Recycling Art Contest

Residents Air Views On Community Park Proposal

By Maureen Traxler

Marc Herbst, Assistant to Supervisor Angelo Delligatti, outlined a proposal for the development of property adjacent to Dutch Lane School to be used as a community park, at a meeting held on Monday, March 6. The majority of residents present opposed the proposal.

Although the weather was cold and snowy, the auditorium at the school was filled to capacity, and residents waited on line to give their views and opinions to Mr. Herbst and a panel composed of members of the Hicksville Park District Task Force. The meeting was moderated by Carole Wolf, School Board Trustee and Chairperson of its Facilities Committee.

The Task Force proposal for the Dutch Lane property comprises a regulation size multipurpose field, an instructional multipurpose field, an instructional ballfield, a 60-foot regulation size ballfield, one basketball court, two tennis courts, and a park facility building and a police booth. Expansion of the parking lot would encompass an estimated 40 additional parking spaces. Mr. Herbst estimated the cost of the proposed project to be $500,000. If the park use was restricted to "Hicksville residents only," Hicksville residents would be assessed approximately $5 per year per household. If the area became a Town-wide park, assessment would be 70¢. Operating money would come from the existing Town budget and could require relocation of some employees. Mr. Herbst commented that all these figures could change if the makeup of the plan changed, for instance, if the building were eliminated or other construction did not occur.

Many residents in the immediate area surrounding the proposed site appeared to be harboring distrust for local government, in large part because they feel the Town misled them into believing that the fire substation would be a small facility and that they would have input. But now that it is being built, it is closely approaching the size of the main firehouse on Marie Street. Several residents wanted "guarantees," rather than "assurances," that the land would be developed in a fashion suitable to the community. One resident said she doesn't want to hear the Town say "at this time..." Other residents who were not in favor of the park said that the Town should "show us what you can do with what you (already) own," and that the Town hasn't put up one tree in 30 years; they're not responsive to the community. A gentleman commented that over these past 30 years, homeowners have improved their homes, expanded, beautified. He called on the Parks

Community Hears About Proposed Incinerator Plan

By Maureen Traxler

Two topics of keen interest to local residents were on the agenda of last week's Hicksville Community Council meeting. The major presentation was made by James Clancy, Vice President for Marketing and Project Development Manager for American REF-FUEL, the Town of Oyster Bay's vendor of choice for construction of a mass burn incinerator. Kevin Shaughnessy, General Manager of the Broadway Mall was also on hand to bring the community up to date on plans and progress being made in the rehabilitation of the mall property.

With the closure of its Old Bethpage landfill, the Town of Oyster Bay has faced the nation's #1 problem, garbage, with a three-tiered approach. A Town-wide recycling program is in place and a composting program will be broadened. The Town is expanding its STOP (Stop Throwing Out Pollutants) Program, whereby residents may safely dispose of hazardous household materials. The third phase of the Town's plan is an integrated solid waste management program, consisting of the incineration of all remaining garbage after recycling and the trucking of the residue ash to a landfill off Long Island.

Last month, the Town Board approved a $120 million construction contract with American REF-FUEL for the erection of a 1,000 ton daily capacity resource recovery plant. The contract has been agreed upon by both parties and should be signed by American REF-FUEL in the coming weeks. Under the contract agreement, American REF-FUEL will build, own and operate the plant and will finance the project with its own capital plus industry revenue bonds of which payments will be the responsibility of American REF-FUEL.

Mr. Clancy explained that the plant will house two burn units with a capacity of 500 tons a day each. It will be a completely enclosed facility, with a life expectancy of 20 years. Mr. Clancy noted that some of the company's other facilities are still operational at 25 and 30 years. Explaining the plant process, Mr. Clancy said that after combustion, the remaining ash falls into a water-filled ash quench trough and combustion gases pass through a scrubber for removal of the acid gases. Air flow continues through a dust collector and then exits through the stack.

American REF-FUEL completed a Draft Environmental Impact Study as required by the State Environmental Quality Review Act. Mr. Clancy said that in order to keep pace with energy efficiency, the plant will have an air cooled condenser. He explained that the only water used in the plant will be in the gas scrubber and in the ash trough, and added that the State does not feel that this usage will have an impact on the water supply. Approximately 10% of the power produced by the generator will be used to operate the plant and the remaining energy (some 26 megawatts) will be sold to LILCO to provide power to 20,000 homes.

