions to enhance your holiday celebration.

COUNTRY CHEESE

2 cups milk
2 tbsps. buttermilk
Herb Variation (see below)

In pan, heat milk to simmering (just until tiny bubbles begin to rise to surface), being careful not to let it come to boil. Stir in buttermilk. Remove from heat, cover and let stand at room temperature overnight or about 12 hours. (If you have a yogurt maker, liquid can be poured into individual yogurt containers to develop.) Refrigerate liquid when it begins to thicken.

When thick like yogurt, pour cheese into colander lined with cheesecloth to drain about 2 hours. Spoon cheese onto individual plates or into 1-cup mold. Refrigerate for future use. Can pat walnuts onto finished round of cheese.

Makes 1 cup.

Herb variation: To finished cheese, stir in 2 cloves minced or pressed garlic, 1/2 teaspoon thyme or basil leaves and 1/4 teaspoon rosemary. Serve with crackers.

CORN CHOWDER

1/4 cup chopped onion
1 large clove garlic, crushed
1 tsp. oregano leaves, crushed
1/4 cup butter or margarine
1 (17 oz.) can whole-kernel golden corn or 2 pkgs. frozen corn, thawed
3 cups milk
2 cups chicken broth
1/2 cup uncooked Cream of Wheat cereal
2 cups cubed cooked chicken
1 (2 oz.) jar undrained pimientos, diced

In large saucepan, cook onion and garlic with oregano in butter until tender, about 3 minutes.

Add undrained corn, milk and broth. Cover; bring to boil. Gradually stir in Cream of Wheat. Return mixture to boil; reduce heat to low. Simmer 10 minutes, stirring occasionally.

Add chicken and undrained diced pimientos. Heat, stirring occasionally. If desired, serve with grated cheddar cheese.

Makes about 9 cups.

RICE HONEY/NUT DRESSING

1 1/2 cups onion, chopped
1 1/2 cups celery, chopped
2 tbsps. butter or margarine
6 cups cooked rice or wild rice, cooked in chicken broth
1 cup raisins
1/2 cup walnuts, chopped
1/4 cup honey
2 tbsps. lemon juice
1 1/2 tbsps. salt
1/2 tsp. ground cinnamon
1/2 tsp. ground pepper
1/4 cup snipped parsley, optional

In large skillet, cook onion and celery in butter until tender-crisp. Stir in remaining ingredients. Turn into buttered 2 1/2- to 3-quart casserole. Cover and bake in 350 F oven 20 minutes, or until heated through. Garnish with border of parsley.

Makes 12 servings.

CRANBERRY RELISH

1 lb. fresh cranberries
2 cups water
2 cups sugar
1/4 cup lemon juice
1/2 cup orange juice
2 envelopes unflavored gelatin
1 (16 oz.) can crushed pineapple, drained
1 tbsp. each grated orange and lemon rind

Wash and sort cranberries. Bring to boil with water and sugar; simmer 15 minutes. Mix juices with unflavored gelatin and stir in; add pineapple and rinds. Turn into bowl and chill until set.

Makes about 6 cups relish.

HONEY/CINNAMON CANDIED YAMS

6 large yams
1 1/2 tbsps. cornstarch
2 tbsps. cold water
1 1/2 cups honey
1/2 tsp. cinnamon
1/4 tsp. nutmeg
1 1/2 tbsps. lemon rind, grated
2 tbsps. lemon juice
1/4 cup orange juice
1 tsp. salt
6 tbsps. butter

Preheat oven to 375 F. Butter large ovenproof casserole. Scrub yams, cook in boiling salted water until tender. Drain. Rinse with cold water. Peel yams and cut in half lengthwise. Place yams in prepared casserole. Dissolve cornstarch in cold water. In saucepan, combine honey, cinnamon, nutmeg, lemon rind, lemon juice, orange juice and salt. Bring to boil. Add cornstarch mixture. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until mixture is thick and clear. Remove from heat. Add butter. Pour mixture over yams. Bake 15 minutes.

Makes 12 servings.

