On Wednesday morning, January 23, children from the Hicksville, Bethpage and Plainview Cooperative Nursery Schools joined together to hear folk singer and recording artist, Viki Ann Diamond at a "Sing-a-Long" concert sponsored by the Hicksville Nursery School. Ms. Diamond includes such favorites as "Where's My Pajamas", "Put Your Finger in the Air", and "Hush L'H Baby" in her repertoire. In photo, left to right: Kimberly Nordman, Samantha Boystack, Kristen Norwalk and Mara Silversmith all of Hicksville.

At the recent Thirteenth Annual Testimonial Dinner sponsored by the Young Israel of Plainview, Assemblyman Lewis J. Yevoll (D-Old Bethpage) presented congratulations to the honorees, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Goldman.

Over 100 people attended the dinner, which was held at the East Nassau Hebrew Congregation to pay tribute to Marilyn and Marvin Goldman. The Goldmans have contributed much of their time to the Young Israel of Plainview and the Hebrew Academy of Nassau County. Assemblyman Yevoll presented the Goldmans with a citation from the New York State Assembly and read a letter from Governor Mario M. Cuomo which said in part, "I am pleased to add my congratulations to those of many others who have gathered in your honor. Both of you have earned richly deserved admiration for your many accomplishments."

Income Tax Help At Library

VITA (Volunteer Tax Assistance) will be available at the Hicksville Public Library starting Monday, February 4. Volunteers are from the AARP (American Association of Retired Persons) and various local colleges. VITA is a federally funded program whereby volunteers are trained to provide tax assistance. This service is free. Following is a list of days and times that tax assistance will be available: Sunday (2/10-4/14) 1 p.m.- 5 p.m. Rear of Fiction Room; Monday (2/4-4/15) 10 a.m.-2 p.m. Young Adult Section; Monday (2/11-4/15) 7 p.m.-9 p.m. Rear of Fiction Room; Wednesday (2/6-4/10) 10 a.m.-2 p.m. Young Adult Section; Thursday (2/7-4/11) 9 p.m.-9 p.m. Young Adult Section; Friday (2/8-4/12) 2 p.m.-5 p.m. Rear of Fiction Room; Saturday (2/9-4/13) 10 a.m.-2 p.m. Young Adult Section.

The above are definite at this time. There may be additional volunteers available later. Please pick up a flyer with the listings in the library or call: 931-1417.

The library also has a limited supply of Federal and New York State Tax Forms. If you don't find the form you need, there are sets of every form (Federal and State) that may be copied for 10¢ a copy. Ask at the Circulation Desk for the Master Sets.

East St. School Hosts Comm. Meeting

The Board of Education's Long Range Planning Committee will be hosting a series of meetings this winter and spring at various schools in the district, to review the report which the Board's Long Range Planning consultants recently prepared. The report consists of an analysis of the district's population patterns, and its school facilities, and is designed to provide data needed by the Board of Education and the administration for future planning. The first meeting will be this Wednesday, February 6 at 8:15 p.m., in the East Street School, for the residents of the East Street and Woodland Avenue neighborhoods. All residents in the neighborhoods are invited and encouraged to attend.

Doctor's Burns Caused By Flammable Clothing

Sparks from a match ignited clothing worn by Dr. Walter M. Stillger in the January 22 accident at his Park Avenue office in Hicksville. According to investigating Nassau County Fire Marshal Francis Pendl, the sparks landed on the doctor's tie (a recent Christmas gift) and quickly caught fire and spread rapidly to his shirt. The doctor had not been working with any sprays or vapors as had been previously suspected. The inspector advised that Dr. Stillger's burns affected his upper torso and under arms but that his face escaped injury and there was no inhalation. The Fire Marshal also cautioned consumers to be extremely careful when purchasing clothing that could be made with highly flammable materials.

Dr. Stillger remains in critical but stable condition in the Burn Unit of Nassau County Medical Center with third degree burns. A spokesman there reports his condition is improving and he is in good spirits. The Doctor especially appreciates the cards and get well wishes he has received from so many people.

On Wednesday, January 23, students in the In-Depth Study Program at East Street School enjoyed a "Star-Lab" presentation by Mr. George Brehm who came to our school with an inflatable planetarium. All of us were fascinated as we observed an apparent small nylon carrying bag being transformed into a dome sufficiently large to accommodate about thirty students and teachers.

We crept inside, two at a time, in three second intervals, where we learned about a variety of stars and how their positions in the sky change as the seasons evolve. Mr. Brehm also pointed out the constellations and related stories about mythological figures formed by star patterns.

A most informative and enjoyable afternoon was had by all.

Teachers Receive 14% Over 2 Yrs.

The Hicksville Board of Education and the Hicksville Congress of Teachers signed a Memorandum of Agreement at the Board meeting on Wednesday January 30, concluding contract negotiations which began in July.

Under the terms of the contract which covers the period from July 1, 1984 through June 30, 1986, teachers will receive a salary increase of 7.1% plus increment for the first year and 7.198% plus increment for the second year. Teachers in the district for 25 years and more will also receive longevity payments of $1,000 per year, with additional benefits after 30 and 35 years.

The district will have greater flexibility in transferring teachers to meet the actual needs of the individual schools, and a new evaluation instrument will aid in improving staff performance.

The agreement also provides for the scheduling of a nine period day at the secondary level which will enable the district to meet requirements of the Regents Action Plan.

"We are pleased to join with the HCT in finalizing the contract for our teachers and we are sure that greater morale and dedication on the part of our fine teaching staff will benefit our children", said Board President William P. Bennett.

Letters

To the Editor:

I was sorry to read that Dr. Stillger was badly hurt. For the past few years I've been going to different doctors. I found Dr. Stillger to be the most caring. I have sent him a get well card and reading material. I hope all his patients will do the same.

Sincerely yours,
Karin Frey

To the Editor:

Since coming to the United States in August 1984, as an AFS (American Field Service) exchange student, I've gone through so many experiences, mostly good ones, that I thought I'd share a little bit of it with the other members of my new community, those in Hicksville whom I haven't had a chance to meet, as of yet.

Coming from Portugal, Europe to a totally different environment in the U.S. it was to be expected that I would find some difficulties, missing my family, closest friends and, in brief, all those that were (and are) special and that meant a lot to me. And so during the month of August, while school didn't start despite the best efforts of my wonderful new family (my parents, sister Beth and brother Ira) I was usually sort of gloomy, thinking about what I'd "left behind". Accordingly-a detail which I'm sure my new parents don't like to remember-my phone bill to Arizona (where my girl friend went, also an AFSer) was rather large.

School started though, and all was left behind. All the people in Hicksville High, from teachers to student to members of the Hicksville AFS chapter were extremely kind to me-something I'll never forget-opening their arms to a guy they didn't know. Thus in a few weeks I had made dozens of new friends, some of whom have come to represent to me as much as some of those I left back in Portugal. The relationship with my family, meanwhile, came to be more and more the one one has with one's parent's, brothers and sisters and eventually I met some of my uncles and aunts, cousins and even my grandparents that live in Florida.

After two or three months I was totally adapted to this new life style in America and up till today I've had a terrific stay in the United States. I believe that by having been in contact with its people and way of living I've come to better appreciate the "American way" and to love the United States (a big American flag, a gift from my parents, occupies a position of paramount importance in my room).

I have obviously learned and gained a lot with this experience and the opposite is also true. Those people in Hicksville that I've met have, I believe, also gained something with this experience. Today, with half of my AFS year gone by I can't stop thinking about the day in July which I don't want, but will have to go back...

If by any chance you are interested in hosting a foreign student in your house for one year starting this coming August or for a summer, or in going away for one year (if in school age-11th 12th grade) or simply in knowing more about AFS please feel free to contact Mrs. Edna Edelstein, AFS Family Selection Coordinator, c/o Hicksville Public Schools, Administration Building, Division Avenue, Hicksville, New York 11801

Fernando Camilo

Local Input

Why isn't Supervisor of the Town of Oyster Bay Colby putting through the early retirement incentive for town employees? This is short-changing the citizens of Oyster Bay because we could be saving a lot of money especially when they put an 8% increase in starting January 1, and we have already okayed it for the county last year. Why are we hiring so many consultants in the TOB and paying them at $100 per hour?

Bd. Of Ed Schedules Budget Meetings

The Hicksville Board of Education will hold budget review meetings on Thursday, February 7 and Thursday, February 14. The sessions will take place in the Conference Room of the Administration Building between 7 and 10 p.m. on both evenings.

Superintendent Dr. Catherine J. Fenton presented her proposed 1985-86 budget at the Board meeting of January 30, and the scheduled sessions will give the Board an opportunity to study the document. All interested residents are invited to attend and learn more about the financial plan for the next school year.

