Test Lab Fire Labeled Arson

A recently fired employee has been arrested and charged with arson after he broke into the Municipal Testing Laboratory at 102 New South Road, Hicksville. The incident occurred on August 7. The Hicksville Fire Dept., under Chief of Department, Anthony Wigdzinski, responded to the scene at 9:59 p.m. with 12 units and 90 firefighters. Fire was coming out the windows and the Five firefighters were slightly injured during operations. Asst. Chief. K. Schweitzer - back - back injury, Rescue Capt. G. Gagliano minor burns, Resuce Lt. K. Brevogac - minor burns, Ex-Capt. D. Aiello, Co. #8 - debris in eye, Firefighter James Mize, Co. #8 heat exhaustion.

The disgruntled employee poured a flammable liquid in the building after he removed many expensive testing devices, and he and another person ignited the liquid. They then attempted to leave the scene but were blocked in by the first arriving fire units who were there in two minutes.

Later, as they tried to leave, an owner of the firm saw the missing company van driving away.

alerted fire marshals working at the scene and a brief chase ensued. After a few parked cars in a residential section off New South Road were struck, the two were arrested on the dead end portion of Ferney St., Hicksville. They were taken to Nassau County Police Headquarters in

The Bethpage Fire Dept. supplied a ladder truck and a rescue truck at the scene along with an ambulance from Plainview. Standing by at Fire Headquarters were units from Jericho, Plainview and Syosset.

Hazardous Materials Squad using their radiological equip-ment made several checks of the area. There were no readings or leaks. The equipment, using the radio active material, is well built and sealed to prevent damage. Damage was estimated at $300,000, building and contents. The firm was able to continue operations the next day operating

Hicksville Dist. Assessed Values Up

By Maureen Traxler

The Hicksville School District showed an increase in assessed valuation for 1990-91 in figures released August 1 by the Nassau County Department of Assessment. The total assessed value of the district has been set at $128,663,128. This reflects $2,997,972 increase from 1989-90.

The breakdown by class is as

Real Property Class One (homeowners) $63,600,748 Two (hotels 865,220

and condominiums) Three (public 8,822,880 Four (industrial/55,374,280 commercial) A higher assessed valuation means that some of the increased costs in the school budget are absorbed by the increase in the assessment roll. The Hicksville School District will continue to request that the Board of Supervisors, when setting the tax rate, grant a 5% additional reduction to homeowners, further lowering their tax rate.

Library Children's Room Program

The Hicksville Public Library Children's Room will present a program by Donna Green and Ellen Rosenstein for children 3-5 years old.

Aug. 29 Budget Revote For Hicksville Schools

By Maureen Traxler

The seven trustees of the Hicksville School Board last week unanimously approved a new budget figure of $51,584,000 to be offered to residents as the district's spending plan for 1990-91. The budget revote will take place on Wednesday, August 29.

Led by its two new members, Mrs. Carole Wolf and Mrs. Arlene Rudin, the Board shaved $1.5 million from the 53-million-dollar budget presented in May. The reduction does not effect staffing or programs for the coming school year.

The new budget figure is a 12.6% increase over the 1989-90 budget, down from the 20% increase reflected by the May proposal. The estimated tax rate increase would be $3.45 per $100 assessed

In making her motion to cut $1.5 million from the proposed budget, trustee Carole Wolf broke down the figure as follows: $500,000 from various codes, $745,000 from unencumbered funds and $255,000 from various 9000 codes. Unencumbered funds represent surplus monies and the 9000 code is a mixed bag of benefits, insurance and workers compensation; and code reductions will include elimination of requests for new equipment. Other items will be reevaluated downward since the budget actuals for 1989-90 came in lower than anticipated.
"$1.5 million seems reasonable," stated Mrs. Rudin, "It doesn't touch any programs and will give us a jump start for 1991-92. Preparations for the 1991-92 budget will begin in November. Vice President Pat Rooney asked for senior citizen, PTA and employee union support for the revised budget.

If the district is forced to go on an austerity budget under which the district is required to honor all negotiated contracts, continue all mandated academic programs and capital improvements, the estimated increase in the tax rate would be $3.16. Under austerity, bus transportation eligibility would revert to state guidelines and extracurricular activities would not go forward unless either a donation to cover the activity is received in advance or a public vote is taken to approve such an activitive.

Trustee William Bennett, who is committed to a fiscally sound school district and who worked with Mrs. Rudin and Mrs. Wolf on the reductions, expressed grave concern about reducing the district's "surplus funds" or "reserve." "Traditionally, Hicksville has kept a one-million-dollar plus buffer which helps to lower the tax rate for the following year and safeguard the integrity of the budget," stated Mr. Bennett. He cautioned the trustees to prepare the district in the likelihood that anticipated revenues from the state do not materialize in the future or the district is faced with an emergency.

