School Bd. OKs Rezoning Burns Ave. Sch. Property

Special to Mid Island Times By Maureen Traxler

At its first public session since the final report of the Reorganization Study Advisory Committee, the Hicksville School Board voted to accept the recommendations of the committee. In addition, the Board advised the Superintendent of Schools to look into the redistricting of boundary lines in order to balance elementary class size as evenly as possible

In order to change elementary class size as evenly as possible throughout the district and to report back to the Board.

In making the motion at the March 23 meeting, Trustee William Bennett asked Superintendent Catherine Fenton to supply data, graphics and an overall picture to change the boundaries of the schools. He cited that this job should fall to the Superintendent's office, since Dr. Fenton has informed the Board that the District's new computer is equipped to handle such analysis.

Trustee JoAnn Miltenberg expressed concern for the sixth graders possibly caught in the transfer period, and noted the reality behind the desire by several committee members to see redistricting done on a regular basis. Board President Thomas Nagle's views focused on safety, impact on the 1988-89 budget and the need for bus transportation.

Coupled with redistricting, the advisory committee recommended the elimination of the temporary buildings at Burns Avenue and Dutch Lane Schools. The Board voted separately on each school's property. Approval of the demolition of the Dutch Lane temporaries was unanimous; removal of the Burns Avenue "temps" passed by a vote of 4 to 3. The entire project will cost the district approximately $116,000 and will become a cost item in the 1988-89 budget.

and will become a cost item in the 1988-89 budget.

After more than a year of petitioning by residents wishing to secure a roning change for certain Burns Avenue School property, the Board took action. Mr. Bennett motioned that Lot 1252 of the Burns Avenue School which is presently zoned "G" Commercial be rezoned "D" Residential. Mr. Bennett noted that without this property, Burns Avenue would have no ballfields and that if sold, a new owner could use this lot for whatever purpose be wished.

Mr. Lafferty, a resident in the Burns Avenue neighborhood and a member of the recent reorganization study committee, briefed the Board on the background concerning the acquisition of the property in question. She noted that the property had been given to the district in an agreement with the original plaza owners upon the opening of the access road to John Street. The property was to be a buffer between the school and the plaza.

Counsel Gregory Guercio advised that a request for zone change is usually presented to the Town of Oyster Bay by a law firm (and not by a school district), and that in this case, there would be a fee involved. He was not immediately able to supply a figure for the Board members. The Board voted unanimously to proceed with its plans for a zoning change. The Superintendent's report took the form of a three-minute film demonstrating the accomplishments of the Starlet Hicksville Champions first place all-county winners. The kickline consists of over

Commercial Parking TOB Hearing Topic

An amendment to the Town of Oyster Bay Code of Ordinances with regard to the parking of commercial vehicles will be the subject of a Tuesday, April 19, public hearing by the Oyster Bay Town Board, according to Town Councilman Kenneth Diamond.

"The Town Board will be considering an amendment to Chapter 17 of the Town's Code of Ordinances, 'Motor Vehicles and Traffic,' which would prohibit the overnight parking of commercial vehicles in residential areas within the Town," Diamond explained.

The meeting is scheduled for 10 a.m. in the hearing room of Town Hall East, Audrey Avenue, Oyster Bay.

TOB Hearing On Zone Changes

Certain amendments to the Town's Building Zone Ordinance pertaining to garage conversions and swimming pools will be the subject of a public hearing by the Oyster Bay Town Board on Tuesday, April 26, according to Councilman John Venditto.

"An amendment to Article III of the Building Zone Ordinance, applicable to all districts, is being considered that would provide for the conversion of attached garages to habitable living space," Venditto said. "An amendment is also proposed to provide for the location allowance for the construction of outdoor swimming pools on corner plots in residential districts."

Robbers Flee With $10,000

Second Squad Detective James Carroll reports the details of a robbery that occurred at the News and Nosh, 37 Woodbury Road, Hicksville at about 4:50 a.m. on March 21:

Robert Nocella, 38, owner and operator, was bringing in a bundle of newspapers' when he was followed back into the store by two black males.