LEGAL NOTICE NOTICE TO BIDDERS

Notice is hereby given that Sealed Proposals for the furnishing of custodial services for the office of the Administration Building of the Hicksville Water District will be received by the Board of Commissioners of the Hicksville Water District in the office of the Board at 4 Dean Street, Hicksville, New York, until 4:00 p.m. on February 14, 1985, they will be publicly opened and read at 7:00 p.m.

Specification, Information to Bidders and Proposal Forms may be obtained at the District Office, 4 Dean Street, Hicksville, New York. Each proposal must be accompanied by a certified check or bid bond in the amount of five percent (5%) of the bid amount payable to the Hicksville Water District, as assurance that the bid is made in good faith.

The Board reserves the right to reject any and all bids, waive any informalities, and to accept such bid which in its opinion, is in the best interest of the Water District.

Hicksville Seeks Blood Donors

Two local Hicksville churches, in an effort to increase area blood supplies, are sponsoring blood drives open to the public. All healthy individuals are encouraged to donate at either of the scheduled drives. Holy Family Church will host its blood drive on Wednesday, February 6 from 3:30 p.m. to 8:15 p.m. A Long Island Blood Services bloodmobile will be set up in the Holy Family school cafeteria, located at 20 Fordham Avenue.

A team of Long Island Blood Services nurses will also be on hand at the blood drive being sponsored by St. Ignatius Church on Thursday, February 7. This will be held in the old school cafeteria, located on East Nicholas Street, from 4 p.m. to 9:15 p.m. Donating blood is an easy and safe procedure. Each donor will receive a mini-physical that checks blood pressure, temperature and pulse. At the end of the donation, cookies, juice, coffee and tea will be served.

If you are in good health, weigh a minimum of 110 pounds, and are between the ages of 17 and 66 you can donate blood.

Within hours of each blood drive, Long Island Blood Services laboratory technicians will process the blood so that it can be distributed to hospitals throughout Nassau and Suffolk counties.

LEGAL NOTICE NOTICE TO BIDDERS

Robert Koenig Cooks For Inauguration

Robert Koenig

Robert Koenig was one of sixty students chosen from the Johnson & Wales Culinary Arts College to assist with food preparation at Inaugural Activities held from January 18 through 20 in Washington, D.C.

Each student was assigned to a participating restaurant and assisted with the production and serving of each establishment's house specialty. Robert was assigned to the kitchen serving the Hollywood personalities present for the gala festivities.

Opened in 1972, the Culinary Arts Division of Johnson & Wales College, Providence, Rhode Island, is now the world's largest food service educational facility with an enrollment of more than 2300 students in its two-year degree program in culinary arts, pastry arts, and hotel food and beverage management.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Koenig, 101 Cambridge Drive, Hicksville, Robert is a graduate of Hicksville High School and Nassau Community College.

Kiwanis To Dist. Surplus Cheese

Presenting 170 Reasons to Enroll in TESTTAKERS S.A.T. Review

For several years we have been helping students on Long Island and Staten Island dramatically increase their SAT scores. Last spring our students improved their SAT scores by an average of 170 points. This term we again bring our dynamic Ivy League instructors and sophisticated techniques to Long Island.

We will offer the same small classes (10-12 students per instructor, grouped according to ability) as always. Our unique computer analysis of facsimile SAT's pinpoints your child's weaknesses, enabling him to receive extra attention in the areas of greatest benefit. And our celebrated vocabulary flash cards contain the most frequently appearing words on the SAT.

Enrolling your child in Testtakers will help him reach his full potential in the SAT. And that may be the most important reason of all.

Q. Maybe I'm getting involved where I shouldn't be, but let me ask you a question. (I hope you'll put me "in my place" if I'm off base.)

Our son is 8 years old, and I have a feeling that he isn't into a very good start in reading. He just doesn't seem to be interested, although he does appear to have the necessary skills.

I'm not criticizing his teachers at all, but I wonder if there is anything I can do to help give some kind of reading "spark" to him.

Do you know what I mean?
 A. Yes, I do — and first of all a compliment to you for your expressed concern and also for not loading teachers with a possible cause for that concern. They're sometimes responsible, of course, but certainly not to the extent that they are blamed.

You might start with his current teacher. Does your son show any reading interests in school, and if so, in what direction? What reading materials does the teacher recommend? Which ones are for your boy to read, and are there others that perhaps you or your husband or wife and he can read together?
 A specific source you might check out at your local library or order directly is "Your Child Can Be a Super Reader" by Len Kusnetz. Its emphasis is on the enjoyment of reading, with the major target being children from about third grade on up. Positive feelings about reading is the author's goal. This paperback book includes extensive reading lists and practical hints for parent involvement.

Its publisher is Learning House Publishers, 38 South St., Roslyn Heights, NY 11577 ($5.95, plus $1 postage).

Q. Some wonderful friends have been very close to us for many years. They have three children and so do we. Ours are older (fortunately), especially when I think about their 2-year-old.
 He's a darling little boy, but they refuse to leave him at home when we get together at our house. When he comes with them he gets into everything. I'm continually worried about our expensive dinnerware as well as his safety (he's a constant climber).

We used to have such enjoyable times, playing bridge or going out to dinner with them, but those days seem to be gone for good.

A. Since they are good trienos, have you tried the direct approach, basing it on how much you miss "the old days"? Is there some reason they can't or don't want to get a baby sitter?

It doesn't sound as though you're being unreasonable in expecting them to leave the youngster at home.

Open House At Trinity Lutheran

February has been designated as Lutheran Schools Month by the Lutheran Schools Association. Trinity Lutheran School, 40 W. Nicholas Street, Hicksville, will give special emphasis to this event by having Open House during the week of February 4-7.

The community is invited to visit the school, which is well known for its excellent educational program. Open House hours for grades 1-8, are from 9 a.m. to Noon; Nursery and Kindergarten are from 9-11:15 a.m., and 12:30-2:45 on February 4, 5, 6, and 7.

In addition to the strong educational program the curriculum includes special instruction in art, music, computer, reading and physical education. Various cultural art events sponsored by the Parent Teacher Friends Association enhances the program. Staff and teachers work hard to provide a caring atmosphere for the students spending time with them individually as the need arises.

Call 931-2211 if the Open House hours are inconvenient for you or if you desire more information. Applications for the 1985-86

School year are being accepted at this time. The school is located north of Old Country Road on the corner of Jerusalem Avenue and W. Nicholas Street in Hicksville.

Your Social Security

A special rule for new retirees

Q. I hope to retire in 1985 at age 62. If I work a portion of the year how will the limitations on earnings be figured? — F.M.N.

A. You can receive all benefits due you for the year if your earnings do not exceed the 1985 annual exempt amount that will be $5,400 for people under 65.

There is a special one-time rule that allows people who retire during the year to receive benefits for the remainder of the year regardless of their earnings before retirement. You can get a full benefit for any month your wages do not exceed the monthly exempt amount, which is $450 for the year 1985 for those under age 65.

Q. I plan to retire in June 1985 at age 65. I emigrated from Mexico in 1950 and have since become a U.S. citizen. What must I do to apply for retirement benefits? — G.P.R.

A. It is necessary that you submit proof of your date of birth. You should write to Mexico for your birth record if you do not already have it in your possession.

In addition you should submit your W-2 (Wage and Tax Statement) for the years 1983 and 1984. Contact your local Social Security office in March or April to file for benefits.

Do not delay filing if you don't have the necessary proof. The office will assist you.

Q. I am a 57-year-old disabled widow collecting Social Security from my late husband's Social Security number. I have a few dollars in the bank, own my own house and 4 acres of land.

If I sell a piece of my property to my son and he deposits money from the sale every month in a separate bank account in my name, will this affect my Social Security in any way? — C.W.V.

A. Receipt of added income does not affect your entitlement to Social Security benefits.

However, if you were getting Supplemental Security Income, which provides payment to disabled people who have little or no income or resources, receipt of added income could affect your entitlement.

Q. I understand that part of my Social Security benefits may be taxable income for 1984 and that I will receive a statement.

Will the Social Security benefit statement (Form 1099) come in the mail with my January check? — B.S.V.

A. No, the Social Security benefit statement (Form 1099) will be mailed separately to you sometime during the month of January. You should receive it by Jan. 31, 1985.