Superintendent Catherine Fenton explained that in recent years the Boards of Education have planned a cushioned surplus in anticipation of "heavy litigation" against the district as a result of sex abuse cases (Messrs. Izzo and Fuerstein). "The money (for such litigation) comes from reserve," explained Dr. Fenton, and therefore, previous boards started planning in a "prudent way." "Maybe this isn't the year," she Trustees Wolf and Rudin proposed that in accordance with the law, the Board not retain more than 2% of the current budget as unexpended surplus. (In the case of a $51.5 million budget, that surplus would not exceed $1,031,000.) The Board approved the retention of a 2% surplus, and Mrs. Wolf and Mrs. Rudin asked that the reserve account be reflected by a line item in future budgets.

As part of the Board's commitment to financial reforms both within the district and on the state level, it began to discuss the formation of a citizens budget advisory committee. The Committee would be comprised of community members and would advise the Board and Superintendent. Dr. Fenton proposed a committee of approximately 12 persons who would meet occasionally on Saturdays. The Board seemed receptive to such a committee and advised Dr. Fenton to outline the makeup and direction of such a committee for future discussion.

One resident requested that the Board not eliminate "the taxpayer" as a member of the advisory committee. He added that "the taxpayer" must be included along with the senior citizen, civic and business associations and residents who represent the educational community as parents, teachers and administrators.

Several residents also asked the Board to include in their discussion of financial matters the possible closing of one or more schools.

In setting its goals for the coming year, the Board agreed to continue with the building site-based management plan to achieve excellence

Right Around Home

Back in the summer of 1987, there was a group of 12 year old guys from the Hicksville Baseball Association playing baseball in the williamsport Tournament. It was a big thing for them -- they were "all-stars" and they were playing in the international "Little League World Series." They moved up to sectional level when ... they lost. They went back to the dugout and when their coach approached, he saw them teary eyed and angry.

The coar someone thin self. He had to go in and say something to lift their spirits. Al Claccio had an idea.

Al told them how gifted they were; how blessed they were to be able to play baseball, to be all-stars. He said to the kids, "How'd you like to to play a carrity game to help raise funds for kids who maybe can't play baseball or who aren't so lucky?" And the boys got excited about their

From that start, a quickly mustered up face-off took place between two 12-year old boys teams, one from HBA and one from PAL, and mushroomed into the Hicksville Charity Tournament. The youngsters raised $500 for the Association for the Help of Retarded Children (Old Westbury), and the winning team, the PAL, received a trophy. The idea caught on.

The next year, the group expanded to include Hicksville's third major sports organization, the CYO, and in addition to moving the boys up to 13 year olds, they added 12-year old girls softball. Now the kids raised over $1,000 for AHRC; and in 1989, they raised $1,700 for

The charity adopted for this year's tournament is the Make-A-Wish Foundation (Port Washington). Make-A-Wish, through donations, grants "a wish" to terminally ill children.

The tournament by now has exploded into a community event. The ninety 12 and 13 year olds who will be playing sell $2 tickets (donations). Members and friends of the three rival leagues hoist up the white flag for the day and volunteer as umpires, field crew, concession workers, whatever is needed. All the day's profits from HBA's concession ("The Shed") and the money collected in sealed canisters provided by Make-A-Wish go directly to the Foundation. This year's goal: $4,000 or the equivalent to send two children and their families to Disneyworld for a week.

It will truly be a family day. Among the special treats in store will be the sound of Long Island Drum & Bugle Corps, Rainbow the Clown and her troupe, and the Nassau County Mounted Police to entertain and protect the crowd. The Boy Scouts will be there as color guard for the opening ceremonies, as will Mary Cinque, an opera singer, to sing the National Anthem, professional athletes, county and town officials and many kids from the Make-A-Wish Foundation. Players will be introduced individually as they walk out onto the field, just as in the professional World Series.

This year, too, the group will institute the Hicksville Heroism Award. First recipients will be Steven McDonald, the critically injured New York City Police Officer, and his wife and son, Patty and Conor. for their spirit and courage which matches the youngsters of the Make-A-Wish Foundation, and a local hero, Paul Jurgensen, a 1988 graduate of Hicksville High School who is serving with the 82nd Airborne Division. Paul, whose unit was involved in the initial invasion in Panama, is stationed in Germany. Paul's mom will be accepting his award because Paul has just received orders for Saudi Arabia.

The winning boys and girls teams will be given three-and-a-half-foot high trophies. The "Hicksville Stanley Cups," as they are proudly referred to, will be on display in the Hicksville Middle School, and a team picture will be added for 1990.

Donations - large and small are welcome, and town businessmen are encouraged to participate. Al Ciaccio promises that he will announce encouraged to participate. Al Ciaccio promises that he will announce the name and donation of local businesses from the podium on the day of the event. Any individual, group, business or organizations wishing to make a donation can do so by sending a check payable to Make-A-Wish Foundation, c/o Al Ciaccio, 1 Joseph Lane, Hicksville, N.Y. 11801. All donations go directly to the Foundation.

