Through the storms of winter and the shimmering heat of summer, The Statue of Liberty has stood majestically for nearly a century as a symbol of America's independence. Now nearing her 100th anniversary, the Statue of Liberty is in need of repair and restoration.

The Children's Room of the Hicksville Public Library is responding to appeals for funds by encouraging our Hicksville children to make a contribution, no matter how small. Many of our children have already donated to this most worthy cause. A special display has been set up in the Children's Room so that anyone who wishes to make a contribution may do so.

Hicksville Nursery School Open House

Melissa Sarno and Katie Williams

The Hicksville Nursery School is holding an Open House for fall registration on Thursday, Jan. 24 from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. for parents of 2½, 3 and 4 year olds in the school classrooms at West Cherry Street and Nelson Ave.

The Hicksville Nursery School is a non-profit, non-sectarian cooperative located in the back of the United Methodist Church. Founded in 1967, it has offered fourteen years of quality education to hundreds of pre-school children as well as serving as field training center for students from S.U.N.Y., Farmingdale, S.U.N.Y., Old Westbury and Nassau Community College.

The school seeks to offer the young child an environment in which he can grow emotionally, socially, intellectually and physically under the careful supervision of a fully trained staff. The program provides varied activities with an abundance of materials and opportunities for free creative expression under the guidance of skilled, New York State Early Childhood certified teachers. Art, media, woodworking, music and rhythmic movement, language arts, storytelling, dramatics, puzzles, doll corner, books and manipulative toys are all part of the daily program. A huge indoor playground permits daily large muscle activity even in the worst weather. A mid-session snack of milk or juice and crackers or fruit and vegetables is provided. Field trips are included to broaden the child's understanding of the world he lives in.

All parents who wish to, can share in the administration of the school. Monthly business meetings give parents the opportunity to make decisions on administrative needs. There are lectures, films and "rap groups" to help parents learn more about parenting. Fundraising projects are most often social events helping young families meet other adults who are at the same stage in life.

We invite all parents of pre-school children to join us for a chance to play and learn together in our spacious well-equipped rooms. For further information, call 822-5619 or 681-8246.

Special Use Permit Hearing Set

A hearing date of Tuesday, February 5, has been set by the Oyster Bay Town Board to consider an application for a special use permit to operate a drive-thru window at an existing fast-food restaurant, according to Town Councilman Douglas J. Hynes.

"The applicants, Old Country Road Burgers Co., Inc., Creative Foods Corp. and Fulton Associates, are seeking the special use permit to build and maintain a drive-thru window at an existing Burger King fast-food restaurant," Councilman Hynes explained. "The restaurant is located at the southeast corner of South Oyster Bay Road and Old Country Road in Plainview."

The hearing is scheduled for 10 a.m. in the hearing room of Town Hall East, Audrey Avenue, Oyster Bay.

Hicksville Deli Fire Loss $50,000, 2 Injuries

Hicksville firefighters closed out 1984 with a store fire which caused $50,000 damage to store and contents injuring two firefighters.

The fire was reported via alarm box by a passerby at 2:49 a.m. on December 31 at Antonio's Deli at 113 Broadway, Hicksville. Located in the center of a block of stores, Vamps fearing the heavily involved fire would spread to other stores sounded a second alarm for additional manpower and equipment. Mutual Aid Assistance was requested from the Jericho, Bethpage and Levittown Fire Departments. The Plainview Fire Department stood by at Fire Headquarters.

One hundred twenty men responded under Chief Owen Magee. Chief Magee said an aggressive attack by firefighters and the fact the building was one of excellent construction, unlike some of the newer stores enabled firefighters to confine the fire to the Deli. Stores on either side suffered very minor damage. The fire believed to have started in the rear of the store. The cause is being investigated by Fire Officials. The injuries to the firefighters were of a minor nature. Both members have returned to duty.

Oyster Bay Town Clerk Ann R. Ocker presents a citation to Bertha Ecker, a resident of the Central Island Nursing Home in Plainview on the occasion of her 103rd birthday. A native Hungarian and former resident of Hicksville, Mrs. Ecker was feted by fellow nursing home residents at a special celebration to mark her milestone birthday.

Film Scheduled At Library

The Hicksville Public Library will show the film, "Broadway Danny Rose" on Sunday, January 13 at 2 p.m.

Danny Rose (Woody Allen), the legendary two-bit talent agent, a hapless, plainclad schemer, handles the oddest collection of "talent" around: a blind xylophonist, a parrot that sings, "I Gotta Be Me", and a hulking crooner, Lou Canova. Mia Farrow is brassy and beehive coiffed in this hilarious tribute to New York's show biz scene. The movie is in color and rated PG and runs 1½ hours.

This film will be shown in the Community Room of the Library. There is no admission charged and everyone is invited. Children must be accompanied by a parent.

Lions Club Hears Camp Speaker

Carol Weiss from the Vacation Camp for the Blind and Hicksville Lions President Bill Ramsey, Jr.

The Hicksville Lions were honored to have Carol Weiss from the Vacation Camp for the Blind as the guest speaker at their monthly meeting. Her organization maintains a camp for blind people in Spring Valley, New York, that is equipped to enable the blind to participate in all recreation activities and enjoy a vacation of summer fun. The Lions help support the camp with donations that are raised through various activities and through their time and effort helping to maintain the camp by painting and performing small repair jobs. If anyone is interested in information about the camp, please call Hicksville Lions President Bill Ramsey at Montana Agency, 938-3600.

College Notes

Cindi DIMARZO, daughter of Anthony and Carol DiMarzo of Gables Drive, Hicksville, has received a BA in journalism and history from Syracuse University. Cindi is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Kappa Tau Alpha journalism honor society and Phi Alpha Theta history honorary.

A 1981 graduate of Hicksville High School, Cindi is a recipient of the William Dapping, Glen Howard Fishler and Carrie Coithan Scholarships from Syracuse University. She is also a New York State Regents Scholarship winner.

Gregory Museum January Events

January is an exciting month at the Hicksville Gregory Museum for young and older folk. "Vistas of Paumanok", an exhibition of the Long Island paintings and sketches of Hicksville artist and long-time resident, Olga Hoeber, will open on January 15. On display will be over thirty art works mirroring Long Island places, faces, and natural settings of forty years ago, the creations of a gifted professional artist.

For youngsters, the Gregory Museum's Saturday "fun and learning" workshops resume with two consecutive weekend craft sessions open to 8 to 12 year olds, involving "Making Your Own Working Volcanoes".

On Saturday, January 19, from 2 to 4 p.m., Curator Tom Daunt will kick off the program with a new slide picture presentation on volcanoes. He will follow his talk and slides with instructions and demonstrations of the craft of "active volcanoes".

The volcanic eruptions at the Gregory Museum will continue on Saturday, January 26 as youngsters will be able to finish making their volcanoes and see them in action.

Registration is necessary for the two Saturday workshops. There is a $5 fee for materials, and registrations may be made in person at the Museum on Heitz Place or by telephoning 822-7505.

Grace-Bradshaw Engagement

Sharon Grace and Joe Bradshaw

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Grace of Hicksville announce the engagement of their daughter Sharon to Joe Bradshaw. Joe is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Bradshaw of Meadville Pa.

Both Miss Grace and Mr. Bradshaw are finishing their education at Nyack College. They plan to be married June 15 on Long Island.

Library Speaker Offers Legal Info.

Every month the Hicksville Public Library has provided a lawyer to speak on various legal matters. Most of the speakers are assigned by the Bar Association of Nassau County and the library is grateful for this service. The talks have been very enlightening and the speakers are very generous with their time in answering questions.

On Thursday, January 10 at 8 p.m., in the Community Room of the library, the speakers topic will be, Litigation. There is no charge for these programs and everyone is invited. This lawyer appears through the courtesy of the Bar Association of Nassau County.

American Legion Auxiliary News

By Geraldine Seltz

The American Legion Auxiliary of the Charles Wagner Post, Unit #421 in Hicksville, met on Friday, January 4.

Past Presidents Parley will be held on January 29, at 8 p.m., at the Williston Park Post.

Our annual Valentine Dance will be on Saturday, February 16, starting at 9 p.m. Dancing will be to a 13 piece band and it should be a pleasant evening for all. Sandwiches, salads-coffee and home made cake-plus beer will be served for your admission of $7 each. Call Marie Gamble at We 8-2163 for reservations-everyone is welcome.

Our next regular meeting will be on Friday, February 1, at 8:30 p.m.

NewSect.Manager For Post Office

Roger Nienaber

Roger Nienaber 36, has been selected to succeed Anthony M. Murello as Sectional Center Manager/Postmaster of Hicksville. Murello retired on January 3, 1985.

