Big Thank You From Little Girl

Christine Galante of Hicksville and dad Ronald J. Galante, a Grummanite, show king-size thank-you letter she wrote to Grumman, thanking the company for the wonderful time she had at the Grumman Family Day.

Nine-year-old Christine Galante of Hicksville, daughter of Ronald J. Galante, who works for interplant transportation at Grumman Aircraft Systems Division, went to Family Day at Grumman and really enjoyed herself. In fact, she enjoyed herself so much she sent a great big thank-you note, so big said Grumman recipients, that it didn't fit their mail box.

"...I went to Grumman Family Day with my father," wrote Grumman pen-pal. "I went to Plants 1 and 4. In Plant 3, I saw how they made parts for airplanes. I saw the wings of a plane. I watched the guards check everyone to see if they had their name tags on. I saw where they paint the parts for the planes. My father showed me the big trucks that bring the parts for the airplanes in.

"We went to see the place," she continued, "where they make the emblems that they put on the planes. They gave me some and I put them on my school books. I saw all the soda and candy machines for the people that work there.

"At Plant 4," she enthused, "I had ice cream and milk. I also got a frisbee. We went and listened to the band play. I saw the plane that flies over my house, the E-2C. I saw fire trucks and a real old plane. I saw the plane the bosses use.

"By then," she concluded, "I was really tired, so we got a soda and some potato chips and listened again. I want to thank Grumman for letting me see everything. Maybe someday they will let my school come and see all the things I saw. I had such a good time."

Thank you, Christine Galante.

Residents Oppose More Hicksville Parking Meters

By Michele Coyle

"With the constant escalation of commuter parking, we've (Hicksville) become one big parking lot," Eleanor Draycott, past-president of the Midland Civic Association told the Town of Oyster Bay Board during Tuesday morning's meeting. "There are 2,650 parking spaces here already. I realize it's a railroad town, but with the additional 60, there'll be over 3,000 spaces. I think it should stop."

The Board is considering reverting the 60 parking spaces located in Parking Field H-12 (at East Marie and Nicholai Streets) back to 12 hour metered spaces with a residency permit. The spaces are presently four hour parking spaces.

Supervisor Angelo Delligatti said that after H-12 was changed to four hour spots, the area was monitored for usage. He said commuter parking would make the most appropriate use of the spaces.

Councilman Thomas Clark agreed. "Too much (of H-12) was converted to business parking. Most people don't park that far away to shop."

Mrs. Draycott questioned the need for more commuter parking by pointing out the lack of usage of Parking Field H-7 (between W. Carl & Cherry Streets). "It's exactly the same distance from the station as H12," she said.

Councilman Clark explained that fliers had been left on car windshields to make people aware of H-7, "but for some reason commuters don't want to park there."

Mrs. Draycott offered some alternatives including setting aside an area near the eagle for Hicksville residents only. Supervisor Delligatti was unsure of the feasibility of such a lot legally.

She then suggested the use of another railroad station more convenient to commuters. "The MTA should not try to dig up anymore of our land or knock down any of our buildings or they are going to hear from us."

In other business, the board heard from Howard Avrutine, attorney for the Agway Petroleum Corp. located on Duffy Avenue. The firm petitioned the Board for a special use permit to operate an office in an Industrial H district.

Mr. Avrutine explained that while Agway had received a building permit for the office, the final inspection of the premises resulted in Agway being informed that too much office space was built.

Mr. Avrutine continued to explain that no variances were being sought and that the office was used in association with its fuel oil business.

When questioned about the number of vehicles on the premises, Mr. Avrutine said that Agway would house five 2800 gallon trucks and two 4400 gallon trucks. Additionally seven vans were taken home at night by employees, some of which are on call 24 hours.

Councilman Douglas Hynes noted that the Town of Oyster Bay and other Long Island Townships were currently wrestling with trying to decrease commercial vehicles in residential areas.

Barry Hains, a representative from Agway, explained that the vans were taken home by employees because of the 24 hour service. He noted that while every man was not necessarily on call, the company would put up no opposition to parking the vehicles on Agway property.

Supervisor Delligatti suggested Agway come up with a plan which would permit only men on call to take the vans home.

Before closing the hearing for a decision, Mr. Dwyer, a former Duffy Avenue resident, speaking on behalf of the Duffy Civic Association, told the board that the Agway building was "the nicest job done on Duffy Avenue in the last 10 years. Nobody has cleaned up the road like Agway did."

Traffic Changes Due At Local Mall

A proposed amendment to the Town's Motor Vehicles and Traffic Ordinance with regard to Broadway Mall, formerly known as the Mid-Island Shopping Plaza, will be the subject of a Tuesday, August 15, public hearing of the Oyster Bay Town Board, according to Town Councilman John Venditto.