In response to questions from the audience, Mr. Clancy said that the size of the plant has been determined by engineers who have taken into account that (1) the Town produces 1,000 tons of garbage a day, (2) there is a recycling program in effect which will remove newspapers, glass and tin from the waste, and (3) an allowance must be made for a percentage of down-time for facility maintenance. Under the contract, the Town of Oyster Bay has guaranteed American REF-FUEL 260,000 tons of garbage per year. If the Town cannot supply that amount, American RE-FUEL will be able to solicit additional business according to a priority order beginning with other Nassau County municipalities, Nassau County commercial customers, then on to Suffolk County municipalities and commercials, then Queens, and so on. Mr. Clancy said that American REF-FUEL will not be permitted to burn red-bag waste.

Mr. Clancy explained that since the Town has a recycling program which is removing from the waste certain items which traditionally do not burn well, the plant will produce what is called a "clean burn." Therefore, burning only 880 tons daily could retain the unit's high temperature of 1800 degrees. He added that with "controlled combustion" dioxins are not given off.

Mr. Clancy said that toxic ash should not be a problem, since the lead and cadmium primarily responsible for toxicity should be removed by the effectiveness of the STOP Program. (Toxicity is calculated in ratio to volume.) He said that should toxic ash be produced, it would have to be hauled to a controlled landfill. Mr. Clancy claimed that the Department of Environmental Conservation does not consider the ash produced at resource recovery plants to be toxic. American REF-FUEL

Editor's Notebook

Epilepsy is a disease that is frequently misunderstood. Over the centuries, in fact, it has been associated with many superstitious beliefs.

It is also a far more common condition than many people believe. Epilepsy is one of the most common neurological disorders in the country affecting more than two million Americans and approximately 300,000 people in Long Island alone.

Here are a few do's and don'ts for dealing with a person who has a grand mal seizure, our source is the Epilepsy Foundation of Long Island:

- Keep calm; the person is usually not suffering or in danger.
- Help the person into a lying position.
- Clear the area of hard or sharp objects, if possible, put something soft under the head.
- Do not put anything in the person's mouth!
- Do not try to restrain the person.
- Remove glasses, loosen tight clothing.
- After the seizure (usually less than 4 minutes), turn the person's head to one side.
- Stand by until the person fully recovers consciousness and explain what has happened.
- Let the person rest for a time - do not offer food or drink until the person is fully alert.
- If the seizure lasts more than 10 minutes or if the person is injured during the seizure, get professional help. Otherwise it is unnecessary to call a doctor or ambulance.

Shaarei Zedek Special Drive

Congregation Shaarei Zedek in Hicksville is sponsoring an Orientation Drive for the communities of Hicksville and Plainview to introduce the Jewish residents to their heritage through various types of programs.

The first program will be a Gala Purim Celebration on March 20, Monday night, at 7 p.m. In addition to the traditional Book of Esther Reading, there will be a Costume Masquerade, Israeli Dancing, and funny expositions about the synagogue and its Holiday & Sabbath Celebrations. There is no admission charge for the festivities and the Viennese Table that is included.

On Friday night, April 7, there will be a "Turn Friday Night into Shabbos" program. That will include a special beginners Friday night service, followed by a Sabbath Dinner (services at 6 and dinner at 7 p.m.), with Sabbath Songs and Torah Messages. Cost of the dinner will be $15 per adult and $6 per child. Participants will have an opportunity to become acquainted with the Congregation's new Spiritual Leader, Rabbi Melvin Sachs.

The synagogue is the oldest Orthodox Congregation on Long Island and it prides itself that while committed to strict traditional observances, its members include Jewish families of all types of observances and from diverse religious backgrounds. There is a commitment to Legalitarianism within the confines of Jewish law and an opportunity for all to participate in the religious service. The services are very dignified and intimate due to the small membership.