Nienaber is a native of Cincinnati, Ohio with 17 1/2 years in the Postal Service. He has been the District Director of Customer Services for the Buckeye District in Columbus, Ohio. He also served as the District Director of Mail Processing for the Buckeye District and prior to that was the MSC Director of Mail Processing at Cincinnati.

"I was surprised, thrilled, excited and proud to be selected and I'm glad to be in Hicksville," said Nienaber. In his words, "This is an opportunity to learn from Hicksville and the Northeast Region and to incorporate some ideas and programs that have worked in the Central Region."

He attended Xavier University where he earned a BA Degree in Business Administration and a Master's Degree in Industrial Management. Nienaber started as a clerk in the Cincinnati Post Office and held a number of positions including: Management Trainee, General Supervisor, Operations Manager, Manager Distribution and Director Mail Processing.

He prides himself in the ability to make decisions that make sense to employees, the Postal Service and the public.

"I am committed to convincing everyone that I am serious about attaining our goals in safety, service and productivity. We must provide the service we say we are going to provide at a reasonable cost. We must deliver all the mail, not some of the time, not to some of the people, but all the mail everyday. If we provide the service that's expected of us, we will have a job next year and into the foreseeable future," states Nienaber.

Nienaber will reside in the Hicksville area with his wife Teri, and three children Rusty 14, Mark 13 and Sara 8. He enjoys soccer, tennis and golf and is looking forward to exploring Long Island's many unique attractions.

Q. My 16-year-old son has become a strict vegetarian, and I worry about his having a balanced diet. He eats no meat at all, so I wonder whether he is getting all the nutrition he needs. After all, he may still grow a few more inches, and I don't want his growth stunted.

He uses a lot of words that I don't understand regarding chemicals in the food he eats, and I sometimes wonder whether he really understands them.

Can you refer me to something I can read that will help me out? Am I worrying for nothing?

A. Maybe — and maybe not. So many people on strict or modified vegetarian diets have learned how to balance nutrients for good health. He may be among them.

However, to be certain you might have your family doctor meet with him to talk over this matter. At the same time the doctor might recommend some reading of value to both you and your son.

There are so many health and diet books on the market these days that I hesitate to recommend one or two to you. Your local bookstores and library can bring some to your attention. A number of them will agree on the basics of a balanced diet.

Q. When my daughter was born, my sister came over almost every day to see the baby and help out. She ended up spoiling her totally. My daughter loved her (and still does) more than anyone else in this world.

Here's the problem: My sister now has a son of her own and she devotes her entire life to him. My daughter, now 3 years old, resents my nephew, and he is beginning to resent her. My sister does try to pay her some attention, but it's not the same and this is hurting my daughter very much.

A. An effort on your part to have all four of you spend some time together may pay off, especially if each of you mothers makes a sincere attempt to show warmth toward the other child (without ignoring your own, of course).

Working toward independence for your children and seeking increased male involvement for each of them gradually may contribute toward substituting for the past dependence, especially of your little girl.

I've sent you copies of two articles of mine on those subjects ("Independence: Your Child Needs It" and "The Man in Your Young Child's Family"). Other readers also can receive them at no cost if they will indicate which one they want and send a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

THE OFFICE CAT

By Gabby Tabby

NASSAU HOSPITAL in Mineola is seeking women aged 65 and older for a study of osteoporosis, a bone disease that strikes older women. The study is voluntary and unpaid but a free full physical examination will be given to subjects. Phone 663-2540 for more information.....THE TOWN of Oyster Bay passed up an opportunity to allow many of its employees to take advantage of an earlier retirement plan for those 55 and older with 10 years service. The plan could allow the Town to cut down its payroll and newer workers if needed would be paid at lower rates and benefits.....NO ONE has challenged the statement of Motor Vehicles Commissioner John Passidomo that it is a "privilege" to drive a car and therefore drivers should accept without question any rules and regulations of the Motor Vehicle Bureau. Guess why we have poor service from his dept.? BUT it is a fact that if you need a new photo drivers license you can get good service at the bureau in Westbury. When you get the mailed form the whole procedure has been reduced to about 30 minutes or less. And the staff there is efficient (Never thought we would have to admit it).....THE CRIME REPORT is printed each week as a public service to alert residents where crime is taking place in the area and as an aid in the Neighborhood Watch. Anyone seeing suspicious activity should phone 911: BURGLARS broke into the DeFrisio residence 609 Stewart Ave., Bethpage on Dec. 19. "At the rate I was going, in ten years I'd have about $2000 saved."

I have a pretty good job. I've never been out of work. I've received regular promotions. The only thing I've never been able to do is save money.

One day I overheard my secretary talking about how much she'd saved buying U.S. Savings Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan. I was astounded.

Then I looked at my bankbook. I figured out how much my average yearly savings had been since I'd been working. And I almost cried. At the rate I was going, in ten years I'd have about $2000 saved.

Oh, some years I'd save three or four hundred (nine hundred one year), but it didn't last long. Something would always come up and I'd take it out and spend it. I always figured one of these days I'd bear down and build up a nest egg.

Since nothing else seemed to work, I decided to give the Payroll Savings Plan a try. I should be able to save as much as my secretary. If it worked for her it should work for me.

It turned out to be very easy. They take a little out of each paycheck toward Bonds, so that's a portion of your pay you're not tempted to spend. Not only is it easy but it's safe. The Bonds are piling up and so is the interest. And, by the way, the interest is guaranteed.

I never thought much about Bonds before but it's hard to find a better return on such a small, initial outlay.

When I get enough saved I may look into other things. But as for right now, it's the best, easiest way I know of to save. Actually, it's the only way that works for me.

I started late, but better late than never.

Crime Prevention Library Topic

Seymour Feinberg, a Crime Prevention Aide for the Department of Senior Citizens Affairs for Nassau County, will be in the Fiction Room of the Hicksville Public Library on Wednesday, January 16 and Thursday, January 17 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. He will show you how not to be a victim. Mr. Feinberg will discuss crime prevention, home security and "Operation Identification", a program sponsored by the Nassau County Police Department. Mr. Feinberg will speak individually with anyone who comes in between the above hours and there is no need for an appointment.

Named Officer In Bank

Gail Wall-Muller of Hicksville has been named a branch banking officer of National Westminster Bank USA. It was announced today by William T. Knowles, president.

Mrs. Muller is a platform assistant in the Bank's West Hempstead branch, located at 60 Hempstead Avenue. She joined the Bank in 1981 as a management trainee.

Mrs. Muller, who is attending Nassau Community College, resides in Hicksville with her husband Bob.

National Westminster Bank, USA, the wholly owned subsidiary of National Westminster Bank PLC of London, has $8.1 billion in assets and 154 offices in New York City, Long Island and Westchester.

Regional Postmaster To Install Sect. Mgr.

Regional Postmaster General John G. Mulligan will administer the Oath of Office to Roger T. Nienaber, the new Sectional Center Manager/Postmaster of Hicksville, on January 17, at 11 a.m. The Oath of Office ceremony will take place at Hicksville's Main Post Office, 185 West John Street.

Mr. Mulligan and Mr. Nienaber will be available to answer questions from the media before and after the Oath of Office ceremony. Refreshments will be served.

Child Abuse Prog. At Library

Child abuse is everyone's problem. On Thursday, January 17, at 8 p.m. in the Community Room of the Hicksville Public Library, the Nassau County Crime Resistance Unit will present a program on this subject. The film, "Operation Safe Child" will be shown and a speaker will provide additional information. A panel of experts will be available for questions. Their answers should be of great value to the whole audience. There is no charge for admission and everyone is invited.

Bethpage GOP Installs Officers

Club President Kevin Galloway has announced that Town of Oyster Bay Councilman John Venditto will appear as the "Special Guest of Honor" at the next meeting of the Theodore Roosevelt Republican Club of Bethpage.

The meeting will take place on Monday evening, January 14, at the American Legion Hall on Washington Street, beginning at 8 p.m.

George F. Yochmann, Executive Leader of the Bethpage GOP Organization, added that "Councilman Venditto has consented to presiding over our Annual Induction Ceremony for our incumbent Officers who will be serving another term in 1985. I am certain that it will be a memorable occasion for all of us throughout the New Year."

Refreshments will be served following the meeting. The Club is always ready and willing to welcome new members to come down and Be A Part Of It!

Bethpage Couple Guest Speakers

Fran and Dan Ferriso, of Bethpage, will be the guest speakers at the Bethpage chapter of the Full Gospel Business Men's Fellowship International. The meeting will be held at the American Legion Hall, Washington Street near the Bethpage Railroad station on Monday evening, January 21 at 8 p.m.