"Under the current ordinance, the parcel is referred to as Mid-Island Shopping Plaza and should be amended to read Broadway Mall," Venditto explained. "Also, the new owners are proposing numerous changes to the existing facility and are requesting an amendment to the Motor Vehicle and Traffic Ordinance pertaining to the Broadway Mall."

The meeting is scheduled for 10 a.m. in the hearing room of Town Hall East.

Mark Cardella Named New School Bd. President

By Maureen Traxler

The Hicksville Board of Education held its annual reorganization meeting on Thursday, July 6. District Clerk Janet Ullrich administered the oath of office to the seven trustees, including newcomers on the Board, James Martillo and William Collins.

The first order of business was election of officers for the 1989-90 year. The trustees were unanimously elected as follows: President - Mark Cardella, Vice President - Daniel MacBride, Secretary - James Martillo, and Deputy District Treasurer - William Collins.

Board reorganization continued with the following highlights:
*Designations: Official Newspapers - The Mid Island Times, This Week (Pennysaver) and Newsday (for those emergency publications where legal notices and advertisements are required to be published twice in one week).

Official Depositories - National Westminster, Chase Manhattan, Manufacturers Hanover Trust, Bank of New York and Chemical Bank.

*Appointments: Tina Inocco - District Treasurer, Marie Egan - Purchasing Agent, Dorothy Pelletier - Internal Claims Auditor.

Gregory Guercio - Legal Counsel, and the firm of A.W. Oldehoff & Co., Central Islip, as the district's independent auditing firm for the 1989-90 school year.

*Annual Meeting/Budget Vote - Wednesday, May 23, 1990.

*Schedule of Regular Meetings established as follows: August 9, August 30, September 27, October 25, November 21, December 20, 1989, and January 24, February 27, March 28, April 25, May 23 and June 20, 1990.

*Board Committee Meetings - Trustee Pat Rooney suggested a change in the schedule of committee meetings, since the present schedule poses difficulties for those members of the community who wish to attend all committees. Superintendent Fenton suggested adding to the end of the Curriculum meeting agenda any Policy and Legislative items if necessary, and adding to the end of the Finance Committee agenda any Facilities items if necessary. The committee meetings will continue to be held from 8 to 10 p.m. on the Wednesday preceding the regular board meeting.

*Adoption of all board policies, rules and regulations in effect on June 30, 1989.

*Continuation of membership in the following organizations: Hicksville Chamber of Commerce, Hicksville Community Council, Nassau Citizens Budget Committee, Nassau-Suffolk School Boards Association, National School Boards Association, Nedw York State

This Issue

This issue is complete in three sections.

The first section contains all of the local news and photos for the week.

The second part is the Summer Car Care Edition prepared for your consideration with related editorial content and local advertising. This edition is just one of 15 special sections included at no extra cost to subscribers.

The third section is Discovery Magazine which contains something for the entire family - columns, restaurants, antiques and children's features. Discovery is a regular feature magazine of this newspaper.

Mark Cardella Named New School Bd. President

School Boards Association and the New York State School Boards Association.

The Board of Education, at its regular meeting following reorganization, approved a letter of intent for the opening of Asbestos abatement bids to take place on July 11, 1989. Bids may not exceed $900,000, and will cover work to be done prior to the school opening date of September 6.

The Board nullified bids for a food service management program for 1989-90, due to information which came to light regarding a bidder. Other action items included:

*Approval of a $1,587,515, BOCES contract for cooperational education services for the coming school year. The contract includes occupational education, environmental and cultural arts programs, the foreign language immersion program and interscholastic athletics. The contract also includes computer services for payroll and district special education programs.

*Unanimous approval of Policy #5291 - Students with HIV related illness. Commenting on policy 5291, Assistant Superintendent Dr. G. Robert Couillard stated that in the past society stressed defining its rights against individuals with AIDS or HIV related illness. The Board's new policy protects individuals against society and provides that "no student will be denied the opportunity to attend school, continue his/her education or take part in school-related activities solely on the basis of being diagnosed as having AIDS or HIV infection."

The policy provides for the superintendent to "establish and implement, and all school personnel must comply with, guidelines and routine sanitary hygiene procedures...In addition, the superintendent must provide appropriate inservice education and training for all school personnel."

*Approval of the nomination of Iris Wolfson to a two-year term as Area II Director, New York State School Boards Association.

In the Superintendent's monthly report to the Board, Dr. Catherine Fenton requested permission to make staff adjustments to strengthen the district's educational program. The Board granted permission for Dr. Fenton to add a guidance counsellor at the high school and two librarians at the elementary level, returning the librarians at Woodland Avenue, Willet Avenue, Dutch and Fork Lane schools to full-time positions.