PUMPKIN PIE

1 (16 oz.) can pumpkin
3/4 cup sugar
1 tsp. ground cinnamon
1/2 tsp. ground ginger
1/2 tsp. ground nutmeg
1/2 tsp. salt
3 eggs
1 1/2 oz. can (1/2 cup) evaporated milk
1/2 cup milk
Pastry for single 9-inch pie

In large bowl, combine pumpkin, sugar, cinnamon, ginger, nutmeg and salt. Add eggs, lightly beating them into pumpkin mixture. Add evaporated milk and milk; mix well. Place pastry-lined 9-inch pie plate on oven rack; pour in pumpkin mixture. Cover edge of pie with foil. Bake in 375 F oven 25 minutes. Remove foil; bake 25 to 30 minutes more or until knife inserted off-center comes out clean. Cool. Cover and chill to store.

Makes 1 9-inch pie.

LEMON MOUSSE

1/2 cup lemon juice
1/2 cup sugar
2 tbsps. lemon rind
4 egg yolks, beaten
2 cups cream, whipped

In saucepan, heat lemon juice, sugar, lemon rind and egg yolks. Stir until thick. Cool and fold in whipped cream. Spoon into cups or wine glasses. Chill well before serving. Serve plain or with sweetened whipped cream or sliced fruit.

Corn discovered by Columbus

By Olivia and Paul Bensen

Corn was one of the first discoveries Christopher Columbus's expedition to the New World. On Nov. 5, 1492, members of the crew returned from the exploration of Cuba bringing with them, as a later account reported, "a sort of grain which the indigenes call maize, which was well tasted, baked, dry'd and made into flour."

Today, corn is big business in this country — a quarter of all our farmland is planted with it. Sales of U.S. corn amount to $25 billion annually, making it the undisputed leader among cash crops, followed in the last several years by wheat, soybeans and marijuana.

Corn may also be the most versatile of vegetables. The list of non-food products which contain corn is huge and varied. Some of the surprises are automobile paint, plastics, tires, gunpowder and agricultural poisons.

Corn is also used, of course, in making alcoholic beverages, from the moonshine of rural stills to the finest sour mash bourbon. The poet William James Langston described Kentucky as the state "where the corn is full of kernels, and the colonels full of corn."

Maize is the internationally accepted term, since a number of other grains, such as wheat, oats and sorghum have all been known as corn at different times. The corn mentioned in the Old Testament, for example, was almost certainly wheat.

The geographic origin of corn has long been a hotly disputed issue. Swedes and Britons knew it for many years as Turkish corn. Turks called it Egyptian corn and Egyptians called it Syrian corn. Germans avoided the debate completely by simply calling the plant welsch korn, which translates as "strange grain."

Rural Americans have always had a special place in their hearts for corn. Earlier in this century, corn-husking championships attracted as many as 150,000 spectators. The 1935 national champion husked 8,300 ears in 80 minutes — almost two ears a second. In Iowa, which grows more corn than any other state, maize is almost a religion. Sioux City, for example, boasts a 150-foot-high "Corn Palace," a tower covered completely with corn cobs.

There is probably no way to prepare corn that is more delicious than roasting freshly picked ears in their husks over an open fire. Our recipes for today are for some of our other favorites. The recipe for Corn Chowder is a traditional New England preparation and the Corn Fritters are the kind often served in Maryland as an accompaniment to seafood.

CORN FRITTERS

2 cups fresh corn (frozen may be substituted)
1 large egg, beaten
4 oz. half-and-half
1 1/2 cups flour, sifted
2 tbsps. baking powder
Salt and freshly ground pep-

per to taste

CORN CHOWDER
 4 oz. salt pork, cubed
 1 large onion, sliced
 2 cups water
 4 large potatoes, sliced or cut in $\frac{1}{4}$ -inch cubes
 1 cup milk
 2 cups fresh corn (frozen may be substituted)
 1 tsp. salt, or to taste
 1 dash of paprika, or to taste

In bowl, combine corn, egg and half-and-half. Sift flour and combine with baking powder, salt and pepper. Sift mixture over corn, egg and half-and-half. Stir well and add melted butter.

In large, heavy skillet, place enough oil and melted butter to reach depth of $\frac{1}{2}$ inch. Heat over medium-high heat until very hot. Drop in corn mixture, one tablespoonful at a time, and fry until golden brown on both sides. Drain on paper towels and serve.

VEGETARIAN VIEW

I Yam what I Yam — a sweet potato

By Diane Savage

Years ago I took a philosophy course where we amused ourselves by writing "Cogito Ergo Sweet Potato" on the blackboard. The professor came into the room, looked at the blackboard and scratched his head. He was quick, that one. A few seconds later he grinned and said, "Of course. I think, therefore I Yam" (I don't remember much about Descartes or Leibnitz or Kant, but I do remember the joke. I guess I "yam" a real lowbrow ...)

