Hicksville F.D. Parade, Tournery This Weekend

The 58th Labor Day Parade and Drill, sponsored by the Hicksville Volunteer Department, is set to go. Thirty-one departments have signed up to parade. The parade will start at 5 p.m. sharp on Sunday, August 31. Led by Grand Marshal Lt. Anthony Wigdzinski and Chief William Schuckmann, the Hicksville Fire Department will march south on Jerusalem Avenue from Marie Street picking up the six divisions, proceed east on Old Country Road to Broadway, north on Broadway to West John Street, west on John Street to the entrance to Mid Island Plaza (by U.S. Post Office).

Following the parade, which ends at the carnival on Mid Island Plaza property, a block party with a D.J. will be held. The carnival will be open through Monday, Labor Day.

The Firemen's Drill will be held Monday on W. Barclay Street (same place as last year), -- starting time 10:00 a.m. sharp. No coolers are permitted at the drill or carnival per local laws.

If you attend the carnival, please park in the Plaza. Please note that these activities border residential areas. Visitors are requested to drive slowly, deposit refuse in containers, and respect the property of others. Admission to drill: Adults, $3.50; Children 12 and under, $1.50; Under 6, free.

The local committee has labored hard to plan an event that all can enjoy. Come out and assist your volunteers in their Fund-Drive Program. Thank you.

Talking over the progress of the Hicksville Veterans Monument Committee fund drive are Committee Chairman Conrad Steers of the Naasan Vietnam Veterans and the William Gouze Post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, left, and Richard Evers, Americanism Chairman of the Charles Wagner Post American Legion. The War Memorial drive has received nearly $4,000 in contributions from citizens and businessmen of Hicksville. The committee is hoping to have monuments dedicated to the memory of those who served in the Korean War and in Southeast Asian struggles ready for dedication, by Veterans Day.

In the last stage of the fund drive, it is the Committee's hope to raise several thousand more dollars. The Memorial Committee would like to be able, also, to add the names of Hicksville's Vietnam War dead to the John F. Kennedy Memorial, a mid-town monument honoring those who lost their lives in the nation's four 20th century conflicts. Contributions to the Hicksville War Memorials fund drive may be mailed to: Hicksville Veterans Monument Fund, P.O. Box 412, Hicksville, N.Y. 11802

VFW Sponsors 'Voice Of Democracy'

The summer is almost over and the kids will be back in school around Sept. 4 and our programs are in swing. Every year our Post and the Ladies Auxiliary sponsor a Voice of Democracy Scholarship Program for all the schools in the Hicksville School District. This year's theme is "The Challenge of American Citizenship". It's open to tenth, eleventh, twelfth, grade students in the Public, Parochial and Private Schools in the U.S. and Overseas. A U.S. Citizenship is required.

If your children go to any school in the Hicksville area please let them mention this program to their teacher and principal. If they did not hear from us, let them contact me and I will send them material on the program.

For more information about the Voice of Democracy contest call Chairman, Jr. Vice Comdr. Vincent Ferrara at 935-6079 or call the V.F.W. Hall at 931-7843.

Cancer Soc. Has Thrift Shop Sale

The American Cancer Society's "Daffodil" Thrift Shop, at 21 East Main St., in Oyster Bay, is having a $1 per item sale on clothing and Bric-a-Brac, starting Monday, August 25. The shop is open from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., Mondays through Saturdays.

Volunteers are also needed to help in the shop, so if you can give at least three hours per week, are interested in helping the American Cancer Society, please call Manager Carol Manno at 922-9507.

Grumman Theatre Holds Cast Calls

Grumman Theatre Guild is seeking boys, ages 10 to 15, who can sing and move for a musical production of Dickens' "A Christmas Carol". Please call 933-7349 or 935-7082.

Special Report:

Reorganization Planned For Hicksville Schools

Special to Mid Island Times

By Maureen Traxler

Taking a step away from tradition and moving in line with current education trend, the Hicksville School Board voted to accept the concept of a four-year high school and a two-year middle school at its general meeting held this Wednesday, August 27. Voting five in favor and one abstention, the Board set in motion a major undertaking involving preparation of buildings, staff and students, massive in-service training and the appointment of support personnel, a restructuring of teaching methods in the 7th and 8th grade levels and the promotion of community awareness.

Trustee Jay Schwartz voiced concern that the Board may be moving too quickly. He said that Board members had only received the reorganization plan two weeks ago and that the trustees and the community "haven't had time to ask questions."

In proposing her reorganization plan to take effect September 1987, Superintendent Catherine Fenton recalled the report by the Secondary Study Committee issued last June. Noting that it is in the 9th grade that the youngster begins to build his way toward a high school diploma, the committee called it a "logical step that (these) four years...be conducted in one building." Having grades 9 through 12 housed in one building will not alter the basic teaching structure at the high school. One negative aspect pointed out by Dr. Fenton is the inadequacy of the present library. Dr. Fenton envisions an enlargement in order to accommodate the influx of students.

The major impact of the reorganization plan is on the middle school level. In outlining her recommendations in this area, Dr. Fenton said that the objective is to create an interdisciplinary approach to instruction and abandon the present academic department structure. This will be implemented by forming "teams" of teachers, working together to shape the total instructional program for their assigned students.

The present junior high school teachers will be involved in an ongoing in-service program throughout the 1986-87 year. The district will engage the consultant services of Dr. Conrad Toepfer to conduct these workshops and also to hold a series of evening meetings to acquaint the community with these plans and emphasize the characteristics of a middle school. The cost of this consultant contract is $20,000 and will be assumed by the present budget.

Although all Board members present were instinctively in favor of the reorganization plan, major reservations came in the area of dollars and cents in light of an already tight budget. In addition to the consultant expenses, substitute teachers would be needed on training days; Dr. Fenton's proposal calls for the hiring of three assistant principals for a two-year transition period; six junior high teachers projected to be excessed in 1987 would have to be retained; and extra buses may be needed to transport freshmen. Legal aspects were also brought into play, particularly concerning the teachers' contract.

The overall feeling of the Board was that the plan is worth implementing and that in view of the entire long-range plan, problems should be faced as they arise.

The Board also handled educational and civil service personnel matters at this meeting and approved a new health textbook for grades 11 and 12. Bids totaling $21,805 were awarded for health supplies and equipment, music equipment and computer supplies.

Just a reminder to readers: School opens this Wednesday, September 3. New school hours will be in effect for the district's eight elementary schools. The starting time for all grades will be 9 a.m. and dismissal time is 3:30 p.m.

The next regular meeting of the Board will take place on Wednesday, September 24, at 8:15 p.m. in the Administration Building.

Renovations Continue At Gregory Museum

Hicksville Gregory Museum

Work on the Town of Oyster Bay Community Development Project at the Old Hicksville Courthouse Jail at Heitz Place is progressing steadily. The project, involving a renovation and preservation of the historic building, the home of the Hicksville Gregory Museum, has been underway since early summer.

A recent difficult portion of the project, the hand excavating of two feet of basement old concrete, cement and earth and the underpinning of the 1895 original foundations with a concrete footing is completed. Although stable on its sand base, the historic late nineteenth century courthouse and town hall was not allowed to carry the rock and mineral exhibits comprising the Gregory Museum extensive collection. A steel I beam spanning the entire length of the basement under first floor beams will be placed, further stabilizing the landmark with its well known cupola.

The clubhouse at the courthouse rear, built in 1915, has been thoroughly insulated, sheetrocked and painted. A new hallway ramp for the handicapped now connects the courthouse and clubhouse.

The authentic windows are refurbished and waterproofed and the original porch replaced. Tasks still to be accomplished include the refinishing and restructuring of the roof gutters, stabilizing the courthouse cupola, installing a more economical gas-fired furnace, and a repainting of the building. The general contractor for this long-in-the-works Town of Oyster Bay project is Union Developers.

Hand excavating under the 1985 original cement foundation of the Old Hicksville Courthouse at Heitz Place was a big job for workmen Mario Spilotros and Freddie Reecine recently. The "human digging machines" were preparing the way for forms and fresh concrete to underpin the existing foundation which was poured directly onto sand.

They hardly make this kind of men anymore! Mario Spilotros and Freddie Reecine who hand excavated the basement and existing foundation of the Old Hicksville Courthouse, removing old concrete and two feet of sand and gravel through a single window eight feet high. (Photos by Ed Bady)

Postage Due Stamps Discontinued

"The Postal Service has discontinued the use of postage due stamps to denote amounts to be collected from addresses for short paid mail," said Roger Nienaber, Hicksville General Manager/Postmaster. "First authorized in 1879, the stamps have been produced since then in a variety of denominations. They are being discontinued because of their limited use," he added.

Effective immediately, clerks delivering postage due items to customers at post office windows will affix regular postage stamps or a meter strip to the mail in exchange for payment of the postage due. The stamps or meter strip will be cancelled before the article is given to the customer. Stamps are not applied to postage due mail delivered by letter carrier.

In Service

Army Sgt. Richard P. Zitkus, brother of Raymond C. Zitkus, 52 Nassau Avenue, Plainville, has arrived for duty with the 1st Cavalry Division, Fort Hood, Texas.

Zitkus is a vehicle mechanic.

Message From Hicksville F.D.

As you know we are presently raising our Annual Fund Drive. The Department relies on its support from the Hicksville Community. This year however we are having problems with a decline in the Nassau County Volunteer Firemen's Drill Association. Specifically this solicitor asks for ads in his journal. This solicitor has nothing to do with the Hicksville Fire Department and the funds which he receives do not benefit the Hicksville Fire Department members. Would you please contribute to the Hicksville Fire Department members who yearly identify themselves as members of our Department. Hicksville Fire Department members have ID cards which identify them.

William Schuckmann, Chief of the Department

Robert Chevrolet Seeks Zone Change

Oyster Bay Town Councilman Thomas L. Clark announced that the Town Board has scheduled an October public hearing on request for a change of zone in Hicksville.

Clark said, "the applicants, Robert R. Brown and Robert J. Brown, are requesting a change of zone from 'D' residence district to 'G' business district (general business) in order to permit the premises to be used to provide off-street parking spaces for forty (40) additional cars in connection with the automobile dealership."

The property is located at the south side of First Street just west of South Broadway, Hicksville.

The hearing has been scheduled for Tuesday, October 7, 1986, beginning at 10 a.m. in the Town Hall East hearing room, Audrey Avenue, Oyster Bay.

In Memoriam

Freda Zaug

Freda Zaug, a former resident of Plainview and employee of Seaman and Eisemann, Inc., died suddenly on August 25, 1986 in Florida where she and her husband had moved several years ago.

Mrs. Zaug is survived by her husband John, daughter Patricia Kretler of Wilton, Connecticut, and three grandsons—Jonathan, Kevin and Scott. She also leaves a sister, Carol Russ.

A private burial was held in Port St. Lucie, Florida.

'Family' Redefined By Town Board

The Oyster Bay Town Board revealed a proposed amendment of the Code of Ordinances as it relates to the definition of "Family", living in a single-family house. The definition proposed would allow the maximum of two unrelated people to live together as a single, non-profit housekeeping unit, residing on the premises. This is a more liberal guideline than the original law that defined "family" as people related by either blood relations, marriage, or legal adoption if they were under the age of 62.

In 1985, after several years of litigation, the Court of Appeals of the State of New York found that the Town's existing definition of family was unconstitutional since it discriminated on the basis of the traditional family definition and further on the allowance for elderly persons to share their home with an unrelated senior adult. The court decision left the method of which a Town could limit the number of unrelated persons residing together on the local municipalities.