Dr. Fenton also asked, and was granted, permission to apply for participation as a pilot district in the New York State Regents School Improvement and Accountability Program (RAIAP). The State program calls for individual school buildings to develop their own educational management plan. Each building's annual report is linked to its own five-year plan for developing excellence in the school.

Trustee JoAnn Miltenberg commented that State Assemblyman Fred Parola is proposing lottery reform. Mrs. Miltenberg described the State's present "informal" policy on aid to school districts as "giving with one hand and taking away with the other." She added that the purpose of Parola's lottery reform would be to redirect lottery money to districts so that it "will be in addition to our State aid, instead of in lieu of what the government takes away."

In an interesting move to open the Board to public commentary on action items, newly-elected Board President Mark Cardella suggested adding ten minutes of public session between action agenda items.

After review by counsel Greg Guercio and discussion by trustees, it was decided that in formulating meeting agendas, the president and superintendent may insert time for public comment. If the board wishes to change that agenda on the meeting date, it can vote to do so.

The trustees acknowledged desire for public input. President Cardella stated, "Let the community have input on items they wish."

Trustee William Bennett said that the introduction of public time between each action item would "disrupt the orderly flow of business," and that the community should not be allowed "to participate in the work of the board." Mr. Bennett stated that the agenda already includes two public sessions, one prior to the action section of the agenda and one at the end of the meeting, and he cautioned that inclusion of additional public commentary could lengthen the board meetings.

In the general public session that followed, resident Donna Martillo suggested starting the meetings at 7:30, instead of 8:15 p.m., and Jo-Ann Broska said that this additional input may alleviate the anxiety of some residents "who sit by waiting to get in their voice or add an opinion."

Former Board member Larr Wolfson commented that, yes, the board has a responsibility, and yes, it must be sensitive to the public, but he stated that he is sure the members will hear from the public on important issues, "without creating a circus atmosphere" at public board meetings.

The next regular meeting will be held on Wednesday, August 9, at 8:15 p.m. in the conference room of the Administration Building.

Visiting Nurse Honored

Visiting Nurses Association of Oyster Bay - Glen Cove in conjunction with Molloy College and funded by Town of Oyster Bay Community Development Fund, will sponsor on July 14 a "Wellness Screening" at Plainview-Old Bethpage Library from 12 to 6 p.m. This is FREE to the public.

The VNA of Oyster Bay is a non-profit certified home health care agency that has been providing services in the area for over 70 years. "Wellness Screening" is a program designed to reach out to the most underserved population, the 20-60 year old, low-middle income residents. These are wage earners and "family rearers," whose illness would have the most devastating affect on their children, parents, and community as well.

This computerized program has the capability of detecting the hi-risk life style factors for the following: diet and nutrition, physical fitness, smoking, alcohol use, auto safety, stress, occupational health and environment, immunizations, blood pressure, pap test, breast self examination, birth control, heart attack and diabetes. Early identification of hi-risk areas allow for medical attention where necessary and behavior modification.

"Wellness Screening", is a tool that can promote the understanding of the relationship between daily living patterns and good health.

Editor's Notebook

The engineers, scientists and public officials who guard the region's water supply are unanimous in their opinion that Long Island's public water supply is safe to drink, but in a poll some of them express concern and frustration that the public is not getting that message. The poll was conducted by the H2M Group, a consulting engineering firm and analytical laboratory.

Some 63 percent of the respondents believe the public is confident, 21 percent said no and 16 percent could not provide a definite answer either way.

Of the 21 percent who said the consumer does not have confidence in the water that comes from the public supply, they listed the following as potential reasons: extraordinary media coverage; adverse publicity by bottled water and filtration companies; cancer fears; the use of our region's water supplies as an issue by environmental activists.

Of those polled, 88% believe that a general education campaign on the issue of water quality is needed. While 8% believe such a program to be unnecessary and 4% gave no answer.

James Mulligan, of the Nassau County Department of Public Works, stated, "People have to understand the difference between whether the water is safe to drink and some of the aesthetic problems such as the way water tastes and looks, such as when Chlorine is added, or Iron discolors the water supply. There is also a misconception that the bottled water is safer than public water. Water out of the tap is as safe as bottled water."

Of those favoring an education campaign, 79 percent believe it should be part of the school curriculum and 67 percent believe the public should also be provided with a regular mailing on the issue.

Phil Barbato, Regional Water Quality Engineer for the New York State DEC, stated, "I would make people more aware of what the contaminant sources might be and how important they are. The most important contaminants are solvents and degreasers, petroleum products and nitrogen."

Howard Hermann, Water Project Manager - Cornell Cooperative Extension of Nassau County: "I would make people more aware of the fact that the water supply here and in other places is very closely monitored to keep it safe, and that the monitoring is done through third party labs which are state certified labs."