The Orthodox Community of Hicksville and Plainview takes pride in its having the service of a strictly Kosher Bakery, Restaurant, Take-Out Food Establishment, an eruv, an Orthodox Day School and a Communal Committee that is organizing a Mikva (Ritualarium) for the area. Congregation Shaarei Zedek, located at Old Country and New South Roads, contributes to that community by providing the opportunity to introduce the non-Orthodox to a meaningful Traditional Program. Steps are being taken in the future to raise the religious standards of the Congregation in the hope of attracting even more young Jewish families into the area.

Letters

To The Editor:

The figures published in the Mid-Island Times on February 10th indicated some overdue changes in the right direction. However, they also confirm my complaint that we are behind in the Regents area, Math 1, Biology and also bear out my contention that we are way behind in the percentage of graduates going on to college. Regents diplomas have a direct bearing on college admissions. What makes it worse is that we spend more money than Syosset does per pupil for instruction. Great Neck was always in the forefront of expenditures and still is. However, they can afford it. What a difference in average income, etc.

I cannot understand why the residents have to send in their personal tax bills and mortgage expenses. The State, County and Town officials already have this information. State Assemblyman Fred Parola knows how bad off we are. He has worked miracles in the past to get us increases in subsidies. Lo and behold Trustee William Bennett now suddenly agrees that we will get a reduced subsidy and once again shows his lack of respect for our residents by referring to money saved or, rather, "cut", as "petty." I don't know about anyone else, but any money saved is not "petty" to my wallet.

I don't have all the answers and probably never will, but my business experience makes me question the manner in which we do school business. Perhaps Governor Cuomo expressed it better than I can when he answered a questioner as to why we needed taxes plus cutting budgets. His reply was to the effect that all Public Officials spend money without worrying about a profit or loss accounting. If it isn't there just have the people dig down deeper. This last sentence is my own opinion, not the Governor's. Unfortunately we do not have bottomless pockets and unlimited funds. We do have a right to expect those who want to run our District to have the guts, the ability and sensitivity necessary to keep things in line. If not, try getting taxes out of empty houses and retailers and manufacturers.

Sincerely,
A. Allan Goldstein

East St. School Square Dancing

By Brad Jaworski

East Street Elementary school recently completed their Square Dance unit under the direction of Physical Education Teachers Brad Jaworski and Rory Lawlor.

The children from the 1st grade to the 6th grade participated in this annual American tradition. They danced to the music of Ed Durlacher starting with "Heads and Sides" and concluding with the "Virginia Reel" with the 5th and 6th graders.

While participating in a piece of our cultural heritage the children enjoyed a social learning experience, improved their basic motor skills and received plenty of vigorous exercise.

Preparing For Easter At Good Shepherd

The shrouded cross over the altar in the chancel of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Lutheran, in Plainview, bears witness to the solemnity of the Lenten Season. Symbolic of this period preceding the mortal death of Jesus Christ as man, the purple hangings will be removed on Easter morning, when the Son of God forever shows His immortality, and offers Christians everywhere the promise of personal salvation through His death and resurrection.

The picture shows the draped cross over the altar, with an acolyte extinguishing one of the candles, at the conclusion of a recent Lenten service.

And although Lent is a solemn season, it is also a season when Pastor Christopher George Hoyer finds time to share with his parish family the contents of the "God Bag." Each week, a young member of the parish family brings to the Sunday services a God Bag, containing something he or she finds significant to his or her beliefs, and shares it with the congregation.

Here Pastor Hoyer listens as Joy Carney explains the contents of her God Bag, which consisted of two Greek letters...Alpha and Omega. These letters represented, to her, God at the beginning and God at the end. The beginning and end of time, the beginning and end of life, the beginning and end of everything...with us in between, called to repentance.

Dr. Krahn To Visit Holy Trinity

On Sunday, March 12, Holy Trinity Episcopal Church will welcome the Rev. Dr. John Krahn as guest preacher. The Parish Priest and Rector, the Rev. Domenic K. Ciannella has stated that during 1989 the Church will continue celebrating the 90th anniversary of its founding and highlight exceptional events in parish history and special features of the Episcopal Church. This Sunday the parish will highlight Lutheran/Episcopalian sharing authorized by the General Convention of the Episcopal Church in 1985 and 1988 and simultaneously by the merging Lutheran Churches, now called the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. The Rev. Dr. Krahn comes as an old friend to Holy Trinity. Formerly a close neighbor as Pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, Hicksville, Dr. Krahn is presently engaged in consultant work, is very much involved in sound Christian education at Lutheran High School in Brookville, and is the author of several books on parish administration, communication and stewardship. He will address the congregation at the 10 o'clock Eucharist and members of the community are invited to attend.

