A high total of seven Hicksville High School students were chosen as "Teenager-of-the-Month" by the local Elks Club this year. Students are chosen on their academic standings, extra-curricular activities and community services.

Bob Stenson, left, is the coordinator of the program and Carleton Judd, right, standing next to High School Principal Richard Hogan, helped in presenting the awards to the students.

Hicksville's "Teenager-of-the-Month" are: Karen Kratochvil (October), Lisa Grillo (November), John Fabrizio (January), Sean Nguyen (February), Ronald Atienza (March), Nasim Shah (April), and Paul Aversano (May).

Delligatti Accepts $10,000 Grant

Oyster Bay Town Supervisor Angelo A. Delligatti announced that the Town has been awarded a $10,000 grant by the New York State Department of Labor to develop and implement a safety training program for all personnel involved in the collection and processing of recyclable household materials.

"The Town of Oyster Bay was one of just two municipalities selected from across New York State to receive a grant with the specific purpose of occupational safety," said Delligatti. "This funding will allow us to design a training program for the special handling of recyclable materials by our personnel and, when complete, the information will be made available to the private carters that are participating in our townwide recycling program. Other municipalities, through New York State Hazard Abatement Board training and education programs, will be able to learn from our efforts."

Delligatti noted that the field of waste recycling is relatively new and there is little specific hazard data available. "The accrual of this information will be the first phase of the program developed by New York Committee for Occupational Safety and Health (NYCOSH), which will involve site inspections, interviews, conferences and research," he said.

Dist. Residents Reject Budget For 1989-90

By Maureen Traxler

In a stinging defeat, the $46.7 million 1989-90 Hicksville school budget went down by a 340-vote margin in an unusually large turnout on May 10. Incumbent trustee Carole Wolf was ousted by candidate William Collins in his second bid for a position on the School Board, and James Martillo, also in a second bid, won strongly over opponents Jay Schwartz and Thomas McGovern.

"People are making a statement against higher taxes," said School Board President JoAnn Miltenberg, following the announcement of voting results, "and they're hurting our children." This is the fourth consecutive year that the budget has gone down to defeat on the first vote. This year, the School Board has given no indication that there will be a second vote.

Under State rules and guidelines for austerity, certain programs could be withdrawn: extra curricular activities, including the sports program; new library books, new equipment; use of school facilities by community and non-school organizations; Adult Education Program; field trips; paper supplies for students; transportation for students in grades 9 to 12 living within three miles or for students in grades K to 8 within two miles.

Candidates Collins and Martillo, backed by the powerful Teachers Union, will assume their seats on the Board on July 1, 1989. They will serve for three years.

Prior to the evening's brief agenda, Conrad Steers, three-year President and Past Commander of the Hicksville Veterans of Foreign Wars, presented two POW/MIA flags to the school district to be flown with the American flag over the high school and the middle school. Mr. Steers hopes the flags will remind residents about "the brothers left over in Vietnam that might still be living in Southeast Asia."

In acknowledging that two Hicksville residents, Lieutenant William Chomyk and Major Robert Ernest Rausch, have not returned from service in Vietnam, Mr. Steers asked that on Memorial Day, we "keep them in mind, as well as the men and women who gave the supreme sacrifice." Mr. Steers concluded, "Remember what these POW/MIA flags stand for -- and the freedoms we have in America."

Mr. Steers introduced Paul Masi of the Nassau County Vietnam Veterans Chapter 82, who has been working with officials in Washington in pursuit of the country's POW/MIAs. "It's tough to do, but it is the right thing to do. To let it go would be easier," commented Mr. Masi. He called on all to "remember those who did not return or may never return."

In the action section of the agenda, the Board approved a ratification of the Memorandum of Agreement between the Hicksville School District and the Hicksville Secretary's Association covering the period July 1, 1989 through June 30, 1992. The vote was 5 to 0, with trustees Daniel MacBride and Mark Cardella not present.

Director of Personnel Don Bright hosted the district's traditional presentation to Silver Anniversary (25+ years) and retiring employees. Silver bowls were presented to Gail Louise Ash, Christine Podliuk and Joseph Scalia. The four other silver anniversary celebrants not able to be present were: George Gesslein, David Persinger, Jerome Smith and Ralph Undreiner.