Al extends an invitation to any town that has a Little League or baseball program to come down to see what Hicksville is doing. He offers help to start up a program, and says, "I'd like to see this go countrywide.

Don't miss the day's happening, Saturday, August 25, beginning at 12 noon, at the Abe Levitt Complex, Stewart Avenue and Levittown

"This is the centerplece of Hicksville, the whole town coming out to raise money for charity," says Al, and he urges the community to continue to support "these ninety kids who do a great job for charity." Kids for Kids. Community Unity.

To the Editor:

At the Wednesday, August 8, meeting of the Board of Education, members of the Board voted unanimously for a second Budget Vote on Wednesday, August 29, from 10 a.m. - 10 p.m. Registration is Wednesday, August 22, from 3 - 8 p.m.

This was not an easy or hasty decision; it took 21/2 months of deliberation by our two new board members, our current board members and administration. The Budget was reduced by 1.5 Million Dollars. I believe that this is a fair and "bottom line" budget for the 1990-91 school year, therefore I urge the public to support it in order to preserve the education and well-being of our students and community Absentee ballots are available from the District Clerk's Office at the Administration Building on Division Avenue. Please obtain one if you are going to be on vacation or if you are a college student and will not be in Hicksville on that date.

Please vote YES on Wednesday, August 29.

Dear Fellow Citizens:

The most precious privilege of a free society is the right of electing officials to represent you in governmental positions (senator, councilman, school board members, fire and water commissioner, etc.). "It is no mystery ... that only 50% of eligible Americans voted in the presidential election of 1988 - the lowest turnout since 1924." (Do you think the S&L situation might change this?) These words are a direct quote from an article written on the National Voter Registration Act of 1990 which would make voting as easy as filling out a lottery ticket. On Tuesday night, August 7, a meeting took place at the Town Hall in Oyster Bay so sparsely attended by citizens, responsible governmental officials including Town, State and Federal leaders, (the County was represented!) that it was shameful indeed. Where are our leaders? Where are our concerned citizens. This meeting was mandated by Federal Superfund regulations before further action on the Hooker/ Ruco Site, one of the two superfund sites in Hicksville, could proceed. Every Federal law mandates public hearings and citizen input. But citizens now work 8 - 10 hours a day to pay their bills and high Long Island taxes. Governmental leaders get paid for their expertise, knowledge of laws and attendance at meetings. Thanks to the fine reference service of Susan Sword at the Hicksville Public Library, this writer was able to get the details to "Newsday" and they inturn wrote an excellent summation of this meeting. If the Hooker Corporation agrees to this plan, they will pay $1 million, and initiate a beginning solution to a ten year "fight" of environmentalists and concerned citizens. Your next chance to vote will be on August 30 when an incumbent water commissioner will run. These men are paid a paltry sum to represent us, but are our bulwark against the unwise use of

and accountability. Individual Board members also had personal goals which Dr. Fenton agreed to bring to the buildings to be considered as part of their yearly plans.

* Approved the appointments of two employees to new positions: Leslie Mann, former Mathematics Chair 7-12, to the position of Secondary Asst. Principal assigned to the High School, and William Gagnon, former Music Chair K-12, to the position of Director of Approved the transfer of the remaining balance in the Reserve for Oil Tank Replacement ($336,800) and the fund balance in the Teachers Retirement Fund ($734,000) to the Asbestos Management Reserve. With the movement of these funds, the Asbestos reserve would have sufficient funds to cover the award of bids for Phase II (1990-91).

* Approved the award of asbestos abatement bids in the amount of $1,248,100. This award is down from the expected second phase figure of $2.5 million. Awards went to Interphase Compliance Corp. ($859,660) - removal; Testwell Craig Laboratories ($88,640) - testing, onitoring and supervision; and Goldsmith Bros. Insulations Inc. ($299,800) - re-insulation.

Voter registration will take place at the regular polling places on Wednesday, August 22, from 3 to 8 p.m. Applications for absentee ballots are available at the administration building from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. Monday through Friday. No ballots will be mailed out after August 22. All ballots must be received back in the district by 5 p.m., on the evening of the revote. The polls will be open on Wednesday, August 29, from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m.

The next regular meeting of the Board will take place on election night at 9 p.m., in the high school cafeteria.

New Gallbladder Treatment At N. Shore Glen Cove

A new procedure for removing diseased gallbladders is now being performed at North Shore University Hospital at Glen Cove. Known as laparoscopic cholecystectomy, the technique involves the use of miniaturized instruments, a video camera, and a fiberoptic tube called a laparoscope to remove the organ through a minimal incision in the

The new operation, which had only been performed before by specially trained surgeons on the campus of North Shore-Cornell in Manhasset, is now being performed at Glen Cove by a surgeon who has also received extensive special training.