Next week, Holy Trinity Church along with the Christian community at large celebrates Holy Week ushered in with the ceremonial blessing and procession of the Palm on Sunday, March 19. Holy Week commemorates the last days of Jesus Christ and the final events which led up to his death and ultimately his resurrection on Easter Day. Holy Week services at Holy Trinity include the service of Tenebrae on Wednesday evening at 8 p.m., which dramatizes the gathering dark cloud closing in on the life of Jesus. On Maundy Thursday,

March 23, there is the moving and dramatic commemoration of the upper room where Jesus ate with his disciples in preparation for the Passover. This service takes place at 8 p.m. and ends with a procession to the Altar of Repose set up in the Church's Chapel, which is decorated as the Garden of Gethsamane. A watch is kept throughout the night and people are invited to come and pray for periods of time throughout the night and early morning. On Good Friday, the day of Jesus' crucifixion, services will be held at 9 a.m., 12 Noon, 3 p.m., and 8 p.m. Membership in the Episcopal Church is not required to participate in these moving services and the Rector, the Rev. Domenic Ciannella, welcomes visitors to Holy Trinity Episcopal Church for worship.

Happenings At Willet Ave. School

The fourth grade class at Willet Ave. School experimented with mealworms this year for their science program. The project began on January 17, and ended after six weeks. The students performed several experiments such as determining what a mealworm eats, to watching them shed their skin, to getting moisture from a potato and even walking on tightropes and through mazes. Some students will take the worms home to keep as "pets."

TOB Acts On Local Matters

By Michele Coyle
The sale of Mangan Place, off Burns Avenue, to Hicksville resident Warren Uss was approved at Tuesday's Town of Oyster Bay Board meeting for the sum of $10,000. Mr. Uss, a resident of Milton Street said that the land is adjacent to his home and that his father tried, unsuccessfully, to purchase the property from the town 20 years ago.

In agreeing to the sale the Board concluded the non-residential property was not needed for town purposes and private ownership would be in the town's best interest. Appraised in 1987 by Jericho real estate appraiser Martin Silberg at $8588, the property value increased 8% per year reaching the current sale value. According to Mr. Uss his plans are to maintain the property and use it as a buffer zone amid rumors of the sale of Burns Avenue School.

In a related issue, the board is looking into a change in zoning for Burns Avenue from G business to D residence. Residents fear that excess school property will be sold and turned into stores.

The Quality Review Commission reported that the change would not have a significant effect on the environment and would not require completion of an Environmental Impact Statement.

Shell Oil Company and Josam Associates, located at the corner of South Oyster Bay Road and Woodbury Road were granted an additional extension of time to obtain building permits and certificates of occupancy to demolish the existing service station and erect a new building as well as change the zoning form F business to G Business.

The board granted a one year extension.

In the interest of public safety and convenience, the board called for repairs and/or reconstruction of sidewalks along several streets in town. These areas include: Albert Road, Cornwall Lane, Caroll Street, Fifth Street, Gardena Lane, Harding Avenue, Marvin Avenue, Moeller Street, Pierce Street, Richard Street, Roosevelt Avenue, Second Street, Spencer Street, Spindle Road, Summit Street, Terrell Lane, Terry Street, Wilfred Boulevard, Willoughby Avenue, and Woodbine Drive.

Owners of the property in front of the area to be repaired will receive notice by registered mail. Legal notices are also scheduled for publication.

Repairs and reconstruction will be at the owner's expense. Repairs must be in accordance with the specifications set forth by the Commissioner of the Department of Public Works. Those residents who do not comply with the request will be assessed the cost of repairs which will be done by the town.

Car Chase Ends With Arrest

Three men from Astoria, Queens, led Nassau Police on a thirty minute car chase after stealing a car radio. The incident which began in Hicksville on March 2, at 1:30 p.m. ended with their arrest in New Cassel at 2 p.m.