The town board is expected to approve the proposed law at the September 16 meeting with Supervisor Colby stating, "The court said we were wrong, so we have no choice." He added, "If we do not approve this law, any number of people would be able to live in a single family house, creating a boarding house situation."

Many residents were opposed to the approval of the proposed law and stated their cases before the board. Since the town board has twice appealed the court's decision, they have run out of options.

Colby said the board modeled its proposal on the law in the Suffolk village of Belle Terre, after reviewing various definitions used by other towns and conforming to new definitions upheld by the United States Supreme Court.

No such thing as an exact IQ score

By Willard Abraham, Ph.D.

Q. It bothers me that my son's teacher wouldn't tell me his exact IQ score. She certainly knows what it is, but she refuses to share it. All she would say is that he is a little above average.

I hesitate to go to the principal about this, but I am tempted to. Before I do, tell me whether you think I am in the right to expect this information.

A. There is no such thing as an "exact" IQ score, and your son's teacher seems smart enough to know that.

He could take another form of the test, or even the same test, and the odds are that his score would differ at least a little bit each time.

Most school psychologists would no doubt agree with me.

Q. I have searched for the past year in department stores and toy stores for something, anything, that would relate in a special way to my little boy. He wears a hearing aid, and now that he is in a preschool he feels different from the other children.

He is "normal" in every other way, but somehow has the feeling that he is more different than he is the same as others. I don't think they deliberately hurt him, but the result is the same — he is an "outsider."

Your suggestions for helping him feel good about himself could be so helpful.

A. With the current trend toward mainstreaming children with special needs into regular preschools and schools, it may be possible for you to place him in one that recognizes both his differences and similarities so far as other children are concerned.

However, a first step that seems appropriate is to discuss this matter with the director of his present

Inc., has formed a new outlet for a line of dolls that includes special emphases for children like yours.

"For Challenged Kids by Mattel Inc." has introduced "Hal's Pals," five large dolls that have these characteristics: Hearing impairment; one leg (a ski instructor); wheelchair; visual impairment; leg braces. The company describes them as being "active, cheerful and eminently huggable."

These dolls could be useful in opening communication channels within the family and among groups of or individual children. They can also help place an "accent on assets" (rather than on limitations) of a child like yours, as well as contribute toward building positive attitudes on the part of the youngster.

For more information you can write or call the Mattel organization — 5959 Triumph Street, Commerce, CA 90840 (1-800-227-3800).

One more idea. There are books and articles about children like your son, to be read to and with them, and discussed. Two sources for them that may be available to you are the children's librarian in a local library and a good bookstore.

Q. I'm a little mystified by the loose use of the word "exceptional" in describing children. My sister has two children and she uses the word to describe both of them, even though one is very bright and the other is a Down's syndrome retarded boy.

Does that make sense to you?

A. Yes, it does, because I go along with the terminology of the large national professional organization, the Council for Exceptional Children.

All children who deviate from the so-called normal are exceptional by that organization's practices and definitions. Included are the two you mentioned and also those with visual, hearing, physical, speech, emotional, learning disability and other special needs.

preschool. After you evaluate that individual's knowledge and sensitivity you will no doubt be in a good position to decide whether your son should stay or transfer.

A recent toy development could be of value to your son. The well-known toy distributor, Mattel,

YOUR SOCIAL SECURITY

Documents you need to apply for SSI

Q. What information must I take with me when I apply for SSI? — S.J.

A. It will be helpful if you have the following information:

- Social Security card or number
- Birth certificate
- Tax bill or assessment notice if you own your home
- Real estate other than your home
- Lease and landlord's name and address
- Motor vehicle registration if you own a car
- Bank books, insurance policies, burial plot or burial fund records and other papers that show your resources
- Pay slips or other papers that show your income
- Names and addresses of doctors, hospitals and clinics (if you are filing as a disabled person)
- Information about husband's or wife's income and resources if you live with your spouse

Do not delay filing if you don't have all the information. The Social Security office will help you obtain whatever is needed.

Q. If a person is not eligible for Medicare at 65 based on his employment, can he buy Medicare? — G.R.F.

A. If you aren't eligible for hospital insurance at 65, you can buy it. You must be a resident of the

Q. I began receiving Social Security retirement benefits last year. My 16-year-old son, who is a high school student, plans to work this summer. Will the Social Security benefits he receives on my record be affected by his employment? — N.R.

A. Yes, earnings from a job or self-employment may affect your son's Social Security check. In 1986, if he earns $5,760 or less, he'll receive all of his payments for the year. If his earnings exceed $5,760, then $1 in benefits will be withheld for each $2 he earns above that amount.

Youth Hospitalized In Moped Accident

A 16 year old Hicksville youth is presently in critical condition in the Nassau County Medical Center after a moped he was operating was in an accident with a truck in Hicksville around 12:25 p.m., August 20.

James F. McNamara, 47, of 27 Kolmer Ave., Hicksville, was operating a 1985 Honda moped, south bound on Newbridge Road, at West John Street and a 1976 Ford stake truck, owned by the New York State Dept. of Transportation, operated by Vernon Brown, 29, of 225 Kinkle St., Westbury, eastbound on West John Street, making a left turn onto Newbridge Road, were in collision.

McNamara was transported to the medical center in a police ambulance and he's presently in the Intensive Care Unit with head and internal injuries. No charges were filed by police.

United States and a citizen or an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence who has resided in the United States continually for five years.

The basic premium is $214 a month in 1986. To buy hospital insurance, you also have to enroll and pay the monthly premium for medical insurance. You can apply at any Social Security office.

Q. My daughter, who will soon be 18, suffered brain damage at birth and has always attended special schools. She currently is receiving benefits on her deceased father's record. Will she become eligible for additional Social Security benefits when she reaches age 18? — D.J.

A. The amount payable to her as an adult disabled child is the same as that paid her as a young child on her deceased father's record.

You should contact the Social Security office before your daughter's 18th birthday so that her checks may continue on the basis of disability.

In Service

Navy Petty Officer 2nd Class Andrew L. Conde, son of Angelo S. and Adelina M. Conde of 15 Maxwell Court, Plainville, recently completed a six-month deployment aboard the amphibious assault ship USS New Orleans, homeported in San Diego.

During the deployment, Conde participated in many amphibious exercises that were conducted in Korea, Japan and the Republic of the Philippines. Conde was also involved in real world situations when the New Orleans was assigned as the medic and communication support ship for President Reagan's visit to Bali, Indonesia. The ship was also on alert during the Philippine national elections.

A 1973 graduate of Nassau County Community College, Garden City, with an Associate of Arts degree, and a 1986 graduate of the University of the State of New York, Albany, N.Y. with a Bachelor of Science degree, he joined the Navy in April 1978.

A Busy Year For Lupski Family

This Spring was a busy season at the home of Helen and John Lupski of Hicksville.

On April 19, their daughter, Donna, became the bride of Eric Swanek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Swanek of Wayne, New Jersey. The ceremony was performed by Father Frederic J. Harrer of St. Ignatius Loyola Church, Hicksville.

The bride was attended by her sister Diane, as her maid-of-honor. Her bridesmaids were her sisters, Doreen and Debbie and a friend, Michele Shor. Denise Lupski, niece of the bride was flower girl. Best man was Jonathan Bob and Mark, Scott and Douglas Swanek, brothers of the groom served as ushers.

A reception was held at the Huntington Town House. Their honeymoon was spent in London and Paris and touring the English countryside.

On June 5, Donna graduated from New York University of Medicine. Her brother, James, a graduate of the Medical School and a member of the school faculty at the time was given the honor of presenting his sister with her Medical Degree. It was quite a thrill for their parents, grandparents (Mrs. Ada Murray and Mr. and Mrs. John Lupski of Hicksville) and other family members who attended the ceremony. A party to celebrate the occasion was held at the family home on Eighth Street on June 7.

Donna is now doing her residency in Pediatrics at Overlook Hospital in Summit, New Jersey. She and her husband, Eric, reside in Summit, where the groom resumed his career in the Motion Picture Industry.

On June 14, James Lupski, M.D., Ph.D., married Gabriella Gerardi, R.N., daughter of Flora Gerardi, and the late Enzo Gerardi of Huntington Station. The ceremony was performed by Father Robert Clerkin at St. Hugh of Lincoln Church, Huntington Station.

The bride was attended by Coleen De Geatano as Matron-of-honor, Bernadette Daly, Annemarie Palmieri, and Elizabeth Schrum as bridesmaids, Alicia Hernandez, niece of the bride, as flower girl. Best man was Dr. Frans De Bruijn, ushers were R. Jeffrey Cohen, Tim Lupski, brother of groom and Dr. Douglas Zieger.

After a reception at Jung Ting Restaurant in Centerport, the couple left for a honeymoon on Harbor Island in the Bahamas. Jim and Gay now reside in Houston, where Jim is doing a Pediatric residency at Texas Children's Hospital. This will be followed by a Fellowship in Human Genetics at Baylor College of Medicine in Houston. His wife, Gay, is a nurse at St. Luke's Hospital in Houston.

Mr. and Mrs. Lupski are also pleased to announce the engagement of their daughter, Doreen, to Mr. William Benzie of Piscataway, New Jersey. A Spring, 1987 wedding is planned.

Vet 5K Run Seeks Volunteers

Nassau County Executive Francis T. Purcell, center, Honorary Chairman of the 2nd Annual 5-Mile Run for Veterans, receives a commemorative t-shirt from members of the Race Committee, left to right, committee member John Kilbride, Chairman Bradford H. Crook, Race Director Dennis McCoy, committee member Alfred J. Peck of Hicksville, Co-Chairman Anthony Schettlino and the Nassau County Director of Veterans Services, Dennis Dunne.

The 5 Mile Run will take place, rain or shine, on September 7 at 9:30 a.m. at the Mitchel Field Athletic Complex, Uniondale. The race, a fundraiser for the Viet Nam Veterans Resource Center, serves as a tribute to America and its veterans. More than 4,000 runners are expected to compete in this year's event which has been expanded to include team competition and a one-mile "fun run".

Applications for either race, with entry fees ranging from $6 to $12, are still being accepted and can be obtained by calling the Viet Nam Veterans Resource Center at 935-6858 or the Nassau County Veterans Services Agency at 535-3218.

The committee for the 5 Mile Run for Veterans announced that they are seeking volunteers for their 2nd annual event on Sunday, September 7. Race Director, Dennis McCoy stated, "It is not just a race, but an event that the entire Long Island community will enjoy, not only to watch, but to work on as well."

An interfaith service, a memorial service with an aircraft flyover and 4000 balloon release, and a day of entertainment is planned in addition to the actual race. 15,000-20,000 people are expected at the Mitchel Park complex where the event will be held. 300-400 volunteers are needed to make the event at the Uniondale site run smoothly, McCoy added. "This is the type of event that needs individuals, as well as groups of people such as boy/girl scouts as well as adult organizations such as VFW organizations.

We have work for every age group."

Each person who helps out the day of the race will receive a commemorative tee-shirt, will be included in a special raffle with thousands of dollars of prizes that will be made up of only those who volunteer and will be invited to an exclusive post race complimentary party with dinner buffet.

All those interested in volunteering should attend the pre-race meeting on Thursday, September 4, at 7:30 p.m. at The 1st Marine Corp District Headquarters located at 605 Stewart Avenue in Oerden City, directly opposite the Roosevelt Field Shopping Center. For further information, contact the Race Headquarters at Co-Promotion Management at 338-4650; or come to the meeting where all questions will be answered.