One of the men was armed with a handgun and announced a robbery. The pair demanded money. Nocella parned over $280 from the register. The thieves ransacked the store and found a cash box in the rear storeroom. The box contained $10,700.

The robbers fled on foot in an unknown direction with $10,980. No injuries were reported.

Hicksville School Board Adopts $44.8M Budget

Special to Mid Island Times By Maureen Traxler

In the three months since the disclosure of budget figures for 1988-89, the Hicksville School Board has succeeded in trimming some $130,900. After the approval of an additional deletion of 14.5 positions totaling $614,400, the Board of Education at its March 23 meeting adopted a budget of $44,856,222, a 7.6% increase over the present budget which will raise the tax rate per hundred assessed valuation an estimated $2.52 to $28.38.

School Superintendent Catherine Fenton recommended the cut in the 14.5 Jobs which consist of 11.5 teaching positions, 2 administrative positions and 1 teacher aide position. Dr. Fenton acknowledged that the eliminations were due to declining enrollment with an expected loss of 170 students, and retirements which have already been

When pressured by questioning from residents, the Superintendent further defined the positions as being in the following areas: high school language arts; one position each in physical education, art, music and reading K-12; 1.5 in science; 2 in math and 1 in social studies (retirements); and one each in library and guidance counseling. The two administrative positions are Assistant Director of Pupil Personnel Services and Supervisor of Academic Enrichment Programs.

Trustee Mark Cardella attempted to delete the elimination of the position of Assistant Director of Pupil Personnel Services from the Superintendent's proposal. His attempt falled to attain the necessary 4 votes for passage, in a deadlock 3-3 vote with Trustee Dan McBride once again away from the table.

Mrs. Arlene Rudin, resident and former Trustee, strongly opposed

Mrs. Arlene Rudin, resident and former Trustee, strongly opposed the deletion of the Assistant Director's position in Special Education, noting the voluminous workload of that office. She emphasized her remarks by declaring, "We're talking about a program here."

Resident William Kelly suggested additional budget reductions totaling $18,350. His proposed cuts were in the following areas: $350 in legal advertisement; $500 in technology equipment; $10,000 in maintenance of plant; $2,000 in custodial services; $5,000 in central printing and mailing; and $500 in general classroom, conference and other. Board President Thomas Nagle advised Mr. Kelly that the Board would look into his proposed deletions.

Another resident question the $40,000 allotment in the budget for the Gregory Museum, pointing out that the museum is not a part of the school system. Trustee William Bennett declared that the Gregory Museum is an educational institution servicing Hicksville students and the community. He praised the museum for its historical value in the

Mrs. Carolyn Kelly asked if the Board has considered the suggestion to centralize the annual budget vote. She stressed that since the district has now instituted absentee balloting, a centralized polling place should not pose a problem for those residents who would feel a hardship if travel distance was increased.

District Counsel Gregory Guercio explained that election districts are created by referendum of voters. The Board could move to centralize voting, but only through referendum could this move be reversed. In answer to another question from a resident as to whether cuts have been made in the foreign language program, Superintendent Fenton 'said that the program has been "condensed" and "streamlined."

President Nagle said that the Board has not addressed suggestions concerning transportation for music events outside the District and the possibility of a summer school program for special education students. Due to the late hour, Mr. Nagle cut short the budget questioning and invited residents to attend the April 27 budget hearing to take place in the Senior High School Cafeteria. He noted that the Board can make adjustments and deletions to the budget up until seven days before the vote. Voting this year will take place on May 25, several weeks later than has been practice in recent years.

Town Denies Permit For Day Care Center

A request for a special use permit to operate a day care center in Hicksville has been denied by the Oyster Bay Town Board, according to Town Councilman Douglas J. Hynes.