Police Officers David Cameron and Dennis Delay, of the Bureau of Special Operations, were on Jerusalem Ave. in Hicksville when they observed a man running from a parked Mercedes with a car radio. The officers engaged in a short foot pursuit but the subject got into a 1972 Chevrolet occupied by two other males and took off. Officer Cameron gave chase in his auto but the subjects would not pull over. At Old Country Road and Newbridge Road, the vehicle got stuck in traffic at the light. Cameron approached the car and saw one of the subjects open a car door and drop a car radio on the roadway. At this point he approached the car and identified himself as a police officer, holding his badge in his hand.

The driver of the car at this time tried to run down the officer, and as Cameron fell back, his revolver, which was in his other hand, discharged into the air. The subject vehicle again took off. Cameron went back to his auto and gave chase.

During the chase, at Urban Ave., north of Old Country Road, New Cassel, the vehicle struck a police cruiser, who had heard the details on the police radio and was coming to assist. The officer driving that vehicle was uninjured. The chase continued to the dead end of Prospect St., at the Park Ave. School. The subjects got out of the car and fled on foot. They were arrested a short time later after they were found hiding in a garage at 51 4th Ave.

There were no injuries reported in the incident. When police checked the subjects auto they found another radio which had been stolen from a car parked at McDonald's, Broadway, Hicksville.

The driver of the car, Christopher Barous 19, of 3041 43rd St. Astoria, was charged with two counts of grand larceny, reckless endangerment, leaving the scene of an accident, and resisting arrest. K. of C. Charity Fund $132,000

K of C Charity Fund donations reach $132,000.

The Joseph F. Lamb Council No. 5723 Knights of Columbus, Plainview announced today that the "Joe Lamb Council Fund donations" had reached a total of $132,000, at the period ending in year 1988.

All of the money raised over the period from 1970 thru 1988 has been given through the years to over 144 various charities.

The originator and director of the Joe Lamb Charity Fund is brother Knight Frank Beebe from Plainview, who is aided by many of the men from the mailroom of the New York Times, where Frank has been employed for many years. The Fund was started in August of 1970 when brother Beebe placed a one pound coffee can, with a slot cut out, for donations in the mailroom of the New York Times. The first week $68. was collected, which was immediately sent to one of the charities. It was only planned as a one-shot deal but many of the men in the mailroom, who number as high as 500 at various times, wanted to know where the can was, so that they could donate the following week. Frank then went around with the can, and from that day forward, the weekly donations continued to mushroom. The donations now average $215. per week or $11,000. per year as of 12/31/88. The total has now reached $132,000., all of which has been given to charity.

The donations from the fund reach out, not only to the many worthy charities in the U.S.A., but around the world to missions in Peru, South America, Honduras, East Africa and the Philippines. It goes to Indian Missions at home, to blind societies, special children, orphan hospitals, old age homes, and cancer care. It goes to all faiths and beliefs. It also goes to the Catholic Medical Mission Board which sends medicines all over the world. For every dollar donated to the board the Pharmaceutical companies send $20. worth of medicines at the foreign exchange rate of 20 to 1. This resulted in over $80,000 worth of pharmaceuticals shipped to missions and missionary hospitals.

This fund truly expresses the first order of the Knights of Columbus which is charity. Over 99% of the money comes from the employees in the mailroom of the New York Times and from men of all kinds of religious faiths and backgrounds.

We of the Joe Lamb Council are justly proud of our brother Knight Frank Beebe and we commend all of the men of the New York Times mailroom for their wonderful generosity.

Step/Teen Program Offered

Improving relationships between parents and teenagers will be the focus of a ten week parent education group, being sponsored by Central Nassau Guidance & Counseling Services in Hicksville, according to Steven Wertheim, Ph.D. STEP Program Coordinator. The discussion will be based on Systematic Training for Effective Parenting of Teens

(STEP/Teen).

STEP/Teen is a sequel to Systematic Training for Effective Parenting (STEP) the most widely used parent education program in the country - a program recently held at Central Nassau.

Through readings, discussions and audiocassettes, parents learn more effective ways of communicating with their adolescents. STEP/Teen encourages mutual respect between parents and teens, increased cooperation and a more responsible, self-reliant attitude among teenagers.