It's a common misconception that "yam" and "sweet potato" are just two names for the same thing. Well, they're not. The yam is a member of the Dioscoreaceae family (and related to the lily), while the sweet potato is a member of the Ipomea family. Yams contain only a trace of carotene, while sweet potatoes are one of its richest sources. The flesh of the yam may be yellow or white, but that of the sweet potato is generally a deep, rich orange.

Native to the Americas, the sweet potato was cultivated by the Incas and Mayas long before the arrival of Europeans. The yam, however, is native to Southern Asia, and is a staple in many parts of Africa, India and the West Indies. Among certain tribes in Africa the serving of yams is associated with prestige, and in some areas they are reserved for special occasions.

Both yams and sweet potatoes should be stored, for a week at most, in a cool, dry place. While they are different vegetables, for cooking purposes they are interchangeable. They may be cooked in any way potatoes are cooked, and may be substituted for potatoes in your favorite recipes.

For nutritional purposes, however, the sweet potato is much to be preferred. The yam offers little beyond starch, while the sweet potato is an excellent source of vitamins A and C.

SAVORY SWEET POTATOES

6 medium sweet potatoes
 Salt and pepper to taste
 3 tbsps. butter or margarine
 1 cup crushed pineapple
 $\frac{1}{4}$ cup pecan halves

Cook whole sweet potatoes in boiling salted water about 25 to 30 minutes, until soft. Remove skins and place in bowl. Add light sprinkling of salt and pepper, and butter. Mash well, then stir in pineapple and beat well with spoon. Pour into buttered casserole dish, arrange pecan halves on top and bake 10 to 15 minutes in 350 F oven. Slide under broiler just before serving to brown top.

Serves 6.

YAM CURRY

1 onion, minced
 $\frac{1}{4}$ cup butter or margarine
 3 cups cooked, cubed yams
 $\frac{1}{2}$ cup vegetable stock or water
 $\frac{1}{4}$ tsp. curry powder
 2 tbsps. lime juice
 $\frac{1}{4}$ tsp. ground black pepper

Cook onion in butter until golden. Add cold boiled yam cubes and cook until butter is absorbed. Then add vegetable stock, curry powder, lime juice and pepper. Continue to cook just until liquid is absorbed. Serve hot.

Serves 6.

SWEET POTATO CASSEROLE

3 medium carrots, peeled and sliced
 3 medium (1 lb.) sweet potatoes, pared and sliced
 Boiling water
 Dash each salt and pepper
 3 tbsps. butter or margarine
 3 tart apples, cored and sliced
 $\frac{1}{4}$ cup honey
 Dash nutmeg

Combine carrots and sweet potatoes in saucepan; pour in 1 inch of boiling water. Cook over medium heat, covered, 15 to 20 minutes, adding more water if necessary. Vegetables should be tender. Drain. Add salt and pepper, and mash until fluffy. Heat oven to 350 F. Place $\frac{1}{2}$ of carrot/sweet potato mixture in bottom of buttered 1-quart baking dish. Dot with 2 teaspoons butter. Place $\frac{1}{4}$ of apple slices on top. Add layer of $\frac{1}{2}$ sweet potato mixture, then dot with 2 teaspoons butter. Top with remaining apple slices, and cover with remaining sweet potato mixture. Dot with remaining butter and drizzle honey over top. Sprinkle with nutmeg and bake 45 minutes, or until top begins to brown.

Serves 6 to 8.

MICROWAVE

Tart and tangy cranberry dishes

By Desiree Vives

In autumn the cranberry bogs turn bright red, and from then on it's open season on this festive fruit.

We associate the little round berries with Thanksgiving and usually serve them with turkey on the holiday table. And at Christmas, it's fun to string the raw berries with popcorn to decorate the tree.

The cranberry is as much an American tradition as apple pie. The pilgrims called them "craneberries" since their pink blossoms resembled the head and neck of a crane. And because the large bird also hopped about the bogs nibbling on the berries, the name was doubly appropriate.

High in vitamin C, cranberries were once packed in barrels of cold water and carried on long ship voyages to prevent scurvy.