Of the 24 retirees, eleven were on hand to receive plaques presented by Superintendent Catherine Fenton and President JoAnn Miltenberg. Among the retirees were three men -- Charles Arnold, Gerald Burakoff and Thomas Buttice -- whose combined service to the district's music department totals almost 100 years.

The additional retirees are: Ruth Arnone, Irving Axelrod, Rosemary Barrow, Terrence Both, Alvin Burgay, Patricia Cooney, Dolf DeRovira, Nat Guccione, Donald Haggerty, Joanne Keneally, Barbara Kosko, Kenneth Loftus, Geraldine McManus, Nicholas Muratore, Ann Murtagh, Mary Neil, Phil Provost, Herbert Rosen, Alice M. Schock, Robert Stafford and Charlotte Williams.

The next regular meeting of the Board will be held on Wednesday, May 24, at 8:15 p.m., in the conference room of the Administration Building.

Editor's Notebook

Nassau County District Attorney Denis Dillon has released his 1988 Annual Report. The 93 page document shows the Nassau DA's Office again obtained one of the highest felony conviction rates in the State; 96.6 percent. The conviction rate increased despite a 19% jump in the number of felony cases handled in the County Court.

The increased caseload is attributed to a rise in the number of drug arrests. Nearly one third of all cases in the County Court now involves the sale or possession of drugs. Many of these cases arise from sting operations conducted by the DA's office and Police. In 5 drug stings in 1988 more than 350 defendants were arrested. Truly, the drug problem has become part of the suburban scene.

Increased cases were not confined to the County Court. In 1988 the number of misdemeanors and violations handled in the District Court rose to 24,127 cases. This was up over the number of cases in 1987 by 1,938. Some of the increase can be attributed to a rise in the number of Driving While Intoxicated cases. In 1988 there were 5,453 arrests for DWI as compared to 4,736 in 1987. On a more positive note, the number of deaths on our roadways related to alcohol was down last year to 35. In 1987 the number of alcohol related deaths on our roadways was 44.

Dillon was pleased with his office's accomplishments in the environmental area. The year began with the conviction of Preco Industries Inc. for illegal disposal of industrial chemical waste for which it was fined $225,000, the highest fine ever paid in New York for a conviction of an environmental crime. This record fine lasted only until the end of the year when the Environmental Unit convicted Industrial Fastners, Inc., imposing a $400,000 fine.

The Commercial Frauds Bureau was successful in recouping losses for victims of fraud. In 1988 over $2.3 million in restitution was ordered by the Court. In addition, nearly one half a million dollar in fines were ordered against defendants prosecuted by the Frauds Bureau.

In the area of civil rights, the DA said his office in 1988 was the first to prosecute a landlord for the crime of rent gouging. As a result of this case, a new law was proposed to state legislators to upgrade the penalties. In addition, the DA's office initiated a task force on housing, aimed at supporting the needs of tenants.

District Attorney Dillon said any member of the public interested in a free copy of the 1988 Annual Report can write Nassau County District Attorney Denis Dillon, 262 Old Country Road, Mineola, New York, 11501.

Letters

To the Editor:

I recently tried to purchase a jacket with the Hicksville colors from two local sport stores in Hicksville. It was then that I was informed that there was not enough interest in this area for the stores to stock such items. One store said they did not want to compete with the other store. They thought this other store stocked Hicksville items. I would think that if there is a competing store in the area, the managers would know what is being stocked.

I think it is a disgrace that school teams and interested parties would have to go to outside sources for these items because merchants in this area will not supply our colors.

I challenge these stores and all merchants of Hicksville to stock our school colors and have them available for the consumer to purchase. I would also urge other members of the community to become aware of this situation and let the local merchants know we are not happy with this arrangement.

Sincerely,
 Mrs. Timothy Glover

To the Residents of Hicksville:

I wish to take this opportunity to thank each and every one of you who either voted for, or supported, me for election to the Hicksville School Board. Unfortunately, my desire to serve the community as a member of the School Board was denied at the voting booth. However, I am still fortunate to be able to serve the Hicksville community in my current activities.