A majority, 54 percent, believe the public's true understanding of water issues is spotty, while 25% believe it is fair, 17 percent think it is poor and 4 percent believes the public has a comprehensive knowledge.

When it comes to lead solder contaminating household water, 58 percent of the respondents felt the public is not sufficiently aware. In addition, 54 percent believe that the use of new technology in setting tougher water standards is contributing to public confusion on our water quality.

There was nearly unanimous agreement on the next question: "Do you think the public realizes that drinking water standards are set far more stringently than food standards at 1/10, 1/100, or 1/200 of those food standards? (depending on the chemical) Of those responding, 96 percent answered no and 4 percent stated yes.

Wins $24,000 Grumman Scholarship

Russell C. Singer

Russell C. Singer of Plainview, valedictorian of the 1989 graduating class of Bethpage High School, has won a $24,000 Grumman Science and Engineering Scholarship.

The award includes $6,000 a year for four years toward tuition at any accredited engineering college the winner chooses. Singer will study computer science or electrical engineering at Columbia.

Grumman annually awards 12 such scholarships. This year, six went to dependents of Grumman employees and six to non-dependents. Ten of the winners were from Long Island and two from off-island sites where Grumman has facilities. As always, graduates from public and private high schools were eligible.

In addition to ranking first in his class academically, Singer was active in a wide range of other activities. He helped rewrite his school's constitution and participated in student government. He was co-editor-in-chief of the school newspaper, was in a number of clubs, won awards in science and math and was president of the Principal's Cabinet of the student council. He also took college-level courses in several subjects.

Athletically, he won a varsity letter for tennis and a letter for junior varsity soccer.

He is the son of David M. and Iris Singer. His dad is credit manager of Hearst Magazines, and his mother, a vice-president of Chase Manhattan Bank.

More Trucks Added To SORT Prog.

In preparation for the final expansion of the S.O.R.T. residential recycling program, the Oyster Bay Town Board today authorized the purchase of three additional Labrie recycling trucks according to Town Supervisor Angelo A. Delligatti. The Town's recycling fleet currently consists of 16 trucks.

"These vehicles will enable the Town's recycling Bureau to implement the weekly collection of recyclables in all remaining areas of the Town's solid waste disposal district," said the Supervisor. "We expect completion of the expansion by early next year."

The areas scheduled to be brought into the S.O.R.T. program include the villages of Farmingdale and Laurel Hollow and the Syosset Sanitation District. Additionally, communities within the disposal district that are serviced by private sanitation collectors, as well as the village of Massapequa Park, will also be brought into the Recycling Bureau's collection program.

"This expansion of our S.O.R.T. program to all areas of the disposal district will ensure maximum efficiency and productivity of our Town-wide recycling efforts," said Supervisor Delligatti.

CONGRATULATIONS are in order to Syosset's Babe Ruth League Baseball team. They won the Nassau County Championship and are now competing in the New York State finals. Good luck to them all....WE HEAR that more than golf balls were sailing through the air at the TOB Golf Course the other night. Quarter size hail stones pelted the area and heavy winds uprooted hundreds of trees. More than 25 trees were destroyed and several were seared by lightning. All this took place on Friday, July 7, and the course was closed to the public on Saturday to clean up the mess....TOWN finally approved an ordinance cracking down on abandoned vehicles. The violation will be punishable by a fine of $250 to $1000 and/or not more than 15 days in jail. The only defense will be if the last owner of an abandoned vehicle has filed a theft report with the appropriate police agency. Now that we have it, let's hope it's enforced....LILCO has come up with a new enlarged, magnified statement for those with impaired vision. Guess those magnifying glasses can get put away now....TEENS interested in applying to the Miss Teen All American Pageant can do so by first competing in the Miss New York State contest which is now underway. They must be 13 thru 19 as of June 1, 1990. Additional entry information can be obtained by sending a recent photo, your name, address and telephone number, plus date of birth to: Miss N.Y. State Teen All American, Dept. B., 40 Central Park S., Suite 2H, N.Y., N.Y. 10019....SOCCER buffs take note: The United States National Youth Soccer Championships will be held at Michel Park Athletic Complex on July 26, 27, 29 and 30. Teams from as far away as Texas and California will play and an exhibition game between a team from Glasgow, Scotland and State Select All-Stars will kick off the event. For further information, call 542-4440....GOOD NEWS for 16 year olds! For the first time ever they will be eligible to work as lifeguards at Nassau County's municipal pools. Training begins July 17-21 from 4-7 each day. Pre-registration is suggested by calling during business hours 542-4436....UKRAINIAN/American Night will feature the Voloshky Dance Ensemble at the Harry Chapin Lakeside Theater in Eisenhower Park. The performance begins at 8 p.m. and is free. In case of inclement weather call for a recorded update on the latest concert information at 542-4585 after 6 p.m....NEW Curb-to-curb transportation service for physically challenged residents of Nassau County will begin operation on Monday, July 17. The service, called "Able-Ride" will provide free transportation to people who, due to their physical disabilities, are unable to use the public bus system. Applications are available from the Nassau County Office of the Physically Challenged, 1550 Franklin Avenue, Mineola, N.Y. 11501 or by calling 535-6910. After filing the necessary applications along with a physician's certification, special ID cards will be issued....THE CRIME REPORT is published each week as a public service to alert residents of where crime is going on in the area and as an aid in the Neighborhood Watch program. Anyone seeing suspicious activity should phone 911.BURGLARS broke into Nautilus Pools 1117 Old Country Road, Plainview on July 5. They pried open a front door to gain entry and stole radio pagers....A REAR window of the Fork Lane School, Hicksville was pried open on June 26. No loss was reported....THE REAR door of Ergo Bakery 546 Stewart Ave., Bethpage was pried open on July 5. New OTB Site To Be Reviewed