STEP/Teen participants work together in small support groups. Parents become actively involved in discussing common concerns and learning specific training principles and techniques.

The STEP/Teen program will be held on Tuesday evenings from 7:30 - 9 p.m. beginning March 28. A nominal fee will be charged. Space is limited. Please call Central Nassau Guidance & Counseling Services at 822-6111 for further information and to reserve a place. Central Nassau is a voluntary agency funded by the Nassau County Department of Mental Health and is a United Way participating agency.

AHRC Ball

Set For June

The Nassau Association For The Help Of Retarded Children will be holding its annual dinner dance at the New York Hilton on Saturday, June 17.

The evening marks the thirty-sixth occasion of the Rose Ball which is expected to attract about one thousand members and friends. The AHRC Ball, along with its journal raises annually about $300,000, and is the keystone of AHRC's community support for the organization which was founded in 1948 and today includes eight thousand member families.

The Nassau AHRC is now marking its fortieth year of service in Nassau County and presently provides daily programs for about 1200 mentally retarded. The organization's campus in Brookville houses a day treatment center, school, horticultural program and boutique vocational program, as well as a summer program. Sheltered workshops and vocational training centers are located in Plainview and Freeport. There is a residential camp at Hunter, New York and community residences along with supportive living apartments are scattered throughout Nassau County. An intermediate care facility was recently opened in Plainview.

This year's Rose Ball, the high point of AHRC's social philanthropic calendar, is chaired by Dorothy Ganin of Hempstead. Committee members for the event have been drawn from the twenty-five auxiliaries which comprise the Nassau AHRC.

Proceeds from the evening will be used to support the organization's programs.

Every student was involved. There was singing, clapping, dancing and laughing along with bright colorful scenery. The students were able to view themselves on the finished video made just for Willet Ave. School.

Shown below is director Ken Marotta, using students Michael Marcin, Breanne Soviero, Paul Oliva and Renee Gengler.

Students dancing to the music are Christine Osso, Billie Sucarino, Valerie Stampfl, Zeb Lounder, John Stamatinos, Ernie Riddenz and Mark Jovic.

Ken Marotta is using trick photography using teachers, Miss Carley and Mrs. Milburn.

Community Hears About Proposed Incinerator Plan

nas four landfills of its own in several states, including one in New York State.

In response to several people in the audience who were in favor of recycling, Mr. Clancy remarked that the State will only allow resource recovery plants in municipalities which have successful recycling programs. He added, "The recycling program has got to work in Oyster Bay."

Mr. Clancy also fielded a question about BFI, American REF-FUEL's parent company, which has been involved in a series of antitrust and environmental problems. In response to allegation of collusion, bid-rigging, bribery and illegal disposal of toxic wastes, Mr. Clancy said that some independent subsidiaries "are having troubles."

American REF-FUEL expects the Old Bethpage facility to be operational by 1992. The company must obtain construction permits from the Department of Environmental Conservation which may take from 6 to 10 months and the plant will take 30 months to build. Mr. Clancy estimates the Town of Oyster Bay tipping charge to be $100 a ton. Looking ahead some twenty years, Mr. Clancy foresees the cost rising to $160 a ton, due to inflation in the labor and materials part of the tipping fee. At present, the Town is paying some $115-120 a ton to haul garbage out of state. Mr. Clancy said that in twenty years with inflation that cost could rise to $350-$400 a ton.

Mr. Kevin Shaughnessy outlined the upgrading of the Broadway Mall as part of Delco Development's plans to make the area more aesthetically pleasing.

Mr. Shaughnessy explained that changes are going on inside and out. Several stores have relocated, renovated, or left the mall. Delco is working on securing another anchor store and hopes to announce within the next six weeks the move of a major business into the mall. Delco is striving to achieve the 120-150 stores which originally held mall occupancy.

The exterior surface has been finished in spectorglaze block. No new entrances to the mall will be made at this time, but existing entrances will be highlighted. Sidewalks have been replaced, lighting in the parking lots has been installed and landscaping will begin when the weather permits. The last phase of the operation will include repaving of the parking lot with the painting of lines.

Inside, skylights, tile, flower boxes and benches can be seen, and Delco estimates that the roof of the center court will be completed within the next several months.