The new board will be faced with many difficult decisions. I wish them well in their deliberations and hope that their decisions will be made with the utmost concern for our community.

Sincerely,
 Thomas J. McGovern

To Voters of Hicksville:

I thank you all for the support you gave me in this election. Your 708 votes were gratifying since other candidates spent several thousands of dollars on advertisements. Why would some group spend so much?

The public has spoken and we must listen to their voices. The budget is high and defeated again and we are now in austerity. We should worry that after four straight years of defeats we will be labeled as an anti-education town. This is not a reputation which makes it easy for us to sell homes.

Best of luck to the newcomers on the Board of Education. I know that they will work very hard to cut the budget. Can they make the independent decisions? We shall see soon enough!

I will continue to be a Board watcher. I hope to see you there too. Again, thanks for your help and warm regards.

Sincerely,
 Jay Schwartz

To the Editor:

I would like to thank the 1400 people who left their homes on a stormy day to vote for me in the Hicksville School Board election.

Even though I had lost the election, it was very nice to know that so many people had enough confidence in my abilities and believed that I could do a good job.

The last three years of my life had been dedicated to the education of Hicksville's children. Besides Board meetings, Committee Meetings, and the Re-Organization Meetings, I had attended the All-Elementary School Concerts, Open Schools, National Honor Society Inductions, Graduations, Foreign Language Awards, Concerts and Scholarship Dinners.

The most difficult thing for me when my term expires is to leave the children.

Thank you for three wonderful years on the Board of Education.

Sincerely
 Carole Wolf

To the Editor:

I am writing this letter because I am deeply concerned about the involvement of the Hicksville Congress of Teachers and the Teacher Aide Unit, in the May 10 School Board Election, and I want your readers and the community to be aware that we will be negotiating with the HCT & CSEA bargaining units in the coming months, and I have reason to believe, that they have funneled from eight to ten thousand dollars in the form of advertising ads, mass mailings, telephone banks, sound trucks, etc. And by doing this they have placed tremendous pressure on the newly elected board members who they supported for the upcoming negotiations.

If the best interests of education and the taxpayers are to be served, support should come from the community of Hicksville, and not from "special interest" groups, particularly those involved in negotiations with the very same people they helped elect.

Let us hope that the interests of Hicksville come first.

Sincerely,
 Bill Bennett

A Great Day Is Coming

By Gert Paul

On Saturday, May 27, at 2 p.m., proud and happy residents of Hicksville will gather at Memorial Park, at the confluence of Broadway and Jerusalem Ave., to celebrate the rejuvenation of the Park and the re-dedication of the Kiwanis fountain.

For years we have watched the deterioration of not only the park and the fountain, but of the very environment in which we live. The time came when we felt that we had to say "Enough! Historic Hicksville needs to be saved!" Due to the determined efforts of the Midland Civic Assoc. beautification committee, other Civic Groups, Kiwanis, the Chamber of Commerce, and the concern and dedication of County Supervisor Angelo Dellagatti and Deputy Commissioners Leonard Kunzig and John Walker of the Parks Dept., the re-dedication of the fountain and park will now happen!

This occasion is Hicksville's call for a turn-around in the ambiance of our town, and the turning on of the fountain will be the symbol for our hope. Working together, the people and its governing body shall truly grow "better" every day!

Residents of Hicksville! Please come and share in the festivities. It will be fun, and it will make you feel so good!

Holy Trinity Celebration

Bishop Orris G. Walker

On Sunday, May 21, the members of Holy Trinity Episcopal Church, Hicksville, join in celebrating with Bishop Orris G. Walker its 90th birthday. Bishop Walker will make his first visitation to Holy Trinity Church since his consecration last year. The occasion is Holy Trinity Episcopal Church's Parish Name Day.

Bishop Walker was consecrated April 9, 1988 and as Bishop Coadjutor will succeed the Rt. Rev. Robert C. Witcher as Diocesan. Bishop Walker brings to his office a rich background in pastoral and social ministries. For many years he has exercised a leadership role in the General Conventions of the Episcopal Church and already he has entered into important ecumenical dialogues and has stated his concern about homelessness and housing, quality education for the children of our ghettos, the reinforcement of family life and equal opportunities in Church and society for all persons.