Coffee and doughnuts will be served. Donation is $1.50. Senior Citizens are invited free. All are welcome to attend a most interesting and uplifting presentation. For additional information call 433-3473 or 785-8016.

John Klos, 12, of N. Massapequa, displays his official 4-H calendar designed by the National 4-H Council and sponsored by White Funeral Home of Bethpage. Thanks to the support of White, 200 4-H families in the Bethpage/Farmingdale area will keep track of 1985 while learning about the history and scope of the 4-H program. With John is Bethpage resident, Catherine Breidenbach who is the coordinator of the E. Nassau 4-H Teen Club.

Amer. Leg. Hosts Superbowl Sunday

This year's Superbowl Sunday at the Charles Wagner Post of the American Legion shapes up as every bit thrilling and rousing as the veteran's post's last two annual pro-football championship via large-screen television.

Once again, the general public is invited to see this year's gridiron classic at the American Legion Hall, East Nicholas St., on Sunday, January 20. Admission is $10 per ticket, and this year, half of the net profits are being donated by the Charles Wagner Post Superbowl Game Committee to the Committee For the Return of the Missing in Action (M.I.A.) Veterans of the Vietnam War.

Admission includes franks and sauerkraut, potato chips, free beer and soda and your choice of seats overlooking the gridiron and the clash of this year's league champs, the Miami Dolphins and San Francisco 49ers.

Tickets may be purchased at the door. The American Legion Clubhouse doors will be open from 3:30 on.

Woman Robbed At Mid Island

A 35 year old Hicksville woman was robbed of her pocketbook containing $55, credit cards and personal papers by two black males one armed with a handgun in the parking field of Mid Island Shopping Center in Hicksville around 5:30 p.m., January 6.

Harily Sassone had just left her car which she just parked in the rear of the shopping center, on the west side, when she was approached by the suspects who demanded she give them her pocketbook. She refused and one of the suspects pulled out a handgun and both knocked her to the ground and beat her about the face, tearing the pocketbook from her grasp. They ran off with the bag, westbound on foot, through the field in the direction of West John Street.

The victim refused medical attention at the scene and she described the two suspects as being about 16 to 18 years of age, about 5'6" tall, were of medium build, clean shaven, one had an afro and both wore dark pants and jackets.

Mid Island Y Hosts Conference

Eastern Nassau County will again host a Long Island Aliyah Conference this May at the Mid-Island Y in Plainview. Chairing this exciting event will be Rabbi Bruce Ginsburg, of the Bethpage Jewish Community Center, Rabbi Gary Perras of the Manetto Hill Jewish Center and Fran Rosenheck will act as co-chairpeople.

"Last year's event, which attracted over 250 participants, was a huge success, and we hope to build on the interest generated both in participants and volunteers," stated Ben Weiner, the Conference Coordinator.

The first planning meeting is set for January 10 at 8 p.m. at the Mid-Island Y, 45 Manetto Hill Road, Plainview. Jewish organizations as well as individuals are invited to send representatives and friends to this planning meeting.

For additional information call Rabbi Ginsburg 938-7909 or Rabbi Perras 935-5454.

Your Social Security

Name doesn't affect eligibility

Q. When I wrote for my birth record, I discovered that my middle name is recorded as my first name. I have always used John Nathaniel ever since I can remember but my birth record shows Nathaniel John. Will this make any difference in my eligibility? — J.N.M.

A. No. This does not affect your eligibility. It is only necessary that we establish that John Nathaniel and Nathaniel John are one and the same person.

Q. My mother is on disability and going with a gentleman who is anxious to marry her. However, she is afraid her SSI disability checks will discontinue due to marriage. Please advise me. — R.B.

A. A change in your mother's marital status does necessitate a review of her eligibility. It is assumed that a husband and wife who live together share their income and resources.

The particular circumstances of her case would determine her continuing eligibility. She should contact her local Social Security office and discuss her situation with them.

Q. I only received one copy of the Social Security Benefit Statement (Form SSA-1099). Do I mail it to IRS along with my tax returns? — J.M.

A. No. Do not attach it to your income tax return. The form is intended only for determining whether you may have to pay taxes on your Social Security benefits. It is issued as a single copy only, and is to be treated the same as a 1099 you would receive from a bank on interest paid.

Q. Will aliens who receive Social Security benefits but live outside the United States have their benefits taxed? — F.L.

A. Yes. Non-resident aliens have already had taxes withheld on monthly Old Age Survivors and Disability Insurance benefits paid after Dec. 31, 1983. Beneficiaries who have been subject to the non-resident tax provision will receive an annual statement of Social Security benefits paid, Form SSA-1042, instead of Form SSA-1099.

Q. I started to collect Social Security at age 62 on my husband's record. I did not work long enough under Social Security to draw benefits on my own record.

Should my husband die before I do, will I still collect the same amount as I do now or will this be changed? — E.G.

A. The widow's benefit rate is larger than a wife's benefit rate. The amount payable would depend upon your age at the time of your filing for widow's benefits and whether he had received reduced benefits.

Q. My husband and I get Social Security benefits and Supplemental Security Income. Will everything we get be taxed? We are just barely managing on the amount we receive. We have no other income. — J.P.

A. Supplemental Security Income or SSI is not considered in determining whether the new taxation provision applies. Only your adjusted gross income plus any non-taxable interest income plus one-half of your Social Security benefits is considered.

Q. I will be 62 years old Feb. 27, 1985. Should I wait until after Jan. 1 to apply for benefits? I have only 22 quarters and need 34 quarters.

A. My husband worked for many years and is now drawing Social Security disability benefits. — R.N.G.

A. You've raised a question that brings out the importance of contacting Social Security early.

It's best to apply for benefits about three months before your actual retirement date. This will give adequate time to complete the processing of the claim so that you're assured of getting your benefits on time and also assures that you won't miss out on any benefits you may be entitled to.

Doctor's Forum

Is exercise testing necessary?

Q. I recently started an aerobics class with the approval of my physician, who says they are good for the heart. I am concerned since I have never had any tests done on my cardiovascular system.

I am a 36-year-old female and my yearly physicals are normal. Sometimes when I wake up in the morning I feel a "heaviness" and soreness around my heart area.

Should I be tested? At what age should these tests become part of an annual physical? — C.N.

A. Many individuals wonder if exercise testing is necessary prior to beginning a program of physical activity. As a cardiologist I usually answer this question by asking two of my own. First, what is your sex? Second, what is your age?

In general, I feel that most women over the age of 50 should undergo an exercise stress test prior to entering into a program of vigorous physical activity. For men, individuals over the age of 40 should undergo an exercise stress test before beginning such activity. These ages are only rough guidelines. In fact, if a patient is a heavy smoker, has a high serum cholesterol, has a strong family history of heart disease, has hypertension or has diabetes, I would suggest that individual undergo a stress test at any age before embarking on a program involving vigorous activity.

As far as you are concerned, it is unlikely, if you are still menstruating, that the heaviness and soreness that you feel around your heart area is actually coming from your heart. It is unusual for women who are menstruating to develop atherosclerotic coronary disease. However, after menopause, the risk for coronary disease increases markedly and becomes similar to that experienced by males.

Further, it is unusual for patients with coronary disease to experience chest pain that is coming from their heart when they awaken in the morning. Rather, it is more usual for these individuals to experience chest discomfort during periods of heavy exercise. Also, this chest discomfort usually is either partially or fully relieved by rest. Therefore, in your case the pain that you are experiencing likely does not represent coronary disease.

However, if you feel uncomfortable, I suggest a consultation with your family physician. — Dr. John C. Longhurst, associate professor of medicine, University of California, San Diego School of Medicine.

Quality Or Quantity?

When you advertise in a subscription newspaper you get quality readership. You know that EVERY copy of the newspaper has been invited into the home and three to four people will most likely read it.

When you buy quantity the only thing you might be sure of is that it has been hung on door knobs or thrown on lawns all over the neighborhood.

With our newspapers YOU ONLY PAY FOR COPIES that will be read. It is this quality that produces results. Do not waste money on wasted copies. Advertise here and get results.

Our (not so secret) ingredient
Readers = Results
is the reason we are preferred over the largest metropolitan newspapers and the many throwaways.