Mr. Shaughnessy noted that security has been beefed up, and that Delco is requesting a Nassau County Police Department booth. There are no plans for an elevated garage at this time, but Mr. Shaughnessy adds, "that is not to say there would not be in the future." Buses will continue to stop where they are at present, but Delco would like to see them removed from the property.

In accordance with the Town's recycling theme, Mr. Shaughnessy mentioned that there is a recycling pickup at the mall and participating store owners deposit cardboard and other recyclable materials. Mr. Shaughnessy added that deliveries will be kept within the hours of seven and five to cut down on disruption to neighbors.

Delco has applied for a 10-screen theater to be housed in a free standing building in the rear of the property. The application has not as yet been approved.

Mr. Shaughnessy said that mall rehabilitation has been a long time coming and that "with your patience, it will only be a short time longer."

The next meeting of the Hicksville Community Council will be on Thursday, April 6, at 8 p.m. in the Library Community Room. The agenda will include a presentation by Kenneth Barnes on the proposed library budget.

Town Clerk Supports Blood Drive

Oyster Bay Town Clerk Carl L. Marcellino does his part in fulfilling the Greater New York Blood Program's 1989 theme, "Help Create Happy Endings," by donating blood during the Town's recent blood drive. Susan Esposito of Long Island Blood Services monitors the procedure. Marcellino urged all residents who are physically eligible to donate blood. He noted that the demand for blood by Long Island Hospitals alone exceeds 700 pints each day, so donations are constantly needed. Those who wish to donate can contact the Long Island Blood Services headquarters in Melville at 752-7300 for information and to schedule an appointment.

Hicksville Warriors 1974 Travel team Coach, Pat McHugh, was chosen by the Hicksville Soccer Club to be among the honored at a buffet, held Friday evening, March 3, at the Royce Carlin Hotel in Huntington. The event, sponsored by Long Island Junior Soccer League, prior to their weekend Convention, drew well over 500 people, and one person from each attending Nassau-Suffolk Club was a designated honoree. Pat has been involved in soccer in Hicksville for over 20 years, first with CYO and then as one of the founders of Hicksville Americans Soccer Club. He was awarded a beautiful plaque for his many years of outstanding service to the youth of our community. Also in attendance, cheering Pat on, were: Al and Karen Blicher, Marcel Parra, Jay and Gail Schwartz, Barry Lawson and Janet, Karol Butterworth, Phil and Mary Ann Caputo, and Gerri Himes. Congratulations to Pat for his well-deserved honor!

Library Helps College Bound

The Hicksville Public Library can take the mystery out of paying for college for college-bound students and their families with a computer software program called SNAP (The Student Need Advisor Program). In minutes this program can calculate a student's eligibility for various forms of financial aid, including TAP awards.

The software also projects personal budgets for selected occupations, expenses, and geographic locations of residence after college. It will even calculate the future cash value of current investments to determine how far your money will go toward upcoming school costs.

SNAP was provided to the library as a community service by The Chase Manhattan Bank, N.A. SNAP is a registered trademark of EDTECH.

Fire Chief Honored At Dinner

Oyster Bay Town Supervisor Angelo A. Delligatti presents a citation to Gerald O'Brien, outgoing Chief of the Hicksville Fire Department, as Town Councilman Thomas L. Clark looks on. O'Brien was honored at the Department's Annual Installation Dinner. He is being succeeded as Chief by Terence Farrell.

Department to "catch up with us."

Area residents expressed the following views:

From Bond Lane, a self-acknowledged "female jock" said she wished to see the community remain "parklike." She said that, "a decrease in open space is one of the cons in this proposal."

A resident of Abbot Lane expressed serious traffic concerns. She noted that since the Town approved the building of two office buildings on Stewart Avenue, there is an increase of traffic in the area. She felt that traffic would further increase as workers in the new office building on Old Country Road and the Wantagh Expressway use Stewart Avenue and Levittown Parkway as alternative routes. She added that this additional traffic "is not only horrendous, but detrimental to this community."

Mr. Herbst interjected that the Town is considering a traffic light at Beech St. and Levittown Parkway, one in front of the fire house (for use in time of egress), and a "no turn on red" at Stewart Avenue and Levittown Parkway.