Holy Trinity Episcopal Church is now its 90th year. The Rector and Vestrymembers and other parish leaders see the next decade as very important to the life and work of this parish, both in the community as well as the Diocese of Long Island. Last Sunday, the Rector, The Rev. Domenic K. Ciannella, stressed the fact that the Holy Spirit is the agent of the Church's growth and he called parishioners to an aggressive exercise of a variety of ministries he specified as being important to this growth. Bishop Walker will lead in the celebration of these ministries as he leads the congregation in worship at the 10 a.m. Eucharist.

Members of the community are invited to join with the members of Holy Trinity Episcopal Church in celebrating the Parish's Name Day, its 90th anniversary and in welcoming an ecumenical leader of the Long Island community.

Northwest Civics Membership Due

By Jo-Ann Broska

The time has come again for members to pay their annual dues for the 1989-90 Calendar year. We will be looking forward to seeing you and hope you will bring in new members. As you know your dues pay for mailing, printing expenses and our liability insurance.

It is vital that we are strong in community affairs and have our voices heard. It is an opportunity that we have as citizens, to express our feelings and viewpoints. We will only be heard and taken seriously in numbers. Don't throw that right away!

After a long hard fight we finally received the re-zoning of our school.

We have another serious fight facing us. Our Fire Commissioner plan to remove Co. 6 from our firehouse. The Commissioners say they do not plan to close our fire house. "at this particular time." If we do not voice our opposition in numbers, they will know the feelings of only a few. We do have a number of other problems facing us and a few that we have to finish dealing with.

The Northwest Civic Organization feels that there is only one way to reach our goal for a safe, healthy, and proud community to live in. That is to stay involved as a community. To feel your voice is not important or fighting would be fruitless is wrong. Our meetings are only one night a month. Please join us! Thank you.

Town Applauds Students From Central Blvd.

The Environmental Control Commission of the Town of Oyster Bay held a Recycled Art Contest this year to promote the idea of separating our garbage in order to recycle. After learning the meaning and the importance of recycling, the children were encouraged to produce art projects using recyclable items only. Schools throughout the Town of Oyster Bay were invited to enter and many did participate. Keith Adler, a first grade student at Central Blvd. won First Prize and Kyle Zuaro, another first grade student at Central Blvd. School won Third prize in their category of K-2 grade. In the 3-4th grade category, Susan Barcon and Kristin Haacke were recognized with Honorable Mention Certificates. Susan Barcon and Kristin Haacke are both fourth graders in Central Blvd. School Bethpage was certainly represented in the winner circle by these fine youngsters and we should all be very proud of them. The awards were presented at an award ceremony held on May 10 in the Conference Room at the Town Hall South, Massapequa. The presenter was Town Supervisor Angelo A. Delligatti. A thank you must also go to Mrs. Bohman, Art Teacher at Central Blvd. School, for encouraging participation in the contest and for coordinating all the projects submitted. The projects were judged by several teachers and monitors so winners could be selected to represent C.B.S. in the T.O.B. Contest since only two projects per grade category would be accepted.

Rev. Theodore Grant

On Wednesday, May 10, the Rev. Dr. Theodore S. Grant was the third guest clergyman to be invited to speak to the Hicksville Kiwanis Club during the program initiated by the chairman of the Spiritual Aims Committee, Effie Krogmann. The purpose of this monthly program is to invite local clergymen to address a Kiwanis meeting and briefly explain and/or discuss what their denomination believes and how they function.

Rev. Grant is the pastor of Redeemer Lutheran Church located on New South Road in Hicksville. Judging by the questions from the audience after Pastor Grant's discussion, as well as the attention during his talk, it was obvious that the Kiwanis Club members appreciated the information being presented and shared with them.

Plainedge High School ninth grader Elizabeth Deblak of Bethpage researched the effect of oil on fish for her entry in Long Island Lighting Company's "Energy and the Environment" award. Deblak competed for the LILCO award at the recent Long Island Science Congress at the State University of New York College at Farmingdale. The results of the science competition and LILCO award will be announced later this month.