GENTLE BEGINNINGS WISHES all of you the happiest New Year ever. We are a New Social Organization on Long Island designed especially for decent, intelligent, unmarried or previously married adults seeking a caring relationship, traveling companions or just good friends. We introduce our members to each other in a light-hearted, comfortable social setting. We feel we're the better way to begin again—gently, without fear or stress. Our literature explains our concepts. Never any pressure or obligation. We're truly gentle. We think you deserve that. Gentle Beginnings, 821 Franklin Ave., Garden City, NY 11530-746-2724. gcF1

NOVENA TO ST. JUDE Oh Holy St. Jude, Apostle & Martyr, great in virtue and rich in miracles, near kinsman of Jesus Christ, faithful mediator and intercessor of all who invoke your special patronage in time of need, to you I have recourse from the depths of my heart and humbly beg to whom God has given such great power, to come to my assistance. Help me in my present and urgent petition. In return, I promise to make your name known and cause you to be invoked. St. Jude, pray for us all who invoke your aid. Amen. Say 3 Our Fathers, 3 Hail Mary's, 3 Gloria's. Say for 9 consecutive days. Publication must be promised. This novena has never been known to fail. Thank you for answering my prayers. A.D. gcj2

Hicksville Students Decorate P.O.

The festive decorations seen on the windows of the Hicksville Post Office this past holiday season were created by five young community-spirited artists from Hicksville High School. Participating youngsters were Lisa Boord, Suzanne Roman, Donna Greco, Paul Leone, and Frank Leone, all students from Mrs. Doris Teiber's art classes. It was truly a cooperative effort, with the Post Office supplying the paints, "canvas", and the volunteer artists providing the enthusiasm and creativity.

News From Bethpage Library

On Saturday, January 12, the Bethpage Public Library will show famous film classic "Black Beauty" (color-106 min), the well-loved autobiography of a noble steed and his undying friendship with a young boy. In this heart-catching, dramatic saga, Beauty becomes a race horse, circus performer, military warrior, and then, tragically, a worker for a coal merchant! Mark Lester and Walter Slezak star in this exciting adaptation of the famous novel by Anna Sewell.

Showtime is 2 p.m. All school-age youngsters who reside in District #21 are invited to attend and tickets are available now in the Bethpage Children's Room. For information, please call 931-3907.

Would you like to walk an invisible tightrope, lift unseen weights, engage in a tug of war without a rope?

On Saturday, January 19, the Bethpage Public Library will feature Chips Pantomime Workshop, an exciting mime program presented by Michael Goudket, an experienced teacher and performer of mime.

Here is your chance to learn many of the fascinating secrets of mime-how to tell a story with your hands, how to create a magical grab bag of illusions. There will also be an unusual mime make-up demonstration and a sparkling mime show with magical excitement galore.

The program will begin at 2 p.m. and registration is now being taken for young people in grades 3-6 who reside in School District #21. For further information, please call 931-3907. *****

What is Wholistic Astrology? Visit the Bethpage Public Library on Wednesday, January 23, at 1 p.m. and hear Bethsheba F. Daniels discuss her unique approach to the horoscope. Register for this program at the Reference Desk at the library or call 931-3907. Coffee and cake will be served, and we would appreciate your cooperation in not bringing children to this event. *****

Woman Dies In Auto Accident

A 60 year old Bethpage woman was fatally injured after being struck by a car while crossing Stewart Avenue in Bethpage around 11:10 a.m., January 2.

Caterina LaFauci, of 150 3rd Street, was crossing Stewart Avenue from the east side to the west side, at Burkhardt Street, when she was struck by a 1972 Chevrolet Impala, southbound on Stewart Avenue, operated by Lee Volkommer, 22, of 19 Leslie Street, Bethpage. Mrs. Fauci was transported to the Mid Island Hospital in Bethpage, where she was pronounced dead at 11:45 a.m. She had suffered severe internal injuries.

No charges were filed by police and the car was impounded for a routine safety check.

It's up to us.

New York State is a great state in which to live, work and raise a family. We can be proud of our place in world commerce, industry and in the quality of our lives. But one of our greatest sources of pride is often overlooked, that being our huge forest preserves, wetland and marsh areas, and abundant fish and wildlife.

Now New Yorkers have an opportunity to help protect this unique heritage of wildlife so vital to the quality of life we all enjoy. "Return a Gift to Wildlife" is a program into which you may voluntarily contribute when you complete your state tax form. By checking off Line 18 on the long form or Line 12 on the short form, you can make a contribution to the New York State Conservation Fund. Monies collected have been dedicated by the State Finance Law to the protection, management and extension of wildlife in our great state.

The Need Has Never Been Greater

Hard economic times dictate hard financial decisions. This year, the federal government has already eliminated endangered species aid, jeopardizing the restoration of a number of birds and animals native to New York. In addition, thousands of acres of grassland, wetland, marshland and forest that are critical to the survival or extension of New York's wildlife are eliminated or disrupted each year. The New York State "Return a Gift to Wildlife" program is an important step towards a lasting solution to these problems, and an investment in the future of our wildlife.

Return a Gift to Wildlife

An Effective Program

Like the environment which only thrives when the whole ecosystem is addressed, the areas of work to be addressed through tax contributions are broad and comprehensive. The largest single element is earmarked for habitat protection so critical to wildlife perpetuation. A species management program will be strengthened to help maintain all species of fish and wildlife at desirable population levels for human enjoyment. A third element is the public use program which will provide increased opportunities for enjoying fish and wildlife. Lastly, the plan calls for greater awareness development of fish and wildlife values through the creation of better educational resources and information services.

Consider the added dimension wildlife brings to your life. Won't you return a gift through a contribution on Line 18 of the long form or Line 12 of the short form of your State tax return. Your gift is tax deductible on your 1983 tax return.

Check Beneficiary On G.I. Insurance

"Many veterans who are paying premiums on their G.I. life insurance policies are not aware that the proceeds will not be paid to their immediate survivors," according to Oyster Bay Town Councilman Douglas J. Hynes.

"The New York State Division of Veterans' Affairs would like veterans to be aware that the beneficiary listings on their policies may not conform to their current wishes," Hynes said. "Since a change of beneficiary cannot be made by a veteran's last will and testament, it is imperative that veterans check the beneficiary listing to make absolutely certain that the insurance benefits will be paid in accordance with the veteran's present wishes."

The insured veteran has the right to designate one or more contingent beneficiaries in order to provide for the payment of the proceeds of his policy, or any unpaid portion thereof, in the event of the death of the principal beneficiary.

Hynes added that it is a simple matter for a veteran to change the beneficiary listing. "The New York State Veterans' Affairs counselors located at 977 Hicksville Road, Massapequa, can provide detailed information on all aspects of G.I. life insurance and assist in making any changes. Don't hesitate to call him at 798-5626, Monday through Thursday between 9 a.m. and 4:45 p.m."

Central General Designs Health Plan

In a major move to help cut company employee health care costs while offering continued highest medical service, the Central General Hospital in Plainville, has instituted an employee health care benefit program in the region.

Central General Hospital's new Medscope program extends a needed community service to the industrial and commercial firms of the region by providing medical care and health maintenance at reduced fees for employees.

Medscope services fall into 3 areas: health maintenance, occupational medicine, and management guidance and employee testing. Medscope administrators work with each company to design a plan to meet its specific needs. Membership fees are nominal and on a sliding scale.

Hospital Trained Staff
The administrator of Central General Hospital serves as the director of the Medscope program. Participating doctors are drawn from Central General's staff of attending physicians. Special nurses are assigned exclusive functions. Counseling and testing services are under the direction of a qualified psychologist, holding a doctorate, assisted by specialist counselors. The entire program is under the supervision of the Board of Directors of Central General Hospital.

Health Maintenance Services

Central General Hospital through Medscope offers a concrete means of reducing labor and management costs. The National Institute of Health estimates that 52 million work-days are lost each year due to cardiovascular disease; 124 million work-days are lost because of headaches, often stress induced; $1 billion is lost in production costs due to back pain. A Health Maintenance program for employees can help reduce health-related losses.

Annual physicals help avoid costly illness on the part of key personnel. Stress counseling helps ward off premature death and time losing stress-related ailments. Habit patterns can be modified for a more healthy and productive lifestyle.

Health Maintenance Services include:

Pre-employment physical. Annual physical. Executive physical. Termination physical. Weight reduction clinic. Stop-smoking clinic. Stress counseling. Substance abuse counseling. CPR certification and recertification, and First Aid supply servicing and instruction.

Lifestyle Management

There are many aspects of lifestyle that may adversely affect on-the-job performance, both directly and indirectly. By offering means to cope with unhealthy or debilitating habit patterns, Medscope can benefit both employer/employees, and the community at large.

Write for your free brochure about Medscope or call the hospital at (516) 681-8900.

THE QUESTION OF THE WEEK

A N.Y. man shot four young men who accosted him on the subway and is now being charged with attempted murder. Do you think, from the information in the news, that he committed a crime?