Schools open next Wednesday for most public school children in our area. Motorists are reminded to watch more carefully and be aware that school buses are required, by state law, to stop at red lights (no right hand turns on red permitted).

Once again, in our effort to keep our readers abreast of school happenings in a timely fashion, we have disrupted our printing schedule to be able to include Maureen Traxler's report on the Board of Education meeting held on Wednesday night. The topic of the possibility of a Middle School should be of interest to all.

This weekend marks the annual Hicksville Fire Department Parade and Drill. The parade will be held on Sunday, August 31 and begins at 5 p.m. sharp. Following the parade a carnival is scheduled and will run on Labor Day also. At 10 a.m. on Monday the Firemen's Drill will take place on West Barclay Street. This annual event is always a most popular occasion marking the end of summer and the beginning of the fall season.

Have a safe and happy Labor Day weekend.

VFW Explains Vet's Benefits

The following questions and answers regarding Veterans' benefits have been supplied by P.P.C. Conrad Steers, a member of V.F.W. Post 3211 in Hicksville.

Q - I served six months of active duty with the National Guard. Am I eligible for VA medical benefits?

A - National Guard members are only entitled to VA medical benefits if they have a disease or injury which was incurred or aggravated in the line of duty while on active training.

Q - I understand there has been a reduction in VA education benefits. Does this apply to my educational assistance allowance?

A - The Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act, which became law in December 1985, has reduced money available to pay educational assistance. As a result the VA has reduced the amounts payable for persons eligible for benefits under the Educational Assistance Allowance Program and the Dependents' Educational Assistance Program. The reduced educational assistance applies to training from March 1, 1986 through September 30, 1986.

Q - When I got out of the Army after World War II, I used the GI Bill to buy a house. I am retiring soon and I want to use my current house as a income property. Can the VA help me buy a new home in Florida or is a VA-guaranteed home loan a once-in-a-lifetime deal?

A - Any veteran who has remaining entitlement to a home loan guarantee may use that entitlement to purchase a new principal residence. This is true whether or not the veteran still owns the house he or she bought with the assistance of a VA loan guarantee.

Q - I recently have been rated for a service-connected disability. My disability makes it difficult for me to obtain life insurance. Can the VA help me?

A - If you apply within one year of the date you are notified that you have been granted a service-connected disability rating and are otherwise in good health, you may obtain Service-Disabled Veterans Insurance issued by the Veterans Administration.

Q - I have accepted employment overseas. What should I do if I have a problem with my VA compensation benefits?

A - Beneficiaries residing or travelling overseas requiring information or assistance relative to VA benefits should contact the nearest American Embassy or Consulate.

McDonalds Answers All Town Questions

By George Mueller

The Town Board was satisfied with arguments and a presentation by McDonalds Corporation and Paumanock Development Corporation at a hearing on Tuesday, August 26 for a special use permit to erect a restaurant with a drive-thru window in an industrial "H" district at Hicksville, E/S Broadway - Route 107, S/of Louis-First Street. The final decision on this hearing is reserved and will be decided in the next few weeks.

Adjourned from July 8, so that those parties interested in obtaining the permit could try to comply with the parking ordinance established by the Town of Oyster Bay, the hearing dealt with three major issues. In a well organized presentation, according to Supervisor Colby, Mr. Cohen, the main spokesman for both parties, addressed each issue with precise answers backed by informative charts when necessary.

The first issue was the above mentioned parking facilities. This problem is inter-related to the second major issue, the inhibition of traffic flow on Broadway.

A 42 car parking facility for walk-in use of the restaurant would be built to provide ample parking. Also included would be two handicapped parking spaces. The Board was convinced that the number of spaces would be sufficient for the amount of customers entering the restaurant. The major possibility of interruption of traffic flow is the confusion of which entrance to use.

Clearly marked as a drive-thru entrance separated from the other entrance by a curb, there would be no back-up traffic onto Broadway caused by drive-thru customers waiting for walk-in customers to park their cars, according to representatives from McDonalds whom Mr. Cohen addressed.

Furthermore, the drive-thru ordering area is located at the rear of the store, again prohibiting back-up traffic onto Broadway.

The exit problems were addressed three-fold. One: a right turn only would be allowed at the exit eliminating driving across Broadway and prohibiting traffic flow in both directions. Two: signs prohibiting the left turn at the exit would be clearly visible. Three: arrows painted on the exit roadway directing a right turn only would be included.

The last issue addressed at this hearing was the distraction factor the McDonalds' arches could cause on a busy roadway in this huge industrial district. A suggested example of how the arches could be kept to a minimal size when erected was the McDonalds restaurant located on Route 109 in Farmingdale.

The representatives from McDonalds said they would have no problem in complying with this issue and would report back to the Board with the specifications.

Storytellers all - the evening's performers in the Bethpage Public Library's 4th Annual Summer Storytelling Festival. Front row, left to right: young Bethpage 1986 Long Island Storytelling Contest winners, Michael Freudenberg, Susie Vivolo, Rhonda Prensny and professional storyteller Getchie Argetsinger. Back row, left to right: Bethpage Public Library Children's Room Staff - Carol Cannoinito, Linda Schmall, Carol Shapiro.

"And that squeaky door went C-R-E-A-K," cried professional storyteller Getchie Argetsinger, as she led a group of enthusiastic young listeners in a lively audience participation tale at the Bethpage Public Library's 4th Annual Summer Storytelling Festival.

On a recent August evening, the Bethpage Public Library held its 4th Annual Summer Storytelling Festival for youngsters and parents, who enjoyed performances by a variety of tellers. The tales were presented in different styles, came from many cultures and time periods, were often enlivened by a potpourri of props, guitar accompaniment and a good deal of enthusiastic audience participation.

Heading the program was well-known professional storyteller Getchie Argetsinger, who regaled youngsters and parents with tales of fierce gunny wolves, squeaky doors, and outrageous animals. She presented her stories in a celebration for the young storytellers of Bethpage, fourth and fifth graders who were among the Bethpage winners in the 1986 Long Island Storytelling Contest.

The young storytellers saluted were Rhonda Prensny and Melissa Haudberg, both all-district winners; Michael

Freudenberg, winner at Our Lady of Mercy School; and Susie Vivolo, winner at Central Boulevard School. In addition, children's librarians Carol Shapiro, Linda Schmall, and Carol Cannoinito also entertained with exciting stories of their own. Refreshments were served at intermission, and a rousing good time was had by all. For further information, please call 931-3907.

Left to right: Elinor Dell'Orso, Carole Sawyer, Lila Gröb, and Terry O'Brien of Old Bethpage, who recently enjoyed a day of sun and fun at the Brookville Country Club helping to raise funds at the 7th Annual Charity Golf Tournament sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary of Madonna Helghis Services, a multi-faceted child care agency whose primary concern is to assist troubled young women. Madonna Helghis is located in Huntington, and serves young ladies and families throughout Nassau and Suffolk counties.

Oyster Bay Town Councilman Kenneth S. Diamond and Town Clerk Ann R. Ocker, center, look over the program for the end-of-summer swing-out for north shore senior citizens. On hand for the gala occasion were, left to right: Frances Romano of Bethpage, Catherine Kins of Hicksville and Mary Chimento of Oyster Bay. The day of dancing, dining and entertainment was sponsored by the Senior Citizen Services Division of the Town's Department of Community Services.

Oyster Bay Town Councilman Thomas L. Clark tried conductor Dean Karahall's baton on size prior to a recent performance by Karahall's Concert Pops of Long Island at Plainview-Old Bethpage Community Park. The group gave the final concert in the "Music Under the Stars" series at the park sponsored by the Cultural and Performing Arts (CAPA) Division of the Department of Community Services and co-sponsored by the Town of Oyster Bay Arts Council, Inc.

Bluefish Tourney On Sept. 14

Oyster Bay Town Councilman John Venditto announced that on Sunday, September 14, the Town will sponsor the first of what is hoped will be an annual event.

Venditto said, "the bluefish tournament is open to residents of all ages who are interested in the chance to compete. Prizes will be awarded in the form of gift certificates which can be redeemed at Oyster Bay Marine Supply, the event's co-sponsor.

The first place prize is a $1,000 gift certificate for the biggest catch, second prize is $500 and the third prize is $300. Each of the top three winners and runners-up four through ten will receive award plaques. Everyone who enters will be given a commemorative T-shirt," Venditto added.

The cost to enter the tournament will be $10 per boat. This fee covers the first two persons in the boat, each additional person will be charged $2.50. Venditto noted that if the money collected in entrance fees exceeds the cost of the gift certificates then more prizes will be awarded.

Boats will leave Theodore Roosevelt Memorial Park beginning at 5 a.m. and must return no later than 5 p.m. Additional rules for the contest are contained in the registration form which is available at all Town of Oyster Bay Parks, Town Hall South, 977 Hicksville Road, Massapequa and Oyster Bay Marine Supply, 47 West Main Street, Oyster Bay. Forms must be returned no later than Saturday, September 13.

"For those experienced fishermen or those who think they might have 'beginner's luck' this will be a day to try your hand and, possibly come away with a big dividend," Venditto concluded.

Kristin Mund Wins Sr. Meet

Thirteen year old Kristin Mund of Hicksville distinguished herself by winning the High Point Award at the Summer Senior Metropolitan Championships at Cantiague Park.

Despite the inclement weather, Kristin won the 800 meter free, the 1500 free, the 400 meter free and was second in the 400 IM and the 100 fly. Her fly time was her personal best and qualified her for Junior Nationals.

Other swimmers from Hicksville scored at the meet which boasts top swimmers from the entire metropolitan area. Lorna Mund won the 100 and 200 backstroke and the 100 freestyle. She was second in the 200 free and third in the 400 free. Scott Epstein, in his first Senior Mets, placed fourth in the 100 breast and fifth in the 200 breast. Jeannine Sires scored in the 200 and 400 IM, the 100 free and the 200 free.

Recycling Pilot Program In Town

The Oyster Bay Town Board resolved on Tuesday, August 26, to authorize funds to study source separation and recycling programs with the goal of implementing a mandatory pilot recycling program, according to Town Councilman Howard T. Hogan.

"The Town is in the process of gathering information that will aid us in determining how to proceed with a pilot program and tell us what markets are available for recycled material," said Hogan. The program will be conducted in a limited test area and the results analyzed before being implemented townwide.

"Letters have been sent to municipalities which currently have some type of recycling program requesting that they share with us their experience," continued the Councilman.

"Among other questions we have specifically asked what materials they recycle and whether they provide curbside pickup or residents must bring selected items to a designated location. If curbside collection is made, we have asked how frequently it is provided."

Town representatives are having on-going conversations with representatives of other Long Island municipalities, including the Town of Islip, to determine the success rate of that government's voluntary program. Oyster Bay officials plan to visit Camden County, New Jersey to view its program next week.

Hogan said, "The Town's ultimate goal is to compile data that will tell us how much of the waste stream can be reduced by recycling, and to institute an appropriate recycling program which will complement our plans for resource recovery."

Sept. Meeting For Zone Changes

Oyster Bay Town Clerk Ann R. Ocker announced that the Town Board has set September 16, as the new hearing date on a request for two change of zone applications in Plainview, requested by the same applicant.

Ocker said, "On the previously scheduled hearing date of May 13, the applicant, Nopa Realty Corp., requested an adjournment. At the same time the Town Board received a petition with the required number of signatures, requesting a night hearing. The decision was made to adjourn the application and schedule a night hearing for September.

"The applicant is seeking a zone change on two separate parcels from Residence 'D' to 'R-O' (Residence-Office District), for general use," said Ocker. "The buildings are located north of Old Country Road at 20 Central Park Road and 65 Central Park Road."