"The applicant, Wee Care Holding Corp., requested a special use permit to allow the operation of a children's day care center in a 'G-1' business zone," Hynes said. "The property is located on the south side of West Nicholai Street, west of the southwest corner formed by the intersection of Broadway and West Nicholai Street, also known as 21 West Nicholai Street in Hicksville.

"In denying the application, the Board found that a children's day care center in the proposed location would create a substantial increase in hazards to the children who would be boarding and unboarding vehicles in a public street," Hynes said. "The Board also cited insufficient."

Additionally, the Board indicated that a children's day care center would not encourage the efficient use of public transportation facilities provided in the central business district and would create further congestion in the streets due to reliance on private automobiles.

Hynes noted that a public hearing on the application was held on Tuesday, November 17,

Hasidism Talk At Mid Is. Y

"On Hasidism". a two lecture series will begin at the Mid-Island YM & YWHA, 45 Manetto Hill Road, on Tuesday, April 19, at 7:30 p.m. The second part of this program presented by Rabbi Anchelie Perl, will be on April 26.

In this two part program, the basic historical background and religious motivation behind Hasidism will be discussed. Hasidism represented a flowering of Jewish mysticism. The insights that can be gained in looking at its origins have relevance for today.

The two major themes in Hasidic thought and literature, the roll of the Rebbe, the charismatic religious leader, and the internalization of Jewish symbols will be examined. The interpretation of Torah that gave early Hasidism its great vitality will also be discussed.

Rabbi Anchelle Perle, who will lead the program, is the Director of the National Committee for Furtherance of Jewish Education of Nassau County.

The cost of the lectures is $3.50 for Y members and $6 for non-members. For further information call Adult Education at the Mid-Island Y 822-3535, ext. 333.

Editor's Notebook

There are numerous ideas about the Long Island Power Authority's plans to take over LILCO. And there have been many legitimate gripes about LILCO. We can remember when many of the plushier jobs of the power company appeared to be filled from the roles of the Republican party and the company seemed to be unresponsive on many things regarding rates.

But any number of legitimate complaints about LILCO in the past still may not be good reason for the LIPA to take over and run the utility. Presently the LIPA has not shown a great deal of ability in getting a plan together to take over LILCO and it is rumored that some of the Board members are in disagreement with each other.

From another point of view the Board is not really a cross section of people on L.I. It is top heavy with Democrats and followers of Gov. Cuomo, when in fact, Cuomo is not popular on Long Island. Further the LIPA has never said that it can give us lower cost power. It has simply said that it might be able to match the rates of LILCO.

The taking over of LILCO is an irrevocable step. It is one that cannot be turned back if it does not work. The public is not getting a chance to vote on the takeover, nor is it being consulted in any manner. Before a change takes place we would like to see a referendum with all of the facts and promises put in writing to the voters.

Every once in awhile we receive inquiries from readers who want to know why they are being charged for a subscription to this newspaper when they have been, (1) an advertiser (2) a friend of the publisher (past or present) or (3) they have received the subscription paid for by some unknown person. Unfortunately, we cannot do much about these seemingly legitimate objections. The U.S. Postal Service forces all legitimate newspapers to have paid circulation in order to be carried in the mails. We are aware that from time to time we hear about other newspapers that are sending free subscriptions but this is in violation of the postal law and may be uncovered by the Post Office in its routine inspections.

Our only answer to the above is to keep our subscription price at the lowest possible amount and to work hard to present a well rounded newspaper for your enjoyment each week. Our increase in circulation in the past year has been dramatic. We still hope your check is in the mail even if you come under one, two or three of the above.