A new Off-Track Betting parlor planned for Hicksville will be discussed at an informational meeting to be held at the public library on Wednesday, July 19.

The OTB will be located on the northwest corner of Bethpage and Woodbury Roads, the site of the old Shell gas station across from Princess Bridal.

Donald Kehoe, Director of Corporate Affairs, Nassau

Downs-OTB, says that he "does not envision this as a large site." The sunken tanks have been removed from the property, and plans proceed for opening in late August.

Mr. Kehoe will attend the informal meeting on the 19th to answer any questions residents may have, including landscaping, parking and building decor. The meeting will begin at 8 p.m. at the library, 169 Jerusalem Ave..

Hicksville Vets At Tobay Program

Hicksville was well represented in the 1989 Town of Oyster Bay Independence Day program at Townsend Park, Oyster Bay. Turning out for the annual ceremonies and patriotic procession of the Stars and Stripes and veterans post banners were members of the Hicksville Post 421 of the American Legion; the Hicksville William Gouse Post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and the Robert O. Ulmer Post 44 of the AMVETS. Richard Evers of the Hicksville American Legion and a member of the TOBAY Bicentennial and Historical Commission, was the Parade Marshal.

Town Historian Dorothy Horton McGee, Chairman of the TOBAY Bicentennial and Historical Commission, once again organized and served as Mistress of Ceremony for the occasion. Commission members present included Dr. and Mrs. Howard Imhof, retired Oyster Bay Village Superintendent of Schools; Albert and Mrs. Wahnnon; Jack and Mrs. Sumroy; John and Mrs. Meyers and Richard and Anne Evers. Also present was Kevin Conelogue, liaison for the Commission with the Town Board.

Town Councilman Douglas Hynes was the principal speaker for this 213th Independence Day Celebration. Marking the Bicentennial of President George Washington's Inauguration in New York City, the nation's first capital, was a commentary and reading of excerpts from Washington's Inaugural Address by Dr. Howard Imhof, attired most appropriately in the costume of a Federalist Era leader. Town Supervisor Angelo Delligatti, who often graces the TOBAY July 4th celebration, was absent, doing the political honors at the Glen Cove festivities. Musical selections at the Townsend Park bandstand were provided by the Oyster Bay Community Band.

'My Dog'

I have a friend who cannot speak,
He can't tell time nor days of the week.

He cannot laugh, he cannot smile;
But he's kind and true all the while.

He stands by me through thick and thin,
When days are bright or even dim.

He bids me go and welcome back,
For his friendship, I never lack.

Some days when I am feeling blue,
He seems to sense that feeling too.

For he comes over by my side,
As though to say "In me confide".

Some days when I am feeling mad,
He takes it all - the good and bad,
But never holds a grudge with me,
'Cause he loves me more than I can see.

No truer friendship could I seek,
Then from my dog who cannot speak.
He knows my every joy and sorrow,
He's my best friend - today, tomorrow.

Official Donates To Blood Drive

Oyster Bay Town Receiver of Taxes Gary F. Musiello has his blood pressure taken, one of the preliminary steps to giving blood. Mary Plant, RN, of Long Island Blood Services takes the reading. In a recent drive sponsored by the Town, which is one of the two held annually, employees donated a total of 64 pints. The theme for this summer's blood drive by the Greater New York Blood Program, of which Long Island Blood Services is a member, is "Wanna' Play on My Team?" Musiello urged all residents to become a member of the team and donate blood during the summer, which is one of the heaviest times in terms of demand for blood and blood products.

Local Resident Named New V.P.