Oyster Bay Town Councilman Leonard B. Symons, third from right, presents citations to Jack and Barbara Nelman, center, and to Alan and Amy Levine for their outstanding contribution to the Manetto Hill Jewish Center at the State of Israel Bond Testimonial Breakfast which was held at the Manetto Hill Jewish Center in Plainview. On hand for the occasion were, left to right, guest speaker Fred Margulies, Rabbi Morris Bernstein and president Stuart Nitkin.

9 Year Old SAGE Author, Expert

Lauren Carroll

Lauren Carroll, who with help from her family, is the first student in Victoria Nesnick's 3rd grade class to have "published" a book. After compiling 95 answers, Lauren's book is appropriately entitled "Questions and Answers About Michael Jackson" and is modeled after Mrs. Nesnick's "Princess Diana: A Book of Questions and Answers."

Originally Mrs. Nesnick had planned on writing a Michael Jackson book herself but then realized nine year old Lauren knew more about Jackson than she did so suggested Lauren author the book instead. Lauren enthusiastically accepted the challenge because she has been a Michael Jackson fan since she was three years old. (She recently received outstanding recognition for her impersonation of him at her school's annual Lip Sync Contest.)

Lauren's book has now earned her the official title of "Expert" amongst her peers at the Central Blvd. Elementary School in Bethpage. She has played an integral part in the S.A.G.E. portion of Mrs. Nesnick's "Writing for Publication Program for Youngsters" which she is designing to increase student language skills and self-esteem in addition to being a wise person.

S.A.G.E. is also the acronym for Student Authors Gaining Expertise. Mrs. Nesnick says, "The chief purpose of writing is to communicate with others and writing just for classroom use is not nearly purposeful enough. Youngsters, as well as adults, need a larger audience to sharpen their skills and increase their self-image. The amount of effort a writer exerts is directly related to the size of his/her audience."

Mrs. Nesnick strongly believes, "There are many budding experts in our classes, like Lauren, just waiting to be discovered and many others just waiting to be turned in the right direction to shine." She adds, "Lauren has certainly provided strong motivation for her classmates to continue with books of their own on various subjects and styles. Many are biographies about special people in their lives because," as Mrs. Nesnick says, "It's through learning about others that we learn about ourselves. Lauren's book tells us a tremendous amount about Michael Jackson but even more about Lauren. She is obviously a hard-working, self-motivated student who possesses the strength and courage necessary to share her talents with others. I am extremely proud of her and so is the entire class."

What is the proper way to acknowledge a writer? In writing, of course. So after Mrs. Nesnick read Lauren's "masterpiece" to the class she had all her students write Lauren letters of congratulations. The following are excerpts from those letters:

"You are probably the best expert out of our town if not out of Long Island." Michael Patrick
 "Now you're just not a person but you're an author."

Caroline O'Keefe
 "You are the best author in this school. Your book is out of this world."

Craig Hecker
 "I'm really proud to have someone write a book, even if it wasn't me."

James Zizza
 "If anybody knows more about Michael Jackson than himself, you are the one."

Henry Suhr
 "You are a good author. When people are able to buy one, I will buy one. Great job!"

Anthony Fulgieri
 "Please tell your sisters that I think how they helped you was great."

Michael Levchenko
 "I think your book is a smash. I bet your book will go down in history."

Billy Parris
 "May I please have your autograph?"

Jane Stuart
 "I know your book will be famous and you will be famous too."

Kristen Naso
 "It is one of the best books anyone could write. To me you are much smarter than anyone in the world about Michael Jackson. I will always remember you and your intelligence. You look beautiful on your author page and you'll always be beautiful to me."

Jeanna Novelli
 School psychologist, Dr. Erv Farkas, states, "I wholly endorse Mrs. Nesnick's S.A.G.E. program." He explains, "It helps the child feel good about herself. Authoring a book on her area of expertise gives her meaningful recognition, a sense of accomplishment and success. This begins a cycle of positive feedback from parents, teachers, and peers which formulates or reinforces a child's positive self-esteem. S.A.G.E. is a supportive method of teaching children organizational skills, research skills, writing and spelling skills and good work habits. All of which increases self-esteem."