This is one berry you don't want to eat raw. One Native American tribe dubbed the fruit "ibimi," or "bitter berry." Raw cranberries are also quite hard (they will bounce several inches into the air when dropped on a hard surface) and must be cooked with sugar before become palatable.

When cooking with fresh cranberries, remember to wash first and discard stems and any bruised or flawed fruit. They may be easily frozen for later use, so stock up at sales.

Following are several microwave-easy recipes featuring fresh, frozen or canned cranberries. Take your pick for a quick breakfast loaf, main dish or relish.

CRANBERRY NUT LOAF

2 1/2 cups dry biscuit mix
 1 cup milk
 $\frac{1}{2}$ cup sugar
 $\frac{1}{4}$ cup flour
 1 egg
 $\frac{1}{4}$ tsp. ground nutmeg
 2 tbsps. grated lemon peel
 $\frac{1}{4}$ cup chopped frozen cranberries
 $\frac{1}{4}$ cup chopped walnuts

In mixing bowl, combine biscuit mix, milk, sugar, flour, egg, nutmeg and lemon peel. Place frozen cranberries in blender and chop to make $\frac{1}{4}$ cup. Stir into mixing bowl with nuts; mix well. Turn batter into 9x5x3-inch glass loaf pan. Microwave 8 1/2 to 9 1/2 minutes, turning $\frac{1}{4}$ turn after 4 minutes. When done, toothpick inserted in center should come out clean. Allow to cool before slicing.

Yields 1 loaf, serving 6 to 8.

SPICED CRANBERRY CHICKEN

1 (3 lb.) chicken, cut into serving pieces
 $\frac{1}{4}$ tsp. each pepper and paprika
 $\frac{1}{2}$ cup whole cranberry sauce
 2 tbsps. water
 1 tsp. each vinegar and soy sauce
 2 tbsps. butter or margarine
 3 whole cloves
 $\frac{1}{4}$ tsp. ground cinnamon

Arrange chicken pieces in 2-quart glass baking dish, and sprinkle lightly with pepper and paprika. Combine remaining ingredients in small glass bowl and microwave 40 seconds. Stir, then pour over chicken. Microwave 23 to 25 minutes, turning pieces every 8 minutes, until chicken is tender.

Serves 4.

QUICKIE CRANBERRY SAUCE

1 lb. (1 qt.) fresh or frozen cranberries
 2 cups sugar
 1 cup water
 $\frac{1}{4}$ tsp. salt
 $\frac{1}{4}$ tsp. ground cloves

Wash cranberries and discard stems. Combine all ingredients in 2-quart glass casserole. Cover and microwave 18 to 20 minutes, stirring every 6 minutes, until berries are tender. Serve warm or chilled as relish with meat or poultry.

Makes about 3 cups.

Recipes in this column are tested in 625- to 700-watt microwave ovens. Foods are cooked on HIGH (100 percent power) and uncovered unless otherwise specified.

Here's How

Hardwood paneling withstands abuse

Q. The lower portion of the walls in a narrow hall of our house is taking a beating from youngsters banging the door and wheeling bikes and wagons in and out. We've been thinking of paneling the walls, but we are wondering if it would be a waste of time because of heavy traffic. — Claude M.

A. Hardwood paneling, either floor to ceiling or used as wainscoting, is a good choice for heavy-traffic areas. Hardboard, in addition to being inexpensive and easy to install, paints easily and resists dents, scuff marks and abuse and comes in a wide variety of attractive finishes.

To use hardboard as wainscoting, simply cut 4x8 sheets in half, and nail through drywall into studs, or glue in place over properly prepared plaster or drywall with a special adhesive.

Incidentally, a light wood-grain finish for the paneling will make your narrow hall seem wider.

Q. I am confused over faucet washers. A friend who is a plumber says to use only flat washers, but another plumber who came to do some work at my house says the type of valve seat determines whether a flat or tapered washer should be used. For hot water faucets, still another plumber tells me that hard washers are best but soft washers are recommended by my friend who is a plumber. Can you clear up my confusion? — Frank B.N.

A. You can get three kinds of washers for your faucets. Two of them, neoprene and Buna, are made of synthetic rubber and are relatively soft, while the third kind is made of hard fiber.