Call 931-0027 24 Hrs. a Day

Ground Rules

You are not limited to the above

but may talk on any subject of interest to readers.

•One subject to a caller per week•

Simply dial 931-0027-24 Hours a Day and follow these simple rules:

1. Wait for the beep.
2. Confine your INPUT to one subject.
3. Limit your opinion to five minutes (make notes before calling)
4. Leave your name and telephone, or simply use a pen name. (your message can be anonymous)
5. Publishers reserve the right to edit, modify or omit any and all material.

Most Input Callers Think Happy Hours Should Go

Most Input callers do not think that happy hours should be continued in bars in answer to this question: "Some states are abolishing 'Happy Hours' (in which cut-rate drinks are sold to patrons) as a safe drinking precaution. What is your opinion of such a law in N.Y.?" Here are some of the answers:

MAY GO SOON

Well it probably has to come about that bars will be unable to have those happy hours. The reason is because they are now trying to hold bartenders responsible for the acts of their patrons. I do not agree with this idea but if I owned a bar I would not have cut-rate drinks for that reason.

K.T.

FREE WILL

Will it never end. The people who want to control the lives of others can find endless causes to be in favor of. The cause that should be most fought, freedom, will never get a chance. Too much is being eroded away in the name of a common cause which frequently is a worthless cause when enacted because the laws do not do anything about getting to the problem. I believe in people having a free will and the government trying to do more in straightening out the mess we are in.

J.R.

OUTLAW THEM

The idea of happy hours is just a way to push drinks on people who cannot pass up what they perceive to be a bargain. After loading up on the twofers they head for the road and may not make it home. Why not outlaw this?

G.E.

BAD IDEA

I believe that people who drive should not be at the happy hours but why penalize everyone else because a few drivers overindulge? I do not drive and would not be allowed to drink what I want in a bar. This is not a good idea.

DRAW THE LINE

The State has to draw the line on the use of alcohol and it already has the power to set down the rules. I see no reason that the careless use of alcohol should be promoted with its destructive qualities simply to enhance the profits of owners of taverns.

L.E.

LESS FREEDOM

What happened to those key expressions in the Declaration of Independence about the inalienable rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness? In this 20th century, our whole national posture has lost some of the real meaning of those three basics through the growth of our complex society and presumably in an effort to preserve their real essence, subtle inroads have been made in watering them down. To a large extent, individual and group self-interest have been promoted the chipping-away process with impact on such things as the right to bear arms; freedom of speech; the media; sale and use of alcohol, tobacco and drugs; dress; search and seizure; religion; education; and most recently, the car seat-belt mandate and driving while intoxicated with all its attendant nuances such as the responsibility of the host and the probable abolition by law of the "Happy Hour" with which your question deals. Frankly, I believe there are enough laws already on the books to cover the sale and use of alcohol and if these were enforced there would be no need to add still another restraint on personal judgement and action. Quite apart from its intrusion on our freedoms, there is a social and economic price to be paid and I am getting tired of watching and paying for spiraling costs of ineffectual and often irresponsible government. And to insure that my opinion is accepted as objective, I might add that I am not a "Happy Hour" devotee.

P.G.S.

BAN HAPPY HOURS

I believe happy hours in New York should be against the law. Ban happy hours and it's a sure way to get drunks off the road.

PAST ISSUES

A WISH.

I think my wish for 1985 would be that Ronald Reagan would continue to do a good job as he has in the past, that he could solve the starvation problems in Africa and make friends with the Russians. This is a big wish, I know, but if it doesn't happen in 1985 I'm sure some day, in the future, it will happen.

M.T.

CHRISTMAS DECOR

I'd like to address a past issue, I think there should definitely be Christmas decorations since it does not need a law to allow you to do so. We are not a Communist nation and the First Amendment says nothing in this regard. It is an infringement on our rights to take away the right to publicly decorate for the holidays.

PEACE OF MIND

With so many seemingly impossible things to wish for how can one make a choice? If I had to go for only one, I would wish for peace of mind and for all mankind. Bear in mind for us to have this the conditions on Earth must change. All wars would cease, there would be no chemicals to pollute our air and waters, there would be cures for all diseases, no more drug problems with our teens and adults. No child abuse, muggings, murders. The list is endless. I recall a maxim quoted by a friend many years ago: "If wishes were fishes, we'd have some fry". How very true.

FAMOUS SEAFOOD

For authentic Spanish and Portuguese food you need go no further than Arlindo's Restaurant located at Mineola Boulevard in Mineola. Our party of three enjoyed two terrific dishes. We ordered Arlindo's famous Seafood Paella for two, served with Saffron Rice. Just thinking about that repast makes my mouth water anew. Truly, it was the tastiest I have ever had! The third dinner consisted of Veal and Seafood combination. It, too, was superb. With our dinner we had Chablis wine, which complimented the dinner. Delightful pastries from their Pastry Cart and Caffé Espresso topped off a memorable dinner. The service was attentive, also we liked the fact that there was plenty of parking in the back. There were several interesting dishes on the menu that we thought we would like to try on our return visit. We would like to recommend this restaurant to your readers. M.J.T.

MIKE MCGRATH - NEWSDAY - DEC. 25, 1983
"One thing I'm sure of, you're going to like the way DEVINS looks, the owners' goal was to achieve the feel of Edwardian England, but it is sufficiently eclectic to include echoes of New Orleans and Paris. The fish here is properly fresh and the meat is properly aged, and great care is taken in their presentations. Here, I must pause to compliment the service. No matter how good the main dishes, the desserts are better."

ELEGANT MENU

For a Successful celebration, I doubt we could have planned a better party than our double birthday brunch for ten at the George Washington Manor last Sunday. The ambience was beautiful, with early eighteenth century furniture and appointments. The menu was elegant and included champagne which was a great way to celebrate the occasion. The food, the cheerful service, the fireplaces, the view on all sides were memorable. We all came away on cloud nine, and the consensus was that we should do this every year!

FIRST RATE
 A really first rate restaurant is what everyone in our party said about LaCoquille in Manhasset last week.
 It was our first time at this restaurant and we brought guests. The food and especially the vegetables served at LaCoquille are delicious. We had medallions of beef with olive and tomato flavoring. Others in our party had coq au vin which was delicious.
 As a starter we ordered fresh asparagus vinaigrette. The asparagus as other vegetables were cooked to a crunchiness that makes them a special treat.
 The service in this small restaurant is superb with your every need taken care of by a pleasant staff.
 LaCoquille is a restaurant that we would recommend to anyone who appreciates good food. - R.J.

RESTAURANT REVIEW

Food ★★½ Ambiance ★★½
 Service ★★★ ★★½

By Janine

Manero's is a charming restaurant. It is located on the eastern end of a strip shopping center on the south side of Jericho Turnpike. It features a long, narrow lobby with a rather large bar area set off to the right. To your left along the long hallway is the retail meat shop in which the meat is displayed. Straight ahead is the big, lovely main dining room. It contains oak pieces with a charm all their own, beautiful stained glass, soft, gentle lighting, formal appointments, etc. It is a room that is much more than comfortable. It is really lovely.

As we sat down and ordered cocktails, a basket of delicious garlic bread was placed on our table - a definite plus for the meal. One of the entrees was the a la carte Delmonico Shell Steak at $16.95. All a la carte entrees are served with a fresh garden salad and choice of potato or rice or vegetable du jour. The steak was cooked perfectly as ordered and was extremely tender, lean and delicious. I opted for the complete dinner which was a superabundant amount of food. The first course was a baked clam appetizer which consisted of two clams stuffed with a moist, seasoned bread stuffing. Next came the garden salad with a choice of dressing. Also placed on the table was a nice portion of french fried onion rings. Then there was a choice of potato, vegetable of the day and my entree, the barbecued baby spare ribs. Dessert and beverage were also included - all for $13.95. The spare ribs that were served were a huge portion done in a very piquant sauce. They were absolutely delicious.

On the evening of our visit, only waiters were in attendance, and the waiter who was assigned to our table was very experienced in the business of service. He was a sheer delight. He backed off when we were not quite ready to order, and appeared magically when we were. He made proper suggestions, paced the food with finesse, and certainly helped make our meal a huge success.

Manero's menu boldly declares that they are committed to excellence and quality. The beef served is either top choice or prime. The seafood is the freshest available, and all vegetables are also always fresh. Manero's claim is that they are a tradition dedicated to excellence.

The restaurant is open 7 days a week. It is open from Monday thru Saturday for lunch and dinner and on Sunday for dinner only. They do accept most major credit cards.