S.A.G.E. helps to increase a youngster's maturity level as well. "Children want to be like adults and participate in the adult world with adult tools. In our culture literacy is the goal and the written word is the tool." Lauren Carroll is certainly maturing beautifully.

What impressed Mrs. Nesnick the most about Lauren's book was the comment she made at its completion. Lauren enthusiastically announced, "I can't wait to write my next book!" Mrs. Nesnick couldn't have been more pleased. "I have great confidence in Lauren and know some day she will be writing books which will be commercially published. But in the meanwhile she deserves as much recognition as possible. Copies of her book will be donated to the Bethpage Public Library as well as the school library and of course I get a copy which I'll cherish forever. It's important that work of this caliber and effort be shared far beyond the confines of a classroom. This gives children the opportunity to become contributing members of society and experience the "give back to society principle."

Ever since Mrs. Nesnick has had her book published youngsters and adults have approached her in terms of getting their work published. "I am certainly not an expert in this field but am doing my best at trying to be as helpful and supportive as I can." She says her ultimate goal is to set up a School Publishing Center which will service youngsters in other classes as well as her own. "There's a great deal of talent in this district. We have quite a number of students and adults with great writing, editing and artistic skills and we just need a more feasible way of sharing these skills and talents."

Mrs. Nesnick is confident that "The Year of the Young Writer" will soon be following "The Year of the Young Reader". "It's logically the next step and Bethpage needs to take further steps at encouraging and enabling students to write for publication."

Postal Officials Charity Drive

Roger Nienaber

Leading the 1989/90 Long Island Combined Federal Campaign (CFC) is Roger Nienaber, general manager/postmaster, Long Island division of the U.S. Postal Service. As the CFC chief volunteer officer, Nienaber serves as the coordinating committee chairman. Day-to-day operations of the federal drive will be supervised by the volunteer campaign chairman, Charles Ferrera, Roslyn Heights postmaster.

A large amount of funds received annually by Long Island voluntary agencies and hospitals comes from donations by federal employees in the bi-county area. Their CFC donations last year amounted to $616,048. A major challenge for CFC leaders is to reach all of the 20,000 federal personnel employed across the region. To do this, individual workplace campaigns must be held in each of the 250 federal offices and facilities on Long Island.

Joining Nienaber on the CFC policymaking committee are representatives of nine other federal agencies. United Way of Long Island is providing management services for operating the Combined Federal Campaign.

Jump-A-Thon At Willet Ave.

Approximately $1700 was raised. The top fundraiser was Joseph Trapasso, 2nd was Lisa Squiccerini and 3rd was Daniel Wolchok. The top team consisted of Joseph Trapasso, Dennis Aberle, Andrew Coffey, Anthony DiFilippo, Andrew Pfander and Michael Marsicano.

LEGAL NOTICE STATE ENVIRONMENTAL QUALITY REVIEW ACT NOTICE OF COMPLETION OF FINAL

ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT STATEMENT
DATE: May 12, 1989
LEAD AGENCY: TOWN OF
OYSTER BAY, Town Hall,
Audrey Avenue, Oyster Bay,
N.Y. 11771

This Notice is issued pursuant to Part 617 of the implementing regulations pertaining to Article 8 (State Environmental Quality Review Law) of the Environmental Conservation Law and Local Law No. 3-1977 of the Town of Oyster Bay Environmental Quality Review Law.

A Final Environmental Impact Statement has been deemed complete for the proposed action described below. Comments on the Final EIS are requested and will be accepted by the contact person listed below until May 26, 1989.

NAME OF ACTION: Speigel Shopping Center

DESCRIPTION OF ACTION: The proposed action involves the development of 12.3 acre vacant lot into a 149,000 square foot retail establishment.

LOCATION: The site is located on the west side of Route 107, south of South Oyster Bay Road, north of Central Park Avenue in Hicksville.