The hearing has been scheduled to begin at 8 p.m. on Tuesday, September 16, in the hearing room of Town Hall East, Audrey Avenue, Oyster Bay.

Quality Or Quantity?

One Sure Way To Get Results!

When you advertise in a subscription newspaper you get quality readership. You know that EVERY copy of the newspaper has been invited into the home and three to four people will most likely read it.

When you buy quantity the only thing you might be sure of is that it has been hung on door knobs or thrown on lawns all over the neighborhood.

With our newspapers YOU ONLY PAY FOR COPIES that will be read. It is this quality that produces results. Do not waste money on wasted copies. Advertise here and get results.

Our (not so secret) ingredient Readers = Results is the reason we are preferred over the largest metropolitan newspapers and the many throwaways.

Bank Of N.Y. Branch Here

The Bank of New York has opened four new branches on Long Island in Port Washington, Hicksville, Massapequa and Hauppauge.

The openings will increase the number of Bank of New York branches on Long Island from 30 to 34.

The new Port Washington, Hicksville and Massapequa branches were acquired from The Hamburg Savings Bank. As Bank of New York branches, they will offer a full array of retail banking services, including The Bank of New York's very competitive consumer loan products. The branches also will offer a wide variety of services for small and mid-size businesses.

The new Hauppauge branch will be a Business Banking Center, designed and staffed specifically to meet the business and personal banking needs of Long Island business people.

"Long Island is an extremely attractive market from our point of view," said Paul J. Leyden, of Garden City, senior vice president in charge of The Bank of New York's Long Island Division. "Not only does it contain a tremendous number of people and businesses, but it also is one of the most prosperous and fastest-growing areas in the country."

"Although there already are many banks here, we see significant opportunities to expand our market share by offering on a broader scale the high-quality service and competitive rates that we've long been known for."

Jr. Olympics Swimming Finalist

A Hicksville swimmer, Stephanie Wolchok, competed and finished in the Long Island Junior Swimming Olympics held August 2-4. Stephanie finished in two events, the 50 and 100 meter breaststroke.

Stephanie is a member of the Hofstra Aquatic Club which will be holding swim team tryouts for those interested from 5 to 6 p.m. at the Hofstra Swim Center on Wednesday, September 3, Thursday, September 4, Friday, September 5 and Monday, September 8.

The program is a year-round activity for children nine years old and younger. For further information contact Coach Lisa Baumann at 742-5548.

Hicksville Residents Enter Dahlia Show

Douglas Ditko of Rim Lane and William Allgeier of Hope Lane, Hicksville, will lead the way in competing in the 23rd Annual Dahlia Show of the Mid-Island Dahlia Society which will be held on Saturday, September 13, 2-6 p.m. and Sunday, September 14, 12-5 p.m. at the beautiful East Terrace of Nassau Beach, Lido Beach, N.Y.

Featured this year will be the North Atlantic Conference Show which means: over 1,000 Dahlia blooms will be on display from the growers and showmen on the North Atlantic coast. If you have never been to see a Dahlia show this will be the best ever in a setting by the Atlantic sea.

Lorna Mund Scores In Easterns

At the Eastern Zones Championships, held at the University of Pittsburgh on July 18-20, Lorna Mund won the 100 meter backstroke with a Senior National qualifying time. She also placed fourth in the 200 meter back.

Lorna's time of 1:07.0 in the 100 back qualifies her to compete in the National Meet which is being held in Santa Clara, California on August 4-9. She has also qualified in the 200 backstroke.

Concert Features Dave Sear

Dave Sear is a dynamic folk singer connecting to his audience with humor, excitement and passion through folk songs of our times and times gone by.

He will be appearing at the Plainview-Old Bethpage Library on Friday, September 26 at 8 p.m.

With banjo and twelve string guitar ringing, Sear blends old foot-stomping mountain square dance tunes with new songs about sailors, women, children, animals, mermaids, aging and nature into a life-affirming concert that leaves an audience young or old with a good feeling toward life.

Dave Sear, who has been an active member of the folk music scene since the late 1940's has given concerts all over the United States and in Europe. He has shared stages with every folk singer over the years from Woody Guthrie to Pete Seeger and has recorded for many different labels. Sear has directed music for and appeared on CBS, NBC, CBC and WPIX television. A veteran of over 35 years in radio, Sear is currently host/producer of the nationally syndicated "Folk Music Almanac" heard in the NYC area on Saturdays at 10 p.m. over radio station WNYC, FM, National Public Radio.

Sear has recently released the second pressing of a record called "Friends". Robert Sherman host/producer of "Woody's Children" and program director of WQXR has called the album "an extraordinary collection of songs-potent, powerful and fun". This program is in cooperation with Nassau County Office of Cultural Development. The library is located at 999 Old Country Road in Plainview, opposite the Morton Village Shopping Center, 938-0077.

News From VFW Post 3211

By P.P.C. Carmine A. Somma
 "Candlelight Procession for our M.I.A.-P.O.W." will be held on Friday, Sept. 19. It has been set aside by Congressional Resolution and President Proclamation as National P.O.W.-M.I.A. Recognition Day. The Vietnam Veterans of America Nassau Chapter will be holding a prayer and candlelight vigil at Townsend Park, Audrey Ave. Oyster Bay at 8 p.m. This vigil is our protest that the P.O.W.-M.I.A. issue is not resolved and V.V.A. will not let the public nor our government forget this important issue.

Many P.O.W.-M.I.A. parents and relatives will be on hand to join in this vigil including other political officials.

This ceremony is open to the public, Veterans Groups, Fraternal Organizations, all are welcome to attend.

Tom Kaiser, Chairman for M.I.A.-P.O.W. is working on his Annual Rally in Washington D.C. This year it will be held on November 2. For more information you can contact Tom Kaiser at 226-1474 or you may write to him at 293 29th St., Lindenhurst, N.Y. 11757.

Most Callers To Input Support Grain Sales

Most callers to Input believe that grain sales to Russia were justified in answer to this question: "President Reagan said U.S. subsidized grain sales to Russia were to help farmers here. Do you agree with this idea?" Here are some of the answers:

BEATS ARMS RACE

It was all right to sell our surplus grain to the Russians. Perhaps we went a little far in giving them a reduced rate but it still beats entering a bigger and bigger arms race. After all, we have the surplus. If we did not use it, the farmers would have to finally dump it and then no one would benefit at all. So while it seems unusual that we should be giving the USSR a discount, maybe it will be worth it. K.E.

FAIR PRICE

We should have sold the grain to Russia at its fair market value. What the subsidized wheat means is that the taxpayers are helping out the Russians. If it were the other way around, we would pay through the nose. E.R.

SUPPLY, DEMAND

It is somewhat confusing why the Russians need to buy wheat at all when they have perhaps the best grain growing area in the world in the Ukraine. But, if you weigh all of the odds, what we have done is true capitalism. I assume we had to match rates that other countries might be able to supply the wheat to Russia for and match the prices. So, it is supply and demand. Our own farmers are producing an abundance and that makes the supply cause the price to weaken. J.R.

SEE FOR THEMSELVES

Yes, I see no reason why we should not feed people if they are genuinely in need of food. The USSR got a discount but the fact that we are supplying them food is one up for us because they can see that when it counts, the U.S.A. is not all that bad as painted by the proponents of the Communist system who keep telling the people untruths. The fact is that their system is not working well at all when they are not able to feed their own people with the great lands that they have. Let the Russians see for themselves. This is better than war. W.F.

NO PROPAGANDA

While the Russians use plenty of money and labor to produce bombs and help countries, they want to get into their circle, they then ask us for subsidized wheat. Well, if your farmers need the sale, we should go along with it but there is still a big lesson that is shown to the world. Our free enterprise farmers produce plenty and perhaps the Communist countries will decide that eating is better than any form of propaganda. F.E.

FOOD WEAPON

Once again, we are helping our enemies only to have them turn on us when they want. We should use food as a weapon and get something more than money in return. S.E.

BETTER IDEA

Selling grain at a reduced rate, even to Russia, is a better idea in my opinion than not selling it at all and letting it decay in warehouses. I agree with President Reagan's suggestion that there be a limit for this lower price. In the meantime, farmers deserve all the help they can get. C.P.

HELP FARMERS

Yes, I agree with the idea of subsidizing grain sales to Russia to help farmers here. Helping subsidize grain will help us to stop something like nuclear warfare with Russia. We will be able to have more peace talks with them. The grain will help to feed the hungry in Russia and will help farmers here. E.G.O.

SINGLE CASE

Assuming we have more grain than we know what to do with, why not? I haven't the faintest idea as to how much the U.S. Government has stock-piled in the way of grain, dairy items, petroleum and other excess products, but from time to time the news leaks out that the warehouses are bulging. Having bought these items from the producers for strategic or economic reasons, I think that the same reasoning can be applied to sales to Russia. As it happens, the Soviets are in a bit of a bind from the standpoint of hard currency, desperately need the grain for internal consumption, our farmers need support and we, the U.S.A., are in the midst of a love-making session with the U.S.S.R. Generally speaking, I wouldn't agree with the idea because rightfully, we scream when other nations employ similar price-cutting tactics. However, in this instance and acknowledging that circumstances alter cases, and assuming that this will be treated as a singular case with benefits enough to go around for everyone involved on both sides, I feel that the idea has merit. P.G.S.

Elderhostel: When Seniors Return To College

By Jerome J. Niosi, Ph.D

Over 100,000 seniors who have earned the right to relax will go to school this year. Many have life experiences; more are college graduates with master degrees and a sprinkling of doctorates. All will register for thousands of courses offered by 850 colleges and universities in 50 states, 10 Canadian provinces and 20 foreign countries around the world, because they enjoy learning, especially without exams, grades, attendance taking and report cards. This is the exciting world of the Elderhostel.

Beginning in 1975, the Elderhostel program has grown steadily as people sampled the courses, liked what they had experienced, and urged their friends to enroll.

Briefly, the courses are "one weekers" beginning with Sunday registration and ending with Saturday breakfast. From 9 to 5, the students could study a single course intensively, or three separate courses, and, although the week moves along leisurely, there is little free time. Depending upon one's positive attitude energized by a spirit of adventure, returning to college as a "senior student" can not only be rewarding, but also most satisfying.

While at college, students will sleep in twin-bedded dormitory rooms in either new or stately buildings. They will eat varied, well prepared cafeteria style meals - not gourmet - which are guaranteed to add pounds to one's weight by the weekend. Bathroom facilities must be shared and there is no maid service. Supplies are plentiful. Recalling earlier college days, the mature students manage to arrange visits to all facilities so as to avoid the inconvenience of "ganging up".

Some fifty adults make up the average class. About half the group will consist of married couples with a considerable sprinkling of widows and widowers. All must be at least sixty years of age, but a spouse may be as young as fifty. But don't be put off by age. These students are among the most interesting and most widely traveled one is likely to meet anywhere in the world and most have been all over the world.

One of the inducements to enroll in an elderhostel is its modest "tuition": $205 per person. The fee includes registration, six nights on campus, five days of instruction, all meals (including box lunches on "field trips") and a variety of extra-curricular activities. However, the prospective student is responsible for getting to the college. Once enrolled, special instructions will simplify travel arrangements.

Combinations of programs are possible and many students arrange their courses to coincide with visits to relatives and friends before or after classes. Stayovers for an additional week or two are possible and special diets are available. Even physical disabilities present no insurmountable problem. The Elderhostel staff is composed of people who really care about their older guests, but no pets are permitted.