CONCLUSION: A tradition dedicated to pleasing their patrons. Great, great, great!

LEARN THE DIFFERENCE

We first noticed your ad for Ming Gardens several months ago and really never got around to going to it. One reason is because there are so many restaurants specializing in Chinese food that they all seem the same. This is not so with the Ming Garden.

One thing about Ming is that it is easy to get to. It is located at 200 Garden City Plaza in Garden City right off of Roosevelt Field. We took the Roosevelt Field Service Road to get to it. But the really important difference in Ming's is that it has first rate shrimp, chicken and other dishes on the menu. The entire meal is topped off with a complimentary plum wine. If your readers think they have been to all the good Chinese restaurants, they should go to Ming Garden and learn the difference. H.F.

DINING GUIDE

READER RATINGS

Q. Recently I called one of the larger catering places to arrange to hold a small luncheon six months from now. I was told that they would never consider anything that near at hand unless there was a cancellation and that I ought to give at least a year's notice. Is this true all over? B.H. A. Probably a year's reservation at the large catering places is about right but that might not be your only option. You mentioned that it was a luncheon and it may not have needed a great deal of space. For something like that you ought to contact a restaurant that you like and see if they have an off day and whether they could accommodate you with a room. Many restaurants do this and you are better off than having gone to a large caterer. They don't need a year's notice either.

Q. Is it ever correct to have one's elbows on the table when one is eating? I was brought up to think it is not. J.P.

A. It is not correct to put one's elbows on the table when one is eating but it is permissible to rest them on the table between courses.

Q. Is it proper to apply lipstick at the dinner table? W.C.

A. You don't do it in anyone's home. You may, however, apply lipstick and a dab of powder at a restaurant table. If you are traveling abroad, applying cosmetics at a restaurant table is often considered gauche. If you are with a party of Americans, on the other hand, you may wish to follow your own custom in the matter. It is wise to be discreet.

Q. My husband buries his head in the newspaper at breakfast and doesn't say a word to me throughout. He just hands me the second section. Shouldn't a husband be expected to carry on some conversation with his wife at breakfast? R.T.

A. No one should be expected to carry on a conversation at breakfast. Many people don't really wake up until later in the day. Enjoy that second section. This is not a new rule, by the way; it has always been so.

Q. Restaurants nowadays do not know a thing about etiquette. Last night at a dinner they served salad. Isn't there a special salad fork that is supposed to be used in restaurants? M.H.

A. Yes. The salad fork has special cutting edge on one side of it and is usually shorter than a regular fork. Most restaurants are so busy getting cutlery together if they have a big crowd at dinner, that they do not set out the forks or knives right.

This Is Your Chance To Join "Reader Ratings"

The Last Word In Restaurant Guides

Where Our Readers
Have The Last Word

This newspaper, and the seven other weekly newspapers associated with it, publishes the last word in restaurant guides... a paid listing of many prominent selected restaurants in this area. While many of them have been rated by the great, and near great food connoisseurs, our readers will have the last word through "Reader Ratings".

Through a special 24 hour phone system, readers will be asked to call in their assessment of each restaurant they visit. Consensus ratings (good or bad) will be published as a continuing part of the guide.

In addition they can make suggestions, compliments or criticisms through the open phone line and messages will be sent through to the restaurant management.

OLD CUSTOMER

I've been a customer of Lauraine Murphy's in Manhasset for over 25 years and I've always found the service good, the food good and the prices are good too. The personnel there is always nice and friendly and I'm going to continue to go there. Only one point. In the ad in Reader Ratings it says "entertainment for dining and dancing pleasure Friday and Saturdays evenings." You should know that they also have entertainment on Sunday evenings, strolling musicians. I think the Sunday entertainment should also be listed. O.V.G.

Cooking Corner

The name John Borg is synonymous with seafood.

A graduate of the University of Denver's Hotel and Restaurant Management program, Borg has been cooking professionally for about 15 years. Seafood became his specialty early on.

One of his favorite creatures of the sea is the Pacific lobster. Why? "It has a rich flavor, it's not fattening and it's good for you," he replies. Borg also appreciates the versatility of the lobster, serving it in soups, salads and elegant sauces.

Borg says most of the Pacific lobsters available in fish markets already are cooked. If the lobster is purchased live, it should be gently steamed in about 1 inch of boiling water for 10 to 15 minutes, or until its color is bright red and its tail has curled shut.

Pacific lobsters are in season until early March. These recipes, shared by the award-winning Borg, will give home cooks a chance to enjoy the lobster season to the fullest.

LOBSTER FRA DIAVOLO

Two 1½- to 2-lb. live lobsters
¼ cup olive oil
¼ cup chopped green pepper
2 tbsps. chopped fresh flat-leaved parsley
2 garlic cloves, chopped
2 tbsps. fresh basil, or 1 tbsp. dried basil
2 cups canned Italian-style plum tomatoes, chopped
2 tbsps. tomato paste
¼ tsp. crushed red pepper
1 lb. linguini or spaghetti

Put all ingredients except lobsters and linguini into large non-reactive pot and bring to boil. Simmer sauce for ¼ hour, then add lobster and simmer for ¼ hour more. Stir often, scraping bottom of pot. Sauce will be thick, but light and delicate in taste. About 10 minutes before sauce is done, start cooking linguini in boiling salted water. Cook for 4 or 5 minutes, or until it is al dente, then drain quickly. Place pasta on hot plates. Remove lobster from pot and pour some of sauce over pasta. Split or chop lobster, remove their entrails and veins, and serve lobster pieces with pasta, spooning remaining sauce over them.

Serves 4.

LOBSTER STUFFED WITH CRABMEAT

Four 1- to 1½-lb. cooked lobsters
16 soda crackers, finely crushed
1 lb. crabmeat, picked over
6 tbsps. butter, melted
¼ cup clam broth or milk
2 tbsps. dry sherry
Salt and pepper to taste
¼ cup freshly grated Parmesan cheese
Paprika

Place each lobster on its back and use sharp knife to split it in ster meat and stock, and simmer for 3 or 4 minutes, stirring all the time. Add about half of cheese, all of parsley and cream. Take skillet off heat, add dry mustard and salt and pepper to taste to lobster mixture and mix well. Spoon lobster pieces into reserved lobster shell.

Add remaining butter and rest of cheese to sauce left in pan. Mix, coat lobster pieces with sauce, and brown assembly lightly by sliding it under hot broiler.

Serves 2.

LOBSTER SALAD

Two 1½-lb. cooked California lobsters
1 egg yolk
1 tbsp. white wine vinegar
1 tsp. prepared imported mustard, such as Dijon or Dusseldorf
1 tsp. tomato paste
Salt and freshly ground pepper to taste
¼ tsp. cayenne pepper or Tabasco sauce to taste
1 cup olive oil
Juice of one-half lemon
1 tsp. chopped fresh tarragon, or ½ tsp. dried tarragon
2 tbsps. cognac
½ cup coral, optional
¼ cup cubed, seeded tomatoes
Mayonnaise to taste
6 to 12 leaves fresh, crisp unblemished romaine lettuce leaves, rinsed and patted dry

Crack lobsters and remove meat. Reserve and set aside any red coral. There should be about 2 cups of meat and coral. Refrigerate until ready to use.

Place egg yolk in mixing bowl and add vinegar, mustard, tomato paste, salt and pepper to taste, and cayenne. Gradually add oil, beating vigorously with wire whisk. Beat in lemon juice, tarragon and cognac.

Add lobster coral, if desired, and tomatoes to mayonnaise and fold in with rubber spatula.

When ready to serve, stack romaine lettuce leaves and cut them into finest possible shreds, using heavy sharp knife. There should be about 2 cups loosely packed shreds. Add this to salad and fold in. Serve immediately before shreds wilt.

Serves 6 to 8.

SPINY LOBSTER WITH TOMATO, HERB AND WINE SAUCE

Three 2-lb. female spiny lobsters, tails shelled and cut into pieces, and coral reserved

1 cup olive oil
14 tbsps. butter
¼ cup shallots, finely chopped
1 garlic clove, crushed to a paste
¼ cup cognac
2 cups dry white wine
6 medium-size tomatoes, peeled, seeded and coarsely chopped
Cayenne pepper
¼ tsp. chopped fresh chervil leaves
½ tsp. chopped fresh tarragon
2 tbsps. chopped fresh parsley

Place lobster on stomach and insert sharp knife into center of body cavity. Quickly draw knife through lobster toward head. When lobster stops moving, cut through tail.

Heat oil in large, non-reactive saute pan, season lobster pieces and toss into pan. Stir over high heat about 5 minutes, or until pieces are red.