THE OFFICE CAT

By Gabby Tabby

WITH inflation rates in the low 4 percent range annually taxpayers will have to wonder about raises being given to civil service and teacher unions in the 7 and 10 percent range.....LOOKS like Angelo Delligati of Massapequa will be chosen to fill the Town Board seat left vacant when Sal Mosca of Bethpage became judge. The town was looking for a woman to put on the Board but couldn't find one in the party so they took Delligati but now they have upset the geographical representation with no one from Bethpage.....THE SOUTH Woodbury Taxpayers Assn. has sent a letter to the Town Board informing it that they will be in favor of the builder, House Beautiful, putting up 43 units (instead of 41) on the Green Hill parcel on Jericho Turnpike west of Piquets Lane so long as Kristi Lane remains in one-half acre zoning and there would be no ingress or egress on Piquets Lane. The Town Board is expected to go along.....THE TOWN, for some reason, did not go along yet on the State one-time early retirement plan which could save taxpayers money by replacing long time high paid employees with lower pay ones through early retirement. The Town could have allowed the retirements beginning Jan. 1 but has not done anything yet.....AFTER 25 years of talk the Town is still getting ready to improve the zoning of Broadway, Hicksville. It has already turned down one builder's plans and still has no zoning that is workable.....THE POLICE REPORT is published each week to alert local residents of where crime is taking place in the area. Anyone seeing suspicious activity should phone 911: BURGLARS smashed the front window of Broadway Video 363 Broadway, Bethpage between Jan. 20 and 21. They entered and stole cash and a VCR.....THE REAR door of the Busch residence 66 Eleventh St., Hicksville was pried open on Jan. 22. Burglars went into the house and stole a 19 in. TV and a diamond ring.....TWO WHITE gold diamond rings were stolen from the Scarpati home 116 Thorn Drive, Bethpage on Jan. 24. Burglars entered through the rear door.....GLASS in the rear door of the Lipow residence was broken on Jan. 22. Burglars entered and stole prescription drugs.....A VCR and jewelry were stolen from the Merson residence 5 Kay St. Jericho on Jan. 25. A rear door was pried open to gain entry.....BURGLARS broke into the Greenberg residence 15 Sparrow Lane, Woodbury on Jan. 26. Entry was gained by breaking glass in a rear window. Cash was stolen.....ON JAN. 28 burglars broke into the Applebaum home, 43 Miller Blvd., Syosset. Jewelry was stolen.....BURGLARS kicked their way into the rear garage of P.C. Richard 203 South Service Rd., Plainview between Jan. 21 and 22. The loss is unknown.....CASH was stolen from Budget Uniforms at Mid Island Plaza, Hicksville between Jan. 23 and 24. The method of entry is unknown.....AND on the same date burglars visited Butler Shoes at Mid Island and stole cash.....CASH, jewelry and a cash register were stolen from Steffi's 336 N. Broadway, Hicksville between Jan. 27 and 28. A front door was pried open to gain entry.....That's all the news for now...G.T.

Gregory Museum Celebrates Anniv.

The Hicksville Gregory Museum's new Long Island Geology Exhibit area was dedicated to the memory of museum volunteer, the late Eugene V. Mann, during the Museum's Annual Workers' Party and 22nd Anniversary, Sunday. Mrs. Eugene V. Mann, center, is shown with Richard Evers, Museum Assistant Director and program Master of Ceremonies, and her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Mann, holding a certificate honoring her husband, a business executive and linguist who was an enthusiastic museum volunteer worker.

John Collis and Maryann Bishop of the professional singing group The Wassailers entertained a sizable gathering at this past Sunday's 22nd Anniversary and Workers Party at the Hicksville Gregory Museum.

Mercy League Honors Vols

The Glen Cove, Hicksville, Syosset League of Mercy Hospital expresses its appreciation to all of the members who give time and themselves to work as volunteers. Being a member in the League is one thing but a few of the members volunteer in Mercy Hospital in the Gift Shop and work with patients. The League also runs a Saturday morning Bingo in Hicksville. A great number of women volunteer every week to work the Bingo games which enables the League to raise money for Mercy Hospital.

On November 18, a ceremony was held at Mercy Hospital honoring the volunteers. At this event Geri Parick received a 1000 hour pin and Val Carmody, Stella Gavil and Clara Hartmann received their 100 hour pins.

The Glen Cove, Hicksville, Syosset League was saddened by the sudden death of Marie Denig of Plainview, a very dear and faithful member. Marie, who volunteered in Mercy Hospital and at Bingo had over 2200 volunteer hours.

Pottery Exhibit At Library

The Hicksville Public Library will have an exhibit of pottery crafted by Edith Ross and provided by the Rotational Art Exhibits from the Town of Oyster Bay, Department of Community Services, Cultural and Performing Arts Division during the month of February. It will be on display in the Fiction Room of the library and may be seen during regular library hours.

During the month of February, and also provided by the Rotational Arts Exhibit from the Town of Oyster Bay, Department, of Community Services, Cultural and Performing Arts Division, there will be an exhibit of oil paintings by Alfreda Marciano in the Community Room of the library. They may be seen between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. daily and Saturday, and 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. on Sundays.

Lisa Monheit In Concert

The Hicksville Public Library will present a concert featuring Contralto, Lisa Monheit, on Sunday, February 3 at 3 p.m. in the Community Room of the library. Miss Monheit will be accompanied by Elizabeth Hastings. Miss Monheit will sing selections by Schumann, Copland Tchaikovsky, Faure and others.

Miss Monheit is a graduate of Manhattan School of Music and has performed extensively throughout the New York area. Ms. Hastings is on the Music faculty of Mannes and has performed in many capacities including accompanist, coach and conductor.

This concert will be held in the Community Room of the library. There is no charge for admission and everyone is invited.

Gas Attendant Robbed By Gunman

At 3:50 a.m., January 26, Lawrence Ziembicki Jr., 27, 32 Montana Street, Hicksville, attendant at the Mobil Gas Station, Mid Island Shopping Center, Hicksville, was confronted by a male white, who had asked for change of five dollars.

When Ziembicki took the money out of his pocket to give change, the suspect pulled a small caliber revolver and pointed it at the attendant's head, demanding all the money. Ziembicki complied and handed over $115 dollars.

The suspect described as male, white, 5' 10" tall, 150 pounds, dark brown hair, wearing dungarees and sneakers, fled in a yellow Chevrolet caprice, parked nearby with another suspect driving. No shots were fired and no one injured.

Youth Council Offers Employment

In an effort to alleviate the stress of unemployment the Hicksville Youth Council offers a free employment program to local businesses and youth between 16 and 21 years of age. All storekeepers and business people are encouraged to list their job openings with Cynthia Sosa, the Employment Coordinator. All applicants are interviewed prior to referral, and job readiness skills are provided when needed. Young people can also find help with job counseling and resume writing.

A Rent-A-Kid program is also available to local homeowners and teens between 14 and 16 years old. These industrious youngsters will perform various odd jobs that you may need help with. We have snow shovelers who are ready and anxiously awaiting another Arctic Storm to come our way.

If you feel the Youth Council could be of service to you, please call 822-7594, Monday thru Friday. We provide the link that is so necessary in establishing a positive work experience.

Hicksville Weekend Soccer Tournament

By A. Blicker

Saturday, January 19 was a proud day for the Hicksville Shamrocks 1974 traveling soccer team, as they dominated the Hicksville Indoor Soccer Tournament. The Shamrocks entered two seven-men teams, the "Red", led by goaltender Brian Pine, picked as the most valuable goaltender in the Tournament by the referees; and the "White", led by goaltender Eddie Jacobsen, who got stronger with each successive game.

The "Red" went undefeated in the five game preliminary series, tying North Babylon 1-1 with Joe Flanagan, a sensation throughout the Tournament, scoring the big goal and having another taken away on a disputed call. They then defeated Northport 2-1 behing goals by David Lovato and Jared Jacobs. Game three was a 4-1 route of Rockville Centre, with Chris Doyle putting in two, while Jared Jacobs and Joe Flanagan scored the others. Game four was a brilliant defensive battle with Chris Doyle's goal beating New Hyde Park. Game five was a 2-0 thrashing of Auburndale on two goals by Chris Doyle. The "Reds" had extreme pressure on them entering this game, for they knew they had to shut out Auburndale for the "White" team to make the Semi-Finals. They continually rose to the challenge. In addition to the goal scorers, the "Reds" were assisted by the great defense of Brian Harkins and the aggressive play of wing Eric Blicker.

The "White" lost their first game in a defensive bout with Rockville Centre 1-0. They then got soundly beat by New Hyde Park 3-0, but this result brought out the best in the "White" team, for they weren't to be stopped for the balance of the Tournament. The third game was a 0-0 tie with North Babylon. Game four was another great defensive contest, with "White" winning 2-1 behind two goals by Todd Meringoff, over Northport. The fifth game followed a similar script, with goals by Ted Knoop and Matthew Pordum leading to a victory over Cow Harbor. Hicksville "Whites" were assisted by Gregg Gruosso, who was outstanding at fullback, Jason Kingsley, who constantly made his presence felt, and Gregg Furst, who had a very strong tournament offensively and defensively.

The Semi-Finals pitted the Hicksville "Red" in first place against Hicksville "White" in fourth place. "White" prevailed 2-1, behind the skillful goaltending of Eddie Jacobsen, on goals by Matthew Pordum and Todd Meringoff. The "Red" goal was scored by Jared Jacobs. Rockville Centre overwhelmed New Hyde Park 3-1 in the other Semi-Final, setting up a final between themselves and the Hicksville "Whites". In a pulsating defensive finish, the "Whites" captured the Tournament in sudden death overtime on Todd Meringoff's second goal of the final 2-1.