Upon arrival between 2 and 5 Sunday afternoon, the elderhostel will find a staff eager to carry the luggage and assist in getting everyone settled. This is followed by dinner and an orientation. Each student introduces himself, meets the staff and faculty, receives instruction for the week and retires shortly thereafter. Everyone has been traveling considerable distances, some from the eastern seaboard as far south as Florida; others from Canada and the Midwest. And Monday, the first day of classes, begins promptly at 9 a.m.

The Elderhostel faculty is made up of regular university instructors supplemented by adjunct specialists. They are competent and well-prepared. They had better be. Their students are retired teachers, engineers, lawyers and other professionals, as well as successful businessmen and women. They are in class because they are intellectually curious and would not remain if they were wasting their time.

Each class whizzes by in one and a half hours and students are encouraged to participate. There is no competition and the instructors are aware that, in specifics, many of the students are more knowledgeable than the instructors. Class discussions are often spirited and sustained as in the class on Arab-Israeli politics. Some Christian and Jewish students displayed an unusually comprehensive knowledge of Muslim culture and history. But the participation is always mature and respectful. Often, the discussion which continues after class reveals a background as interesting as the class instruction.

Elderhostelers are widely traveled. They are self-assured, lively and interested. They have worked a lifetime, raised their children, and in some cases grandchildren. All are participating in a most satisfying retirement. With so varied a set of experiences shared, the subsequent table talk at breakfast, lunch and supper becomes the best parts of the elderhostel week.

After lunch, there is another course on a different subject, or another phase of the same course. Before dinner, there could be time for a dip in the college pool, aquasizes, a tennis game on the available courts, or a siesta. At three is the final class. At 5:30 everyone returns for dinner with its choices of three entrees followed by a dessert pouring, self-service, from a "Carvel" type ice cream dispenser.

The evenings continue the enjoyable diversification. Mondays are scheduled for a President's Reception. The other evenings can include a concert presentation by the visiting faculty of the Juilliard Conservatory, or a play by the college Repertory Theatre, or it might be an address by Morehead Kennedy who related his experiences as a hostage in Iran. It could also include band concerts on the Village Green, or on the shores of a lake. The final night is a farewell dinner, thematically Tunisian to accompany the course on Islam, or complete with student presented entertainment.

During any available time, opportunities also exist for visits to local points of interest, such as Chittenango Falls outside of Cazenovia. In all, one can look forward to an unforgettable week and the experience at any one of them will make one an elderhosteler for life.

Those intrigued could study the "Ghost Towns of Arizona" at Cochise Community College, improve their "Travel Photography" at Grand Canyon College. One can review "Ben Franklin's Wit, Wisdom, and Women" while wintering at the University of Florida. Everyone could benefit from "Drugs and Their Effects" at Cazenovia in upstate New York. Against the background of the troubled Middle East, many could profit from Alfred University's "History of Islam".

The more adventurous could study the period from "William the Conqueror to D Day" at France's University at Caen; or visit the sites in Jerusalem under the auspices of Hebrew University; or study "The Etruscans" in Italy. There is something for everyone.

It must be working. Couples have stated that they attended 19, 20, 30 of the elderhostels. Many have returned to the same college annually for any of the new courses offered. In any event, attending an elderhostel is an exciting alternative to getting a sunburn on the beach or hassling with the airlines while racing through twelve countries in four days. Why not write to Elderhostel, 80 Boylston Street, Suite 400, Boston Massachusetts, 02116, for a catalog and go to college instead. Remember: "Age may wrinkle your skin, but the lack of enthusiasm will wrinkle your soul." There are few wrinkled souls among the students of the Elderhostel classes!

GOOD DINING

Recently we went to celebrate an anniversary and had a delicious dinner at TR's in Williston Park. This small busy little restaurant (it has expanded a bit upstairs) is an experience in good dining. The menu has many innovative items on it and it includes excellent salads and quiches. In addition they have good fish and meat entrees.

We left the restaurant with the feeling that there are still many good things that are done in a better way. We want to recommend TR's on Hillside Ave., Williston Park, to everyone because we believe they will enjoy it. R.M.

GOOD NIGHT

Last Wednesday we decided to follow one of the suggestions in your Reader Ratings. We were mainly satisfied with what we got although the service was a little slow. We went to the Platt-deutsche Park Restaurant in Franklin Square. The place was no stranger to us because we have been there many times before at catered affairs. But this time we went to the smaller restaurant and had sauerbraten. Considering that the check was reduced because we had four in the party eating sauerbraten and they gave us all of the salad we could ever eat it was a very good night both in food and cost. J.H.

THE BEST

When it comes to good Italian food, the four of us who attended Iannone's last Thursday believe it is the best.

Here is a restaurant that you could say is unpretentious by extravagant standards although it is well decorated and cheerful.

But the thing you go to Iannone's for is good food. They have wonderful pasta. It is made to just the right consistency with fresh tomato sauce. Their veal is about the tenderest veal the four of us had ever eaten and we have been to many places. A restaurant like Iannone's is a great place to spend an evening having dinner. If your readers do not know about it, they are missing something so please print this. E.G.

READER RATINGS

Q. Sometimes I see diners encircling their plates with the left hand while they eat with the right hand. It almost looks as if they were protecting their food from being stolen! I don't like this mannerism and wonder what you think of it.

A. You are correct, it would be much more graceful to put the left forearm just on the edge of the table or simply to place the left hand in the lap while eating with the right hand.

Q. Is it proper to eat the little "extras" served with cocktails, such as olives or maraschino cherries, or should they be left in the glass?

A. It is perfectly all right to enjoy them along with the cocktail. If they are served on a toothpick that is what you can use to remove them. If not, finish your cocktail and then (as unobtrusively as possible) eat them with your fingers.

Q. Can you tell me the proper way to eat French fries? At a restaurant recently I saw a young man spear them with his fork and nibble them in mid-air. I found this appalling!

A. The best way to eat French fries is to cut them with the side of a fork into bite-size pieces. You are right—food should never be eaten while dangled in the air.

Q. Is it allowed for a restaurant to include a tip, automatically, on the bill for food ordered? A friend and I had that happen recently and I resented it because the service was very poor and we felt a tip was not in order. Please answer.

A. No. In this country the custom is not to add any tip to the bill and unless the menu stating the prices clearly says that this will be done it is not correct. Most people would not be happy with that system in the U.S. because diners have always had a flexible tip system in which they could give a better tip for better service and if this is not kept then the tip is just a fee.

READER RATINGS

YOU CAN BE A RESTAURANT CRITIC. If you visit any of the restaurants selected for inclusion in this section-call 931-0027 at any hour and tell your ideas. We want you, the reader, to be our critic. Your message then can be printed in this space.

ORIGINAL MENUS
A fine new restaurant to add to the many fine restaurants in Williston Park is called "Your Place or Mine". This small restaurant is tremendously big on doing things better than elsewhere. It features original arrangements of vegetables and salads. Its entrees have special extras which make them seem so much nicer than at other places. My husband, who loves beef, found that a steak at Your Place or Mine was different and better than at other restaurants, even the very good places. The desserts are great too. I recommend this to all your readers. Even though I am not a famous restaurant critic I know good food when I eat it. F.K.

Q. Can you tell me what the letters "VO" mean on a bottle of cognac?
A. They stand for "very old", meaning the brandy was ten years old when it was bottled. The initials "VVO" or "VSO" indicate it was fifteen years old, while "VSOP" mean twenty years old. The longer cognac is allowed to "age", i.e. to mellow in wooden casks, the better it is considered to be. It does not improve once it has been bottled.

Q. Next month my husband and I will be entertaining out of town business associates. While they are here we expect to take them out one evening for dinner. While price is no problem (because the company will cover our expenses), we are a little nervous about where to take them. It is the first time we will be meeting our guests and we have no idea what their tastes are!

A. When you entertain people you do not know well it is best to choose a "classic" restaurant with French or American cuisine, rather than one which serves more specialized food. Once you select a likely place it might be a good idea to try it once before your guests come if you haven't eaten there lately. That way you would make sure the food and service are satisfactory at the present time. Always remember that restaurants can change!

Cooking Corner

By Verne Palmer

They don't call tomatoes love apples for nuthin'

Tomatoes were first cultivated in America during the 1700s, but they were largely ignored until the next century. When they were eaten, it usually was in sauces.

They might have languished in liquid limbo indefinitely had it not been for two factors: the arrival of large numbers of Italian immigrants accustomed to enjoying them in a variety of forms, and their widespread propagation by Southern farmers, who recognized them as a potentially valuable crop.

Fresh tomatoes are one of the most adaptable fruits in the market. They can be eaten raw in salads, sliced, in sauces, pickled, in relishes or in sandwiches; used as a base for soups, salad dressings and entrees, or baked, fried, stuffed or stewed.

A wide-ranging sample of recipe ideas follows.

GOLDEN GATE SALAD SUPREME

- 8 large tomatoes
- 2 cups chopped fresh vegetables
- 4 ounces spiral pasta, cooked
- 1/4 cup sliced green onion
- 1/4 cup sliced celery
- 1/4 cup grated Parmesan cheese
- 1 1/2 teaspoons sweet basil, crushed
- 1 package (1 1/2 ounces) spaghetti sauce seasoning mix with mushrooms
- 1 cup mayonnaise
- 1 cup dairy sour cream

Cut stem end off each tomato and remove seeds and pulp, leaving a firm shell.

In medium bowl, combine vegetables, pasta, green onion, celery, Parmesan cheese, mayonnaise and sour cream, blend well. Fold in pasta mixture. Spoon filling into each tomato cup and arrange in 13x9-inch glass dish. Chill one hour or overnight before serving.

Serves 8

GARDEN LASAGNE

- 3 large tomatoes
- 1 package (1 1/2 ounces) spaghetti sauce seasoning mix with mushrooms
- 2 1/4 cups water
- 1 can (6 ounces) tomato paste
- 2 tablespoons vegetable oil
- 3 cups cottage cheese
- 1 cup grated Parmesan cheese
- 2 eggs, beaten
- 1 tablespoon oregano, crushed
- 1 tablespoon sweet basil, crushed
- 1 1/2 teaspoons garlic powder with parsley
- 1/4 teaspoon seasoned salt
- 1/2 teaspoon seasoned pepper

- 10 lasagne noodles, cooked
- 3 medium zucchini, shredded
- 12 ounces mozzarella cheese, shredded

Slice tomatoes in 12 (1/4-inch-thick) slices.

In medium saucepan, combine spaghetti sauce seasoning mix with water, tomato paste, and vegetable oil. Simmer 20 minutes. Set aside.

In medium bowl, combine cottage cheese, Parmesan cheese, eggs, oregano, sweet basil, garlic powder, seasoned salt and seasoned pepper.

In lightly greased 13x9-inch baking dish, place a layer of five lasagne noodles on the bottom, overlapping. Spread one-half cottage cheese mixture over noodles. Cover with zucchini, saving 1/4 cup for garnish. Pour one-third spaghetti sauce over zucchini. Cover with one-half mozzarella cheese. Repeat layers with remaining noodles, cottage cheese mixture and one-third spaghetti sauce, reserving remaining zucchini. Arrange tomato slices on top and add remaining third of spaghetti sauce. Sprinkle with remaining cheese.

Set baking dish on cookie sheet. Bake in 350 F oven 35 to 40 minutes. Remove from oven, garnish with reserved zucchini. Cool in pan 20 minutes before serving.

Serves 12.