Norma Aschner of Hicksville was elected Vice-President of the Board of Directors of Literacy Volunteers of America-Nassau County, Inc. (486-2789), which recently moved to 250 Fulton Avenue in Hempstead. She began her first term on July 1, 1989. Ms. Aschner joined this local affiliate in October of 1984 when she took a Basic Reading Tutor Training Workshop sponsored by Grumman Corp. Immediately following the last session she began to work with a student and continued tutoring for 3 years. In addition she has been a member of the Board for over 2 years. LVA-Nassau County is a non-profit, community-service organization that trains volunteers to tutor adults in basic reading and writing skills or in conversational English. Tutors work with students on a one-to-one basis at a place and time convenient to both. Please call 486-2789 for information about being a tutor or needing one.

Youth Burned By Power Line

A 12 year old Plainview youth was injured when he fell from a tree in his rear yard after having made contact with a power line at about 6:45 p.m. on July 8.

Hillel Schreiner of 14 Shelter Hill Road in Plainview was playing with two other boys when he apparently came in contact with the power line and fell about 25 feet to the ground. The victim sustained 2nd and 3rd degree burns to both legs and a 4th degree (electrical) burn behind his knee. In addition 2 toes on his right foot were amputated.

He was taken to the Nassau County Medical Center in East Meadow and admitted in critical condition for surgery and treatment for his burns.

K Of C Holds Awards Night

The award was presented at the Lamb Council's Annual Awards Night on Thursday evening, June 29.

The Joseph F. Lamb Council No. 5723 Knights of Columbus, Plainview, held their Annual Awards Night on Thursday evening, June 29, in the school basement of Our Lady of Mercy in Hicksville. A large crowd of brother knights, their wives, families, and friends were on hand to witness the presentation of the various Awards to members of the Lamb Council for special achievements in the Columbian year of July '88 through June '89.

First of all, plaques were given to 12 members of the Council who had been selected throughout the year as "Knight of the Month". Then a special plaque was presented to P.G.K. Anthony (Tony) Iannuzzi, who was selected as "Knight of the Year". He and his wife Vivian live in Plainview and have raised two boys (eight grandchildren) and attend St. Pius X Church in Plainview.

Tony is extremely active in the Council. He is the Editor of "The Knight" which is the official monthly publication of the Joe Lamb Council. For many years he has done an outstanding job in this capacity and is ably assisted by his wife, Vivian. Tony is also the Humanitarian Chairman of the Council (Sick and Distress), and he is the coordinator of Church activities with the Council and St. Pius X. He joined the Knights of Columbus in 1945 (44 years ago) and has life membership. He was Grand Knight of the Lamb Council for 82/83 and he is a Director of the Lamb Council Devotee Club. We of the Lamb Council are certainly very proud of Tony to say the least.

The "Family of the Year" Award was given to brother Knight Robert (Bob) Andruzzi and his family. Bob and his wife, Maryanne, live in Plainview and have five children (2 boys and 3 girls) and one son-in-law. Many of the public may be aware of Robert Andruzzi, as he is the Deputy Commissioner of Public Works in the Town of Oyster Bay. He has been in the Lamb Council for four years but he has been very active, and at present is serving in the office of Recorder of the Council. For several years he has been the Chairman of the Picnic Committee. (Note: this year the picnic will be held on Sept. 10 at the Plainview/Old Bethpage Park.) Bob is the coordinator for the Council to help the St. Mary's and St. Christopher Homes to assist children with family problems or with no family at all. He collects money at Council meetings and at other functions for them. The Lamb Council is happy to have Bob as one of their members.

Deputy Grand Knight Josef Ort (present GK for 89/90) presented all of the awards and gave a short speech to each member honored. Food and beverages were served to all and it really was a gala night for the Joe Lamb Council.

Concert Pops At Plainview

A performance by the Concert Pops of Long Island will highlight the third week of "Music Under the Stars" programs for Plainview-Old Bethpage Community Park District residents, according to Town Councilman Thomas L. Clark.

The program, entitled "On Broadway II," will be held on Sunday, July 30, at the community park beginning at 8:15 p.m. In the event of rain, the performance will be held in the auditorium of Kennedy High School, Kennedy Drive, Plainview.

"Established in 1982, the Concert Pops of Long Island presents a blend of popular classics and Broadway show tunes all played with finely tuned precision that has made the group a favorite with audiences everywhere," Clark stated. "In addition to its own concerts, the Pops has provided music for the United States Figure Skating Championships at Nassau Coliseum and has appeared with Enzo Stuarti, opera great Robert Merrill and with Maxine Andrews of the Andrews Sisters."

For this concert, selections will include "Broadway Tonight," "Camelot," "Phantom of the Opera," "The King & I" and "Carousel."

For children, Annie Hickman will present her "All American Bug Show," an unusual blend of mime, dance and fantasy in which she transforms herself from one creature to the next weaving a tale and including the audience in the merriment. It can be seen at the community park on Monday, July 24, at 10:30 a.m.