Congratulations to the Shamrocks, coach John Flanagan and assistants Peter Knoop and Patrick Harkins, for an outstanding day of Shamrock Power!

On Sunday, January 20, eight members of the Shamrocks traveled to Commack to participate in their Indoor Soccer Tournament. Hicksville continued the outstanding soccer shown on Saturday, winning the first two games by scores of 3-1 over Smithtown and 2-0 over the Northport "White" squad. The third game was a heartbreaking 2-1 loss to the Northport "Blue" team, resulting in a fourth place finish for the Shamrocks.

Joe Flanagan played an outstanding series at goal during the tourney. Todd Meringoff and Brian Harkins provided his defensive support through brilliant play at fullback, including many booming kicks at the opposition's goal. Chris Doyle at striker was at his offensive best, with two goals in each of the first two games. Eddie Jacobsen put on a strong show at wing, including the Shamrocks first goal on a beautiful Brian Harkins pass. David Lovato had a fine series at wing, as a constant thorn in the opposition's side. Jason Kingsley made the ball and the opposition-move through strong wing play. Eric Blicker was his ever aggressive self at wing, scoring a big goal in the final game as the Shamrocks placed unbelievable pressure on Northport in the second half while attempting to tie the game. Thanks, Shamrocks, for your lion-hearted efforts and for the hustle that never let up throughout the series.

Hicksville PO Sponsors Contest

Roger Nienaber, Hicksville Manager/Postmaster invites Hicksville, Plainview and Old Bethpage students from Kindergarten to sixth grade to design valentines. The best designs will be displayed in the lobby of the main Post Office at 185 West John Street.

Winning valentine designers will receive a stamp collecting kit and a special valentine love stamp commemorative folder. Entries must be submitted to the Hicksville Post Office, Public Affairs Office, 185 West John Street, by 5 p.m. Friday, February 8. Prizes for the best entry in each grade will be awarded on Valentine's Day, February 14.

I SIT AND THINK AND
remember the conversations of the many people who have called to inquire about Gentle Beginnings. They said they "Felt our spirit" and the fact that we care. Gentle Beginnings is trying to tear down the fences that are keeping decent, single people apart and alone. Many are alone because they just don't know where to find quality companionship in a moral setting. We are moral, totally ethical and very gentle - and we also are outgoing, with a spirit of fun. We will send our literature to you if you request it. Write to Gentle Beginnings, a new social organization at 821 Franklin Ave., Garden City, N.Y. 11530 or call 746-2724. LEGAL NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that the Town Board of the Town of Oyster Bay, Nassau County, New York, at a meeting held on January 22, 1985, duly adopted the resolution published herewith, subject to a permissive referendum. Dated: Oyster Bay, New York, January 22, 1985.

ANN R. OCKER

Town Clerk
RESOLUTION NO. 87-1985
BOND RESOLUTION DATED
JANUARY 22, 1985.

A RESOLUTION AUTHORIZING THE ISSUANCE OF $5,590,750 SERIAL BONDS AND $294,250 CAPITAL NOTES OF THE TOWN OF OYSTER BAY, NASSAU COUNTY, NEW YORK, TO PAY THE COST OF THE CONSTRUCTION OF VARIOUS IMPROVEMENTS AT REFUSE DISPOSAL PLANTS AND AREAS AND LANDFILLS THROUGHOUT AND IN AND FOR SAID TOWN.

BE IT RESOLVED, by the Town Board of the Town of Oyster Bay, Nassau County, New York, as follows:

Section 1. The class of objects or purposes to be financed pursuant to this resolution is the reconstruction by the Town of Oyster Bay, Nassau County, New York, of various improvements at refuse disposal plants and areas and landfills throughout and in and for said Town.

Section 2. The maximum estimated cost of such class of objects or purposes is $5,885,000, and the plan for the financing thereof is as follows:

a) By the issuance of $5,590,750 serial bonds of said Town, hereby authorized to be issued pursuant to the Local Finance Law; and

b) By the issuance of $294,250 capital notes of said Town hereby authorized to be issued pursuant to the Local Finance Law. Such capital notes shall be sold at private sale and all further powers in connection with the details and the sale thereof are hereby delegated to the Supervisor, the chief fiscal officer, in accordance with the Local Finance Law. Pursuant to Section 107.00 of the Local Finance Law, the proceeds from the sale of such capital notes will be provided prior to the issuance of the bonds herein authorized or bond anticipation notes. Said capital notes shall constitute the down payment required by Section 107.00 of the Local Finance Law.

Section 3. It is hereby determined that the period of probable usefulness of the aforesaid class of objects or purposes is twenty years, pursuant to subdivision 6-a of paragraph a of Section 11.00 of the Local Finance Law. It is hereby further determined that the maximum maturity of the serial bonds herein authorized will exceed five years.

Section 4. Subject to the provisions of the Local Finance Law, the power to authorize the issuance of and to sell bond anticipation notes in anticipation of the issuance and sale of the serial bonds herein authorized, including renewals of such notes, is hereby delegated to the Supervisor, the chief fiscal officer. Such notes shall be of such terms, form and contents, and shall be sold in such manner, as may be prescribed by said Supervisor, consistent with the provisions of the Local Finance Law.

Section 5. The faith and credit of said Town of Oyster Bay, Nassau County, New York, are hereby irrevocably pledged to the payment of the principal and interest on such obligations as the same respectively become due and payable. An annual appropriation shall be made in each year sufficient to pay the principal and interest on such obligations becoming due and payable in such year.

Section 6. The validity of such bonds, capital notes and bond anticipation notes may be contested only if:

1) Such obligations are authorized for an object or purpose for which said Town is not authorized to expend money; or

2) The provisions of law which should be complied with at the date of publication of this resolution are not substantially complied with, and an action, suit or proceeding contesting such validity is commenced within twenty days after the date of such publication; or

3) Such obligations are authorized in violation of the provisions of the Constitution.

Section 7. Upon this resolution taking effect, the same shall be published in full in Massapequa Post, Mid Island Times, Syosset Tribune, & Locust Valley Leader, together with a notice of the Town Clerk in substantially the form provided in Section 81.00 of the Local Finance Law.

Section 8. This resolution is adopted subject to permissive referendum in accordance with Section 35.00 of the Local Finance Law.

News From Road Runners

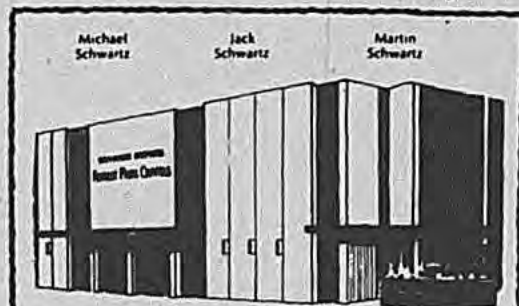

Twenty-seven members of the Plainview-Old Bethpage Road Runners Club were among the nearly 400 runners who competed in the January 19 "Snowflake Run" at the Long Beach Boardwalk, and eight of them came home with trophies.

POBBRRC's women (and the Fast Feet Racing Team in particular) did especially well in the four mile event, taking the top three places overall and six out of the top ten women's spots. Debi Daugherty (24:58) was the top female finisher overall, Margaret Bertram (25:42) was second, and Nancy Grever was third. Joanne Gallo (26:44) was 5th woman overall and 3rd behind Debi and Nancy in the 30-39 age group. Pam Grever (26:47) was 6th overall and 2nd in the 13-19 age group. Liz Flahavan (27:41) was 9th overall. Erica Gassen (31:16) was 2nd in the 40-49 age group and Connie Snyder (41:49) took 2nd honors among the 50-59 year old women.

John Grever and Rich Cazakoff were the first Club members to cross the finish line, and Mal Bertram was POBBRRC's only male trophy winner, taking the 1st place trophy in the 50-59 age group.

Lions Club Offers Blood Donor Info

The Hicksville Lions will be holding their annual Blood Drive at the Elks Club located on 80 East Barclay Street, Hicksville. The date is February 20 from 4 to 8:45 p.m. and they would like to see a large turnout due to the importance of maintaining the blood supply for the sick and injured.

In view of the fact that there are some misconceptions among citizens concerning the donation of blood, a few of the most common questions released by the Greater New York Blood Program will be published this week.

How do I know if I can give blood?

If you are between the ages of 17 through 65, weigh at least 110 pounds and are in good health, chances are that you can give blood. Every prospective donor is given a mini-medical examination on donation day to determine his or her eligibility.

Can I spare the blood?

Yes, a donation consists of a pint of blood, and the body begins to replace it immediately. Giving a unit of blood in no way weakens your system.

Must I eat before donating?