Drain oil, leaving lobster in saute pan, and add 4 tablespoons of butter. Add shallots and garlic. Saute for a few minutes over low heat. Heat cognac in small non-reactive pan and ignite it, and when flames die, add cognac to saute pan along with white wine, tomatoes and pinch of cayenne pepper. Mix everything over high heat. When mixture comes to boil, reduce heat, cover pan and cook for 20 minutes.

Crush coral in bowl, add rest of butter and beat coral and butter together. Remove lobster pieces from pan and put in warmed, deep serving dish.

Boil sauce, uncovered, until liquid is reduced to about 2 cups. Reduce heat, add coral butter and stir thoroughly. Add chervil and tarragon and heat sauce, without allowing it to boil. Pour sauce over lobster pieces. Sprinkle with parsley and serve at once.

Serves 10.

TUNA ROLL SUSHI

4 sheets nori
Sushi rice
8 ozs. very fresh tuna, cut into ½-inch-wide strips
Wasabi, soy sauce and masu shoga-zuki (see preceding recipe)

Lay sheet of nori on bamboo rolling mat. Over entire width and three quarters of the length of sheet, spread generous even layer of sushi rice. On rice, 1 inch from end of sheet, place strip of tuna. If tuna strips are not long enough to cover width of nori, fit two or more strips together carefully.

Using bamboo mat to start rolling process, tightly roll nori around rice and tuna, using firm hand pressure to form even tube. Moisture of rice will cause nori to soften and adhere to itself.

Dip sharp knife in water and use it to cut off any ragged or uneven ends of tube. Dipping knife in water after each cut, slice tube into eight equal sections. Repeat process for each sheet of nori. Makes 32 pieces of sushi.

Stretching your decorating dollars

By BARBARA HARTUNG

Q. I'm moving into a new home with very little furniture but with the desire to create a lovely setting.

I will have just enough money to buy a sofa and pair of chairs or maybe a two-piece sectional and some tables. There will be little left for window and floor coverings and all the other accessories so important.

Do you have some ideas for stretching my decorating dollars? — N.R.

A. You might be inspired by some designers who created an elegant and interesting room using a toasty rose-colored velvet sofa as the key furnishing.

To stretch their decorating dollars they bought a 9-by-10 foot remnant of linoleum which they painted blue and then splattered on an assortment of soft pastels including pale rose.

A similar effect was created using muslin dyed pale blue and splattered with the same pastel shades. The muslin was used for window shades and was also framed and used as a wall hanging.

Those elements cost only pennies but produced dollars worth of drama.

Q. We recently moved into a rented apartment which has horizontal mini-blinds in my daughter's bedroom. She is only 6 years old and so I would like something else at the windows. However, I don't think I should take the blinds down. And I do like the privacy she has with them.

What might I do to make the mini-blinds more attractive? — P.B.

A. You could do great things with fabric. Why don't you choose some terrific sheets and comforter for her bed in a pattern and colors you especially like and that blend with your walls and mini-blinds.

Buy an extra sheet for the window. Sew a contrasting color to the sheet. Place the sheet and fabric flat over the window. Cut the two layers of fabric up the middle to about 12 inches from the top of the window. Fold back the sheet to reveal the contrasting fabric. Tack, staple or hem the fabric in place.

This effect will frame the window with its mini-blind.

Q. Please give me some ideas for making my studio apartment look bigger. I plan to live in this studio for some time so I want very much to create a functional and pleasant atmosphere. — W.B.H.

A. There are a variety of techniques you might consider. If you are adding carpeting and painting the walls, a single color throughout will give you a pleasing unified background. Choose a medium to light shade for maximum spaciousness.

Think about having built-ins added and paint them the wall color. Or simulate built-ins with unpainted modular furniture that you can stack for plenty of storage. A great built-in is a floating platform which you might top with mattress, comforter, and lots of pillows to double as a bed by night and sofa by day.

Plan no-nonsense window treatment, perhaps wide vertical blinds that don't take up much room physically or visually.

Eliminate the need for lots of little tables and lamps with track lighting on the ceiling and walls.

Q. What can you tell me about my Royal Dux vases? I would like to know when and where they were made and their value.

A. These were made in the early 20th century by the Duxer Porzellanmanufaktur in Dux, Bohemia (now Czechoslovakia). They should be worth from $200 to $300 for the pair.

Q. I have some old silverplated napkin rings that date back to the 19th century. Do they have much value? I know that antique sterling napkin rings sell for $5 to $100, but what about silverplated ones?

A. Ordinary engraved plated napkin rings sell for $10 to $15.

Q. My teapot, sugar and creamer are decorated with purple flowers, ornate scrollwork and gold trim. On the bottom is the attached mark. What can you tell me about my tea set?

A. Your tea set was made by Shore and Goggins Ltd. in London during the late 19th century. It should be worth about $125 to $175.

What excites collectors are the figural rings such as a dog in a house, $65; ring sitting on twigs with flowers and honey bee, $80; kitten and ring, $55; knight standing beside ring, $40. All these rings are from 75 to 100 years old.

Q. Since dirigibles and zeppelins are things of the past, it seems to me that material relating to them might be collectible. What can you tell me about this field?

A. You are on the right track. Anything relating to rigid frame, lighter-than-air craft is a growing field. (Blimps have no rigid frame.) The Graf zeppelin, Hindenberg, because of its fiery fate in 1937, is the most popular subject. A crewman's badge sells for $175; a ticket for passage sells for $300.

If you are on a limited budget, items relating to American dirigibles can be bought for from $5 to $50.

Send your questions about antiques with picture(s), a detailed description, stamped, self-addressed envelope, and $1 per item to James G. McCollam.

Here's How

By Gene Gary

Q. As we all know, the slats of glass from louvered windows can easily be removed for easy entry into a home. Is there any kind of a lock or device to prevent these slats from being removed? — V.L.M.

A. There are no locks or devices available that I know of to prevent the removal of these glass louvers. However, the police department recommends a solution to this problem. You can glue the louvers into the slots. Be sure to use a glue recommended for non-porous surfaces such as metal or glass. Glue each louver individually.

You will still be able to open and close the louvers, but they cannot be removed easily, allowing someone to break into your home.

The only other solution that I know of is to remove the entire window installation and replace it with a more conventional window glass.

Q. I understand that particleboard gives off fumes that are harmful to humans. The shelves in my cupboards are made of unfinished particleboard. Is there any finish I could put on them that would confine the harmful fumes? — B.M.D.

A. I suggest that you treat the particleboard with the following solution, then paint.

To kill the odor and neutralize the chemical in the particleboard, use a strong household ammonia mixed with water, one part ammonia to five parts water or stronger if you prefer. Wash the cupboards thoroughly with this solution and rinse well with clear water, then wipe dry.

The surfaces should then be painted using a good primer first, then a good-quality enamel paint.

Be sure that the particleboard is thoroughly dry prior to painting.

Q. In washing windows (both house and car), I find the commercially available solutions develop a slight film on the windows after a short time period.

I have been told professional window washers make their own solutions to avoid this problem. Have you any suggestions in this regard? — J.M.H.

A. Some window washers use a light solution of trisodium phosphate, about two tablespoons to a gallon of warm water.

One reader wrote us that she had good luck with a window washing product for automobiles available at auto supply stores.

However, one inexpensive and very effective method is to use a mixture of ammonia and water (one part ammonia to two or three parts water) to wash the windows and then wipe dry with ordinary newspaper. You may want to use plastic or rubber gloves because the newspaper ink will rub off on your hands. It may be messy on your hands, but it does a wonderful job on windows and mirrors, leaving them film free.

Q. I have a dry rot problem. There is dry rot, covering about 1 1/2 inches for the length of 6 inches, in a section of woodwork.

Can I repair this with a caulking compound after cleaning out the rot? Or is there another way to salvage the wood without removing the structure? Will cement do it? Please advise me. — J.D.

A. To repair you must remove the damaged wood and replace this section with the wood. In most cases the damaged wood does not have the strength to hold any of the repair materials you have suggested.

Q. We live in an old house and there was calcimine on the walls. I tried to wash it off and painted the walls, but the paint is peeling off. I don't care to wallpaper. What do you suggest? — M.V.

A. Neither paint nor wallpaper will hold unless calcimine is completely removed.

Completely remove the peeling paint, then wash the walls with a solution of household ammonia and water, or trisodium phosphate in the proportion of a cup to a gallon of water. Use a stiff brush.

TWEEN 12 & 20

By Robert Wallace, Ed.D.

Girls: What do virtually all teenage girls today have in common? An addiction to daytime soap operas, according to the results of a survey just published by Seventeen magazine.