The new type of procedure, which leaves minute scarring because the surgery is performed through the belly button, has many advantages over traditionally used techniques. Hospital stays are shorter, as are recuperative periods, and the cost to the patients and health system is substantially reduced.

In addition to removing gallbladders, laparoscopic cholecystectomy can be used for the removal of an inflamed or burst appendix, and to make hernia repairs. The evident advantages are the same in all cases. With surgery patients, where appro-priate, have more options to choose from for the treatment of their diseases.

The availability of laparoscopic surgery is just one of the steps North Short University Hospital at Glen Cove is taking to improve the medical service it offers for the residents of the region.

HBA Post Season Play

The HBA Mid-Island tournament comprises of many age groups, from 8-year-old boys to 12-year-olds. It is non-competitive, which means that the children play the assigned teams in their division. There are many teams in each division and each game is played on an individual basis so there is no tournament winner.

The All-Star 9-year-olds "A" team won its fifth straight game by defeating Bethpage by a score of 10-2. The outstanding pitching by Tommy Kessler and Kevin Soper was supported by the entire team. Chris Swier went two for two, Anthony Vernace had a key hit driving in three runs and Chris Cannizaro drove in one. The defense was led by Brian Boyle, who made some outstanding plays at first, and Josh Strugatz and Chris Swier who played second.

In a previous win (4-3) against Bellmore, the team received superb pitching from Adam Geslak who struck out nine batters, walked one and gave up one hit. Peter Martin had a triple, Bryan Walker had a double and RBI, Chris Swier went two for two, Kevin Soper drove in two runs, and Anthony Vernace drove in one.

The boys are playing great baseball and scoring an average of eight runs a game, with a team batting average of .415. The Manager, Tom Boyle, and Coach, Gerry Swier, are very proud of their Team.

PROTECTION AGAINST BAD CHECKS

Nassau County District Attorney Denis Dillon says his office investigates and prosecutes many people who victimize individuals and small businesses in Nassau County by passing bad checks. He reminds residents that deliberately issuing a bad check is a crime.

The DA gives the following advice on how to protect yourself from bad check writers:

 Beware of strangers attempting to cash checks. Look for temporary addresses, such as hotels, post office box numbers, etc.

 Have the person sign the check in your presence and be sure to get the person's address, phone number and a credit card number on the back of the check.

 Insist upon proper and recognizable identification and examine it carefully. Make a note on the back of the check as to the person's physical description and motor vehicle operator's license number, (make sure it is a New York license). In order to bring a prosecution you must be able to I.D. the person who issued the check.

· When in doubt, don't cash a check. Ask the person to come back later with cash.

· Examine the check carefully. Check the date and amount making sure that nothing has been altered, erased or rewritten.

 Don't cash or accept checks for large amounts. Don't hesitate to call the bank on which the check is written. Do not accept checks on out-of-town banks.

 Do not accept third party checks or checks that are dated later than the date presented to you. Never agree to hold the check for any length of time before depositing it into your bank account.

· Be particularly careful in cashing or accepting checks on Friday nights, Saturdays and Sundays when you cannot call the bank on which the check is drawn. Don't make cash refunds before a check clears.

Legion $ Support For School Band

Helping make possible Sunday's departure of the Hicksville High School marching band for a week-long training session was a $1,000 donation by the Charles Wagner Post 421 of the American Legion. "We are very happy to assist our school band to take part in the week-long Band Camp at Stroudsburg, Pa.," said Commander Richard Hoehbreuckner this past weekend. "It is a major part of the American Legion's Children and Youth Programs to encourage and assist young people to develop worthwhile leisure-time interests and abilities."

As the Times goes to press, the Hicksville band members are engaged in an intensive week of perfecting their ability to march well, playing their instruments as they change formations.

The band required nonbudgeted financial assistance for its participation in the well-known Band Camp, this year, in that the Hicksville School District is still functioning on an "austerity budget" as a result of the 1990-91 school budget, in May.

House Fire Heavy Damage

A fire in a Hicksville house valued at over $500,000 caused extensive damage on the evening of August 10.

Hicksville Firefighters responded to neighbors' calls at 9:05 p.m. to 26 Alpine Lane. When they entered the home no one was found inside but the entire first floor contents were already destroyed. The fire had burned undetected for an unknown period of time. The fire has been termed suspicious until fire marshals can interview occupants who were in the home an hour earlier. Both front and rear doors were found unlocked and open.

Ten fire units, under Chief Anthony Wigdzinski, responded with 65 members. The home is actually two Levitt style homes joined together to form one large home, thus the $500,000 price tag. Neighbors stated the owners have been trying to sell the property but there were no takers for the property.