Yes, eat at your regular meal time. Do not miss a meal, and drink extra fluids before donation. If that is within 4 hours before you are to donate, avoid foods high in fat content such as butter, cream and fried potatoes. We have jellybeans and other refreshments on hand that you can eat before donating.

Will I lose weight?

No, your normal volume of blood returns within 24 hours.

Can I give half a pint of blood if I weigh under 110 pounds?

We do not collect less than a pint as this amount is rarely called for by the hospitals and would require specially prepared bags.

Is it possible to donate two pints at one time?

No. However, you can give a pint now and another in eight weeks. In fact, you can donate blood up to five times a year.

Can a donation be made during my period?

Yes, if you are feeling well. Can a donation be made by a person who uses drugs or smokes pot?

Not if drugs are taken by needle or not while the person is under their influence.

What effect does the Birth Control pill have on donating?

None.

Can I donate if my parent is a Diabetic? An Epileptic? Has Cancer?

Yes. Can I donate if I've had my ears pierced?

Yes, if it was done in a doctor's office with sterile equipment. Otherwise, you can donate six months after the procedure.

What if I've had hepatitis?

Regulations currently require that persons with a medical history of hepatitis may not serve as blood donors.

Why do you go through so much trouble to determine who can give blood?

The GNYBP is a health care facility and our first concern is the safety of both the donors and the recipients.

What's going to happen?

The process for donating blood is divided into four parts:

1. Registration - You will be asked to provide some basic information such as your name, address, age and so on.

2. Mini-medical - First, a medical history is taken to find out if there is anything that might affect your eligibility to be a blood donor. Then a drop of blood is analyzed and your pulse, blood pressure and temperature are checked.

3. Donation - The actual donation of a pint of blood takes only five to ten minutes. The insertion of the needle feels similar to a mild pinch and there is no sensation involved while the blood is being taken. A phlebotomist (medical person) will be with you through the entire experience.

4. Canteen - This is refreshment and relaxation time. After 10 or 15 minutes you can be on your way to continue your normal activities.

What if you refuse to take my blood?

This sometimes happens. Very often, it is for a temporary condition such as a cold or a recent surgical procedure or illness. The nurse will tell you how long you must wait before you can donate and ask you to please come back. If a condition such as ever having hepatitis permanently prevents you from donating, the nurse will inform you of this and thank you for coming.

Do you test the blood for all kinds of disease?

No. Tests are performed for syphilis and hepatitis. If something is wrong with my blood, how do I find out?

If there are positive syphilis or hepatitis results, notification would be made by mail.

Will I feel dizzy or weak?

No, but reactions can occur. This happens infrequently, and they are usually minor.

Can I participate in sports after donation? Go to class? Go to my Job?

Yes. You can resume normal activities.

When can I smoke?

Please wait 30 minutes after donating.

Can I find out my blood type?

Yes. A Blood Donor Card with your blood type on it will be sent to you the first time you donate. Please bring this card with you when you come again.

What percentage of the population has my blood type?

If you are O Rh positive 39%; Rh negative 6%; A Rh positive 35%; Rh negative 5%; B Rh positive 8%; Rh negative 2%; AB Rh positive 4%; Rh negative 1%.

Is my blood type needed?

Yes! A blood transfusion is a transplant of living tissue, and, as with transplanted organs, must be matched to the recipient's blood type. So, as you can see, every blood type is important to the patient who must have it.

What if I, or someone I know, needs blood?

Since blood is perishable, the blood supply must be constantly replenished. This means that when you donate blood, it will be available for people who need it soon. If you, a friend or relative need it at another time, it will be supplied by donors participating in blood drives that are being conducted at that time.

As you can understand, we must all work together so that there is always an adequate supply of blood for patients that need it.

Hicksville Arson Suspect Arrested

A 27 year old plumbing mechanic from Hicksville was arrested in Hicksville at 11:09 a.m. January 25, charged with Arson Third Degree.

Louis J. Brigandi, of 6 Cedar Street, had allegedly used a molotov cocktail in damaging the roof of Steve's Luncheonette, at 388 West John Street, Hicksville, at 3 a.m. on January 12. Damage to the roof was extensive.

Quality Or Quantity?

When you advertise in a subscription newspaper you get quality readership. You know that EVERY copy of the newspaper has been invited into the home and three to four people will most likely read it.

When you buy quantity the only thing you might be sure of is that it has been hung on door knobs or thrown on lawns all over the neighborhood.

With our newspapers YOU ONLY PAY FOR COPIES that will be read. It is this quality that produces results. Do not waste money on wasted copies. Advertise here and get results.

Our (not so secret) ingredient
Readers = Results is the reason we are preferred over the largest metropolitan newspapers and the many throwaways.

THE QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Which side do you think won in the Sharon Vs. Time magazine lawsuit?

Ariel Sharon

"I'm really 'Mr. Nice Guy'."

Call 931-0027 24 Hrs. a Day

Ground Rules

You are not limited to the above

but may talk on any subject of interest to readers.

•One subject to a caller per week•

Simply dial 931-0027-24 Hours a Day and follow these simple rules:

1. Wait for the beep.
2. Confine your INPUT to one subject.
3. Limit your opinion to five minutes (make notes before calling)
4. Leave your name and telephone, or simply use a pen name. (your message can be anonymous)
5. Publishers reserve the right to edit, modify or omit any and all material.

Most Callers To Input Think Student Searches OK

Most callers to Input believe that the Supreme Court ruling allowing student searches in schools is justified in answer to this question: "What is your opinion of the Supreme Court ruling allowing students to be searched by faculty members without a court order?"

WILL HELP

Yes. I am in agreement that the faculty at some time has to take drastic action such as searching student lockers to see if weapons or narcotics are being smuggled into the school. As it has been in some schools, faculty members did not know how far they could go in tracking down marijuana and other things and therefore they could do very little to control all sources. This will help a great deal. G.F.

WATCHING CLOSELY

I do not think that the Supreme Court ruling will change many things in our school. We were able to ferret out contraband by watching closely. If we have to now open lockers this may be some help but I cannot remember when it would have meant anything in the past. L.E.

HELP IN CITY

I work in a New York City school and I believe this new ruling will be of great help. We have a few very unruly students and we do not know what they are smuggling into the school. We have to be sure that knives and other weapons are not present. Right now it is difficult unless you actually see the knife to do anything about it. This will give us a chance to be one up on the student who wants to wreck our schools. D.W.

CAREFUL USAGE

This ruling gives a great amount of power to teachers but I assume that each administration will handle it with advance rulings so that the ruling will not be abused and lead to other changes. I would think that extreme circumstances such as searching students or lockers would be carried out by a team of teachers so that the individual teacher will not be in jeopardy or take advantage of situations. Otherwise this is a needed ruling. J.W.

NOT NEEDED

It is not a particularly good example of how our democracy can work for students to be searched. If we do not believe in democracy ourselves just how are we going to teach the students to act when they leave school. There was no reason to make a ruling that will violate students' rights. We cannot search citizens outside of the school to control crime, then how can we justify this intrusion? K.D.

OTHER RIGHTS

Because schools are attended by youngsters, the teachers have to prove who is in charge. In many places the lenient method is not working and it is depriving other students from getting an education which they have a right to. Therefore, I cannot see how the rights of troublemakers should be respected. They don't care for other people's rights. L.W.

CRIME PREVENTIVE

We are concerned about the pyramiding increase in crime and in particular "street crimes" which to a large extent, are perpetrated by young people. In this category, I include graffiti on buildings and conveyances; mugging and rip-offs on the street and in public places; shop-lifting; personal injury; rape; carrying and using concealed weapons - knives, guns, any implement which can maim or destroy; the use and sale of and traffic in drugs; "push-in" crimes in apartment houses; planned robberies and assassinations; - maybe I've overlooked a few. We read and hear a lot about the lack or poor quality of proper and adequate education as the underlying cause of this rash of youthful lawlessness. While this cannot be denied, one doesn't hear too much about disciplinary measures being emphasized in the schools as a preventive of crime mainly, of course, because there would be a hue and cry raised by indignant parents and civil liberties groups. But the fact is that often the tools of crime or illegal possessions are in fact located on the person or in the locker of the student waiting to be used and in my judgement, these fall within the responsibility by jurisdiction of the school officialdom. Hence, I fully concur with the Supreme Court ruling enabling faculty members to search students without a court order and I am confident that the language of the order contains adequate safeguards against unreasonable search. P.G.S.

Basement Blues

By Shirley Sanders

Remember the promise you made to yourself one sunny day. The next rainy or snowy day, be as it may, you were going down to the basement and sort through all the clothing and boxes that have been stored there since you moved in twenty years ago. Well, well, well! Came a storm and not a creature was stirring except a little demon who whispered in your ear, "This is it! Time to rise and shine. Get to that basement! Get rid of that junk you promised yourself twenty years ago that you would dispose of as soon as you settled into your new house."