HERBED BEEF AND VEGETABLE SKILLET

- 1 pound tomatoes
- 1 pound flank or boneless beef round steak
- 3 tablespoons vegetable oil, divided
- 1/2 cup chopped onion
- 1 clove garlic, crushed
- 1 1/2 cups zucchini in 1/4-inch slices, halved
- 1 cup green pepper in 1/4-inch squares
- 1 cup beef broth, divided
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon thyme leaves, crushed
- 1/2 teaspoon tarragon leaves, crushed
- 1/2 teaspoon ground black pepper
- 1 tablespoon cornstarch

Use tomatoes held at room temperature until fully ripe. Cut tomatoes into 1/4-inch cubes (makes about two cups), set aside. Freeze beef for 15 to 20 minutes for easy slicing. Thinly slice beef on the diagonal, cut into bite-size pieces.

In a large skillet heat one tablespoon of the oil until hot. Add beef. Cook and stir until browned, about two minutes. Remove from skillet and set aside. Add remaining two tablespoons oil, heat until hot. Add onion and garlic. Sauté until onion is transparent, about five minutes.

Add zucchini and green pepper. Cook and stir over medium heat until vegetables are slightly cooked, about two minutes. Add 1/4 cup of the beef broth, salt, thyme, tarragon, black pepper and reserved tomatoes. Bring to a boil. Reduce heat and simmer, covered, until vegetables are tender, about two minutes.

Combine cornstarch with remaining 1/4 cup beef broth. Stir into skillet along with reserved beef. Cook and stir until sauce is clear and thickened, about one minute. Serve over steamed rice or shredded cabbage, if desired.

Serves 4.

TOMATO HALVES PROVENCALE

- 1 1/2 cups soft bread crumbs
- 2 tablespoons finely chopped parsley
- 1/4 cup, plus 2 tablespoons Italian or Caesar dressing
- 3 medium tomatoes

Preheat oven to 400 F.

In small bowl, combine bread crumbs, parsley and 1/4 cup Italian dressing.

Cut tomatoes in half crosswise; gently squeeze to remove seeds. Place cut side down in medium-size shallow, baking dish with 2 tablespoons dressing; bake 10 minutes. Turn and top with bread crumb mixture; bake an additional five minutes or until golden brown.

Serves 6.

ORIENTAL

STUFFED TOMATOES

- 4 large tomatoes (about 2 pounds)
- 1/2 cup diagonally sliced celery (1/4-inch thick)
- Boiling water
- 2 tablespoons soy sauce
- 1 tablespoon dry sherry
- 1/2 teaspoon ground ginger
- 1/2 teaspoon garlic powder
- 1/2 cup cooked rice
- 1/4 cup sliced scallion (green onion)

Use tomatoes held at room temperature until fully ripe. Preheat oven to 350 F. Cut off stem end of each tomato. Scoop out and reserve pulp leaving 1/4-inch-thick shells. Dice pulp into 1/4-inch pieces (makes about 1 1/2 cups), set aside.

In small saucepan cook celery in 1/4-inch boiling water until tender, about two minutes. Drain and set aside.

In small bowl combine soy sauce, sherry, ginger and garlic powder. Add rice, scallion and reserved diced tomatoes and celery. Spoon into reserved tomato shells. Place in shallow baking pan containing 1/4-inch water. Cover and bake until tomatoes are tender, 20 to 25 minutes.

Serves 4.

TOMATO-CUCUMBER RELISH

- 2 pounds tomatoes
- 2 medium cucumbers
- 1/4 cup water
- 1/4 cup cider vinegar
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon celery seed
- 1/2 teaspoon powdered mustard
- 1/2 teaspoon sugar
- 1/16 teaspoon ground red pepper
- 1 cup green pepper in 1/4-inch squares
- 1/4 cup sliced scallion (green onion)

Use tomatoes held at room temperature until fully ripe. Cut tomatoes into 1/4-inch cubes (makes about four cups), set aside. Peel cucumbers; cut in halves lengthwise and scoop out seeds using a teaspoon. Cut cucumbers in 1/4-inch pieces (makes about 1 1/2 cups); set aside.

In small saucepan combine water, vinegar, salt, celery seed, mustard, sugar and red pepper. Bring to a boil. Reduce heat and simmer, covered, for two minutes. Remove from heat.

In a medium bowl combine green pepper, scallion and reserved tomatoes and cucumbers. Stir in vinegar mixture. Cover and refrigerate at least two hours or overnight.

Yield: about 4 cups.

Don't be afraid of lamb shanks

Many chefs pass up lamb shanks at the supermarket meat counter because they are not sure how to prepare them. Unlike leg of lamb and lamb chops, which are often over $4 a pound, lamb shanks generally sell for $1.50 to $2 a pound — the best buy of all the cuts of lamb.

Today's recipes will introduce you to several delicious recipes for this versatile and inexpensive meat.

Shanks, also known as trotters, are from the forelegs of the lamb. Generally, lamb shanks weigh from 10 to 14 ounces. When you prepare them, plan on one shank per person.

You should remove the fell (a stiff, parchmentlike coating of fat) before you cook lamb shanks. Leaving the fell on during cooking produces a stronger flavor than is pleasing to most people.

There are many possible variations of today's recipes, and you won't go far wrong if you keep in mind that lamb shanks go very well with such vegetables as onions, carrots, celery and potatoes. Noodles and rice are both excellent with lamb shanks, especially in recipes that include tomatoes. Continued On Page 11

BRAISED LAMB SHANKS WITH RED WINE

4 lamb shanks
Flour for dredging
Salt and pepper to taste
¼ cup olive oil
Cut into bite-sized pieces:
1 large onion
1 green pepper
¼ teaspoon each salt and pepper
Dash paprika
1½ pounds fresh green beans, trimmed and halved
One-third cup water
2 medium tomatoes
4 stalks celery
3 carrots
½ teaspoon oregano
¼ teaspoon thyme
2 cloves garlic, minced
1 cup dry red wine
1 cup beef stock
1 bay leaf

Total preparation time — 10 minutes.

Total cooking time — 1½ to 2 hours.

Preheat oven to 350 F. Remove excess fat from lamb shanks and wipe with damp cloth. Dredge shanks in flour and sprinkle with salt and pepper. Heat olive oil in large skillet and brown shanks on all sides. Transfer shanks to heavy casserole. Add vegetables, oregano, thyme and garlic to skillet shanks were browned in. Sauté, stirring, for 5 minutes. Pour the vegetables over the lamb shanks and add the wine, stock and bay leaf. Cover and bake 1½ to 2 hours, or until meat is tender.
Serves 4.

BAKED LAMB SHANKS

4 lamb shanks
Salt and pepper to taste
2 cloves garlic, minced
2 small carrots, thinly sliced
2 celery stalks, thinly sliced
1 medium onion, thinly sliced
2 bay leaves
1 teaspoon oregano
¼ teaspoon thyme
2 cloves garlic, crushed
¼ cup olive oil
2 large cans Italian plum tomatoes, drained and finely chopped (reserve juice)
1 cup reserved tomato juice
1 cup water

Total preparation time — 10 minutes

Total cooking time — 1½ to 2 hours

Preheat oven to 375 F. Remove excess fat from lamb shanks. Sprinkle shanks with salt and pepper, and rub with minced garlic. Sprinkle the bottom of a heavy roasting pan with carrots, celery, onion and bay leaves. Add shanks, and sprinkle with oregano and thyme. In a skillet or saucepan, sauté crushed garlic cloves in half the olive oil until they are just soft. Add tomatoes and sauté until slightly thickened. Remove from heat, mix in water, tomato juice and remaining olive oil, and pour over lamb shanks. Cover and bake 1½ to 2 hours, basting frequently. During last half hour, raise oven temperature to 400 F and uncover roasting pan. This recipe makes enough to serve over spaghetti or noodles on the side.
Serves 4.

SAUTEED LAMB SHANKS

4 lamb shanks
1 cup fine, dry bread crumbs
¼ cup parsley, finely chopped
¼ teaspoon thyme
¼ teaspoon marjoram
¼ teaspoon savory (optional)
½ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
1 egg, beaten
3 tablespoons butter

For Gravy:
3 tablespoons dry sherry
¼ cup beef broth
Flour to thicken

Total preparation/cooking time — 50 to 60 minutes

Remove any excess fat from shanks. Mix bread crumbs together with herbs, salt and lemon rind. Dip shanks in egg, then in bread crumb-herb mixture. Melt butter in large skillet and sauté shanks over medium-low heat until browned on all sides and tender. Remove to serving platter and keep warm. Add sherry and beef broth to pan juices, stirring over medium-high heat. Whisk in enough flour to thicken slightly, starting with about 1 tablespoon. Add salt and pepper to taste and serve over lamb shanks.
Serves 4.

Creative cashew recipes

Whenever a bowl of mixed nuts makes its debut on a cocktail table, the cashews are always the first to disappear. (I know they're the ones I always go for...)

For those of you who are interested in etymology, the English word cashew (punsters and precocious children often respond with a "gesundheit") comes from the Portuguese caju. This, in turn, derives from the original Tupi Indian acaju.

India is currently the biggest producer of the cashew. The most important dessert nut (after the almond), this wrinkled, crescent-shaped nut is also widely used in candies and baked goods.

A number of Oriental dishes team cashews with chicken and/or sautéed vegetables, with delicious results. And vegetarians make a rich, satisfying gravy from ground cashews — a hearty substitute for meat gravy.

Gourmet cashew butter, a step up in status from peanut butter, is impressive and different, and easy to make. Just place one cup of roasted cashews in blender and process until smooth. Add two tablespoons vegetable oil and one tablespoon honey; blend until creamy. Refrigerate in covered container. Makes three-quarters of a cup.

To micro-roast raw cashews, spread one cup in a single layer on a shallow plate. Microwave, uncovered, on HIGH (100 percent power) about 10 to 12 minutes, stirring every two minutes. Drizzle hot nuts with one teaspoon vegetable oil, then sprinkle lightly with salt. Shake in paper bag to distribute; serve warm or cooled. Makes one cup.

If you and yours are cashew "nuts," the following microwave recipes may just become family favorites.

CHICKEN CASHEW CASSEROLE

1 (10¼-ounce) can condensed cream of chicken soup
1 (3-ounce) can crunchy chow mein noodles
2 cups cooked, cubed chicken
1 cup diced celery
¼ cup coarsely chopped cashews
¼ cup chopped onion
¼ cup water
¼ teaspoon each pepper and curry powder

Preparation Time: 5 minutes

Cooking Time: 8 to 10 minutes (plus 3 minutes standing time)

Oven Setting: HIGH (100 percent power)

In 2-quart glass casserole combine all ingredients, reserving ¼ cup of crunchy noodles. Toss well to blend.

Cover and microwave 8 to 10 minutes, stirring gently every 4 minutes, until heated through.

Let stand, covered, 3 minutes. Sprinkle with reserved crunchy noodles before serving.

Serves 3 to 4.

CASHEW GREEN BEANS

One-third cup chopped cashews
¼ cup butter or margarine
2 teaspoons lemon juice

Preparation Time: 5 to 10 minutes

Cooking Time: 13 to 16 minutes

Oven Setting: HIGH (100 percent power)

In 2-cup glass measure, combine cashews and butter. Microwave, uncovered, 4 minutes, stirring after 2 minutes. Stir in lemon juice and seasonings. Set aside.

In 2-quart glass casserole combine green beans and water. Cover and microwave 9 to 12 minutes, until beans are bright green and just tender.

Drain beans thoroughly and top with prepared cashew/butter mixture. Toss gently to combine.

Serve immediately.

Serves 4 to 6.