Clark noted that both the "Music Under the Stars" series and the children's program are being sponsored by the Cultural and Performing Arts (CAPA) Division of the Town's Department of Community and Youth

Crime Prevention Activities Planned

On August 8, the Hicksville Youth Council will sponsor local activities, from 8 - 10 p.m., in celebration with National Night Out. This nationwide event is designed to heighten crime awareness, demonstrate the effectiveness of community crime prevention and send a message to criminals that our neighborhoods are organized and on the lookout for crime. All across America people will be demonstrating support by turning on their outside lights, locking up their homes and spending time outdoors with neighbors. The Hicksville Youth Council will also be conducting special events such as red ribbon tying around trees and lampposts, visits by McGruff, the Crime Dog, as well as forming a balloon release at 8 p.m. Organize your neighborhood and join the Hicksville Community and our nation in the fight against crime. For more information about National Night Out, or to volunteer for our balloon release, please call Christine at 822-KIDS.

DUTCH LANE FIELD DAY

'Get ready and "pull" ... screamed all the on-lookers at the Tug-O-War.

Boy Scouts Honor Troop Leaders

Row 1: Jamie Durkin, Kenny Yee, Glen Hinckley, Clinton DeClue, Scott DeClue, Andrew Corley, Kenneth Wheeler.
 Row 2: Thomas Galati, David Pagano, Jeffrey Gallin, Billy Irvine, Chris Rodgers, Jonathan Yee.
 Row 3: ASM Westley Villazon, ASM Mark Villazon, Scoutmaster Al Yee, ASM Kenneth Saint, Honorees: Tom Serrell, Bob Cady, ASM Steve Gallin, ASM Tony Saint, ASM Darien Odabasi.

At the May Court of Honor, Scout Troop 293 of the Hicksville United Methodist Church honored two very dedicated men, Mr. Robert Cady and Mr. Thomas Serrell.
 Mr. Cady has been involved in scouting leadership for fifteen years and Mr. Serrell has done the same for thirty-five years!

This special ceremony was kept a secret until the last minute, but the honorees knew something was up when they saw the tremendous turnout of family, friends, and former scouts.
 Mr. Serrell and Mr. Cady received plaques and gifts from those present and a profusion of telegrams, cards, and letters from friends unable to attend.

Both men made brief but moving speeches of appreciation in which they assured the gathering that they had no plans to retire for a long time!

H.S. Jr. Attends Boys State

By Richard Evers

Hicksville's Holy Trinity High School has a budding political winner in Christopher McCarthy, a junior classman who looked very good at this year's American Legion Boys' State program. Chris, who was sponsored by the Charles Wagner Post 421 to the esteemed program in mock government, was elected a County District Attorney, won an appointment to his Boys' State city's Board of Elections, and went on to be elected a State Senator from his city.

The outstanding Holy Trinity Diocesan High junior classman thoroughly enjoyed Boys' State's political science training through "role-playing": attending imaginary political party conventions and taking part in caucuses, getting nominated and campaigning for office among the elite youth from New York's 64 counties. Asked if he had any thoughts as to a career, Chris (whose father, Jerry McCarthy is a Nassau County police officer) replied, "I've been thinking of maybe trying for a career in government." And no wonder!

This year's American Legion Boys' State took place the last week of June on the campus of the State University at Cobleskill. The National program is over fifty years in existence, and Hicksville's Charles Wagner Post 421 has sponsored outstanding public and parochial high school juniors since 1938. Candidates for attendance at Boys' State are selected from among young men of the high school junior class who are known for scholarship and athletic participation, or scholarship and outstanding leadership and service to school. Students interested in being nominated for Post 421 consideration may make their interest in Boys' State known to their school principal, guidance counselor or social studies teacher, in the early spring of their junior year.

American Legion Boys' State participants traditionally have enjoyed enhanced success in attending our nation's service academies and more prestigious colleges and universities. The Congress and governmental bureaus of the U.S.A. have many Boys' Staters in their membership.

Members of Hicksville's American Legion Post and Commander Arlene Howard are proud and honored to have been able to sponsor Christopher McCarthy to Boys' State 1989.

WHILE YOU'RE HOME RELAXING...

THINK ABOUT SOME PEOPLE WHO AREN'T.

We know it's not the first thing on your mind when you're sitting quietly at home with your newspaper, but have you ever considered how much the security of your family's health depends on people you seldom, if ever, see?

Even as you're reading this, dozens of your neighbors are at work, making sure that medical care is only minutes away. The dedicated, well-trained volunteers and professionals that provide emergency medical services to the people of Nassau County are your first line of defense against illness or injury.

At Syosset Community Hospital, the doctors and nurses in our ER—specialists in emergency medicine—are ready to handle your emergency with some of the most modern equipment and facilities you'll find anywhere. And we're part of a network of metropolitan area hospitals that, together, can provide advanced care for severe burns or trauma.