Another resident said the community had been told that the sump would be moved back 8 feet, so that drivers can better see youngsters crossing Beech Street. Nothing further developed on that proposal.

Many residents expressed fears of teen gang mischief, vandalism, excessive noise, and "crazies." They wished to see the property kept for neighborhood use. Others feared that by opening the property to organized sports teams, an influx of non-residents would occur. Still another resident suggested the Town plant sticker bushes on the perimeter of the property. He said this would make neighbors' property less accessible, it would lessen noise; and it would make the distance too far to throw beer bottles.

Mr. Herbst suggested that a police booth be installed on the property. This suggestion met with mixed feelings as some residents felt this would help the situation and some feared that the police would be just as afraid of the unruly youngsters as the residents are.

In response to one resident, Mr. Herbst commented that the outcome of the Dutch Lane proposal has an effect on the development of other parkland in Hicksville which has already been set aside. This Rlm Lane resident pointed out that the Town has made authorization since March 1985 for $900,000 in bond money to develop parkland specifically in the Gleese area. The money has been approved, but not utilized.

A resident who said she was not a direct neighbor to the Dutch Lane property suggested the Town develop a park on Duffy Avenue. Mr. Herbst answered, "Do you know what it would cost the Town to purchase in an industrial area?" Mr. Herbst noted that the Dutch Lane property is already off the tax rolls and the Town would not have to purchase it.

Several residents expressed a desire to see the parkland developed. One resident, a former official of the Hicksville Baseball Association said, "Let's not forget the youth of our community. Would you rather spend a few hundred thousand dollars now or half a million to imprison them later?" Another resident said, "The very least we can do is to give it a shot."

JoAnn Miltenberg, President of the Hicksville Board of Education, said that the Board has not as yet discussed the proposal in detail, only in concept. She reiterated that the reorganization Committee report called for no closing and/or selling of schools; but it did propose the selling of excess land.

Mrs. Miltenberg stressed that the present Board is not considering any moves at this time, but that future Boards of Education may not act in the same manner. She added that if the Board chose to sell property, it would have to submit a referendum for public vote. The Board can, however, lease land after a successful vote by the Board members (4 aye votes). She noted that the district's lawyers could write into the lease that the property must remain parkland. Mrs. Miltenberg and several Board members were present at the special meeting, and Mrs. Miltenberg said, "We hear the opinions of the community."

At the end of the session, Mrs. Wolf asked for a show of hands to determine the persuasions of the audience. An overwhelming number of residents were against the proposal, some were for, about a half dozen were neutral, and those wanting something done with the property gave a moderate round of applause.

The final speaker of the evening urged residents to write to the Town Board and express their feeling. He said that this is the best way to let your elected officials know how you feel.

Our Homeowners EdgeSM loan pays off now.

And pays off later.

Introducing a 60 minute loan with no upfront costs.

The intelligent shopper is always on the lookout for a great deal. But when it comes to homeowners' loans, the truly intelligent shopper knows that there's more to a great loan than a great rate.

That's why we created Homeowners Edge.SM The loan that combines the advantages of a home equity loan with the simplicity of an installment loan. And with no upfront fees or closing costs.

Homeowners Edge lets you borrow from $7,500 to $25,000 while allowing you to use the money as you see fit. We offer a choice of low rates, flexible terms and a set payment schedule. And in most cases, we'll give you a decision on your application in 60 minutes or less.

Plus potential tax advantages on April 15th.

Like a home equity loan, Homeowners Edge is secured by a mortgage on your house, condo or co-op. So chances are, interest on a Homeowners Edge loan will probably qualify for a full interest deduction. Which isn't always the case with other types of loans. (There are some exceptions to deductibility. Please consult your tax advisor before applying.)

Just visit The 60 Minute Loan CenterSM at any of our 190 convenient branches. Or call 1-800-942-1784 (from NJ and CT, call 914-899-2182 collect) any weekday between 8:30 am and 3:00 pm, or Saturday from 9:00 am until noon, and get an answer in 60 minutes or less.

Or you can call until 9:00 pm Monday through Friday or 3:00 pm on Saturday for an answer the very next business day.

With the Homeowners Edge loan, you can tell everyone what an intelligent shopper you are. And every April 15th, your accountant will prove it.