Down you drag your unwilling self to the nice, neat orderly basement. Boxes numbered one to forty are piled in corners where the movers lovingly placed them. Three wardrobes packed full of clothes are in another corner waiting hopefully to be opened and peered at carefully.

Here goes! Start with the boxes. Your husband and you did some job sealing them. Did you expect a gorilla to be stomping on them? Wasting thirty minutes looking for a sharp implement, you manage to open the carton after breaking three fingernails that took you four weeks and $70 to grow.

What buried treasure will be revealed in box #1?

Why in the world did you bother to pack those chipped dishes? You even lovingly wrapped each in layers of tissue paper. What fantastic project did you have in mind twenty years ago for those chipped dishes? Maybe, you ought to go back to the Guinness Book of Records of 1964 and see what the latest fad was then.

Well, on to box #2. What goodies are you going to find in this hermetically sealed carton? After prying, tearing, tugging and two more broken fingernails and $40 more thrown down the drain, you manage to rip asunder the box spewing its contents all over the floor.

Did you know that you could probably spend the rest of your life sweeping up sawdust and polyurethane squares? What evil, demented person invented that hazard to your mental health? Aren't newspapers good enough? Granted that everything you pack, including your hands, face, clothing, and surrounding area get full of smudgy ash, at least newspapers are easily collected.

By the time you get to box #4, your basement looks as if a mad burglar, and I do mean insane, has ravaged and decorated your basement with his upchuck.

Not easily discouraged, you vow that you'll get back to the cartons as soon as you do the closets. You rationalize that if you don't straighten up, your aching, creaking body will remind you about your efforts for the next agonizing week.

That little demon is no longer whispering in your ear. He's hiding someplace, afraid of your reaction to his urging you to fulfill your promises.

On to the closets. Shouldn't be a rough job. All you have to do is open each closet, see what's inside and decide what to do with the contents.

Oh, oh! What's the little notch in the center of the closet door? Could it possibly be a keyhole? How brilliant of you. A keyhole needs a key, doesn't it? You know like a shoe needs a lace, like a window needs a pane, like a needle needs thread.

Now to find the key. Is it on the shelf filled with baby food jars stuffed with miscellany? Is it in your junk drawer waiting to be de-junked? After twenty years, all memory of where the key could be has escaped you completely. What are you going to do now? Certainly not walk away defeated by a clothes' closet.

With screwdriver in hand, you pry and prod and bang and tug and finally force the door off its hinges. The door clatters out and you tumble back and trip landing hard on your ankle and knee.

The demon is invisible. He has disappeared by now. Dragging yourself up from the floor, bruised, battered, drenched with perspiration, weary from attempting to fulfill your promise, you haul yourself wearily up the stairs leaving chaos and good intentions behind you. After a long, hot bath, into bed you go convinced you should never have left it in the first place.

Fit For Gods

For truly great Northern Italian Cuisine, I would heartily recommend Dario's Piccola Trieste Restaurant, on Hempstead Turnpike in West Hempstead. We were there recently and had Frutta Di Mare, (a seafood salad) plus broiled Veal Chop served with a fresh vegetable that was really a treat. My partner had the Salmon Steak Dijon, served with a boiled potato, shoe string carrots accompanied with warm Italian bread. Our dessert consisted of Fresh Strawberries with hot zabaglione, cafe espresso with Sambucca. It was a meal fit for the gods. Incidentally, we have known Dario for many years in Manhasset, and if you want to try something different, don't hesitate to confer with him. *E.E.

Special Place
 The Cafe Royale in Syosset is a very special place to go for a good meal and a pleasant atmosphere. The food is extremely good and the atmosphere is of complete relaxation.

We were especially attracted to this restaurant because its menu includes a number of good beef and very fresh fish dishes. We went there last week and although the weather was not very good outside it turned out to be a great event for a cheerful fortieth birthday.

The Cafe Royale is located in the middle of Syosset and we want to recommend it for your readers. The piano music lends a little extra joy to dining there.

Manero's is a charming restaurant. It is located on the eastern end of a strip shopping center on the south side of Jericho Turnpike. It features a long, narrow lobby with a rather large bar area set off to the right. To your left along the long hallway is the retail meat shop in which the meat is displayed. Straight ahead is the big, lovely main dining room. It contains oak pieces with a charm all their own, beautiful stained glass, soft, gentle lighting, formal appointments, etc. It is a room that is much more than comfortable. It is really lovely.

As we sat down and ordered cocktails, a basket of delicious garlic bread was placed on our table - a definite plus for the meal. One of the entrees was the a la carte Delmonico Shell Steak at $16.95. All a la carte entrees are served with a fresh garden salad and choice of potato or rice or vegetable du jour. The steak was cooked perfectly as ordered and was extremely tender, lean and delicious. I opted for the complete dinner which was a superabundant amount of food. The first course was a baked clam appetizer which consisted of two clams stuffed with a moist, seasoned bread stuffing. Next came the garden salad with a choice of dressing. Also placed on the table was a nice portion of french fried onion rings. Then there was a choice of potato, vegetable of the day and my entree, the barbecued baby spare ribs. Dessert and beverage were also included - all for $13.95. The spare ribs that were served were a huge portion done in a very piquant sauce. They were absolutely delicious.

On the evening of our visit, only waiters were in attendance, and the waiter who was assigned to our table was very experienced in the business of service. He was a sheer delight. He backed off when we were not quite ready to order, and appeared magically when we were. He made proper suggestions, paced the food with finesse, and certainly helped make our meal a huge success.

Manero's menu boldly declares that they are committed to excellence and quality. The beef served is either top choice or prime. The seafood is the freshest available, and all vegetables are also always fresh. Manero's claim is that they are a tradition dedicated to excellence.

The restaurant is open 7 days a week. It is open from Monday thru Saturday for lunch and dinner and on Sunday for dinner only. They do accept most major credit cards.

CONCLUSION: A tradition dedicated to pleasing their patrons. Great, great, great!

Most Attractive
Last week we went to Remsen's Restaurant in Greenvale. This restaurant is located at the Wheatley Plaza Shopping Center. It is truly one of the most attractive restaurants we have ever been in. It is designed in a turn of the century style with all of the modern embellishments to make it a comfortable relaxing place to go.

The food is very good at Remsen's. The menu ranges from sandwiches to a full meal. We had a wonderful beef dinner and found it to be exceptional. The service was good and attentive. We had no delays between courses and everything was done in good style. We highly recommend this restaurant to your readers. H.G.

There is a new restaurant on L.I. It is called the San Remo. The San Remo is located on Old Country Rd. in Westbury. It features the finest in Italian cooking that is prepared for guests.

The pasta is just great, fresh and tasty. The veal is tender and delicious particularly last week when it was served to one of the people at our table.

What is especially nice about this restaurant is that it is small and intimate and gives you the feeling that things are being prepared just for you. There are no parking problems at the San Remo either because they have valet parking. You just leave your car and it will be ready when you are. We recommend this restaurant highly. C.H. Fine Meal

Last week we went to the LaCisterna restaurant in Mineola and were delighted with the meal.

The LaCisterna is a beautifully decorated restaurant with a fine large dining room set in a restful and inviting style. The service is good and the food is well worth a return visit.

We had veal marsala for one dinner and bass for the other. The veal was fresh and tender and the marsala sauce was exceptionally well done. The bass was fresh and flavorful. Starting off the meal we had salad and soup which also rated high. We were very satisfied with the visit and want to recommend it to your readers. H.G.

Fish Plus

There are many seafood restaurants in this area. We found that Lambrou's in Island Park combines both fine seafood and good Italian cuisine.

We especially enjoyed the shrimp parmigiana with spaghetti marinara last week and all four members of our party said they found the food delicious. In addition to the shrimp parmigiana two in our party had the fresh bay scallops. They said the scallops were the very best. The service was good and prompt and the price was well within what first rate food should cost. We think your readers will enjoy this restaurant. K.R.

By Antonia Allegra

Over the years, wild mushrooms have gotten a lot of bad press. Emily Dickinson likened them to Judas Iscariot. D.H. Lawrence compared "the beastly bourgeois" to "an old mushroom." Diderot, the French philosopher and encyclopedia writer, wrote that "whatever dressing one gives to them ... they are not really good but to be sent back to the dung heap where they are born."

And today, while nearly every American schoolchild knows that some mushrooms are poisonous, few Americans of any age know that most mushrooms add great flavor and elegance to the most commonplace of dishes.

Mushrooms are rich in subtle flavors. They impart a haunting woody fragrance. They are colorful and graceful.

Though they have no real food value (aside from decent amounts of certain vitamins and minerals), mushrooms are prized for their peculiar and delicate flavors; their crisp but yielding textures.

Mushrooms add interest to soups, stews and sauces, and a delicious nutty taste to stuffings. Certain cultivated varieties are wonderful raw in a salad of lemon juice, olive oil and herbs. All types are heavenly when sauteed in their own juices with just a splash of cream and a sprinkling of nutmeg and minced parsley.