Hundreds of people, all working to guard your family's health. They may not be uppermost in your mind, but they're a big part of your peace of mind.

Special Olympics Are Special Event

Special Olympics Are Special Events

By Ernest Warnken

"Special Olympics" are held all over the country. They were established during the administration of John F. Kennedy. Eunice Kennedy Shriver is national Chairman of the Board of Special Olympics, and R. Sargent Shriver is President.

Here in Nassau County, we hold our own Special Olympics track meet, and have done so for the past four years. The Nassau County Coordinator is Joan M. Cappel and the Sports Chairperson is Rosemary Mucci.

The Nassau County Special Olympics track meet is sponsored by many organizations, including the American Legion. The American Legion takes the responsibility of feeding the special athletes and their chaperones, and provides the color guard to lead the Olympics parade onto the field. Many Legionnaires marched holding the hand of a retarded athlete who didn't have a chaperone for the parade. In addition, the American Legion of Nassau County raises a substantial amount of money to help support this program.

Here is one of our special athletes holding the Olympics torch high after carrying it around the oval, to start the games.

The athletes forming behind the color guard, prior to opening ceremonies and the start of the Olympics events.

Joan Cappel busily checking the identification numbers of the special athletes, with the assistance of Rose Mucci (back to camera).

More of the special athletes, anxiously awaiting the beginning of the events.

Fran Grabowsky, Jr. Chairman of Unit 1132 of the American Legion Auxiliary, is shown here in her clown costume. Fran was one of the approximately 80 members of the American Legion, the Auxiliary, the Sons of the American Legion, and Junior members, who worked tirelessly to feed hot dogs, cold drinks, and other goodies to the special athletes and their chaperones. As you can imagine, Fran was one of the most popular of the American Legion "caterers."

One of the Special Olympics events being run. All the events are geared to the abilities of the special athletes. These youngsters are capable of running approximately 40 yards, which is the length of the race. In other events, such as the broad jump for example, the abilities of the participants may limit the measurement to inches.

Here, the Nassau County banner is carried past the reviewing stand. Saluting the Judges is Nassau County Commander Herb Blauert.

Abandoned Car Law Applies

In a move designed to give the Town and local police more control over the growing problem of abandoned vehicles, the Oyster Bay Town Board has approved an amendment to the Town's Code of Ordinances pertaining to the removal of parked or abandoned vehicles, according to Town Councilman Douglas J. Hynes.

"At a public hearing on June 20, the Board considered the amendment, which makes it illegal to abandon a vehicle on any public road, highway or public place in the Town," Hynes stated. "The violation is punishable by a fine of $250 to $1000 and/or not more than 15 days in jail."

Hynes noted that a defense against the fine will be if the last owner of an abandoned vehicle has filed a theft report with the appropriate police agency.

"The amendment also gives the Town's Highway Division concurrent authority with the Nassau County Police Department to remove abandoned vehicles from any public road, highway or public place during a snowstorm, flood, fire or other public emergency," Hynes stated. "The vehicle will be stored by the Highway Division until the owner/operator is located."

Before any vehicle is released, the owner/operator will be responsible for all costs of impounding and storing the vehicle plus any expense incurred from towing and removing the vehicle from the place where it was abandoned. The charge will be a lien on the vehicle and will be paid before the vehicle is released whether from the Town or the Nassau County Police Department.

The card to choose if you choose not to pay off your balance every month.

At 16.6%* and no annual fee, Consumers Edge® can save you a great deal.

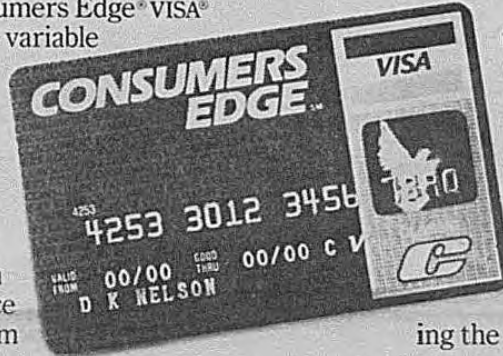

While other major banks have raised rates to as high as 19.8% A.P.R., and charge $20 or more in annual fees, Consumers Edge® VISA® card currently offers a low variable rate of only 16.6%. What's more, it comes with no annual fee.

Consumers Edge was specifically designed for people who don't pay off their full credit card balances every month. Which means even though finance charges are calculated from the date of purchase, you can realize substantial yearly savings over traditionally priced cards.

Just send in your application for the no-annual-fee Consumers Edge VISA card today. Or if you prefer, why not call us toll-free at 1-800-345-6482 and we'll be happy to give you more information.