POTENTIAL ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACTS AND EFFECTS: The proposed action is projected to result in the generation of 1,058 vehicles during the weekday commuter peak hour. Approximately 1,179 vehicles would be generated during the Saturday peak hour. This vehicular generation has the potential to adversely affect the area's traffic patterns.

The site is located in an area which is classified as non-attainment for carbon monoxide--a situation which can be directly related to traffic generation. The high vehicular generation rate noted above has the potential to further increase carbon monoxide levels in the area.

The project site is located in a water district which has been affected by the NYS Dept. of Environmental Conservation limitations on water use. That water district has indicated that any increase in water use could adversely affect the district. The proposal--with its projected water usage of close to 2 million gallons per year--could have an adverse effect on the local water district.

COPIES OF THE FINAL EIS MAY BE OBTAINED IN PERSON FROM:

Weekends are usually days in which everyone takes a break and relaxes a little, but for Gregory Quinlan, a third grader in Mrs. Simon's class at Lee Avenue, one weekend a few weeks ago was a very rewarding one for the eight year old swimmer.

Gregory not only does well in swimming, but enjoys other sports and is now participating in the new lacrosse league in Hicksville.

Auburndale Defeated By Pioneers

By Jay Schwartz

The 1977 Pioneers, stars in the Hicksville American Soccer Club, battered the Auburndale Panthers with six goals on April 29. The game was played on a cold, overcast day, but the smiles were brightly shining at its conclusion.

The first goal was scored minutes into the game, as Jonathan Schwartz ran to intercept a loose ball. He kicked it back to Robert Ilsley, who popped a sailing pass up to Ricky Ladimir on left wing. Ladimir dribbled and put a soft rolling ball in to the net, just out of reach of the goalkeeper. The pressure was intense as Hicksville placed several shots on their opponent's goal.

Greg Latini made it 2-0, when he volleyed in a strong shot moments later. After a Schwartz throw-in, the goalie cleared the ball to the right. Latini was there and the keeper had no chance to bat it down. Joseph Matz had a pass and took a shot but volleyed it wide. Philip Caputo struck a long shot which crossed the net and went wide of the mark. Tommy Coffey passed up to Dave Nelsen who dribbled and shot one, but the goalkeeper tapped it away. Joseph Florio touched a nice ball to Coffey, but his shot was high and wide.

The second half started with a Pioneer goal as Joey Croce passed to Ladimir who crossed the ball up to Tommy Coffey. Coffey touched it right in as the ball came to him. Ricky Ladimir had a give and go with Danny Wolchok who dribbled, faked and kicked one in. Sean Flanagan worked with Wolchok and crossed one up for Wolchok to tap in.

The Panthers went on the attack and charged in. The defense could not clear the ball. Jonathan Schwartz, now keeper, dove with outstretched hands but the ball rolled into the left lower corner. The Panthers came back with another as a shot was taken over the head of replacement keeper, Latini. The scoring was over as Philip Caputo kicked a pretty shot into the upper corner from across the box.

Kudos to Timmy Dalton, Peter Titone and Richard Werchenski for fine play on the field. The final score was 6-2, a nice victory for the Pioneers. Congratulations to Westbury Federal Savings and Loan, team sponsors of this Long Island Junior Division Two team.

Pioneers Upset Sachem 3-0

By Jay Schwartz

The 1977 Hicksville American Pioneers defeated the Sachem Redskins at their windy field on May 6.

The action was swift and frantic as the game began. Dave Nelsen sent a long pass up to Phil Caputo whose shot was blocked and knocked out for a corner. Jonathan Schwartz kicked the ball low for Joey Florio who struck the ball wide of the net.

On a Redskin throw-in, Ricky Ladimir moved to the ball. He crossed the ball into the box. The goalie came out too far and Caputo kicked the ball up and into the upper corner for the first score. Players Dave Nelsen, Joey Matz, Joey Florio, and Peter Titone were quick to the ball for Hicksville. A close goal almost came when Jonathan Schwartz passed a sideline ball up to Ladimir. He turned and quickly sent a crossing shot up to Phil Caputo. Caputo backed the ball out to Danny Wolchok, who shot the ball right away. The ball bounced off the upper bar and the goalie grabbed it in.