And I can imagine no nicer fate for the humble egg than to be scrambled with a handful of fragrant, fruity tasting chanterelles.

Unfortunately, when most people think of mushrooms they think only of the common, cultivated Agaricus bisporus, that clean, white "button" that's found in every supermarket produce section.

When buying fresh mushrooms, buy only a few at a time because they do not keep well. (The caps of white supermarket mushrooms should be tightly closed, not open with gills exposed.) If you must store them, place them loosely in a container and refrigerate. To clean, wipe gently with a damp towel to dislodge any dirt that clings. If the mushroom retains dirt, wash quickly and gently in a pan of cool water.

Since most mushrooms contain a large amount of water, the typical cooking process is a three-part one. First, the mushroom will rapidly absorb all the cooking oil or butter in the pan. Then it will start to exude its natural juice which must be allowed to evaporate

Lastly, the mushroom will release a type of natural oil that will help with the browning process.

SAUTEED MUSHROOMS WITH HEAVY CREAM

1½ lbs. champignons or chanterelles
1½ tbsps. finely chopped shallot or yellow onion
2½ tbsps. butter
1½ tbsps. vegetable oil
Salt
Freshly ground pepper, about 4 twists of the mill
½ cup heavy cream

Slice off ends of mushroom stems. Wipe mushrooms clean with damp cloth. If there are still traces of soil, wash very rapidly in cold running water, and dry thoroughly with towel.

Cut mushrooms into wedges, each section of which should be about ½-inch thick at thickest point of cap. (If mushrooms are very small, cut them into halves or leave them whole.)

Choose skillet large enough to hold mushrooms later without crowding them. Over medium-high heat, saute chopped shallot in butter and oil until pale gold in color. Raise heat to high, and add mushrooms. When mushrooms have absorbed all fat, turn heat down to low. Add salt and pepper and stir-cook mushrooms until their juices begin to come to surface in four seconds. Raise heat to high and cook for 3 to 4 minutes, shaking pan and stirring mushrooms frequently.

Add cream and cook for just 2 to 3 minutes longer, until part of cream has been absorbed by mushrooms and rest has thickened slightly. Transfer entire contents of skillet to warm platter and serve immediately.

Serves 6.

CHEESE-STUFFED MUSHROOMS

2 lbs. mushrooms
½ cup grated Parmesan cheese
¾ cup dry bread crumbs
½ cup grated onion
2 cloves garlic, minced
3 tbsps. minced parsley
1 tsp. salt
½ tsp. freshly ground black pepper
½ tsp. oregano
¾ cup olive oil

Buy large, even-size mushrooms. Wash gently. Remove stems and chop; mix with cheese, bread crumbs, onion, garlic, parsley, salt, pepper and oregano. Stuff mushroom caps.

Pour little oil into baking pan. Arrange mushrooms in it. Pour remaining oil over them, being sure to get a little on each mushroom. Bake in 350 F oven 25 minutes. Serve as antipasto, appetizer or vegetable.

Serves 6 to 8.

Microwave

By Desiree Vivea

Anyone who loves the flavor of a steaming hot bowl of chili con carne (or chili sans carne, for that matter) knows the value of chili powder.

This seasoning ranges in strength from relatively mild to the "Call the Fire Department, my mouth's on fire!" variety.

HAMBURGER HOT DISH

3 slices bacon
½ cup chopped onion
½ cup chopped celery
1 lb. lean ground beef
¼ cup chopped green pepper
2 tbsps. flour
2 tps. chili powder
¼ tsp. each salt and pepper
1 (8 oz.) can stewed tomatoes
Chop bacon and place in 2-quart glass casserole. Add onion and microwave 2 to 3 minutes, until onion is translucent. Stir in celery, then crumble ground beef into casserole, mixing well. Microwave 3 minutes, stirring after 1½ minutes. Stir in remaining ingredients, blending well. Cover and microwave 5 to 8 minutes, until beef and vegetables are tender and cooked. Serve hot over rice or spaghetti noodles.

Serves 4.

TEX-MEX RICE

¼ cup vegetable oil
1 cup long-grain rice
1 small clove garlic, minced
½ cup chopped onion
¼ cup chopped green pepper
2 cups water
2 chicken bouillon cubes
1 tsp. chili powder
¼ tsp. ground black pepper
Sliced black olives and parsley sprigs (for garnish), optional

Combine vegetable oil and rice in 2-quart glass casserole. Microwave for 5 minutes, stirring every minute. Stir in all remaining ingredients, cover, and microwave until rice is tender and liquid is absorbed, about 15 minutes. (Stir rice several times during cooking time, adding more liquid if necessary.) Garnish with sliced black olives and parsley sprigs if desired.

Serves 4.

SLOPPY JOSES

1 lb. lean ground beef, crumbled
1 (10¼ oz.) can condensed tomato soup
¼ cup ketchup
¼ cup minced onion
1½ tps. chili powder
¼ tsp. each salt and pepper
6 hamburger buns, split
Shredded cheddar cheese, optional

Combine all ingredients except hamburger buns and shredded cheese in 2-quart glass casserole. Cover and microwave for 8 minutes, stirring and rotating dish every 2 minutes. Serve on hamburger buns heated in microwave for 20 seconds, and top with shredded cheddar cheese if desired.

Makes 6 Sloppy Joses.

Recipes in this column are tested in 625- to 700-watt microwave ovens. Foods are cooked on HIGH (100 percent power) and uncovered unless otherwise specified.

Antique or Junque

Q. I have always been told that this china cabinet was made by a local cabinetmaker in 1870-1880.

Can you confirm that and also give me some idea as to its value?

A. This was originally intended to be a bookcase and was factory made in the late 19th century. The decorative details were machine made — not handmade.

It should sell for about $1,500 to $1,600 in good condition.

Q. Enclosed is a picture of an antique rocking chair that has been in my family for over 100 years. What can you tell me about it?

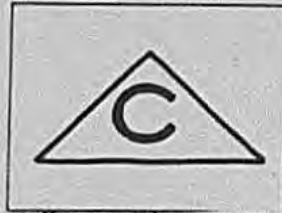

A. These are variously known as "Lincoln" rockers and "Grecian" rockers. They were made from about 1860 to 1880.

Supposedly the chair that Lincoln sat in the night he was shot by John Wilkes Booth was similar. They are very popular with collectors and sell for from $325 to $375.

Q. This mark is on the bottom of a 8 1/2-inch green glass swan. It is beautifully detailed and I am very proud of it.

Can you tell me who made it, when, where and how much it is worth?

A. Your green glass swan was made by Cambridge Glass Co., Cambridge, Ohio, in the early 20th century.

These are very popular with collectors and one this size should sell for at least $175.

Q. What category of collectibles would you recommend for someone of modest means?

A. Disregarding antique furniture, which you can use in place of contemporary furniture, I would suggest cut glass.

I'd start with tumblers of different patterns (matching can become very discouraging). From tumblers I'd go to wine glasses, goblets, creamer and sugar, serving pieces.

Typical Prices: tumblers — $25; wine glasses — $35; goblets — $50; creamer and sugar — $100; serving pieces — $100 to $300.

Here's How

Q. I have a problem no one seems to be able to solve. I live in a two-story, two-bath home. I purchased the house new in 1976.

The problem is with the toilets. Almost always after use, one flush is not enough. We have to flush two and sometimes three times to clear the bowl. I have had plumbers in at least twice to check both toilets and they tell me there's nothing wrong. Help! — E.L.B.

A. This may be caused by an inadequate supply of water in the tank caused by a leaking flush valve. Merely replacing the valve mechanism (rubber ball, flapper or other type) will not always solve the problem if the surface of the flush valve seat has deteriorated with age.

The Stopper, a new flushing system by Mansfield Plumbing Products that sells for about $5, is designed to let you solve the problem without having to replace or dismantle the toilet. The key is a sealant ring that bonds a new seat over the damaged one.

Installation is simple. Turn off the water supply either underneath the toilet or at the main water shutoff. Flush the toilet to empty the tank. Then sponge out any remaining water and remove the old flush valve mechanism.

Clean and dry the surface of the old flush valve seat thoroughly. After removing the protective cover from the sealant ring on the bottom of the Stopper, center the ring over the seat and press down firmly. Connect the chain clip to the trip lever and you're ready to turn the water back on.

If this is not the problem, a qualified plumber should be able to spot and help you correct the problem.

Q. I have a question on cleaning metals. How does one remove the lacquer finish on sterling silver, a comb, brush and mirror dresser set? I have used household polish and nail polish remover which have not worked.

A. Also, what is the content of the solution to use in an aluminum vessel for removing tarnish from silver? The solution is kept steaming on the stove during the process. I had the formula at one time, but seem to have misplaced it.

How can one tell if an item is gold plated or solid, and if silver jewelry is really sterling silver?