The reader response survey reveals that 9 percent of teen girls regularly watch at least one daytime soap opera. Almost half (46 percent) of the respondents watch three or more soaps.

Tuning in to a favorite daytime drama takes top priority over a variety of other activities, the survey found. More than half (54 percent) the teens who responded said they have "refused to go out with family or friends (or have cut a class) because (they) didn't want to miss a soap."

What makes teen girls bubble with such enthusiasm over the soaps?

According to the survey, which was based on 4,000 questionnaires returned by the magazine's readers, more than two-thirds of the respondents (69 percent) said they enjoy getting "involved with the characters' lives."

Twenty percent said they're hooked on daytime dramas because "soaps are romantic."

Teen girls do, however, remain realistic about the content of their favorite shows — only 5 percent said they watch soaps because they "reflect what life is really like."

The survey also reveals that soaps are part of the social life of almost all teen girls. Ninety-four percent of the respondents said the soaps are a topic of conversation with friends. Only 6 percent replied that they don't discuss the latest plot developments with someone else.

While almost all teen girls admit they're addicted to daytime soaps, prime-time soaps appeal to a much smaller segment of teen girls. Four out of 10 said they don't watch any of the evening soaps on a regular basis. Twenty percent watch one nighttime drama regularly, with 23 percent tuning in to three or more.

The survey questionnaire for "Are You Addicted to the Soaps?" appeared in the August issue of Seventeen.

Dr. Wallace: A girl wrote to you and said she was 14 and she had a good friend who was 26 and happened to be a man. She said her parents didn't like the idea that she spent a lot of time with this man. You even said she should not spend my time with him.

What's wrong with two people of different ages being friends and sharing secrets?

Just because the guy was older doesn't mean that he is going to have sex with her. Maybe they discuss classical music or the ballet. I mean, who cares what they talk about?

I'll bet if the female in this case was 26 and the boy was 14, you wouldn't have found anything wrong with the situation. — Wanda Wanda: I think we don't have an agreement on the use of the word friend. It's wonderful for people of all ages to have friends and be friendly with everyone. But 26-year-old adults (regardless of sex) should not be spending a lot of time (any time) with 14-year-olds (regardless of sex) sharing secrets.

In these types of situations the adult, in many cases, has an emotional problem and cannot feel comfortable with his peers.

Dr. Wallace: I have just received my driver's license and just in case it is needed, I'd like to take a course in first aid. Can you please tell me where I can take a first aid course? — Tom Tom: You are a very wise young man. Please contact your nearest Red Cross office, American Heart Association or local fire department.

All of these agencies offer courses in first aid as well as CPR (cardiopulmonary resuscitation). CPR is a technique used to get the heart and lungs working again once they have stopped.

Dr. Wallace: I'm a 17-year-old guy who gets excellent grades and I've never been involved with drugs or alcohol.

I received an A in driver's education and I've never had a ticket. I consider myself a good defensive driver. I'm allowed to use the family automobile but only when one of my parents comes along.

My problem is that I'd like to use the car occasionally for a date but my parents are not too thrilled about it. They did say that if I wrote to you and you gave your blessing, they would reconsider their thoughts. — Manuel

Manuel: Teens who have a valid driver's license, are responsible individuals and possess good, safe driving habits should be permitted the use of the family automobile for special occasions.

Mainly For Seniors

By John T. Watts

Dear John: Please send me your Certo use for arthritis. I am 63 years old, a widow and enjoy your column.

I have a son who is unmarried and lives in the house.

He used to go out and now refuses to leave the house. He is afraid of a lot of things. He's under a doctor's care, but all the doctors say they can't do anything for him.

Tests prove normal. Pills and tranquilizers don't help. They make him worse.

Is there anybody out there that has the same problem?

He can't read (disability learning). When he isn't depressed he does everything, cuts lawn, etc., but now he is just sitting and has refused to do chores for the last three months.

Can you send a good nutritional diet? — A.Z.

Dear A.Z.: You should consult a doctor or nutritionist before taking on a diet. Everyone is a little bit different, you know.

Probably a lot of people have problems similar to yours, but causes vary a great deal, too. We can hardly suggest much for your son through the mail.

You say the doctors can't do anything. Have you taken him to a psychiatrist? His problem may be entirely mental. The rough approach, of course, would be to show him the door and tell him to get out and earn some money.

Since you mentioned the arthritis leaflet, I must explain again — and again — that readers must send a self-addressed, STAMPED envelope. We've been getting some requests with return envelopes unstamped.

Due to our volume of mail we cannot provide envelopes or stamps. Also, a donation helps pay for the printing of leaflets and their handling. And a note in a single envelope asking for the leaflet doesn't help a bit. All we can do is throw it away.

Dear John: Please send me the Certo and vinegar leaflet for arthritis pain and diet for arthritis sufferers. Enclosed is a donation.

Holding an ice cube on a fever blister or cold sore will make it disappear, and seldom it returns. — Alma G.

Dear Alma: Thanks. The ice cube idea may be just what some people need.

Dear John: My complaint is that I itch all over. I do not have a rash — my skin is normal looking.

I have been to several doctors and no one seems to know what it is — or at least they do not tell me. They have given me prescriptions for stuff to rub on and I have bought other products but I still itch.

Maybe some of the people that write to you have the same ailment. If you have anything on this please mail it to me. I have attached a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Anything you can do will help me and I thank you very much — you are doing a great service to the elderly. — Fred T.

Dear Fred: I know just what you're talking about regarding the itch. It is frequently nerves. And scratching just makes it worse. Avoid long hot baths. Taking a quick shower would be better. Perspiring also makes things worse.

For quick temporary relief buy a jar of vitamin E ointment, over the counter, no prescription. My experience is that the dermatologists don't know any more about this condition than you or me.

As to the envelope you sent, we can't use it as you ask. Replies may stretch out over weeks or months. Best thing is to watch the column. We will carry any helpful information in that.

Aunt Tilly's Corner

Last weekend I was in Pennsylvania and I happened to pass by a ski resort with some other members of my family. Although we are not skiers, we thought it would be fun to watch all the activity.

I must say it seemed like fun. It also looked easy to glide down the steep hills with the speed of wind. However, I'm sure it's harder than it looks.

Later in the day, we saw children ice skating on a pond. That was also fun to see.

So you see there is more than one way to enjoy winter sports: by participating or just watching.

Your friend...

Points on Pets

By R.G. Elmore, D.V.M.

It's antifreeze poisoning season

Q. Is antifreeze poisonous to pets? If so, how much would it take to kill a 15-pound dog?

We live near a car repair business. They often discard cans and other junk behind their building. I constantly worry that our dog will wander over there and get poisoned.

A. Poisoning caused by the ingestion of permanent antifreeze mixtures is common in dogs and cats during the fall, winter and spring months when automobile radiators are being drained and antifreeze containers are left open and accessible.

Ethylene or diethylene glycol is the poisoning component of antifreeze used in water-cooled engines. These substances also often are found in brake fluids, hydraulic fluids and rust inhibitors.

Many dogs and cats apparently are attracted by glycol's pleasant, sweet taste and the warming sensation it gives to the tongue. Some animals not fatally poisoned by first encounters with antifreeze actually develop a taste for the compound.

The initial signs seen after antifreeze ingestion usually include trembling or involuntary muscle movements. This usually is followed by vomiting, incoordination, depression, redness of the mouth's membranes, coma and, eventually, death. Blood may be seen in the urine of poisoned animals.

Affected dogs and cats may survive for two to three days after the initial signs of poisoning appear. An animal surviving the early stages of poisoning may appear to recover and then relapse 24 to 36 hours later.

Most animals poisoned by antifreeze have severe kidney damage. Insoluble calcium oxalate crystals form in the tubules of the kidneys.

Because of the similarity of signs, arsenic, garbage and strychnine poisoning easily can be confused with ethylene glycol poisoning.

Treatment for antifreeze poisoning should be started as soon as possible after the animal has consumed the antifreeze. This is an emergency situation. In general, dogs will recover from twice the lethal dose if treatment is started within 12 hours following ingestion. Cats usually respond to treatment for three times the lethal dose if therapy begins within eight hours following ingestion.

The lethal dose for a 20-pound dog is approximately one cup; for a 7-pound cat, approximately 1 ounce. Recovery usually takes several days.

Because it is often difficult to make the diagnosis unless the animal was observed drinking the antifreeze, treatment often is not started soon enough to be effective.

The best way to prevent ethylene glycol poisoning of pets is to store antifreeze only in closed containers and to discard used antifreeze carefully.

Of course it is also the responsibility of pet owners to confine their pets to their property.