In the second half the pressure was still on Sachem. Jonathan Schwartz, Richard Werchenski, and Tommy Coffey put a combination play together but the alert goalie came in to break it up. Hustling on the field to watch for the attacks were Joey Croce, Sean Flanagan, and Timmy Dalton. Joey Florio took a corner shot which Flanagan scrambled for. His shot was scooped up by the goalie. Ricky Ladimir crossed a pass to Coffey and the goalie dove for the shot that was taken. The second goal was a beauty as the ball was not cleared out by Sachem. Ladimir went to it and kicked a high ball in over the goalie's head to the upper right corner, well out of reach. Minutes later Ladimir had another opportunity as Danny Wolchok crossed a ball to the far left side. Ladimir shot to the lower corner and put in goal number three.

The team worked well and had a deserved victory. The team sponsor, Westbury Federal Savings and Loan will be proud of the team's efforts.

Woodland School Phys. Ed. Program

The week of May 1 has been designated as National Physical Education Week. During this week the importance that physical education plays in the life of children is brought into public focus. Many schools hold Open House, demonstrations, or presentation of program highlights to make the public aware of what is going on in physical education classes. Woodland Avenue School had a special program set up in the gymnasium called "Jungle Adventure."

Jungle Adventure is a creative, innovative program founded by physical education instructor Betty Way Stouges. In Jungle Adventure, the entire gymnasium is transformed into a Jungle Habitat complete with papier-mache' wild animals and palm trees, sound effects, an imaginary river with stepping stones, a river ferry crossing, a rope suspension bridge, a rope tube tunnel, a climbing vine, a cliff climb, a swinging tire, gigantic spider web and much more!

It is an obstacle course in which the children use many of the skills learned and practiced during their prior Gymnastics/Apparatus Unit. There are pathways to follow which take the children in various directions and to different stations. The children constantly test their skill, strength, balance, body and eye coordination, and at the same time, condition their bodies. All this without even realizing what they are doing as they move and travel through the Jungle. The course is geared so that each child is able to achieve some success by working and performing at his own skill level and by selecting pathways to follow.

Jungle Adventure is a unique program to see. It offers an out of the ordinary glimpse of a Physical Education class, and what can be done to make "gym" fun and also physically rewarding at the same time.

Jason Silver Tournament

By Jennifer Garman

On April 7, the students of Bethpage High School gathered together with members of the community not only to engage in some friendly competition and have some fun, but at the same time to support a worthy cause. They took part in a volleyball tournament held by the Senior Class and Student Council in order to raise money for Jason Silver, a student who was seriously injured when hit by a car at the beginning of the 1987 school year. The tournament was an effort to help the Silver family financially, since Jason remains in a hospital, still recovering from the accident.

Publicity about the event spread throughout the high school and the community resulted in a crowd of spectators that packed the gym. Jason himself was in attendance with his family. Before the start of the tournament, Rabbi Ginsburg said a prayer for Jason, and Mr. Silver followed with a few words of thanks and appreciation on behalf of the family. At this point in the evening, everyone was ready to begin.

Twenty-two teams, each one contributing a $100 donation to the cause, were there to participate in the tournament.

The teams all played 15 minute/15 point games, with the winners moving on to the higher levels of competition. As the night wore on, the intensity of the competition, as well as the excitement level, steadily increased. In the end, Tom Shea's Volleyball Connection took first place, the Bethpage Fire Department's team came in second, the Fabulous Faculty placed third, and Phil Coniglio's Looney Tunes held fourth place.

After all was said and done, the volleyball tournament was considered to be a complete success. The over $4000 that was raised by contributions from spectators and participants alike will go directly to the Silver family. In addition, donations are still being accepted and collected. A great deal of credit must go to Anne Marrone, Senior Class President and organizer of the tournament, who worked long and hard to make the event a success. Special thanks also go to Mr. Fenster, Mr. Anziano, Miss Conrad, and Miss DiPrima for their outstanding help. Everyone has high hopes that Jason will get better, especially his parents, who are very optimistic about his recuperation.

We all wish Jason the very best and hope that our contribution will make a difference.