Fiber is the original material used in faucet washers. But fiber washers do not make a seal as complete as the synthetic rubber replacements, which were developed after World War II. However, fiber washers do not expand when they become hot. This feature makes fiber washers excellent for use on hot water faucets.

A soft neoprene washer on the hot side will keep you forever playing with the faucet to maintain a steady flow of hot water. The problem is that neoprene washers expand quickly as water rushing through the faucet becomes hotter and hotter.

Tapered washers expand even more readily than flat ones, even though the tapered washer will make a tighter seal on an older faucet where the seat is bound to wear.

Buna washers are neither too hard nor too soft, and I would say a flat Buna is your best bet on most hot water lines.

Neoprene, tapered or flat, is fine on the cold side.

I hope all of this doesn't just add to your confusion.

Q. Our refrigerator was in storage for about three months. The rubber on the inside of the door is discolored from mold. Can anything be done to remedy this situation? — Carl J.S.

A. Replacement materials for gaskets around refrigerator doors are available at most hardware and electric appliance stores. These can be obtained either in rubber or plastic and are easy to install if you follow instructions on the package carefully.

Before putting on a new gasket, be sure to wash the area with household bleach, following that with thorough rinsing with clear water, to make certain all traces of mold are removed. Use a stiff brush for scrubbing.

Dear John: Would you please send me the leaflet on the use of Certo on arthritis. Thank you so much.

Also, my grandma has osteoarthritis. She says if she eats a banana a day she feels better. Maybe it would help someone else. — Mrs. L.C.

Dear Mrs. L.C.: We're thankful for any and all tips. I must add that to get the leaflet, new readers must know they will have to send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to this column. Donations are also still very welcome to handle the printing and clerical work.

Dear John: Please send me the articles you have on seniors. Thank you. — Mrs. R.B.

The small envelope you sent couldn't possibly contain all the articles we have written on seniors — even if they were on microfilm.

I'm sure you must refer to some particular subject, such as arthritis. Even so, arthritis has been a popular subject in this column for more than 12 years.

I will await more specific information. However, we do not send copies of the columns. You would have to get that from your newspaper.

Mainly For Seniors

By John T. Watts

By Robert Wallace, Ed.D.

Dr. Wallace: I'm a high school sophomore and I have an 8-year-old brother. I have a terrific mom but she makes me mad with one of her rules. My brother and I have to be in bed at 9 on school nights. I'm not complaining about that but we both have to be in bed at 10 on weekends. I can see having my brother in bed by that time but for me, it's outrageous.

I've had friends over and my mother has told them they had to go home because I had to be in bed by 10. This embarrasses me to death. At least my friends understand and don't make fun of me.

I've talked to Mom but she just won't change her mind. Would you believe I have never been to a high school football or basketball game? I'd love to go but I wouldn't get home until 10:30 or 11, and that's out of the question.

I've asked my dad to help but he just shrugs his shoulders and tells me that Mom is the boss.

If you think I'm right, please help me. If you agree with my mom, please don't print my letter. She reads your column, too, and I don't want her to get any more "ammunition." — Janette

Janette: I believe Mom is making more about being in bed by 10 on weekends than is necessary. It's important that you share in extracurricular activities at school and this includes attending school athletic events.

Have a talk with your school counselor or a friendly teacher and ask that person to have a chat with Mom. By extending the bed curfew to 11 for special occasions, you would be permitted to participate in school functions.

Mom, if you are reading this, you're still the boss, but I hope you can appreciate that I think Janette has a reasonable concern.

Dr. Wallace: I want to become a journalist and I was wondering if you could tell me what colleges or universities specialize in this field.

I'm a junior in high school and want to make plans now. Also, where did you get your journalistic training? — Bill

Bill: I honestly didn't know what schools were proficient in teaching journalism so my research took me to a book entitled "Ruggs' Recommendations on the Colleges" by F.E. Ruggs, who is the director of guidance of a high school in Westhampton, Mass.

According to Ruggs, Boston University, Universi-city of North Carolina, Northwestern University, Stanford University and the University of Wisconsin are the most respected journalism schools. Personally, I feel a dedicated, prospective journalist can receive training from any accredited institution involved in journalistic instruction. The desire of the individual is much more important than the institution of higher learning.

My undergraduate degree was obtained in sociology, not journalism, from Old Siwash — Knox College in Galesburg, Ill.

Dr. Wallace: My boyfriend and I haven't been getting along too well lately. We are constantly arguing and fighting, and our relationship is about to end.