A. To remove a lacquer finish, use lacquer thinner available at your paint store. After you remove the lacquer finish, restore the luster of your silver dresser set with a regular silver polish.

To determine the quality of gold and silver articles, I would recommend that you consult a qualified jeweler.

I have nothing in my files regarding the solution and method

Mainly For Seniors

By John T. Watts

Dear John: What are you going to do with an old man who has grown so self-centered that his own comfort and convenience is all he thinks about?

George, my husband, never used to be that way. But he's different now. For instance, take an extreme example. Our daughter and her husband had a baby girl about a month ago. They have a boy a couple of years old.

She called me the other evening and said the baby seemed to be getting a cold. A couple of hours later she called and said the baby was worse. She said she might have to call me later, but would try not to. Someone would have to stay with the boy if they had to take the baby to a doctor.

About midnight they called again, said the baby seemed to have respiratory trouble. They wanted to take her to the emergency hospital as soon as possible. Would I come and stay with the boy? Of course I said I'd be there as soon as I could get dressed. They live about three miles away.

We had been sound asleep. George didn't say much, but you could see he didn't like it.

Dear Evelyn: Maybe Grandpa deserves a hit on the head.

On the other hand, there's always two sides to any situation. I wonder if you and your daughter play a two-hand game too much of the time. Try taking George in on your deliberations more of the time. Ask his opinion, what he thinks.

And you must admit many of the younger generation do impose on their elders, demanding time and money when they are not always necessary, just because the old folks live nearby.

George gave you a tip, that this may be part of the problem.

Dear John: As an old industrial nurse, may I offer a treatment for a plugged eustachian tube that has worked for me for several years? One teaspoon salt in an eight-ounce glass of quite warm water. gte three, four times a day.

This dissolves the mucus plug covering the tube and allows it to drain. — Pauline S.

you describe to clean tarnished silver.

Q. Seven years ago my husband and I built our own home, doing all the work ourselves. We have one problem that we haven't been able to resolve. When we installed our bathtub shower we used ceramic tile on the walls. The tile was laid over gypsum wallboard, grouted according to directions and sealed with a silicone sealer.

We have not been able to keep the grout in the seams. We scraped out the loose grout, purchased fresh grout and repeated the process. The grout never seems to harden and keeps washing out.

Can you offer a suggestion? — J.K.C.

A. Your description of the problem would indicate that moisture has worked in behind the ceramic tile into the gypsum board.

Did you use the proper moisture-proof adhesive when installing the tile? If not, the ceramic tile may start to turn loose and you will have to remove the tile and replace the gypsum board, which is not recommended in places such as shower stalls and tub enclosures. However, you might try completely removing the grout and letting the shower area dry thoroughly (avoiding use for several days). Then go over the areas between the tiles with concrete glue prior to applying a new grout.

Unfortunately, if the wall behind the tile is damp a complete replacement eventually will be necessary.

Dear Pauline: Donna should be glad to hear about this if she is still having trouble with her ear.

Dear John: This letter comes to you in regard to the painful disease shingles.

When my husband had them last year, on the left side of his head (front and back) including his neck and face, the doctor said it was the worst case he had ever seen.

He gave him a strong shot of cortisone, a week's supply of cortisone tablets and a prescription for Domeloro wet dressing and powder packets, which were to be applied on the sores for one half hour four times a day.

Within four days most of the severe pain was alleviated and within three weeks he was quite comfortable and did not need any more pain pills.

In three months his symptoms were almost gone and I am appalled at the fact that many doctors do not know that this is the best treatment for shingles and people sometimes suffer with symptoms for years — inexcusably! — Louise T.

TWEEN 12 & 20

By Robert Wallace, E.A.D.

Dr. Wallace: I am 19 and so is my husband. We both have good, reasonable-paying jobs and we are saving for our own home.

One of the major problems is the unreasonable cost of houses today. My parents paid $17,000 for their present home and today it's worth over $80,000.

Do you think the day of reasonable prices for houses will ever return or are we wasting our time saving for a house? — Darlene.

Darlene: If you mean can a house be purchased for $17,000 today, the answer is no, and probably will remain so forever and ever. The high cost of houses and the increased interest rates make it very difficult for a young couple to purchase a house.

But real estate agents realize this and the progressive agents are involved in many new ways to purchase and finance a house.

Naturally, the more you have to put down on your "dream house," the better. Before you do go house-hunting, take someone along who is a friend and is familiar with purchasing a house. Then contact a reliable real estate agent.

It doesn't cost anything to look.

Dr. Wallace: I am 16 and have never kissed a boy even though I have dated several times.

Whenever a boy acts like he wants to kiss me I turn away. Do you think there is something wrong with me? — Betty.

Betty: You are perfectly normal. When the time comes that you want to be kissed, you'll be the first one to know.

Dr. Wallace: I realize that this is a stupid question, but how much wood is in a cord?

My dad was born in Montana and he always is telling my brother and me that he had to chop a cord of firewood many mornings before he walked 3 miles to school. He makes us feel bad because we go to school in a school bus and because we don't chop wood. — Brian.

Brian: I did what you should have done. I went to my friendly librarian who introduced me to a book that informed me that a cord is defined as a stack of wood 4-by-4 feet and 8 feet tall.

Seven million toothpicks or 30 rocking chairs are but a few of the many items that can evolve from one cord of wood.

Dr. Wallace: Our New Year's Day always is ruined because my dad watches all the football games. This year from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. he was glued to the television set. Would you believe that there were five bowl games on television on Jan. 1?

Things got so bad that he was watching two games at once on two different channels. To do this he was watching two different television sets at the same time. I knew it was a mistake to get him a portable TV for Christmas.

Dad is a good provider, doesn't smoke or drink and I love him dearly, but I'd like to have one quiet New Year's Day without hearing "It's S.C.'s ball," or "The Ohio State 38-yard line," blending in with "If Oklahoma wins, it has a chance to be national champion."

I know there is nothing you can do to solve our family "dilemma" but I just had to get it off my chest. Do you agree with me? — Margaret.

Margaret: If that's your father's major (or only) flaw, then you have a wonderful dad. Quit nagging and let him enjoy his day. Besides, I'm also a football junkie.

Dr. Wallace: I love my mother and father very much and they love me, too. It seems that when I read your column, most teens and their parents do not share love or don't show it.

My parents love me and they tell me this every day, and they also show it by hugging and kissing me whenever they feel the "urge."

I wish all parents throughout the world were like mine. If they were, maybe today's teens would show a little more love and respect in return. — Doris.

Doris: I agree that mutual love and respect are the key ingredients for teen-parent harmony.

But don't be disillusioned by the high percentage of teens who write regarding parental problems. You must remember that those teens who are secure and happy at home (the vast majority) normally don't write to me. You are the exception.

All about calicos

By R.G. Elmore, D.V.M.

Q. We have a female calico cat. She has had several litters of kittens. Although several of her female kittens look like her, none of her male kittens has had her calico hair coloration.

Does calico hair coloration in cats only occur in females? If so, why is it limited to females?

A. Calico cats are tortoiseshell cats that have random patches of white spotting in their hair coat patterns. In other words, calico cats have patches of orange, black and white.

Tortoiseshell cats have hair coats composed of a mixture of red and black hairs. Usually these hairs are clumped together to form randomly located, well-defined patches. Sometimes, however, the red and black hairs are intermingled over the entire animal.

Almost all tortoiseshell cats are females. The occasional male tortoiseshell cat usually is sterile.

The gene responsible for red pigmentation in cats is referred to as orange and generally is symbolized by a capital "O." The sex of any kitten is determined by a special pair of chromosomes, the "X" and "Y" chromosomes. Each female cat has the makeup "XX" and therefore only can impart "X" chromosomes to her offspring. The male cat has an "XY" makeup, and therefore can impart either an "X" or a "Y" to his offspring. If a kitten receives an "X" from its sire and an "X" from its dam, it will be female. If a kitten receives a "Y" from its sire, it will be a male. The "O" gene only can be transmitted along with the "X" chromosome in cats. This means that the orange male cat only can transmit the "O" gene to his female offspring.

Both parent cats must show some orange to produce orange female kittens - the sire must be orange and the dam either orange or tortoiseshell. Orange parents pass their color genes to kittens of the opposite sex. Orange means red or ginger of all sorts.

Orange cannot be carried without showing in the hair coat. However, the orange color may be present in only a few hairs in the cat's coat.

RECYCLING

Putterin' Pete

WHEN YOU'RE MAKING A LOT OF SALAD USING LETTUCE LEAVES, FIRST WASH THEM THOROUGHLY AND PACK THEM LOOSELY INTO AN OLD PILLOW CASE. TAKE IT OUTDOORS AND WHIRL IT WITH VIGOR A DOZEN TIMES.

YOU'LL BE AMAZED AT HOW QUICKLY THIS WILL DRY THE LEAVES AND SPEED UP SALAD MAKING.