SAUCE JOSEPHINE

½ cup butter
¼ cup coarsely chopped cashews
2½ teaspoons lemon juice
¼ teaspoon grated lemon rind
Dash each pepper and ground nutmeg

Preparation Time: 3 to 5 minutes

Cooking Time: About 1 minute

Oven Setting: HIGH (100 percent power)

Place butter in 2-cup glass measure. Microwave, uncovered, 45 seconds to 1 minute, or until melted and bubbly.

Stir in remaining ingredients. Serve immediately over steamed fresh vegetables (asparagus, baby carrots, broccoli, green beans) or sliced cooked poultry.

Makes about 1 cup.

CASHEW BRITTLE

1 cup sugar
¼ cup white corn syrup
1 cup cashews
1 teaspoon butter or margarine
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
1 teaspoon baking soda

Preparation Time: 5 minutes

Cooking Time: 8 to 12 minutes (30 to 60 minutes standing time)

Oven Setting: HIGH (100 percent power)

Combine sugar and corn syrup in 1½-quart glass casserole. Stir to blend. Microwave, uncovered, 4 minutes, stirring after 2 minutes.

Stir in cashews; microwave 3 to 5 minutes, until mixture is light brown.

Stir in butter and vanilla, blending well. Microwave 1 to 3 minutes longer. Syrup should be very hot, and cashews heated through.

Add baking soda, stirring until mixture becomes frothy (about 1 minute). Turn mixture out onto lightly buttered baking sheet.

Let stand 30 minutes to 1 hour, to harden. Break into bite-size pieces and store in airtight container.

Makes about 1 pound.

Here's How

By Gene Garr

Q. In the last year and a half, our new aluminum screening has developed a kind of overall, spotty white stain. We have tried to remove these whitish streaks or patches by cleaning the screen with such things as Varsol, a Chlorox solution, an Amway cleaning product and several other strong cleaning fluids, plus detergent and water — but to no avail. We live within a mile of the airport, a railroad, a sewage plant and two highways. Could pollution be the cause? What would you suggest we use to remove these stains, or at least retard their progress? — G.T.F.

A. First, try one of the soap-filled steel wool pads, preferably one containing a rust-arrestor. If this fails, use stainless-steel wool (size 00) and a solvent-type liquid floor wax, dipping the wool pad into the wax and applying to the aluminum.

As a third recommendation, wet the stainless-steel wool pad with an etching solution, made of one part etching chemical cleaner to three parts water. Cover the wet pad with powdered pumice or some other heavy-duty abrasive. In scouring the aluminum, always rub with the "grain" — that is, back and forth, and never cross-wise or in a circular motion. Apply to an area small enough to be completely covered and kept wet for three to five minutes. Follow with a thorough rinsing before the cleaner dries on the surface. Another recommended cleaner for aluminum is Arm & Hammer Oven Cleaner used with fine steel wool.

The source of your problem is difficult to determine. Locations near the ocean cause problems with aluminum due to the moist salt air. If your neighbors are having a similar problem, the source is probably connected with your environment and could possibly be a pollution problem.

Q. My hardwood floors have been stained due to accidents caused by a family pet. The floor had been covered with a foam-backed carpet. Wetting by our dog over a period of approximately one year has damaged much of the floor area. There is no odor, just black stains where the finish is worn off. What can I do to remove these stains, short of sanding the entire floor? Thank you for your information. — C.C.

A. If a major area of the floor is affected, your best bet could be the refinishing of the entire floor. However, if you want to try spot treatments, use the following steps.

Clean the dark spot and surrounding area with No. 1 steel wool and a good floor cleaner or mineral spirits. If the spot remains, sand with fine sandpaper, feathering out 3 to 4 inches into the surrounding area. If the spot still remains, apply oxalic acid solution (1 ounce oxalic acid to 1 quart water). Use rubber gloves and caution when handling this solution. Let solution stand one hour, then rinse with clear water.

A second treatment may be helpful if the spot refuses to yield. If a second application of oxalic acid fails, sand the area with No. 00 sandpaper and apply matching finish, feathering out into the surrounding floor area. Let dry, then buff lightly with No. 00 steel wool. Apply a second coat of finish, dry and then wax. If the spot is still visible, the only remaining remedy is to replace the affected flooring.

Note: Oxalic acid is a bleaching agent. Whenever it is used, the treated floor area will probably have to be stained and refinished to match the original color.

A change in lifestyle for a healthier heart and longer life is encompassed in the three easy steps presented by Sheehan.

"But," he was asked, "can't we expect our bodies just to fall apart or slow down with age?" The "no" was emphatic from the expert.

If we accept our optimum physical age at 28, then our loss in physical ability is only 5 percent at age 40 and only 15 percent at age 60-plus. Aging and the negative assumptions of aging are myths.

"As older adults we continue to have most all of the physical and mental abilities we have had in younger years.

"At our age — whatever that age is — our ability and performance are determined by our own expectations. What do you expect from the next 16 hours when you rise from bed in the morning? If you're active and fit, you can approach each day with plans and expectations — and you can grow with those achievements.

"Get up and get away from the TV tube. No one ever got better at watching TV. No one got better than a 3-year-old in doing that," emphasized Sheehan.

The rate of deaths due to heart problems can be cut by half, asserts Sheehan, all tied to positive changes in lifestyle.

"Start with the three steps I've recommended. You'll find that you'll actually be able to do more work in the time you allot for it; you'll think more clearly and creatively; and you'll actually enjoy the time you have by yourself as you walk and discover the world around you."

Sheehan's "Book on Fitness" should be available in bookstores and libraries throughout the nation. You will also find his column in each issue of The Runner magazine.

TWEEN 12 & 20

By Robert Wallace, Ed D

Dr. Wallace: I attended a party this summer and a lot of the kids were smoking pot. There were about 50 teens in attendance and over half of them were puffing away. Naturally, those of us who were not involved were offered and encouraged to participate with statements such as, "Come on, man, it's a great high," to, "Chicken."

Of course, I didn't want to look like a jerk in front of my peers so I took a few puffs but I didn't inhale. Dr. Wallace, is there any honorable way to say no? — Keith.

Keith I had a list of things to tell you but I discovered the Lung Association and Council for Drug Education said it better. This is their solution to saying no, the honorable way.

A real problem for young people is how to get out of a sticky situation without losing face. They may want to avoid doing something, but they may not have developed the skills to say "no" without feeling they have damaged their standing with their friends.

Young people should know their position on drug use before a situation arises. Here is where parents, both as role models and role-playing participants, can be especially helpful. Choose an appropriate time after playing the what-if game to focus on the question, "What would you do if your best friend offered you some marijuana?" Teens who don't want to smoke, and who have facts to back up their stand, find it easier to withstand pressures, but they also need strategies for refusing to bow to pressure. Here are some strategies:

- Assertiveness: A firm, "No thanks" without explanations or apology.
- Humor: A quick answer.
- Parents: Using them as an excuse. "No thanks, my parents would kill me."

Dr. Wallace: I am 17 and enjoy an occasional beer or two and maybe three. My mother is always on my case to stop drinking alcohol. She keeps telling me that beer has the same alcohol content as whiskey and I keep telling her no way. Whiskey is 80 percent to 100 percent alcohol while beer is about 10 percent alcohol.

Will you please answer my letter so my mother will know the facts. She keeps saying that I will wind up as an alcoholic. Only booze drinkers can become alcoholics. I can drive perfectly after three beers. — David.

David, Drinking beer is against the law for 17-year-olds and, indeed, it can lead to alcoholism. Alcohol is alcohol regardless of the form. The fact is that one can of beer contains about the same amount of alcohol as a shot (one and one-half ounces) of whiskey.

Wise up! Over 5,000 teenagers in the United States and Canada are killed yearly in auto accidents due to drinking drivers, some who thought they could drive perfectly after three beers.

As I said, beer contains alcohol and alcohol is a very addicting drug, the most abused drug there is. Please do yourself a favor lay off the beer.

Dr. Wallace: I'm a 13-year-old girl with a big problem. My mother just started working. It's nice that the family has more money to buy luxuries but she works five days per week, Tuesday through Saturday from 4 p.m. to 10 p.m. That means I have to baby-sit my two baby sisters (twins, 3 years old).

My social life is gone. I'll start high school in September and I'll have to come directly home after school and won't be allowed to participate in after-school activities. Also, I won't be able to attend (football or basketball) games.

My father refuses to help. He will not take care of the babies for one second. Sometimes I wonder if he loves them because he never talks to them or plays with them.

My dad has a good job and we live a good "middle-class" life on the money he makes. I don't know why my mother took this job. We don't need the money. Sometimes I think she just wanted to get away from my father. My parents never did get along too well.

When I told my mom I didn't want to be a full-time baby sitter, she tried to put "a guilt trip" on me by saying that I didn't love my baby sisters, but I really do. She also says I'm selfish.

Please tell me what you think about my problem. — Debby

Debby: It's very unfair for Mother to force you to baby-sit your sisters six hours an evening, five evenings per week, especially when money is not a family concern. Joining after-school activities and attending athletic contests are important functions in a student's learning process.

There is no reason why Mother cannot hire a baby sitter when you have such activities. Talk to her about it and if she still won't respond, discuss the problem with your school counselor.

Mainly for Seniors

By Leonard J. Hansen

Most older Americans can avoid heart problems by just changing lifestyle. The statement is one of simple fact delivered by George Sheehan, M.D., an eminent cardiologist from Red Bank, N.J.

Dr. Sheehan had traveled to Issaquah — near Seattle — in Washington state to lead the Pacific Northwest's first five-mile running and walking event for adults age 50-plus. Here he delivered an evening workshop on positive health and then led more than 200 runners and walkers in the special race event at the Providence Point retirement community development.

An author of books on health and fitness and medical editor/columnist for The Runner magazine, Sheehan, 67, competes in running events around the world (holding many age-group records) and has finished the rugged Boston Marathon 21 times. His 1984 book for Simon and Shuster, "The Dr. Sheehan Book on Fitness," is in high demand by health-conscious adults of all ages.

There has been a drop in mortality rates due to heart problems," states Sheehan. "The pace has been falling since 1968 — about 40 percent of that due to the miracles of medicine, and 60 percent due to change in lifestyle.

The change in lifestyle is the key — and that means exercise and the proper diet."

The three key points in Dr.

Sheehan's recommended program include:

• Exercise. "Start now to walk 30 minutes four times each week. It is an achievable program."

This program, according to Dr. Sheehan, benefits most all of the basic muscle groups, causes a limbering of the body, brings fresh oxygen into the system and is great for the heart. You will also find, in the effort, a clearing of the a test of your cholesterol count. Tell the doctor you want to know the actual count and not just his impression of the count relative to your condition.

If the count is above 220, get a copy of the American Health Association Diet to lower your cholesterol count right away. Some practitioners, basing their opinion on older research, will accept cholesterol counts even up to 265 before being concerned — and this is wrong, based on everything we know today.

The American Heart Association Diet is subtitled "An Eating Plan for Healthy Americans" and is available free of charge from the American Heart Association, 7320 Greenville Ave., Box D Dallas, TX 75231. Send a self-addressed and postage-paid No. 10 (business size) envelope with your request for the publication by name.

PUZZLED?

Are you puzzled why we run more Classified Ads in our areas than our biggest competitors including the N.Y. Times, Newsday, The Daily News and the free throwaways that come to your door?

The Answer Is Simple -

RESULTS: When readers run ads with us they get results, not numbers of printed copies or other irrelevant information.

An Ad, any ad, is only an advertisement for you when people READ it. Large numbers of copies printed and hung on door knobs or multi pages of newsprint in large out-of-town newspapers are not what count. Only readers get your message and can bring you results. The next time you are thinking of advertising something - remember that it takes readers to get your message.