Please tell me what to do to stop all the nonsense before it's too late. — Marcy

Marcy: A good method to cure the fighting and arguing syndrome is to have both parties pledge each other total honesty with open communication. Eliminate all jealousy and keep individual egos in control.

Human beings literally have killed themselves just to prove they were right.

Finally, both of you must learn to say, "I was wrong," and, "I'm sorry."

Dr. Wallace: I am 18 and my boyfriend is 19. We are very much in love and plan to get married in six months.

The only problem is that we are stepbrother and stepbrother. Our parents were married two years ago and we lived in the same house. I'm still there but Bruce now has his own apartment.

Is it against the law for us to get married? Our parents don't know we are even seeing each other. — Priscilla

Priscilla: First of all, it is not against the law for stepbrother and stepsister to marry. You share no bloodlines.

It is not unusual for stepbrother and stepsister to marry but when it happens someone is usually upset. Tell your parents immediately of your plans.

Dr. Wallace: I recently met a special guy whom I really care for.

I want to let him know how I feel but I'd be crushed if he didn't care for me. What should I do? — Sylvia, Sidney, Ohio

Sylvia: Be pleasantly assertive. Let him know that you would like to go out with him. Nothing ventured, nothing gained.

If he doesn't call or says no — well, there are millions more where he came from.

Dear John: I've just had an unsolicited phone call from a salesman I don't know trying to sell me something I don't want. I'm boiling mad!

I was trying to take my usual afternoon nap at the time.

What can you do about guys like that? This particular one was trying to sell insulation. But if it isn't one thing it is another.

You can stick a sign out in front of your house: "No Salesmen." But what can you do about the phone? I have found out that it doesn't help much to have the phone unlisted. They get your number somehow. — Harry

Dear Harry: The best thing to do is just as soon as you determine the caller is a strange salesman, tell him you don't talk to such salesmen on the phone and hang up.

You have to hang up quickly or he will get you into a discussion from which it will be hard to extricate yourself.

Dear John: I have had the misfortune of contracting a stinging, burning tongue after putting corti-

Rare chair worth big bucks

By James G. McCollam

Q. This chair has been identified as an authentic Belter by the local museum. Can you tell me when it was made and its value?

A. John Henry Belter made most of his famous furniture between 1840 and 1860.

Since Belter furniture is usually sold at auction, I can only give a likely range of prices for your chair. It would probably bring between $3,000 and $6,000.

Q. These three Mary Gregory decanters have been in my husband's family since the late 1880s. They have always been referred to as originals from Sandwich, Mass.

I would appreciate your opinion as to value.

A. These are probably early examples of what is known as Mary Gregory glass. No one really knows for sure that there ever was a Mary Gregory or that any of this type glass was actually made at Sandwich. However, that doesn't affect the value, which would be in the $175 to $225 range for each decanter.

Q. The attached sketch shows a mark on the bottom of my vase. It is 10 inches tall, decorated with two scenic panels and has two elaborate handles.

I am interested in whatever you can tell me about it.

A. Your vase was made by Amphora Pottery in Trnovany, Czechoslovakia, between 1920 and 1935. It should be worth from $110 to $120.

Q. I have discovered that everything relating to Elvis Presley is collectible — sometimes at outrageous prices.

What is going to happen to all this memorabilia 20 or 30 years from now when most of the Elvis fans are dead or at least in retirement homes?

A. If I really knew the answer, I could get rich.

If the past is any indication Presley collectibles will still be popular. The cults that revere James Dean and Humphrey Bogart are, for the most part, too young to have been fans of these two when they were in their prime.

I think the idolatry of superstars is self-perpetuating.

Doctor's Forum

Q. Is there any way to avoid getting repeated colds? — D.H., Calif.

A. Colds are caused by viruses, living organisms much smaller than the bacteria which we can treat with antibiotics. In general there are no antibiotics for viruses, thus there is no specific medicine to treat colds. For this reason, cold viruses must be handled by the body's own defense mechanisms. Given this, it makes sense that those people with decreased body defenses would be more susceptible to colds.

There are many of these defenses. Cilia, tiny hairs in the windpipe or trachea, constantly beat to remove viruses, bacteria, and other material to help prevent infection. Smoking and very cold air can decrease this action.