Diane Herbert

By Anne Marie Marrone

Diane Herbert, a senior at the Bethpage High School, was recently honored as "Teenager of the Month" by the Elks Club. Diane is ranked 16th in her class of 270 and has proven over and over again how well adapted she is to the society around her by her contributions to both the school and community. Diane has involved herself actively in the Honor Society, French Club, Leaders' Club, and Principal's Cabinet through her four years at Bethpage High School. Her leadership qualities shine through by her presently being in the secretary of the Honor Society and homeroom representative. and with her past involvement as the French Club's class repre-sentative and liaison. Having been involved in volleyball, softball, and basketball, continue to prove how well adjusted Diane Among the many activities Diane includes herself with outside of school are working in the Hunger and Homeless Project that is run by Long Island Cares. Inc., working as a teller at Reliance Federal Savings Bank. babysitting and spending as much time as possible with her two nieces.

With others viewing Diane as enthusiastic, energetic, considerate and studious, it becomes obvious that one of her many contributions to the Bethpage High School has been increasing the school spirit of those around her, which she has successfully done. Whether it be dressing up for "spirit week" and holidays such as Thanksgiving. Christmas or the 200th Anniversary of the Constitution, she tries to encourage others to participate in school activities.

Diane's academic achievements include having taken four years of math and science, and three years of French. Along with being voted "Most Likely to Succeed" in the Class of 1988. She has been on the Gold Honor Roll since ninth grade, is a member of the National Honor Society, and has maintained a 95 average for four years.

Becoming aware of life's brevity has made Diane more conscious of the need to live life to its fullest. As Diane put it, "Unfortunately, it usually isn't until someone close to you passes away that you realize how precious time is and how necessary it is to spend your own life in the most valuable way possible." Through the personal hardship of her mother passing away, Diane has learned to look for the good and happy facets in every aspect of her daily life. She feels that this has not only made her a more content individual but also a more enjoyable person to be around. Diane's family and a very special teacher at the high school have been her greatest support throughout her high school years.

Diane's future endeavors include attending either Binghamton or Albany where she hopes to gain a master's degree in business communications and management. Diane says that she chose this career goal because she likes being a part of and in control of important decision makings and would therefore enjoy the responsibilities in such a career. As Diane best sums it up, "I feel I am very determined, hard-working and have always been self-motivated. One of my main goals is to keep others happy and smiling."

Triad Cross At Good Shepherd

Dramatically stark against the sky over the Church of the Good Shepherd-Lutheran, at 99 Central Park Road in Plainview, the unusual triad crosses pictured represent an evangelical statement that "Christ is risen! He is risen indeed!"

Pastor Christopher George Hoyer, celebrating his third Easter at Good Shepherd, suggests that the crosses provide us with an enduring portrait of Calvary — the hill outside of Jerusalem on which Jesus was crucified. Gospel tells us that two criminals were crucified with Him, "one on the right and one on the left."

The cross, of course, is a most fitting symbol -- the most appropriate symbol -- of a Christian church, whose message, whose proclamation is

Back in the 1800's, the Ofenloch family operated a Blacksmith Shop on the south side of East Barclay Street. The photo, courtesy of Anselm Ofenloch, shows his grandfather Philip (third from left) and his father Joseph (standing by borse) in front of the building. The shop specialized in horse shoeing and clipping - at short notice and also provided stables for local use. A typical charge for four new shoes was $1.50. NYS Lottery Kiwanis Topic

'The New York State Lottery Aid to Education" was the topic of the hour at the March 23 meeting of the Hicksville Kiwanis Club. The representatives of New York State's Lottery who came with information were: Marketing Representative Johanna Weber and Assistant Regional Director Andy Arecco.

Ms. Weber spoke about the concept of a lottery and the benefits derived from it. Mr. distributed some Arecco brochures about the lottery, as well as a chart listing all the school districts in each county in New York State. Alongside each school district were two columns showing the dollar distribution for the year 1986-87 and the cumulative distribution for the years 1977-87. It was interesting to see that Hicksville received $484,832.29 in the year 1986-87 and $3,594,594.11 total for the 1977-87 period.

Mr. Arecco answered many questions about the details of distributing the money involved in the lottery. He stated that the distribution is based on a formula derived by the New York State legislators. The net result, basically, is: of the money put into each lottery, 40% goes into prizes, 45% goes into education and 15% goes toward administra-