And then you will know why so many more local ads are run in our newspapers than in the big papers, or the so-called saturation throwaways. Don't count door knobs - count customers.

Backyard Gardener

By Patrick Denton

Peony improves with years

Though many of our commonly grown home garden perennials require rejuvenation by dividing them every few years, one perennial that improves with years when left undisturbed is the peony — surely one of the most labor-saving and faithful of all our permanent flowering plants.

Given a sunny site and a deep, rich soil, a peony plant can in fact be expected to last a lifetime with a minimum of care. Peonies in English farmhouse gardens have been known to flourish for more than half a century.

John Parkinson, who wrote the first English illustrated book primarily on ornamental plants in 1629, and who was gardener to Charles I, said in a comment on the permanency of the peony, "Double and single peonies are fit flowers to furnish a garden and by reason of their durability give out fresh pleasure every year without any further trouble."

The long roots of the peony reach far back into history, for this is a plant that has been held in reverent awe from earliest times in both the East and the West. The plant was named after Paeon, a physician of ancient Greece who is said to have used the milky extract from its roots to cure a wound given to Pluto by Hercules.

Paeon was worshiped as the god of healing, and a hymn in his praise became known as a paean. Though the modern version of the plant's name is now most commonly spelled peony, some books still retain the older paeony or paeonia.

Why a paean to the peony at this time of year? It's about now that we're coming up to the ideal time for planting (or moving) peonies.

You may have found, for example, that you have planted a peony or two in an unsuitable location — too dry perhaps, too shady or too close to competing tree roots. Or you may have a very large plant that is beginning to show poor growth from its center or that has ceased blooming prolifically.

The ideal time for lifting, dividing and planting peonies is in September as the plant is preparing to go dormant. At this time, also, the ground has not yet turned cold, and the newly planted roots will quickly re-establish themselves.

If you are lifting a peony that has been left undisturbed for a considerable time, it is best to discard the older center portion and choose for your new, vigorous plants the more recently formed outer eyes or growth buds from the outside edges of the root mass.

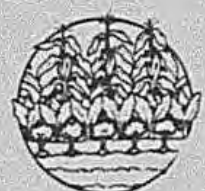

Peony roots are rather like rhubarb roots in structure, and they are lifted and divided in much the same way. Use a strong, long-handled fork to work your way around the plant deeply, loosening all the roots before lifting the plant out. Sometimes the root pieces can be disentangled into sections just with the fingers, but more often it is necessary to sever the sections with a knife.

Each new section for replanting should have three eyes or growing points, each one with a portion of root attached. Cutting the root mass into smaller sections will mean a longer wait for flowering. Rub all cut surfaces with powdered sulfur, and cut off cleanly any broken root ends.

The whole area at and immediately around the new planting site should have been deeply dug over and amended with peat moss, compost and bonemeal all thoroughly mixed in with the soil. Deep planting holes should then be taken out, 4 feet apart, and the bottoms of the planting holes over which the roots will be placed should be further enriched with compost, a handful of bonemeal and old or processed manure if you have some. Bury the manure well so the roots will not come into contact with it immediately.

Settle the roots into their planting holes so that the buds or eyes will end up no more than 2 inches below the soil surface. Deeper planting will inhibit flowering. Firm the soil well around the roots and water the plant in thoroughly. A top dressing of compost mixed with a little bonemeal will finish off the job nicely on this long-term garden investment.

NOTICE
HAVE YOU A HIDDEN TALENT that has yet to be discovered in print?

We are looking for articles, not exceeding 3,000 words on local topics, opinions, ideas, nice places to visit on Long Island, and even fiction. In our magazine section, we will try to "Discover" one new feature length article and writer per week. Each writer will be reimbursed a stipend of $25.00.

If you want to be published and be part of an issue of Discovery you may submit your article to: Litmor Publications, 81 East Barclay Street, Hicksville, NY 11801.

Celebrate options in recreational space

By Sharon Owen Haven

Q My husband is a sports fan who wants to purchase a large-screen TV. I find them ugly and overpowering in a room. The kids already watch too much TV. How can we add one of these monsters to our room so that it doesn't dominate both the space and the attention of all who enter? — J.S.

A Large-screen TVs have undoubtedly introduced a new challenge to family room decor. They are pushy, domineering and quite impossible to ignore. But if you want to avoid the sensation that Big Brother is watching, you might get a few useful tips from the design pictured here.

Note that the screen is not by itself on a wall but incorporated into a larger open storage and display system. This mutes the importance of the TV somewhat and tempts the eye with more interesting objects that might suggest alternative activities — reading, table games and listening to music, for example.

You also can create other focal areas in the room to compete with the large screen. The game table in this room is located next to windows with a view and natural light and offers an appealing alternative to TV watching.

The importance of the large screen can also be manipulated in sign closest to you. Your situation could provide a challenging exercise for interior design students whose enthusiasm and freshness often more than compensate for their lack of experience. Students also are more likely to be responsive to budgetary limitations.

Call your local colleges and universities and ask if they have departments of interior design. Check the Yellow Pages for independent schools.

Your situation is one that many retired Americans share and would be a worthwhile undertaking for any design class, in my opinion. Such a project could be an exciting and beneficial experience for all parties involved.

the way you handle seating in the room. An "L"- or "U"-shaped arrangement creates a cozy conversational grouping, as well as seating for TV viewing. The more options you provide visually and physically, the more likely you are to get a genuine recreation room and not just a movie-theater.

Q I am 72 years old and moving into a 13th-floor apartment in a low-cost housing project. My problem is that I don't want to feel warehoused. I need someone to help me plan furnishings and put this apartment together, but how can I afford an interior designer on an income of $600 a month? — C.R.

Secretary probably is mahogany veneer

By James G. McCollam

Q. This secretary was acquired by my family secondhand over 40 years ago. It has the label "Maddox Tables, Jamestown, N.Y." It looks like mahogany.

Can you tell me when it was made and how much it might be worth?

A. This is a factory-made secretary from the 1920 to 1940 period. The lid and drawers are mahogany veneer; the frame is probably birch finished to look like mahogany.

Pieces like this are very much in demand and are selling from $275 to $325 in good condition.

BOOK REVIEW: "American Oak Furniture" by Kathryn McNerney, Collector Books, P.O. Box 3009, Paducah, KY 42001, $9.95, plus $1 postage, or at your local bookstore.

This is an area that is usually neglected in other price guides: oak furniture made in the late 19th and early 20th centuries. Each piece is illustrated and described in detail with price and vintage.

Some prices seem a little high, but in general they reflect the current market. Based on what is seen at local antique shows, this type of furniture is the backbone of the trade.

Q. This mark is on the bottom of a ceramic vase. The vase is 6 1/4 inches tall with tapered sides flaring inward at the top. It is unglazed green with black-lined trim.

What can you tell me about its vintage and value?

A. This mark was used by Cambridge Art Pottery Co., Cambridge, Ohio, from 1895 to 1909. At that time the name was changed to Guernsey Earthenware Co. and they produced only kitchenwares. Your vase should sell for about $100.

Points on Pets

By R.G. Elmore, D.V.M.

Q. Every summer, our 8-year-old dog suffers a great deal due to fleas. We have tried sprays, collars and tags. Although helpful, none of these completely controls the fleas.

I've heard there is a tablet that can be fed to dogs to control fleas. Are these more effective?

A. Control of fleas during the warm, humid months of the year is usually quite a challenge. An explanation of how fleas reproduce and spread will aid in discussing the control of these persistent pests.

An adult female flea usually feeds on the dog's blood for several days. After this period of feeding the female flea lays several hundred eggs.

While the dog scratches or just runs about, some of the eggs fall to the ground. If the dog is inside, the flea eggs will infest the carpet or rugs. The flea eggs hatch in approximately one week. The flea larvae then turn into adults in another nine days.

Adult fleas are able to jump great distances and can move easily from one animal to another. They can also reside in the yard, carpet or in the pet's bedding. Fleas can live for weeks to months and are able to survive for long periods without feeding on animals.

Fleas irritate dogs by biting their skin to suck blood and by inducing an allergic reaction to a chemical found in the flea's saliva. These irritations cause the dog to itch and then scratch.

There are many products available to control fleas. There is a great amount of variation in the effectiveness of each product among different pets. In other words, what works well on one pet may not be effective on another pet. Weekly medicated shampoos or dips are effective in many situations.

Dips are insecticides that are applied to the dog's coat as a liquid and then allowed to dry, leaving a residual insecticide. Dips should be used exactly as recommended by the manufacturer. If a dip is used following a bath, it is best not to use a flea shampoo. The mixture of insecticides may be toxic for your dog. Dogs should be allowed to dry completely following a dip.

Weekly baths with flea shampoos are an alternative to dipping the dog. However, baths are usually not as effective in controlling fleas.

Flea sprays and powders may be used instead of dips or baths. Many dogs can wear collars or medallions coated with flea repellants. They usually are effective in mild cases of flea infestation. Animals wearing such devices should be examined periodically for skin reactions near the neck.

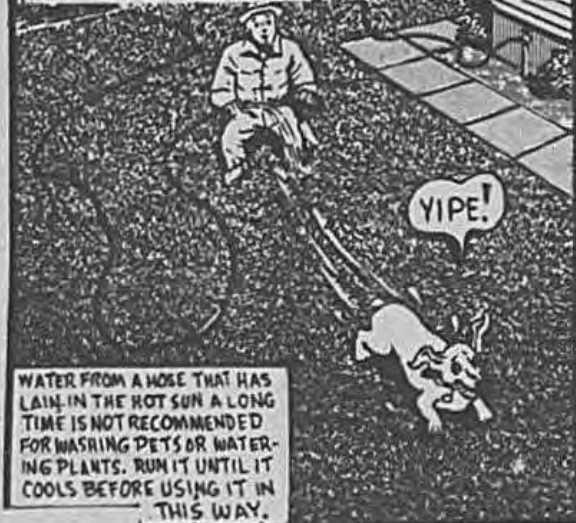

Several new products have been introduced for flea control. An electronic flea collar that emits a high frequency sound is available. The sound is out of range for animals and humans and reportedly drives fleas from the dog.

An organophosphate insecticide in a tablet is now available. The insecticide is absorbed from the gastrointestinal tract and distributed through the dog's body. Fleas die whenever they ingest the drug while biting the animal.

In addition to treating the dog, environmental control involving discarding or treating bedding, vigorous vacuuming, spraying, fogging or the use of professional exterminators may be required. The source of the fleas should be removed from the environment. Preventive measures for all the pets in the family should be taken.

Your veterinarian can advise you regarding which control measures would best suit your situation.

RULES BOYS AND GIRLS

Here is your chance to win One Dollar ($1.00) - to spend or to save.

Here's all you have to do:
 1. Contest is open to children 4 to 12 years of age.

2. Entries must be received by Friday, September 5, 1986

3. Paint, watercolors and crayons must be used on the above.

4. Decision of the judges will be final.

Mail your entry (just clip our cartoon) to this newspaper at:
 105 Hillside Avenue
 Williston Park, N.Y. 11596

This is the last week of August and soon it will be time to turn over the calendar for September. That means summer is almost over and school will soon reopen.

I suspect that most of you are looking forward to the new season, even if it means putting away your summer things and spending less time in outdoor activities.

It will be exciting to meet new teachers, make new friends and read new books! I hope all of you will have a happy and successful school year.

Your friend,
 Aunt Tilly

P.S. This week's coloring contest winners are Bill Jenkins and Ann Graziano. Congratulations to both of you!