General health, as a function of adequate rest, good nutrition and abstinence from chemicals which affect the body (tobacco, drugs and excess alcohol) will help the body generate the antibodies and other natural defenses needed to prevent any infection.

Other causes of colds include the weather (cold viruses are more abundant in the winter), close contact with people (people stay indoors when it's cold outside), and dry heating which can also affect the movement of the cilia mentioned above.

People who have very frequent (once a month) or very long (more than three weeks) colds should see their doctor. Most likely they have some other disorder on top of the cold.

The most common problem is allergy, followed by an asthmalike condition which causes a chronic, dry cough lasting weeks after a cold. Both of these can be treated with medicine.

Rare individuals with repeated colds and other infections may have general problems with their body's defenses. — Dr. Theodore Ganats, clinical instructor of community and family medicine at the University of California, San Diego School of Medicine.

JUDGE

Can murderer withdraw plea?

By DAVID A. SELLERS

Early one morning Joseph goes to Carol's place of employment with a rifle. He waits several hours for Carol, his ex-girlfriend. As she approaches her car he fires nine shots, seven of which strike her. Several of Carol's co-workers witness the murder and Joseph turns the gun over to them and waits for the police to arrive.

When Joseph's case goes to court he pleads guilty. When a judge sentences him to life in prison and says he will not be eligible for parole for 20 years, Joseph appeals.

He claims that he pleaded guilty because his lawyer advised him he could be paroled in 10 years. Joseph tells the judge he wants to withdraw his plea. Should he be allowed? How would you handle this case?

Joseph's lawyer explained that he advised his client to plead guilty because the evidence against him was overwhelming and the prosecutor agreed not to seek the death penalty for the offense.

However, Joseph claims his plea should be vacated because it was not entered voluntarily and was based on incorrect information supplied by his lawyer.

The appeals court disagreed. It said that normally defendants do not have to be advised of their parole eligibility before making a guilty plea. The appeals court upheld Joseph's guilty plea.

Dogs in the military

Q. Are dogs still used in the U.S. military services? If so, what are they used for?

My son used to train dogs for the Air Force many years ago. He always talked about the good service the dogs and their handlers provided for our country around the world.

I would be interested in reading about the use of dogs in our modern-day military services.

A. Dogs are still trained and used by the U.S. military services.

In 1952 the first Air Force sentry dog school was opened at Shawa Air Station, Japan. A second canine school was begun in 1953 at Wiesbaden, Germany.

In 1958 the responsibility for training military dogs was transferred from the former Army Dog Training Center at Fort Carson, Colo., to what is now the Technical Training Squadron of the Air Force Security Police Academy at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas. The academy trains working dogs for all the U.S. military services and other federal agencies, including the Federal Aviation Administration and the U.S. Secret Service.

The scope of training military dogs has changed since the first dogs entered the services. The training of sentry dogs ended for the Air Force in 1982. Sentry dogs were trained to respond to only one handler. Sentry dogs were trained to be extremely loyal to that handler. During combat, this characteristic was desirable. Because a sentry dog was trained to attack anyone except its handler, its usefulness is severely limited in the modern military.

Today the military trains and uses working dogs. Working dogs are used to sniff out explosives, illegal drugs and contraband as well as for patrol duty and detecting intruders. Training techniques for working military dogs is not all that much different than those used by civilian trainers for personal pets.

At first a close relationship between the handler and dog is established. This is accomplished through a constant close association while feeding, grooming, exercising and playing.

After a close relationship is established, obedience training is begun. Following basic obedience training each dog receives advanced training that includes controlled aggressiveness, attack, tracking, and building and-area searches.

Working dogs that demonstrate exceptional curiosity, eagerness and the ability to retrieve are often the dogs that succeed in drug detection programs. A drug detection program was begun in 1971 to combat the increased availability of marijuana and other illegal substances in Southeast Asia. Drug samples enclosed in plastic and glass jars or mixed with other substances can be readily detected by well-trained dogs.

Training for a working military dog is never finished. Dogs that go greater than a month without training often require extensive retraining.

Many different breeds of dogs are utilized by the military services. Cairn terriers have been trained to detect drugs and explosives. Beagles are also sometimes used for special jobs, such as sea duty with the Navy.

Military veterinarians oversee preventive health programs for all military dogs and treat sick dogs whenever necessary. Military working dogs are an extension of our men and women in uniform.
